THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH .- PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1866.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE GETAT REPORT.--Season lickets for the great tragedience may be had at the Academy to-day. To morrow (Wednessiny) the first sale of single tekets for the initial performance will commence. There will be a tremensons rush at the Academy for them; but as the Manager, Mr. Grau, has determined that the members shall be get held of them. there them; but as the Manager, at. Grad. has determined that the speculators shall not set hold of them, there will, no doubt, be a chance for all. Madame Ade aide Ristori will open in "Medea" next Monday evening, following up with "Eliza-beth," "Lady Macbeth," "Leah." and several other roles of her repertoire This ovening she appears in Washington as "Elizabeth."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC+FRENCH OPERA .- On Fri-Academy of MUSIC-FRENCE OPERA.-On Fri-day evening the excelent French Opera Troupe of MM. Faul Julgnet and C. Drivet will perform Hero'd's beautiful and brilliant opera of Zampa. This work has not been heard here for years, and many of our young readers know hitle of it beyond the sparking overcure so often given at our theatres. Mad'ie Elvira Nache will appear in the role of Comille, and Monsieur Armand assumes the ardnous part of "Zampa" On Saturday all ernoon Donni-zotif's favorite opera of La Fille du Regiment will be presented, at an apres-midi entertainment. The sale of tickels will commence at the Academy toale of tickets will commence at the Academy

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE. - The desire to see Bouercault's last preat work, called The Long Strike, increases with each representation. The Chesnut is crowded every night with the elife of the

The reading of genuine news despatches from all parts of the world, telegraphed directly to the theatre, is a very attractive and exciting feature. These despatches are arranged with taste and each one is applauded immensely as it is read off. The Long Strike, with J. E. McDonough, Josie Orton, and F. F. Mackay in their great roles, will

Orion, and P. F. Mackay in their great roles, will be rejected this evening. On to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon, a grand family mainee will be given, when the beautiful play of Isabel,or, a Woman's Life, will be presented. All of the mends of the management should be present to-morrow alternoon, and assist bir. Sinn to make up some of the lesses sustained by the recent for recent fire

NEW ARCH STREET TPEATRE .- Mr. and Mrs. Howard Paul are doing an excellent business. Their audiences are decidedly the largest and most fashionable we have ever seen attend dramatic per-formances. This even ng a most attrastive enfor-tainment is offered, and we sincerey hope that these exceeding y clever artistes may be apore-clated by a crowded house. This is the last week of these encountered heir engagement.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE-MR. J. S. CLARKE AT WALNUT STREAT I HAATHLA MAY ON COMPARIS IN HOME.—The great American comedian appears in an immurse double bill this evening. Clarte as "Tony Lumpkin" and 'Newman Noggs." The Wal-nut was crowded last night to see him play "Bob Acres" and "loodies."

New AMERICAN THEATRE — THE "BLACK CROCK."—I housands rush to see this great spectacle every evening. The announcement that it can be played but two weeks more creates the inveliest desire on the part of all to witness it. If will be performed this evening, with all of the beautiful scenery and the original great cast of characters.

HANDEL AND HAYDN CONCERTS .- But few more HANDEL AND HAYDN CONCERTS. - But few more days remain to procure senson tickets for the Handel and Haydn Concerts, the first of which is to be given on Thursday evening of next week, when the grand oratorio of Edijak will be produced, with Dr. Guilimette, the celebrated basso, of Boston: Mr. George Simpson, tenor, of New York; and Miss Caroline McCaffrey and Miss H. M. Alexander, of Philadelphia. The moderate price at which the tickets have been p aced-ten dollars for three seats, for the three concerts-bids fair to secure the house in advance, or at least as much of it as the manage-ment intend to reserve. We hope our readers will act upon this hint, as no grander musical feasts will be provided this season than the oratorios of Eligich, St. Paul, and Duvid, by the Handel and Haydn.

ELOCUTIONARY AND MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT. -Mr. S. L. Adams, one of our most accomplished elocutionists, will give an extensive, elaborate, and varied reading from the poets, at the Assembly Buildings, next Thursday evening, December 6. Mr. H. G. Everest will preside at the piano. Mr. Adams will be assisted by Mr and Mrs. J. G. Magge and daughter, and Mr. W. W. Glichrist, Tickets may be had at Trumpler's, Seventh and Chesnut Streets.

Crook in fine style. The acc of spades is nothing to compare to it. Dixey says that the management were not at all C.-em-Barras-sed with its production, as other thestres have been. No offense to the real Black Crooker 1

FATHER KEMP, Emma J. Nichols, and the "Old Folks" are still holding their levees at National Hall, Market street, above Twelith, every evening, and on Wednesday and Saturday at ernoons. VALER'S WINTER GARDEN, Vine street, below Eighth.-Miss Victoria Howard and Miss Ada Tes-

A FUBLICAN IN TROUBLE, --- William M. Garry, who keeps an establishment for the sale of liquer on a simal is see e. at Mariandvile, on Mont-gomery's coal and wood wharf, was arrested vestar-day affermoon, on a charge of suspicion of larcensy, and for selling liquor on Sunday. A stray cus-iomer stoppet at the place on Sunday, and whils asleep had S150 in greenbasks abs raoted from his person. He loczed complaint against Garry, and the latter was airceted by Officer Lyster, and taken before Alderman Allen, who, after hearing the facts of the case, committed him in default of $1200 bial to answer. A PUBLICAN IN TROUBLE,-William M. bail to answer.

