She was completely overhau'ed in other respects by the local inspectors in New York before leaving the ways, and it was found that she was in as good condition as ever. The conclusion of the report with reference to the seawortay condition of the resel is in the following language:-"The evidence seems to be conclusive on this point, and the testimony proves that up to her sati-ing for the last time from New York she was a good, serviceable, seaworthy vessel." The details of the disaster as developed by the evidence are thus given with great minuteness. The final sinking of the ship being caused by the heavy sea forcing the forward gangway and pouring prent volumes of vator into the engine-room, which it was impossible to reheve the ship of, as there was no ship's carpeter on board, nor any apparatus for the purpose.

for the purpose. Captain Mew, in recapsing the testimony, arrives at the, conclusion that the principal cause of the disaster was an error of judgment on the part of the Captam, because, having strong premonitions of the storm, he might have avoided its main force by changing his course. He did not do so, however, but kept on his direct course, encountering the full tut kept on his direct course, encountering the full force of the storm in the evening. The report savs:--"It will be seen from the first hour the settled course of the storm was nor hward and it is tolieved that had the ship been headed weat early in the at-ternoon of Tuesday, the vessel might have been saved by escaping the full fury of the fempest, and rumming into a moderate gale on the other side of the Gulf Stream. This, it is believed, would have been the part of wisdom, if acted upon in season. But it is likewise certain that to attempt to run his ship after the gale had culminated in the hurricane, would have been a hazardous experiment, and his only chance for salety would have been to keep his wonthinker over a maintroots experiment, and my only chance for salety would have been to keep his ship's head to the sea, which, it is believed, might have been done by means of a drag, assisted by a little show of canvas on her mainmast. Nothing of the sort was even attempted, and from the time sho the sort was even atte fell off into the trough of the set, no effort seems to have been made to haul her up, after the rudder was secured, and the only means of safety in the judgment of the Captain seems to have been in keeping the ship free of the water which she shipped, by bailing, etc., in the hope that the storm might abate. It is a wonder that the vessel lived so long under these circumstances." these circumstances." — The report further says: "I confess to the belief in the poesibility of saving the vessel, she being so staunch in her hull, had there been a carpenter on board. The ultimate cause of her going down was the shipping of such immense quantities of water through the oreaches in her upper works on the starboard side. Whether Captain Knapp would have been led to adopt expedients for getting the ship's head to wind or sea had he had a larger crew. hese circumstances. it is impossible to say; but taking into considera tion his long experience at sea and his reputation as a seaman, it is difficult to account for the fact of his not having done so, excepting on the ground of the evident inability of any such a tent with so weak a crew. Indeed, with the iew seamen at his disposal in such a gale, he must have tolt himself comparatively helples." The report in conclusion says:--"It swes me much satisfaction in being able to state that the Inspectors in New York, who are isound in displayed that whole dury in the practical men, discharged their whole dury in the nepection of the Evening Star in August last.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has called the attention of the revenue officers to the fact that the law requiring monthly returns from Bureaus, since the use of stamps has been adopted for the payment of the tax, must be so administered that the stamp will be a protection additional to those afforded by the old law, and not merely a substitute.

He states-To this end a monthly return should be insisted upon, and the same care should be taken as under the former law to ascertain its correctness. The number of stamps purchased by the brewer during any month should be ascertained from the Collector, and il insufficient for the payment of the tax upon the fquantity brewed and removed, an immediate investigation should be had.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., February 25, 1857. H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist :-

Dear Sir :-- I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, biadder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief. Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract of Buchu I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedics, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless l knew of the ingredients. As you advertised that it was oned of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent com mation, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with a druggist, I con unded to try it. 1 commenced its use about eight onths ago, at which time I was confined to my room . From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks, was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a cure. knowing that t would be or greater value to you and and more satisfactory to me.

I AM NOW ABLE TO REPORT THAT & CURE IS EFFECTED AFTER USING THE REMEDY FOR FIVE MONTHS. THAVE NOT USED ANY NOW FOR THREE MONTHS, AND REL AS WELL IN ALL RESPECTS AS I EVER DID. Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I to not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections,

Of those elected in 1864 as Republicans, eight Noell, Mo .: Latham and Whaley, West Vir-Raymond, N. Y .; Smith, Rousseau, and inia Randall, Ky .: Phelps, Md.) acted this year on the most important questions with the President and the Democrats, against the majority of Congress, making the relation of parties for the emainder of the Thirty-ninth Congress, 122 radical Republicans against 41 Democrats and onservatives.

