CITY INTELLIGENCE

| For Additional City Intelligence see Fifth Fage.]

RELIGIOUS SERNICES At the Congrega tional Church in erankfoil. - The First Church, Frankford road and Mongomery avenue, was filled last evening with a fie andience, to a sermon by the pastor, Rev. Samuel Fairley, on "Merning Cloud Christians." He choose for the substance of his remarks the following

"O Ephraim, what shall do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? For your goodness is as a morning clud, and as the early dew it goeth away". - Hoseevi. 4.

The two terms Judah and Ephraim compre-bend the whole of that ancient people, the Jews, who emphatically, and by way of emi-nence and honor, were called the people of God

God's own people.

The term Ephraim compresends the ten tribes which revolted under Jercoam. The term Judah comprehends the two tribes Judah and Benjamin, who remained faitsful to the house of Payid. The two terms, throughout the whole of the prophecy, are used to denote the whole people of Israel in general. A character described.

II. A solemn remonstrance in the name of God, with persons answering to this description. The general character of the chosen people was discussed in an able and horough manner. and also the comparison between the Jews and the Christians made with great effect.

Episcopal Services at the Courch of the Re-deemer. This church, at Swanson and Catharine streets, had a large confregation assembled last evening, to listen to a very eloquent discourse, delivered by Rev. Washington, B.

Subject-"Love of Christ thetrue mark of a Christian."

"He that loveth me shall be loved by my Father. I will love him, and will manifest my-self to him."—St. John xiv., 21.

The question of what constitutes a Christian was then dwelt upon at great length, and the illustrations and comparisons were made with masterly effect. Services at Green Hill Presbyterian Church, The evening services at the Green Hill Presbyterian Church have been of so interesting a character during some time past, as to attract large and appreciative audiences. The seats on these occasions are free, and what is meant by that is, that all are welcomed to the house, and comfortably provided for in such a manner as to make them feel as though they were at ease, without infringing upon the rights of any one. This Christian spirit was established, we believe, by the present amiable pastor, and it has proved very advantageous. The Rev. F. L. Robbins delivered the sermon. We present our readers with the subject, and the heads of the discourse:

Subject-The Social Influences of Cities. First. One of the profoundly deep wants of buman nature is society; and society is founded not on accident, or self-election, or common interest, but upon the eternal necessities of human nature.

Second. In recounting the influences that act with modifying power on men's manners, opinions, character, and destiny (next to that of religion), before all others, the influence of society and social companionship is most potent and transforming.

Third, The most obvious use of society in relation to man's social mind, is for relaxation and recreation. And, taking our American society as it is, with its overheated atmosphere and vitiating influences, the serious question arises, What course must a man pursue, what maxims of duty and views of life adopt, so that his inter course with his tellow-men, in social relations. shall be for his and their good, so that this powerful institution shall be a help, and discipline, and an educator for good and not for Fourth. The remainder of the discourse was devoted to pointing out the remedy for counteracting the evils which afflict American society, and especially in our largest cities:-

First, Legal prohibition. Second. Home, with its pure influences upon the developing character of children and youth. Third, Evangelical teaching and influences acting upon the masses,

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, - This timehonored church, located on Third street, below Pear, in the Fifth Ward, was well filled last evening. After devotional exercises it was an nounced that the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School would open their annual festival in about two weeks, at which fancy and useful articles would be sold, suitable for Christmas gifts. All persons desiring to assist in the preparation of the Fair should confer with teachers of the school. This announcement having been made, the Rev. Mr. Newton, who recently succeeded his tather as rector of the church, delivered an eloquent sermon. He selected for his text that portion of Genesis relative to the birthright of Esau. The reverend gentleman, in discussing this event, endeavored to show that the birth-right, the value of which was prospective, was regarded by Esau as simply spiritual, and that be parted with it pretty much upon the same principle that men are continually selling their birthrights every day.