A SALE OF VALUABLE PAINTINGS is A SALE OF VALUABLE FAINTINGS is announced to take place at the auction rooms of B. Scott, Jr., No. 1050 Chesnut street, on the 19th, 20th, and 21st of December. The collection numbers two hundred and six's proces, all of them originals, by artists of established reputation in the O d World. They are the importation of Mr. A. d'Hu vetter, of Antwerp, who has bestowed great care in selecting such as will prove value a solutions to the art of this counter. Bis importation made downed law country. His importation made during last year was received with such favor by the public, that we predict a like success in pleasing them on the present occasion

RIVER PIRATE .- John Wilkinson made raid on the steamer Pilot Boy, as she lay at Arch raid on the steamer Pilot Bop, as she lay at Arch street wharf, yesterday morning, and made a selec-tion of clothing from the Captain's warflrobe, which he carried off without asking the Captain's permis-sion. A war ant was issued against Witkinson, and he was arres'ed last evening at Bristol. He had a hearing before Alderman Beitler, who com-mitted him, in detault of $1000 ball, to answer the charge of larceny. charge of larceny.

A SUPPOSED BURGLAR.-Michael Clark A SUPPOSED BURGLAR.—Michael Clark got under the influence of the ardent last evening, and being naturally of an irascible temper made him-self so disagrees ble to those around him, that he was arrested at Fourth and Race streets, and taken to the Station House. On examining his person, a bunch of skeleton keys were found. He attempted to account for his possession of them on principles of law and justice but failed. He was committed by Alderman Godbou.

COLORED MAN ON A SPREE.—Henry Handolph, in a spirit of mischief, indulged in the little pleasantry of ringing the bells of the houses in the vicinity of Touth and Spruce streets about ten o clock last night. Some of the people being absurd enough to object to it, had Henry arrested. He was taken before Alderman Swift, and held in spin hall to keep the peace. $300 bail to keep the peace.

MAN DROWNED.—This morning, about 10 o'clock, a boatman named Daniel A bert, about thirty-five years of age, residing in Reading, fell into the Schuylkill river at the Wire Bridge, Fair-mount, and was drowned. After much patient grapping the body was recovered by Officers Frit-ner and Haviland, of the Sixtcenth District.

SLIGHT FIRE.—A slight fire broke out in the Good Intent Cotton Mills, on the West Chester road, in the Twenty fourth Ward, about 7 o'clock this morning. The damage amounted to about $100. The fire was put out by the employes, without giving any slarm.

CARD .- In consequence of the great preparations Canb.-In consequence of the great preparations requisite in the manufacture of first-class frames for the paintings imported by A. d'Huvvettar Esq., of Antwerp, the sale which we announced to take place in November has been unavoidably postponed until the 18th, 20th, and 21st of December, at which time it will positively take place, at Scott's Art Gallery No. 1020 Chesnut street. Mr. A. d'Huvvetter returns his thanks to the public for the high appreciation of his importation last season. in consequence of which he will offer at this sale 290 original paintings, his entire involce, constituting the finest sale evel held in this country. OF IMPORTANCE TO THE TRAVELLING PUBLIC.—"Sheppard's Southern and Western Ship-per's Guide" is now ready, and we are constrained to the conclusion that it is one of the best books of reference published. It contains complete shipping reference published. It contains complete shipping directions to railroad, river, and inland towns throughout twenty-tour Western and Southern States. It gives a list of all the express, telegraph, and railroad stations; the names of every steamboat and steamship line; the names of the leading hotels; and, in fact, all the information any one desires who is or anticipates travelling. As an advertising medium, it stands among the first of its kind. An sgent is now in this city soliciting advertisements and subscriptions, and our merchants, when called on by him, would do well to hesitate before they withheid their patromage. The agent's name is Philip A. Higgins; his address, Box No. 1480, Phila-delphia Post Office.

AN AGGRAVATED ASSAULT UPON A AN AGGRAVATED ASSAULT UPA A WOMAN.-At a very early hour this morning, a lady, living near Eighth and Girard avenue, had occasion to leave her house on an errand of necessity, and when she had got a few doors from her house was attacked by a couple of rufhans, who attempted an outrage upon her. She struggled with them, and her cries attracted the attention of the poice, who came to her assistance, and frightened her and her cries attracted the attention of the poics, who came to her assistance, and frightened her assailants off. They were pursued, and after a chase, were run into a saloon at Seventh and Girard avenue, and were there captured. The two men enve the names of John Stief and James Dean. They had a hearing before A decman Fitch, and were held in * ATTEMPT A. _____ABY.-_ADOUL half-past 8 o'clock last evening, as Mr. Daniel Sheetz was going along Ash street, in the Nineteenth Ward, he was suddenly set upon by iour men, who assaulted him in a violent manner. He cried out ior holp, and a couple of pelicemen, who happened provider tially to be within hearing, ran to his assist-ance, and arrested two of the would-be robbers, named Thomas Vermillion and Benjamin Flick. Mr. Sneetz had, when attacked, a large sum of greenbacks upon his person. The two villains had a hearing befors Alderman Clouds, and were held in $.000 ball each to answer.

in $1000 bail each to answer. FIRE, AND RESCUE OF A CHILD,-Yes FIRE, AND RESCUE OF A CHILD,--- I es-terday moraing about nine o'clock smoke was seen issaiing from the second-story windows of No. 712 St. Mary street. Officer Slirgard, who was in the neighborhood, on seeing it, rashed up with a bucket of water, and rescued a small child that was almost sufficiented. The bed and bedding and most of the furniture were burned. The origin of the fire was from playing with matches by the child. The dam-age will amount to about $20.

CRUEL PARENTS .- Albert Arndt and his wife. Lens Arndt were arrested by Officer Reeder, in Wood street above Twelfth, for cruelty to a couple of little children whom they had with them. The little children had been beaten and abused, and starved, until they were in a sad plight. Their unnatural parents had a hearing this morning be-tore Alderman Godboa, who held them each in $410 hal to answer.