From this statement it will be seen that, in the new issue which is now gefore the country, we thus far gained six members. probably lose one or two members in the election or members of Congress to be held in 1867, but in ase Colorado and Nebraska should be admitted this loss would be balanced by the members elect from these two States. It may, therefore, be regarded as certain that the Fortieth Congress will be better than the Thirty-ninth. Several of the districts carried by the Demo-crats (Twelith Pennsylvania, Thirteenth Ohio, Second and Fourth Indiana, Second and Third Maryland) are likely to be contested by Repub licans on account of a large number of frauduent or illegal votes having been cast, and thus the radical ranks in Congress may gain a rew additional members.

"The Man Who Draws the Opera House,"

Last week was an unusually busy one with the Crosby Art Association. The great picture "Washington Irving and his Friends," by Schuessele, is expected daily, and will be imme-diately placed on exhibition in the gallery. An unfinished proof of the chromo-lithograph from Cropsey's "Autumn" also arrived, and is pro nounced by connoissenrs to be a very succ reproduction of the original. New clubs have also been formed, and rapidly increasing orders for tickets are coming in. Having run the gauntlet of the entire secular press, the distribution has now got into the literary papers. Even that fastidious critic, the Round Table, having just breakfasted on "Griffith Gaunt," has subscription book, to see who the people are who have bought several hundred dollars' worth of tickets, and to speculate upon the possible winner. There are not wanting people who could avail themselves of the opera house with peculiar satisfaction. Mr. Johnson, for instance. could hold his anti-radical Congress in it. just as Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton could assemble a strong-minded body of stateswomen to legislate upon what they pleased. Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby or Henry Ward Beecher might make a very successful season of politicoreligious theatricals, and it would be nightly in request if it fell to the lot of Parson Brownlow, General Butler, George Francis Train, Colorado Jewett, the Count Johannes, Daniel Pratt, the great American traveller, or the Hon. Jack Rogers. It is probable, however, that its destination will be far more commonplace. Perhaps it may go to one of those associations, of which the West is inll, wherein a hundred or more persons have clubbed their tickets under a pledge of equal division in the event of the success of either of the associates."- Chicago 2umes.

business on Broad street, received a request from a Mr. Wheeler, who appears to have been connected with the above-named mining com-pany, for a loan of $7000 for Mr. Riley, the reputed President of the Company, until next day, and offering to leave stocks of the Downie sille Gold Mining Company as collateral security, and also stating that Mr. Riley had the control of all the stock of the concern.

The loan was granted, but when the money came due it was not paid, and then the Broad street firm, in attempting to realize from a sale of the stocks, discovered, to their mainte sur-prise, that the market was full of the same paper, with sellers eager to part with their ele-phant. The result has been stated. Before night the stocks were worthless, and thousands of dollars were lost in the twinkling of an eye, How much has been sunk cannot be told at present, but it is known that one person held $22,000, while two others suffered to the extent of $10,000 and $13,000 respectively.

The victimized parties did not propose to submit tamely to the loss of their property, and a civil suit was immediately instituted against Mesors, Riley and Wheeler for obtaining money under false pretenses, and they were arrested by a deputy sheriff and lodged in the county jail in Ludlow street. An arrangement was sub sequently effected with the prosecutors by which Riley and Wheeler were released from imprisonment: but they were rearrested vesteriay and held in default of $13,000 ball each. Thus the matter rests for the present; but it it highly probable that further developments will be made, showing the ease with which worthless stocks can be foisted upon the business community. It is stated that the secretary of the Mining Company, Mr. J. C. Hariot, is not implicated in the transactions Another version of the affair is that the managers of the Downieville Mining Company gave orders to ten or lifteen brokers to buy up large quantities of their stock, and then they sold to the same brokers, through other men, the identical stock-thus bulling their own order-at $2'75. They also failed to pay for the stock bought.-N. Y. Herald.
