AMUSEMENTS.

NEW CHESSUT STREET THEATRE -The Long Strike was wirnessed last evening by an immense house. The reading of the despatches announcing the Fenian uprising in Iroland created great excitement. This news was first received over the Chesnut Street Phenice wire.

To morrow atternoon a grand Thanksgiving Matinee will be given. Henvietts the Forsaken will be presented.

THE WALRUT - Miss Effic Germon and the excellent stock company at this house appear in two popular pieces each evening. J. S. Clarke com-mences an engacement on Monday evening next. Grand matinee to-morrow atternoon.

New American Theatre.—The speciacular drama of the Black Crook has proved a decided success. Its gorgeous scenery and dazzing effects are highly attracting crowds to witness it. There will be a Black Crook maline to morrow afternoon. ABOR STREET THEATRE.- Mr. and Mrs. Howard

Paul in their humorous tariling, romantic droil, tragic, and generally interesting outertainment, Outgin and Phorairy interesting checkethings.
Outgin and History of Man —Public lectures, on any of the great branches of sci-nee, when delivered by men of altility, should everywhere be encouraged. Mr. Dye's lecture at the Assembly Buildcouraged. Mr. Dye's locture at the Assembly Buildings was such that every intelligent man and woman in the city of Philadelphia could have heard with profil; "Man's Antiquity and Early History" as long as the race exists, will ever remain an interesting and lastructive theme for contemplation, and especially so when handled by one so well versed as Mr. Dye. Hastings, Chambers, Carmac, Wilkins, and Pearce, of the last century, went deeply into these matters; then Prichard, Pickering, Humboldt, and Wilkinson have it up the present with the fire of their intellect, while Mr. Dye is doing much turough his able and instructive lectures to unravet the mystery surrounding man's origin, in giving us some new light in regard to the causes in bature which have produced all the different grades of complexion found among the human family. He lectures again I hursday evening November 29, at Washing on Hail, I hanks-gring night

Mn. Wolfednx.—This distinguished professor gives his first historical plano-forte matinee on Friday afternoon, assisted by Herr Pollak, a celebrated baritone from the Royal Opera, Drosden, and Carl Rocae, as accompanyist. The programme is illustrative of the piano comnositions from Sach, through Hardin to Johannen, Liezt, and Chopiu. This is a rare occasion for enjoying the variety and progress shown by the lapse of less than a century. All plane-forte players should attend those concerts at a school of instruction, while to all lovers of music they offer solid enjoyment. Were it not for Mr. Wolfsohn, we would be iznorant of much that ha been written for the piano. We doubt not be will be eminently successful. MR. WOLFSOHN.-This distinguished professor eminently successful.

RISTORI IN PHILADELPHIA.—The great tragedienne, Ristori, will shortly appear at the Academy of Music, and the excitement manifested on the part of our people to witness her matchless impersonations is incense. The sale of tickets for the performances in this city will commence on Monday next, and continue for three days. For the Ristori perform-ance in Baltimore to night every seat has been sold, ance in Baltimore to night every seat has been sold, and there is an immense furore.

National Hall—George Boutwell's Lecture,—Few men are so well and so favorably known to the sound Unionists and Republicans of America as Hon George S. Boutwell. To see such men and learn to know them is almost a duty. Those who would do so can have an opportunity by being present at the fecture which he will deliver at the National Hall, Market street, above Twenth, on Friday evening, November 30, 1866.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Mr. VINCEST TO NAME.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC—MR. VINCENT TO-NIGHT—
The English patriot, Mr. Henry Vincent, will repeat his famous@iccture on "Oliver Cromwell," at at the Academy this evening. The effect produced by his splendid oiscourse, on Monday evening, on "the Great American Conflict," will doubtless fill the house.

PHILADELPHIA BAND QUADRILLE PARTY.—
The Fortieth Quadrille Party of Beck's Philadelphia Band comes off this evening at Musical Fund Hall. These parties are noted for the excellent manner in which they are conducted, and they are described. deservedly popular.

THE OLD FOLES —Father Kemp's celebrated troupe of singers will appear at National Hall, Market street, on Monday evening, December 3. They are well worth hearing.

CARNOROSS & DIXEY have a glorious programme this evening. To-morrow afternoon a great Phanks-giving Matineo will be given.

THIRD REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH .-Rev. J. W. Schenck, pactor, is announced to deliver a sermon prepared for the observance of Thanksgiving Day, the congregation of the First Church, Rev. Mr. Suydam, uniting with that of this church.

