SUIT FOR THE POSSESSION OF A LETTER SUIT FOR THE POSSESSION OF A LETTER MACK GROBGE WASHINGTON—THE FIRST TROOP, FRILADELIHIA CITY CAVALRY.—Mr. Waln, Solicitor for the First Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry, has filed a bill in the Supreme Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of obtaining possession of a letter sent by "George Washington to the Troop, January 25, 1777." The complainants say:—First. That some time in the year 1774 a military company was formed by the association of twenty-six gentlemen, residents of the city of Philadelphia, under the name of the Philadelphia Troop of Light Horse, for the defense and vindication of the rights of the country, then threatened by the rights of the country, then threatened by the arbitrary legislation of Great Britain, etc.; said organization was officially recognized by the military authorities until the 4th of April, 1803, on which day it was incorporated, under the title of "The First Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry," by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania.

Second. That the gentlemen composing the said Troop served voluntarily and without pay, furnishing their own horses and equipments, during the several trying campaigns of the Revolutionary War, from 1776 to 1783, and during all that time, by their gallantry and discipline, gained the appropriate of the life trying campaigns. pline, gained the approbation of the illustrious Washington, as Commander-in-Chief, and enjoyed his friendship during the subsequent years of peace until his death. They have since participated by active service in the Wars of 1812, '13, and '14, and during the Rebellion to 1813, '13, and '14, and during the Rebellion in 1861-2. Third. That during the campaign of 1777, the then Captain and first officer of the Troop, Samuel Morris, received an official letter from General Washington, as Commander-in-Chief, dated January 23, 1777, at headquarters, which sa d letter was an official letter from the highest officer of the armies to the official head or offi-cer in command of the said Troop, and con-taining an order regulating the disposition of said Troop, and expressing the thanks of the General to "the gentlemen who compose the Troop, for the essential service they have ren-dered their country."

Fourth, That said letter, which they pray may be taken as part of this bill, was directed to the "Philadelpala Troop of Light Horse," then under the command of Captain Morris, which said comoany is the same since incorporated as "The First Troop Philadelphia City Cavalry," and being an official order to the Troop, and fixing its rights and duties in military law and usage, it properly and of right belongs to the Troop and to its rellitary archives.

Fifth, That said letter was received by Captain Morris, in trust for the use and benefit of the Troop, and as their property; and that they are informed and believe that said original letter has recently come into the possession or istody of the defendants, Messrs. S. B. and E. P. Morris. The complainants therefore ask that the original letter may be produced and delivered to the Troop as their property. The following is a copy of the original letter referred to:—

"The Philadelphia Troop of Light Horse, under the command of Captain Morris, having performed their tour of duty, are discharged for

"I take this opportunity of returning my most sincere thanks to the Captain, and to the gentlemen who compose the Troop, for the many essential services which they have rendered their country, and to me personally, during the course of this severe campaign. Though composed of gentlemen of fortune, they have shown a noble example of discipline and subordination, and in several actions have shown a spirit and bravery which will ever do honor to them, and wilt ever be gratefully remembered by me.

"George Warnington.
"Headquarters. Morristown, Jan. 23, 1777."

THE REVENUE FRAUDS .- On Saturday, a further hearing was had in the case of Martin Solomon and L. W. Holladay, dealers in snuff and tobacco, charged before United States Commissioner Sergeent with defrauding the Revenue Department.

Edward N. Cohn was called to the stand and testified in substance that he is a box-maker, and that he had an interview with Mr. Helliday at his establishment, in Ledger place, and was asked by him if he could fix up boxes which had contained snuff and which had been sent back. tops on them and all the marks erased upon them except the inspection, marks. Mr. Solomon was present on one occasion when witness had an interview with Mr. Holladay, and asked as to the price of the alterations. The boxes, to the number of one hundred and thirteen, were taken to snop of Mr. Cohn and altered according to directions. New tops were put on them, and all but the inspection marks removed. Witness was present at Mr. Holladay's shop and saw one of the boxes opened, and said that it contained snuff in bottles; he saw St. Louis on some of the boxes, and they had a dirty ap-pearance, as if they had been shipped to distant

A. B. Sloanaker testified that he had been informed of the use of boxes a second time, with the inspection marks upon them, and had made, under direction of the Revenue Department, a seizure of all the property at Mr. Holladay's place, and also at the store of Messrs. Crossman & Solomon. At the latter establishment one of the altered boxes was found. On the evening of the seizure Mr. Holladay called on the witness and said that he would do anything ito expedite the investigation; that he was merely employed to pack the snuff; and that he was doing it for Crossman & Soloman and W. Garrett & Co.
The Collector visited the storekeepers, Crossman & Solomon, and passing into the countingroom, asked if any of the firm of Garrett & Co. was present, and an old gentleman bowed affirmatively. Martin Solomon informed him that two firms were doing business in the place, and he trusted the seizure would not affect the business or credit of either; witness examined the stock and made a seizure of it; all of it was afterwards delivered except that portion which did not bear inspection marks.

At a subsequent interview between the Collector and members of the firm of Solomon & Crossman, he understood that Martin Solomon was a member. This, however, is denied; he is said to be the agent only.

After the examination of the witnesses, the counsel for the defendants argued that there was no violation of the revenue law, as Mr. Holladay was only using boxes in which snuff had been shipped to St. Louis, and sent back again, and on the contents of which the tax had been paid. The United States District Attorney took a different view of the matter, and argued that the revenue law had been violated; as to whether the testimony was sufficient to comect Mr. Solomon with the offense, it was for the Commissioner to say.

Mr. Sergeant said he would examine the testimony and give his decision to-day.
