FRIGHTFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

AN EXPRESS TRAIN THROWN OFF THE TRACK BY CARELESS LABORERS—FOUR PERSONS KILLED AND FORTY WOUNDED.

ERIE, Pa., November 13 — One of the most terrible railroad accidents which has ever occurred in this section of country took place on the Buffalo and Frie Railroad to a afternoon, at about 4 o'clock.

A gang of workmen had been emiloyed in repairing the track about a mile east of Wesleyville, and had removed two rails in so doing. Although fully aware that the New York express train was due, they took no precaution to warn the train, which came on at the speed of th rty miles per hour on the down grade. When within a few rods one of the workmen ran back and swung his hat, but was either unperceived by the engineer or it was too late. The next moment the engine struck the track, and the engineer, who took in the situation at the same instan), reversed the locomotive.

The train was instantly thrown from the track down the embansment, a distance of some ten or litteen feet, breaking some of the cars into splinters. and piling them with the passengers into a confused heap. For a time the excitement was so great that very little help was rende ed. The cries of the wounded and the certainty that some had been killed outright, seemed to momentarily benumb the faculties of thos, who had escaped without injury. After a short time of indecision the passenger who were able, together with the workmen, applied themselves to the work of rescaing those who were buried beneath it. Four dead bodies were taken from the wieck—three men and a chi d. The calid's mother was also taken out, so severely injured that there is no probability of her surviving. Some forty or fifty, perhaps more, were wounded, most of them sightly.

As soon as word reached this city two cars were sent down for the wounded, a portion of whom, together with the dead, were brought here and placed in the depot. The cars were again despatched, and brought up the remainder of the wounded and The bodies were paced in the Superintendent's room, at the western end of the depot, and were visited by hundreds of excited and curious spectators. The scene was a sad one.

The names of the dead, as far as I am able to learn, were as follows:—Dr. Wheeler of Mitwausee, and his httle grandchid; a man named thint, who was dressed in the garb of a soldier, from Danville, N. Y.; and an elderly man named Harian, place of residence unknown. Several others were internally injured, but it was impossible to obtain an accurate list on account of the confusion and excitement attendant on the occasion. One little girl had ber arm so badly crushed as to require amoutation. I saw several little children, among them two babes, with bloody bandazes and handkerchiefs tied about their heads and limbs. One man was injured so badiy in the region of the stomach that he cannot survive. Six of the wounded —four men. a woman, and child—were left at Wesleyville. They will be brought up to-morrow

The causes which led to the accident were those of the grossest and most criminal carelessness on the part of the workmen, every one of whom, and chiefly the boss of the gang, should be indicted for

There is no excuse for them; they knew the train to be due and did not take the precaution to send back a flag to stop it or resort to any other means to prevent the terrible catastrophe which it must have teen evident would happen. No blame is attached to the engineer or conductor in charge or the train. -N. Y. Tribune.

The Latest Attack on Matamoras—Caravajal and Canales thought to be Adherents of Ortega.

BALTIMOBE, November 13 .- Details of the Ric Grande news to the 2d are to hand. The latest attack on Matamoras—that of 31st October—appears to have been a party of skirmishers. and was easily repulsed by the guns of the forts. The assault was in front of the fortifications be tween the San Fernando and Tampico roads which, after it (the assault) was repulsed, kept up firing at intervals until night.

Tapia is said to bave his lines of attack fairly established; but when the attack is to come of is not stated. The new lines of earthworks at Matamoras, extending from Casa Mata south ward, are said to be nearly completed. Canales had declared to the merchants of the town that he could not be responsible for the good order of the troops unless he had money. His request met with little favor, and each resident was preparing for his own defense. It is stated that both Canales and Caravajal would pronounce in behalf of Ortega, the constitutional President,

BUNTING COATS, HUNTING COATS. THE POLITICAL WORLD.

Shall the Democratic Party Die or Live! Annexed is the leader from the Chicago Times

Monday:-The present is a crisis in the Democratic party which has no precedent in its history, as it is a crisis in the progress of the country which is also without precedent. Never before has the Democratic party encountered events so seriously affecting its future vitality as now. Not that it beholds itself diminished in the magnitude of its numbers-for it is numerically stronger than it has ever been before-but that having been beaten on a great national issue us to which it believed itself to be wholly right and the opposition wholly wrong, and still so believes, it must nevertheless abandon that issue -for the decision of it is final-and either suggests own in helpless and decaying inactivity, or strike boldly out upon a new line, selected with peculiar reference, not to things as we would have them, but to things as they actually are, and in pursuing which line it shall cease to be a hold-back or 'conservative' party, and be come, what it was in its palmy days, a progressive and aggressive party. These are the alter-