This eminent divine is in some measure a here, and was some months since installed as paster of this branch of the Re-formed Dutch Church (more familiarly known as Dr. Bethune's), Tenth and Filbert streets. The present course of sermons now being presented by him on Sunday evenings, upon the "Life of Christ," has acquired for him in the estimation of his hearers the right to rank among the most chaste and refined pulpit orators of this and other Christian denominations of this city. What is more conspicuous in his conception of effective, impressive, and useful scriptural teaching, is his seculously avoiding sensational preaching, the prevailing drawback to permanent benefit to the flocks of the Christian body.

The refined display of his theological literature and original mental power confirms the estimation formed by public critics as to his approaching position in the line of pulpit orators.

The ritality now manifesting itself in the The vitality now manifesting itself in the several departments of this congregation, and the increasing attendance at this house of wor-ship, are likewise additional testimony to his sterling piety and Christian zeal, and his ability to revivify the interests and prosperity of a Christian body which for a long period suffered from the loss of pastoral care:—In this connection we feel disposed to aid, too, from the locality of their edifice and its surroundings, which to many church going people are by no means inviting. The rapid progress of improve-ments and population, north and southwest-wardly in our city, may, at an early period, promote a change in the latter obstacle to the growth of this memorable church. We would that others, who may desire to be profitably entertained and instructed in the observance of to-morrow's duty, may share with us the privilege of enjoying the performance of our Christian duty on the approaching day of national

A Cool Proceeding .- Yesterday morning a gentleman in the vicinity of Third and Shippen streets was invited into a saloon to take a social drink, by two men named John Mander-field and Edward Burns. As they were going into the bar-room, Burns engaged his attention, whilst Manderfield abstracted his pocket-book, containing about thirty dollars, from his pocket, As soon as he found out his loss, he gave the alarm, and had both the defendants arrested. They had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary. but owing to the principal witness to the transaction being absent, they were committed for a further hearing.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN, -Mr. John Wagner, a well-known business man of this, city, died yesterday, from tumor in the stomach. Mr. Wagner was a bookbinder by trade, and had taken a prominent part at times in our local politics. His son, Licutenant Orlando V. Wagner, graduated at West Point, and, it will be remembered, was the first regular army officer who fell in the Peninsular cam-paign. He was killed before Yorktown, while operating with the Engineer Corps. The funeral services of Mr. John Wagner will occur at St. Peter's P. E. Church to-morrow afternoon.

PRESENTATION. - Last Monday night Professor Leopold Engelke was presented with a magnificent baton by the Teutonia Sangerund (Musical) Society, of which he is Director. It is a magnificent piece of workmanship, of solid ivory, heavily mounted with gold, and at each end is an emblematic lyre. In the centre is the following inscription in German:-"Preented to Professor Leopold Engelke, by the Fentonia Sengerbund Society, and other triends of Philadelphia, November 26, 1866."

The ceremonies occurred in the regular Con-ert and Ball of the Society, at National Guards' Hall. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Henry Goldbeck, President of the Society, and replied to in fitting terms by Mr. Engelke.

It must be borne in mind that the Tenth Grand National Sængertest, or celebration, participated in by all the German Societies of the United States, will be held in Philadelphia in July of next year. Mr. Engelke has the honor of having been elected leader of this vast Teuronic management. tonic musical element, and that event, together with this presentation, is a manifest evidence of appreciation, and a deserved tribute to his pro-fessional enterprise and ability

OBITUARY RESOLUTION .- The announcement of the decease of George W. Grove was made at the Corn Exchange meeting this morn-ing by Nathan Brooke, Esq., the Vice President of the organization. The following resolutions, submitted by E. Harper Jeffries, Esq., were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, Death has again visited our circle, and Whereas, Death has again visited our circle, and semoved from our midst a member whose kindness of heart and honeavy of purpose used endeared him to all who came in contact with him, either in a business or social way; therefore Resolved, That in the death of George W. Grove the mercantile community has lost one of its brightest ornaments, our city an enterprising and energetic citizen, and our Association a worthy and honorable member.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathies to his bereaved family, and the members of the Association participate in the funeral services.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to carry into effect the above resolutions.

E. Harper Jeffries, Harry C. Kennedy, P. B. Mingle, W. G. Fitzgerald, and John B. Steven-son were appointed on the committee.

"LA COTERIS CARNIVAL."-Mr. Peter E. Abel. No. 306 Chesnut sireet, has just pub-lished a splendid imperial photograph representing "The Coterie Carnival Bal Masque" at the Academy of Music, January 25, 1866.

The picture presents a correct view of the interior of the building, with the decorations, etc., as they appeared upon the evening of the carnival, together with the assembled multitude, amongst which may be distinguished over five hundred partraite, he sizes varying from three inches to the thirty-second part of an inch, of the participants at the briliant fele. The original picture, which has been over some four months in preparation, has been pronounced, by the few who have seen it, to be the greatest work of the kind ever produced. It will be upon exhibition (gratuitously) at No. 306 Chesnut street, for a few days. Copies, executed in the finest style of the photographic art (size twenty-four by fifteen inches), price three dollars, may be obtained at the above place.