The Liberian Missionary Society.—The first public annual meeting of the Committee of the Liberian Church was held last evening at the Church of the Epiphany, Thirteenth and Chesnut streets. Addresses were made by Bishop Payne, Dr. Newton Leeds, and others, setting forth the objects of the movement. At the last Convention of the Episcopal Church, it was decided to direct attention to Liberia with a view of making the mission in that republic a self-sustaining one. To this end it is proposed to educate colored men and forward them to Liberia, and by other means assist them in maintaining the Church organization independent of the Church in this country. Bishop Payne, in his address, referred to the fact that under existing circumstances many of the ministers now in Liberia engage in mercantile pursuits, or hold civil offices under the Liberian Government,

At the present time the President, Vice-President, Attorney-General, and Secretary of State are Presbyterian ministers. The excuse for this is that there are so few educated men in Liberia that they must take part in the Government. Bishor Payne urged upon the audience the necessity of placing the ministers of the Episcopal Church in a position where they can be free from trade, and will not enter the civil offices. Other speakers urged that Liberia now presented an opening for the people of this country to extend true and efficient aid to the blacks. In Liberia the colored man has established his ability to sustain himself. A republic is thoroughly organized and recognized among the nations of the earth. It has treaties with of the great powers. Having shown their ability to govern and sustain themselves as a nation, they must now have assistance, which will resulf in making them independent of us in ecclesiastical matiers.

Laying a Corner-Stone .- On Saturday afternoon a large number of persons assembled at the corner of Twelfth and Oxford streets, to witness the ceremonies of laying the corner-stone of the Lutherbaum Church, of which the Rev. N. M. Price is pastor.

The ceremonies of laying the corner-stone were commenced by singing, led by the Union Singing Society, after which a prayer was offered up by the Rev. William Crowell. An address was then delivered by the Rev. J. Chambers, during which he appealed to the people to ald with their money in completing the enterprise just commenced. Rev. P. S. Henson followed in an appropriate address.

The congregation connected with this enterprise numbers nearly two hundred, and for the past six months have worshipped in a room in the vicinity of the present location for the new church edifice. The lot selected fronts on Twelfth, Oxford, and Fawu streets, and is in the midst of a thickly settled neighborhood. The building now underway is 36 by 68 feet, and fronts on Oxford street, and will be used until a larger edifice is erected on Twelfth street. It will be of stone, and causable of seating 350 persons. sons. A gallery is to be erected at one end

Saint Andrew's Lutheran Church.—The congregation of this church, in charge of the Rev. Dr. Stork, have purchased the lot at the southwest corper of Broad and Arch streets, and design to erect upon it a stone edifice early next spring. The building will be of the pure next spring. The building will be of the pure Gothic style, with two lofty spires. The materials used in building will be signite stone, with drab stone door and whidow facings.

Call Accepted.—The Rev. Chester D. Hartranft, formerly of Philadelphia, graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and Theological Seminary of New Brunswick, N. J., has received and accepted a call from the Second Church of New Brunswick.

Centenary Services were held yesterday in the Fifth Street M. E. Church. In the atternoon a children's meeting was held, and in the evening a centenary address was delivered.

Anniversaries.—The Sunday Schools attached to the Salem and Kensington M. & Churches held anniversaries yesterday afternoon. held anniversaries yesterday afternoon.

ROBBERT IN BROAD DAYLIGHT,-Recorder Eneu, on Saturday, committed turee boys for theft. They gave the names of Jacob Garren, John Winters, and Jerry C. Bertrand. They piliered paper from the warehouse of William H. Flitcraft & Co., Fifth and Minor streets. The paper was carried off in broad davlight, one of the purchasers of it having been actually taken to the store and directed to pick it up from the floor, which he did, and then carried it off. Thirteen bundles, valued at two hundred and sixty dollars, were removed, being taken first to Fifth and Market streets, and thence to a saloon on Chesnut street, where one of the defendants, Bertrand, lodged.