"It will not sit down in helpiess and decaying inactivity. "What, then, shall the new line be? In the first place, must we not cut loose from the Administration of Andrew Johnson, and leave that hybrid concern to float on the sea of pub-lic contempt into which it some time since entered, and from which no power can rescu it? Is not the late defeat attributable more largely to this Administration than to all other causes combined? What is there in its com-position to command popular confidence? Who belonging to it is entitled, by reason of his antecedents or of his statesmanship, to confidence or the respect of the cratic party? Certainly not Andrew Johnson nor William H. Seward, nor Edwin M. Stauton True, this Administration had a right and the Democratic party, in overlooking the the rightfu ness of the policy, displayed a patri otism whose purity was never excelled; but the policy having failed, and having failed, too, through the feebleness and folly and offenses against public propriety of the Administration, why should not the Democratic party aban ion the dead body, longer adherence to which is death also to itself? "What next? Can the Democratic party succeed until the negro question shall be gotten out of the way? It cannot. What next? Is not negro suffrage inevitable, and is it not the quickest way to get the negro question out of the way to at once concede the suffrage, making issue only on the degree in which it shall be conceded? We know that many Democrats have not reached this advanced view of the case, and that such still feel greatly inclined to revolt at the proposition of negro suffrage in any degree but let us tell them that it is always wise to accept the inevitable when the inevitable comes. Negro suffrage, we say, is inevitable, and whether it shall be qualified or universal depends upon the promptness or otherwise with which the Democratic party shall move with reference to it. The South will speedily yield qualified negro suffrage upon the motion of the Democratic party, because, if for no other reason, she will soon see, if she does not already see, that if she do not yield it, she will ultimately be compelled to accept universal negro-suffrage. 'Qualified negro suffrage yielded by the South and by this we mean impartial suffrage, or suffrage dependent upon the intelligence of the man, irrespective of color, as is now the rule in Massachusetts—the negro question will have been disposed of, and the occupation of the Northern Republican radical party will be gone torever. Not one inch of ground will it have to stand upon; and the country can once more turn to those material que-tions of public policy, the right disposition of which is so essential to the public prosperity. It will be upon these questions that the Democratic party will triumph, and it will be by this triumph that constitutional government and our federal system will be preserved. "If the South be wise, it will not wait, on this suffrage question, even for the motion of the Democratic party. If it be wise, it will lose no time in putting in motion the necessary machinery, by which it will at the same time save itself from humiliation, preserve its own selfrespect, rid the country of the most vexations question that ever distracted any country, kill the worst political party that ever existed on the restoration. This machinery consists, of course in conventions to revise the State constitutions.

AMUSEMENTS.

FACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Bateman Concert last evening was a complete success. The Academy was filled almost uncomfortably with the most fashionable audience that ever assembled within its walls, and the concert gave entire satisfaction. The en thusiasm was marked, and the delight of the people found expression in rounds of bravos and encores Any one who beheld the immense audience inst evening would have concluded that there were two reasons for its a semblage—the great popularity of the Parepa-Brignoh troupe, and the low price charged is recured sears—$1. Had this plan been adopted by Max Maretzek with the Italian opera, b would have carried away at least $20,000 from the city, instead of $2000. The recents of the Academy last night were nearly $3000, and as the farewell concert is to be given this evening, we presume the amount received will be quite $3000. There is no doubt that Messis Bateman and Birgfeld could fill the Academy of Music with our best citizens for a month to come, but we regret to learn that prior and properties will prove them from presents. engagements will prevent them from presenting Parepa to the Philadelphia public aga n.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE,-Mr. Joe Je. ferson appears this evening in his exceedingly chaste part of "Le Fienr," in the beautiful and classic comedy of the Quack Doctor, written by Mrs. Caro-ine Inchbaid, but compressed into two acts. Nearly all of the humor and drollery of the comedy appear, however, and Mr Jefferson, Mr. Mackey, Mr. M. Wolf, and Miss Jessie Orton are very funny in their parts, all playing with an unctuousness that is always pleasing. This comedy is celebrated alike for its wit and humor and for its origin. The authoress was the most noted of English female dramatists, and one of the ablest actresses of the last century. The fact that this is a woman's comedy, and a good one, should draw a large audience. Mr. Lefteren also appears in the funny large called.