F PETTY POLICE CASES. -A man named Goddard Wagner made a mistake in regard to the ownership of a horse and wagon, which was standing in front of a store at Fourth and Brown streets, last evening. He did not discover it until he was taken into custody. had a hearing before Alderman Butler, who did not see the merits of the case as presented by Goddard, and he was held in $800 bail to answer the charge of larceny before a jury.

Three young adventurers, the oldest of whom was not over twelve years old, were arrested by the police vesterday, whilst wandering about in the locality of Twenty-seventh and Federal streets. It appears that the young scamps had absconded from their home in Wilmington, Delaware, and had come to this city to seek their fortune. Alderman Lutz, before whom they were taken, sent them back to Wilmington.

A COWARDLY ASSAULT.-Michael Daley was arrested at the corner of Palethorp and Master streets on Monday night, charged with committing a violent assault and battery upon Benjamin Hartman. The latter is a poor imbecile creature, and is a cripple. He was standing on the corner, when Daley got into a drunken fit of rage over some fancied provoca Not being able to find any other person weak enough to vent his spleen upon, he an assault upon that poor creature, and beat him very badly about the head and face. A crowd collected around, and interfered in the cripple's behalf. Daley was arrested, and had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker, who held him to answer on a charge of assault and

"THE MALTA."-This is the classic name of a first-class hotel on Fourth street, above Walnut. The Malta has been long and favorably known to all gentlemen of reaned and luxurious taste as the depot re pure liquors and cigars are to be obtai ed. On to-morrow afternoon and evening a grand lunch will be served up in true "Malionian" style, embracing all the Juxuries that the New York, Baltimore, and Philadelphia markets afford. Come one, come all, as the "latch-string hangs outside."

STNGULAR.-Colonel William II. Maurice, a good Johnson man, and W. H. Lewis, President of an uptown Johnson Club, have both been summarily removed from the Custom House, to make room for persons who are nearer the "Presidential heart." that "little paiplitator" that Colonel Forney used to besiege

A WHISKY FRAUD CASE.-To-day, as Officer Leavitt, of the Second District Police, was perambulating his beat, "at 5 o'clock in the morning," his offactories caught the scent of whisky. He saw two men rolling a barrel of whisky from a still-house at the corner of Swan-son street and Beck's alley, over to a cellar on the opposite corner of Beck's alley. When they rolled it over to the latter place they made all ready to lower it down with ropes, etc., the were doing? One of the men, having a guilty conscience, fied. The other, Robert Phillips, stood his ground. On examination there were were no inspection marks found upon the barrel, and it bore every evidence of being ille-gally distilled. The barrel was accordingly taken charge of and taken to the Southwark Hall Police Station House, where it now remains awaiting the results of the trial of Phillips. The latter had a preliminary examination before United States Commissioner Hibler, who held him in $1000 ball for a further hearing on

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY,-Night before last, wo men, named William Andrews and W. C. Smith, took lodging at a lager beer saloon in Shippen street, above Second, kept by Mr. Franz Thics. During the night they got up very stealthily and went into another room, where some trunks belonging to other boarders were kept. They broke open one of them, and took a quantity of clothing from it. They then started to make their escape through the back door and the yard; but in going down stairs they woke up one or two of the other lodgers, who gave the slarm, and started in pursuit. The two thieves, finding themselves in a tight place, threw part of the clothes down the cesspool, and the rest behind the door. An officer in the neighborhood then took them into custody. They had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary yesterday morning, and were com-

THE PROVISION DEALERS .- We have intelligence from New York of the failure, vester-day atternoon, of Debon, Clarke & Bridges, one of the largest of the New York provision houses. Its Habilities are stated at over $500,000. This is the fifth provision house in that city which has failed recently, and the bottom is not reached yet

These disasters are the legitimate and inevitable results of over-trading and speculation, and we may expect dealers in other commodities who persist in hoarding their stocks to take advantage of the necessities of consumers, to share the same fate. Pork has again fallen in price, and closed heavy yesterday at $21.50 for ness. There is a great amount of speculation in the provision trade and prices. the provision trade, and prices are generally going down.

RenBING HEB LODGER.-Night before last, a man by the name of John McDermott took lodgines at a place called the "Monitor" Home, at Eront and Walant streets, which is kept by a woman would fill Manth. It had hardly been in bed an hour, and had just got comfortably asleep, when, as he alleges, this Ellen Menicks and a pimp of hers, named John Brown, went into his room and beat him over the head until he was almost insensible. stole his money, amounting to about $10, and his overcoat, and then dragged him out and kicked him down stairs and out of the house. Brown and Ellen Menicks were arrested and had a hearing before Alderman Butler last evening, and were committed in default of batl to answer the charges of robbery and assault and battery.

