

AMUSEMENTS.

THE GREAT ENGLISH DISCOURT.—Mr. Henry Vincent, who is the firm friend of Mr. John Bright, and who is called the most eloquent orator in the world, will deliver two lectures at the Academy of Music on Monday and Wednesday evenings of next week. His subjects are—"The Great American Conflict" and "Oliver Cromwell." Tickets and seats can be obtained at Trimmer's, Seventh and Chestnut streets.

THE ORATORIAN.—In another column will be found the advertisement of the Handel and Haydn Society, enclosing particulars of the grand concert to be given at the Academy of Music during the coming winter. The grand oratorios of St. Paul, David, and Sampson will be produced in a style never equaled before. The choruses will be rendered by five hundred voices, and the solo parts will be executed by the ablest American artists. Every body should subscribe, and encourage this magnificent musical enterprise.

BATEMAN CONCERTS.—All tickets, with seats, have been sold for Friday night; only standing room can be obtained. On Saturday there will be a matinee, and on Sunday evening all the other artists will appear in popular pieces. Seats can be procured without extra charge.

NEW CHESTNUT STREET THEATRE.—This is Mr. Jefferson's last week. To-morrow (Friday) night he takes his farewell benefit. His "Rip Van Winkle" continues as popular as ever, and we have no doubt that he will play it to gross houses for weeks to come. On Saturday evening he will perform in Boucicault's new play, called "The Long Stride."

NEW AMERICAN THEATRE.—Black Crook is the great spectacle in production in splendid style. The scenery is majestically grand and beautiful, and the ballet is very pleasing and perfect. The "Rip Van Winkle" and "The Long Stride" are the premier dances, and Mr. J. J. Decker, the great harlequin, are admirable in their different roles. The audiences at the American have thus far been very large and respectable, and we were pleased to observe an extraordinary number of ladies. The management were delighted to find the utmost decorum maintained, and nothing to offend upon the stage.

Mr. Barabshaw, and his gentlemanly manager, Mr. James H. Decker, deserve much credit for their enterprise in producing this costly spectacle, as well as for their efforts to make the American a first-class theatre. We trust they will go on, and with their families enjoy a good performance.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Edwin Booth's engagement will close at the end of this week. To-night he appears in "Romeo and Juliet" for the last time. On Monday he will perform in "The Merchant of Venice," and on Tuesday in "The Merry Wives of Windsor." On Wednesday he will perform in "The Taming of the Shrew," and on Thursday in "The Comedy of Errors." On Friday he will perform in "The Merry Wives of Windsor," and on Saturday in "The Merchant of Venice." On Sunday he will perform in "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—This is Mr. Dan Bryant's last week. To-morrow (Friday) he takes his farewell benefit. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Howard Paul commence an engagement.

CALNECROSS & DIXEY have a first-rate entertainment this evening.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Addition to Local Items see Third Page.]

FIRE.—A little after four o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm of fire was made in the direction of Athensville, a station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a few miles from the city. It proved to be a car-load of coal that had taken fire, it is supposed, from the sparks from the locomotive whistling on its way to the city. Before the flames could be checked another car was enveloped in the blaze, and both were destroyed. A quantity of lumber was also burnt at the same time. The West Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine Company, the Good Will, and another Company from the city, were on the ground and did good service. Their apparatus and the members were brought into the city by the railroad company. The loss by the fire will amount to about $3000.

THANKSGIVING.—Bishop Kerfoot, of the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh, has issued a circular calling on the Church in Pennsylvania to make a particular observance of Thanksgiving Day. He also prescribes a form of prayer for the freedmen throughout the United States, and for those in authority who are engaged in the advancement of their interests.

SLIGHT FIRE.—A slight fire broke out at the northeast corner of Eleventh and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon, owing to the careless use of coal oil. The flames were subdued by the police before they had done much headway. The damage was but trifling.

WE CALL ATTENTION to the advertisement in our column of a desirable truck farm and brick dwelling-house near Camden.

A WELCOME INVENTION.—The poet says, "Time makes ancient good uncouth;" and the history of the nineteenth century proves it true. New ideas are forever uncrowning the old, and the trappings of their thrones are employed as pedestals for new and higher ones. Inventions succeed each other like the clouds of a summer evening, each more perfect than the preceding ones. In this brilliant age of mechanical discoveries, Genius, with a power more potent than patent laws, is ever nullifying their force, by substituting some thing newer, more perfect, and more simple. The invention of the Sewing Machine is a triumph of the present age, which will secure for its inventor a glory more permanent than monumental marble can bestow, and date an era for the "Wizard Time to count his years by."