On to morrow (Thursday) evening, Our American Cousin will be produced in fine style. Mr. Joe Jefferson appears in his original role of "Ass Trenchard"—a part that he p ayed first in London, and under the eye of the author. DEFRAUDING THE REVENUE. - Before United States Commissioner Hibler, this after-noon, was heard the case of Allea McDonald, charged with the illegal distillation of whisky. This morning, about half-past 4 o'clock, slight fire broke out in Beck's place, above Swanson street. One of the inmates of house whilst trimming a lamp upset it, and the fuid caught fire. Mr. Naylor, in trying to subdue the flames, was very badly burned. He had his wounds dressed, and is doing well. There was not much damage gone.

A BURGLARY. - Between the hours of midnight and daylight this morning, the e-tab-lishment of Mrs. Elizabeth Poole, who keeps a millinery store at No. 1506 Market street, was robbed. The thief or thieves passed through an alley, jumped the fence into the yard at the rear, and then effected an entrance into the house through the back door, in regular professional style. They bored out a portion of the door, and removed the lock, and passed into the tront store. From thence they took a quantity of fine velvet, sitks, ribbons, etc., to the value of $2000. The inmates of the house thought they heard something in the lower story, but supposing it to be a cat or rate, paid no attention to it. No arrests have been made as yet.

A DRUNKEN Row .- About midnigat last ight Charles Rice was arrested for committing an assault and battery upon some citizens. It appears that Rice had gone to a ball at Eighth and Spring Garden streets, and imbib-ing of the "ardent" too ardently, got into a state of fighting inebriety, and undertook to raise a disturbance generally and a fight par-ticularly. He was arrested, however, whilst indulging his combative propensities, and taken to the Station House to spend a few hours in pensive thought. This morning he was introduced in a very informal manner to Alderman Massey, who, after hearing what he had done, held him in $500 bail to answer for it.

A DISHONEST MESSENGER,-There are always sharpers and thieves of all grades who are on the watch to turn the good reputation of others to their own advantage. Frank Cham-bers, who were the bidge of a "soldier's messenger," was employed by a couple of German tailors to carry a bundle of valuable clothing to a certain place. Instead of doing so, the to a certain place. Instead of the clothing to pseudo meisenger appropriated the clothing to his own use, and was among the "missing," his own use, and was among the "missing," when he was sought for at his usual post. He was arrested at Penu and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon, and was taken before Alderman Tittermary. After a hearing, he was com-mitted to answer the charge of larceny.

MURDERED BY CARELESSNESS .- A terrible railroad accident, resulting in the death of several persons, and the wounding of a large number, occurred yesterday, near Wesleyville, on the Buffalo and Eric Railroad. The cause of the accident was the murderous carelessness of a gang of workmen who were repairing the road, and having removed some of the rails, neglected to signal an approaching express train, which ran into the gap at full speed. We shall never have done with these terrible and utterly needless accidents on railroads until some of the guitty parties are severely punished for them.

MA BAD HUSBAND .- An individual named William Stainwok, residing in Carlisle street, was arrested for threatening his family. It appears that Stainwok, who is a pretty wellbehaved man when sober, is quite the opposite when in bad spirits, or rather when bad spirits are in him. In one of his drunken freaks Saturday night, he turned his wife and lamily He was arrested, and gave bonds for his good behavior. Afterwards he got into another tantrum, and used his wife and family so shamefully that a complaint was made against him, and he was arrested again and taken before Alderman Fitch, who committed him to suswer, FOURTH EDITION COMMISSIONER.—At a very early nour this mora-ing, a man named Joseph Spencer was arrested at Front street, near Mead alley, on a suspicion of defranding the revenue. When arrested he had in his possession two barrels of whisky, which he was carrying in a furniture car. The barrels did not have the proper inspection mark upon them, and as Spencer could not give a good account of himself, he was taken into custody.

He had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, who committed him for a further hearing before United States Commissioner Hitbler. PROFESSIONAL BEGGARS,-It is probable that there are now more of these wretched beings in the city than there have been for years past. Among so many, there are, of course those who are deserving objects of charity; but there are so many impostors that the inex-perienced cannot tell the good from the bad, consequently, those who are really deserving o charity are passed by with suspicion engendered by the rascally imposition practised by others A number of professional begwars were arrested and sent below by Alderman Hurley for thirty days under the vagrant act.

STEALING A TRUNK .- Yesterday morning John Freed, who resides in Warren street, near Thirty-sixth, came to town, leaving his house in charge of a woman whom he believed to be honest and trustworthy. But his confidence was betrayed, and his trunk was stolen with all its contents, by the false guardian of his household treasures. On his return he found out his loss and had the woman arrested, and this morning she had a bearing before Alderman Allen, who held her to answer the charge of larceny.
