A Treason-Sympathizer Throwing Mud. NOTHING can exceed the bitterness of those Northern sympathizers with the Rebellion who, prominent and unblinking in their support of treason during its armed contest with the Government, now find themselves sinking into oblivion, or only remembered as objects of popular malediction and contempt.

These remarks find a striking exemplification in the leader of our Democratic morning contemporary. In that article the Chief Justice of the United States and two worthy clergymen of this city are assailed in terms of coarseness and vulgar brutality quite worthy of an apologist for the atrocities of Belle Isle and Andersonville, or of a maudlin, sickly sympathizer with the unwhig traitor of Fortress Monroe.

What is the occasion of this overflow of venom? Simply a meeting of the "Pennsylvania Branch of the Freedmen's Union Commission," at which Chief Justice Chase is to preside, and Messrs. Brooks and Parvin are to speak.

What is the character of this Society and what its object, that the ire of this fellow should be so terribly aroused? It is composed of the very noblest and best men and women of the North, and its object is the most benevolent and praiseworthy one of rendering aid, physical, intellectual, and moral, to the Southern masses, who are utterly unable to help themselves.

may be, guilty white man." Everybody knows that he is guilty of treason; and if he had had justice done him, he would have been hung long ago. He is living comfortably and luxuriantly "within the walls and moat" of a Government fortress; let him wait the pleasure of the Government. But Chief Justice Chase has nothing to do with him. He did not arrest him, and he does not hold him in custody. President Johnson arrested him, and President Johnson still holds him a prisoner. If the President wants to assume the responsibility of setting him at liberty, let him do it. If not, let the President answer for keeping him in confinement.

Meanwhile the "counsel of Mr. Davis" had much better deal directly with the President, than to rush into the newspapers with a foolish tirade against the Chief Justice. Mr. Chase stands too high to be reached by slander and vituperation from such a source. The people appreciate his labors, they revere his character, and they can never be sufficiently thankful that in these stormy and dangerous times we have a philanthropist, a statesman, a jurist, and a Christian as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The House of Austria. THE appointment of Baron von Beust to the position of Premier of Austria has caused so much dissatisfaction in European diplomatic circles, that there are rumors of a renewal of hostilities. The selection of that nobleman, a man of no reputation, and one under whose rule the kingdom of Saxony ceased to exist, is but another in the long list of follies of which the House of Hapsburg has been guilty for centuries.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY, ALL WHO are looking for business to call and examine the American Cow Milk, patented March 22, 1865—a sure cure for scolding and kicking cows, never before introduced in this State. The inventor was a patent issued from the Patent Office which has sold so readily as this 300,000 copies have been sold within 30 days and many more engaged by the most cautious and prudent business men. It milks the four teats of a cow at once. It initiates the milk-draw and stops drawing to swallow. It milks cows in one-third the time of the common method, and weighs only one pound. It is self-adjusting; will fit any cow. It will milk three-teated cows as well as any. Easily worked, not liable to get out of order, and is perfectly agreeable to the cow. Come one and all and pass your judgment upon the most valuable invention of the nineteenth century. An opportunity is now offered to enterprising men, with large or small capital, who do not present themselves in a lifetime. Call on American Cow Milk Machine Company, No. 418 CHESTNUT Street. 11 1/2 o'clock.

ALL THE HIGHEST PREMIUMS AT THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE, NEW YORK AND PENNSYLVANIA STATE FAIRS IN 1866. Given to Sewing Machines, except one given to a manufacturing machine for heavy leather work, at the New York Fair, after a severe and impartial test, were awarded to the ELLIPTIC LOCK-STITCH MACHINE, as follows:—

At the Maryland Institute Fair, as the "BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINE." At the New York State Fair, as the "Best Family Sewing Machine." "Best Double-Thread Sewing Machine."

These two completely covering the whole ground, and for the BEST SAMPLE OF SEWING MACHINE WORK And at the Pennsylvania State Fair, for the "Best Sample of Ornamental Sewing-Machine Work."

As can be seen by the following comprehensive and conclusive report of the committee of practical and experienced mechanical experts appointed by the New York State Board to investigate the merits of the different Sewing Machines:—

"We, the Committee on Sewing Machines, after a careful and thorough investigation into the respective merits of the various machines submitted for examination, and the Elliptic Lock-Stitch Sewing Machine to be superior to all others in the following points, namely:—

Simplicity and Thoroughness of Mechanical Construction. Ease of Operation and Management. Noiselessness and Rapidity of Movements. Densy, Strong, and Durable of Stitch. Variety and Perfection of Attachments, and Range of Work. Compactness and Beauty of Model and Finish. Adaptation to material of any thickness by an Adjustable Feed Bar, and an in Unparalleled Precision with which it creates the Lock-Stitch, by means of the Elliptic Hook and so, therefore, awards it the First Premium, as the Best Family Sewing Machine, and also for the above reasons the First Premium as the Best Double-Thread Sewing Machine.

C. P. PETERS, HECTOR MOFFAT, Committee. From the Reports of the Committee on Sewing Machines at the Maryland Institute Fair, 1866:— "We find the Elliptic Lock-Stitch Sewing Machine to excel all others."

"It is the most simple in construction, having fewer parts, rendering it easier of management, and requiring less power to work it than any other machine." "The Elliptic Hook is an improvement of great value, ensuring the greatest certainty of execution, and preventing the liability of missing stitches, so common in other machines." "Another valuable improvement is an Adjustable Feed Bar, adapting it to the finest or heaviest fabric." "It is the only machine we have seen that will gather without changing the tension."