ALMOST A SHOOTING CASE. - Thomas White, a young man of nineteen winters, keeps a restaurant in a cellar in Lombard, above Sixth street. Last evening he had occasion to pur-chase something from a huckster, who was passwith his wagon. He got into a dispute with the latter in regard to the price or quality of his goods, and getting into a rage, he rushed down into his cellar, and getting a pistol, he went up and discharged it at the huckster. Luckily for both of them the shot missed its mark, and a crowd was soon collected around the scene of the disturbance. White was taken into custody, and had a hearing before Alderman Butler, who held him in $500 batl for assault and battery with intent to kill.

A HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- I'WO men, answering to the names of Frank Monroe and Dr. John Wilson, were arrested last night on the charge of robbing Mr. John A. Cahill of $65 in The latter asserts that a late hour on the night of the 21st inst., he was going along street, near Eleventh, when the two defendants sprang out on him, and whilst one held him fast the other rifled his pockets. As soon as he recovered from the surprise he escaped from their grasp and raised an alarm, but the robbers made good their retreat. Last night they were taken, and had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, who committed them both on the charge.

ARREST OF THE MURDERER. - Alfred Ceutel, the alleged murderer of Captain James Wiley, was arrested yesterday afternoon at Third and Buttonwood streets by Officers Franks, Murray, and Mulholland. He was recognized last night by the deputy sheriff of Doylestown; and this morning the prisoner was sent in charge of the deputy sheriff, on his way to that place. The police authorities have acted with considerable celerity in ferreting out the murderer and taking him into custody.

A SAD CASE,-An insane woman, apparently of about 35 years of age, named Mary W. Mann, was picked up about midnight last ight whilst wandering about in the neighbor good of Twenty-third and Mount Vernon streets. she is a native of Albany, New York, and had escaped from the guardinaship of her friends there. Her friends were notified of her whereabouts, and came on and took charge of her.

ABATING A NUISANCE -Application has has been made to Mayor McM.consel to put a stop to the practice of fast driving through the streets of the city by the dre engine companies. The journals have of late recorded many accidents caused by the pernicious practice, and it istime that a stop were put to it.

THE MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS -THE MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS—Within these few years suce material progress has been made by the well-known manufacturers, Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, of Boston, as to place the instruments made by them on a higher level, and to decide the question that the piano-torte is no longer to hold the only prominent place as a household instrument. These manufacturers have worked out the secret of producing tones of the best quality—tones of surpassing purity and rightness—from reeds. tones of surpassing purity and richness—from reeds, and have otherwise brought the instruments, for which they have adopted the appropriate name, 'Cabinet Organs,' to such a degree of excellence, that they are exciting much interest in musical credies, and are already becoming the fathion with these who are on the alert for musical novelties of real merit. Without doubt, in these Cabinet Organs, we have the long sourch instrument. we have the long-sought instrument or sustained tones, which is hereafter to divide with the pianolorte the musical honors of the drawing room.—

FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

The Public Perjurer, Sanford Conover, Caught-A True Bill Against Him. SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH. Washington, November 23.—The Grand Jury of the Criminal Court have found a true bill of madietiment against Sanford Conorer, alias Char. os A. Dunbam, for perjury, in swearing before the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives that certain depositions made by one Joseph A. Hosro, under the name of William Campbell, and W. H. Roberts, under the name of Joseph Snevil, wore true.

W. H. Roberts, under the name of Joseph Snevtl, were true.

The affidavits, it will be recollected, were made before Judge Advocate General Hott, and tenoed to show that the assassination of the late President Lincoln was incited and procured by Jefferson Pavis. Subsequently the parties making them appeared before the Judiciary Committee, and assame edged that the affidavits were false and were given at the instance and procurement or Concern. The accused is still in fail, having been unsucce-similar procuring bail, and has retained Mr. H. C. Gooding, a brother of Marshal Gooding, as his counsel.

Our Mexican Affairs. To the Associated Press. Washington, November 28—There is no doubt whatever, as it was this morning obtained from an official source, that this Government has telegraphed to Minister Bigelow, requiring him to make certain representations to the French Government concerning the delay of the French transfer. ing the delay of the French troops in evacuating

Mexico.

Whatever truth may be contained in the article from Flake's Gaweston Bulletin, hat General Sedgwick crossed the kie Grande on Thursday with a brigade and occupied Matamoras, it is certain that the President, at noon to-day, had received no information whatever concerning the subject. It is thought, however, in military circles, that there is some ground for the report.