The officers overheard a portion of a conversa-tion, and found that the boys were concerned with Bertiand in the larceny. They were arraigned on Saturday afternoon, with Bertrand, upon the charge, when the following testimony was

W. H. Flitcraft, of the firm of W. H. Filtcraft & Co., paper dealers, southeast corner of Fifth and Minor streets, deposed that on evamination they had discovered that there had been thirteen bundles of printing paper, valued at about two hundred and fifty dollars, stolen from their es ablishment, Some of the bundles which were tolen had been recovered and were identified. Samuel Gilirey testified that they saw two young men drop several packages of paper on the pavement at Fifth and Market streets on

Thomas McAvoy, porter, testified that his stand was at the corner of Fifth and Market streets; that the two young men engaged him to take several bundles of paper to the lager beer (saloon No. 533 Chesnut street; that the barkeeper paid him the porterage. Patrick Tull, another porter, testified to hauling paper for defendants during the early part of the week; the barkeeper at the saloon paid him for hauling it. F. P. Bergmann, barkeeper, No. 533 Chesnut street, testified that Bertrand was a lodger in the house; that he asked him (witness) if he would take charge of a lot of paper for him if he had it brought there; witness said he had no objection; witness paid porterage on three-different lois, Bertrand paying him in return.

W. D. Morton, No. 18 Decatur street, testified that he knew Bertrand by sight; purchased paper of him; on Friday morning last he brought a sample, and witness bought three or four bundles, giving him sixteen cents a nound for it. John W. Rudolph, No. 410 Arch street, testined that he knew Bertrand by sight); had pur-chased of him; from the sample which he (Bertrand) showed witness, he supposed the paper to be somewhat damaged; paid him eleven cents a pound for it; witness went with prisoner to a place in North street for the paper; after he had opened the package he found the paper so good that he feared that Bertrand had obtained it dishonestly; he hunted him up and made inquiry, and Bertrand assured him that he had traded for it in an honest way, and had got it very low. The Recorder asked Bertrand if he had any thing to say. He claimed that he bought the paper from a man in one of the cells, who was taken down to prison last Friday; that the man called at his house some time ago, in the night, and wanted to know if he did not want to buy a lot of paper. He said that he would buy anything that he could make money off honestly, and bargained with the man to deliver the paper at No. 533 Chesnut street. Winters, one of the youths, said that he and Garren were hired by some person to carry the paper to Fifth and Market streets, who paid them two doltars; that he did not know the man. The prisoners were each held in default of $2500 bail to answer.

OUR FIREMEN .- The drivers of the various Steam Fire Engine Companies have organized a Beneficial Society, and elected the following officers:—President, Hugh McKinney, of the Philadelphia Engine; Vice-President, Jacob Zell, of the Fairmount Engine; Secretary, William Buddy, Mechanic Engine; Assistant Secre tary, Hugh Cochran, Southwark Engine; Treasurer, William Stewart, Philadelphia Hose; Visiting Committee, Philip Kensil, William Penn Hose; George Young, Franklin Hose; William Jackson, Good Will Engine.

The Delaware Engine Company will soon have their new house completed. It will be a very handsome improvement. The Franklin Hose Company have prosured

300 feet of new forcing hose. The Lafayette Hose Company are making arrangements for an excursion to a neighboring

A delegation of firemen, from Lynn, Massa-chusetts, visited our city during the past week, and were the guests of the William Penn Hose Company.
A committee of the America, No. 6, of New York, arrived in this city on Saturday evening, and were taken in charge by a committee be-longing to the Hibernia Engine Company. The new steam fire engine, building in this city for the Cornplanter Fire Company, of Venaugo county, Pa., will be completed this week. Her pump is four inches.