A few years ago a wonder, they are now the universal household joy, and the seamstress no longer sighs with pining and weary breath the song of "seam and gusset and band, and head and gusset and seam." The universal demand has called forth a vast multitude of instruments for sewing, some very good, some good, and some possessing the merit of cheapness only. Our attention has been called to the Improved Elliptic Lock-stitch Sewing Machine, Salesroom No. 928 Chestnut street, which, after taking all of the highest honors from its older competitors at the State Fairs of New York, Pennsylvania, etc., has just been awarded the Gold Medal of Honor as the best Family Sewing Machine, by the Maryland Institute, at Baltimore. With almost human sagacity it performs the various operations required to sew, hem, fell, tuck, bind, braid, gather, and embroider; and all with a quietness which would not disturb the nervousness of the sick, or the attention of ordinary conversation, and with an ease which does not do any the weakness and inexperience of childhood.

STEALING SHOES.—Joseph Saunders was arrested last night endeavoring to lay up his winter supply of boots and shoes without paying for them. He made a selection from a store at Third and South streets, when the proprietor of the establishment, who did not do business in that way, spied his "little game," and gave the alarm. The confessor took to his heels, and was pursued by the police. He was taken up, and as he reached the classic neighborhood of Seventh and Bedford streets, he was arrested. He had a hearing before Alderman Titterton, who committed him to answer the charge of larceny.

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS.—Our citizens have been much annoyed by the practice of marking the fronts and steps of dwellings with chalk and slate pencils, so often indulged in by mischievous and thoughtless children. It became such a nuisance that the police were instructed to arrest and one found in the act. William Cooper, a young lad, was caught in the act of defacing the front of a dwelling in Nineteenth and Vine streets, and was arrested. He had a hearing before Alderman Godbon, who held him in $500 bail to answer, and administered a severe reprimand.

A BIENNIAL CELEBRATION.—The Philomathean Society will hold its biennial celebration at the Hall of the University of Pennsylvania. The exercises will commence at 8 o'clock. Rev. Wm. W. D., will deliver an oration, and William Wilson Benson will recite the beautiful poem entitled "The Legend of Ranzon." The meeting will be a very interesting one.

OBITUARY RESOLUTIONS.—At a meeting of the Corn Exchange Association, held this morning, Mr. Nathan Brooke, the Vice-President, announced the decease of George A. McKinstry, which took place very suddenly on Wednesday morning. After a few appropriate remarks, the following resolutions were submitted by Captain J. P. Bankson, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the hand of death has suddenly removed from our midst a member of the Association, whose many qualities endeared him to all with whom he came in contact in a social or business way, therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Geo. A. McKinstry a mercantile community has lost an invaluable member, and society at large an honest and worthy man.

Resolved, That the sympathies of the Association be tendered to his bereaved family, and that members of this body participate in the funeral ceremonies.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to carry into effect the latter resolution.

Messrs. J. P. Bankson, Duke, Murphy, Hugh Craig, Charles Knecht, and Thomas O'Neil, were appointed on the committee.

FIRE AT A COAL OIL DISTILLERY.—This morning, about half-past ten, a fire broke out in the coal oil distillery of C. F. A. Simonin, situated at the corner of York and Belvidere streets, Ninth Ward. The fire was occasioned by the bursting of the residuum pipe. The workmen attempted to smother the flames with ashes and dirt, but could not. The firemen were promptly upon the spot, and after working diligently for an hour, subdued the flames. The roof of the still-house was burned off, and about a dozen barrels of kerosene escaped. Owing to the adroit arrangements of the distillery, the fire was prevented from communicating with other portions of the works. The loss will not exceed $200, upon which there is no insurance.

A COWARDLY ASSAULT.—Last evening, a man Patrick McFadden was arrested on a charge of assault and battery. It is alleged that Pat was in a state of hostility towards the dancer at the corner of Eleventh and Chestnut streets, he struck a little girl in the face with such force as to bruise her features severely, so that she was unable to appear against him this morning. When he struck her she was standing quietly on the corner, she having just taken her brother's supper to him, he being employed in the repairs there going on. This morning Alderman Jones held McFadden in $300 bail to answer.

ASSAULTING A PUBLICAN.—Yesterday afternoon Robert O. Donald, who had been on a morning beer run, got into a difficulty with the keeper of a drinking-saloon at Front and Coates street. It is alleged that Robert was very clamorous in his calls for "old rye," and not being very choice in the quality of the words he used, he was ordered out. He then made an assault upon the proprietor of the place, and struck him. He was arrested for that violent proceeding, and escorted to the office of Alderman Toland, who, after hearing the facts of the case, held him in $500 bail to answer.

ARRESTED UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.—John Williams was arrested last evening under suspicion of being accessory to the larceny of a coat, in the neighborhood of Eighth and Shippen, some covetous individual had stolen a coat and absconded. Williams was in that locality, and when the one who took the coat ran on one way, he ran the other. Like "Oliver Twist," John was unfortunate enough to be caught party, and the other got off. He had a hearing before Alderman Titterton, who committed him to answer.