INQUEST BY THE CORONER.—On Saturday afternoon an inquest was held by Coroner Daniels on the body of Ephraim Gribby, a teamster on the Penusylvania Railroad, who was killed by being run over on Friday last, at Twentieth and Market streets. The testimony was as follows:—John W. B ddle sworn—Reside at No. 1921 Market street; saw Gribby sitting on front part of car; he attempted to spring off the car and fell under it; the two front wheels passed him, when he attempted to get up, and the two hind wheels passed over his body; assisted in getting the body from under the car. Officer Kilpatrick sworn—Reside at No. 3 Azela street; about 5 o'clock was standing at Twenty-first and Market streets; a man told me a teamster was run over; saw cars coming down grade quite rapidly; succeeded in stopping them; found Grioby lying on a cellar-door, where some one had placed him; assisted in carrying body to Station House.

The jury returned the following verdict:-That the said Ephraim Gribby came to his death by being run over by a freight-train of cars, at Twentieth and Market streets, RIOTOUS BEHAVIOR .- William Albright was arrested by High Constable Clark on Saturday night, at Fifth and Christian streets, on the charge of inciting to riot. The Shiffler Hose Company was passing at the time, and it is alleged he threw a piece of brick into the crowd. His arrest saved him from violence, as he was surrounded by the enraged members of the company, eager to inflict summary punishment upon him. Yesterday morning he had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, who held him in $1000 bail to answer.

THE HAY MARKET .- During the past week, 446 loads of hay and 50 of straw were weighed and sold at the Farmers' Hay Market, North Seventh street. The supply was about the usual average, and the prices last quoted were well maintained. Best quality Timothy hay sold at $1.856(1.90 per 106 lbs.; mixed and interest $1.700(180). Straw and at $1.800 per 1.800 per 1 ferior at $1.70@1.80. Straw sold at $1.50@1.55 per 100 lbs. HIGHWAY ROBBERY.-Antoine Smith, an Italian, was robbed in Baker street, above Seventh, ion Saturday night, of a silver watch and fifty dollars in cash. He was knocked down in the street, and the money and watch stolen while he was down. The noise attracted an officer to the spot, but he was too late to capture the officials. ture the offenders.

G OPSILL'S PHILADELPHIA CITY AND OF BUSINESS DIRECTORY-1867-8. PUBLISHER OF GOPSILL'S SENNSYLVANIA STATE DIRECTORY, Etc. Etc. TOR1, Etc. Etc.

The necessity for a reliable Directory in so large a mercantile city as this is apparent to every business man; it is an actual want, and unless accurate, is useless, and instead of a rrue guide and index to its business interests, is a matter of annovance.

The publisher, from long experience in the publication of similar works, of which the Pennsylvania State Business Directory is a specimen proposes at the solicitation of a number of induction tation of a number of influential merchants of this city who have suffered from the inaccuracies of former editions to sublish toe above Directory from an accusal and carefully prepared canvass of the city by an efficient and experienced corps of canvassers, thoroughly educated to the business.

The work will contain a FULL CITY DIRECTORY, A COMPLETE BU: INESS AND STREET DIRECTORY, and such use ul miscellaneous information as shalf form a complete guide to the Melcantile Banking, Insurance, Religious, and other interests of the city.

ing, Insurance, Religious, and other interests of the city.

In a city comprising to large a number of streets, so greatly scattered, and in which such a vast amount of otherses have been made during the past lew years, the actual want of a systematically arranged and carefully compiled street and avenue Directory is apparent to every citizen and business man who have course to the Directory and especially to the stranger, who is entirely unacquainted with the location and sumeralization of the streets.

The form of the Street Directory will be so arranged as to give at a glance the beginning of the street with any other name it may formerly have had, with its intersections right and left, and number thereon to its end, and will form a leature of the work, exhibiting not only the extent and number of the streets but giving, from any stand-point, definite and correct information of any scallty sought.

With the repairation of past publications, which have afforded perfect satisfaction, it will be his aim to make this book equal, it not superior, to any issued by him, and requests that the canvassers for this work will be afforded the necessary information they require for it as without such aid a reliable Directory cannot be issued.
