

TEMPERANCE.

Meeting of the Philadelphia Temperance Society Last Evening—Address by the Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, New York, and the Rev. Alfred Cookman.

SPECIAL PHOTOGRAPHIC REPORT FOR THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.

The Philadelphia Temperance Society held the first of a series of meetings in the Central Presbyterian Church last evening. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present, and took deep interest in the interesting discourses of Rev. T. L. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, and Rev. Alfred Cookman, of this city.

rance is a principle of the Word of God. It is the taking of God's wholesome beverage in opposition to man's destructive, poisonous beverage. By the grace of God, we will do all we can to save young men from this dreadful evil.

Ministers should preach temperance as a part of the Word of God. If we feel that it is a duty to preach it, we should do so with the same earnestness that we have shown in the past.

The President then read the resolution, which was accepted unanimously. Speech of Rev. A. Cookman. Rev. Alfred Cookman was then introduced, and spoke in substance as follows:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen—I have a resolution to propose to you, which is as follows:—In view of the vast increase of intoxicating liquors as a beverage and the consequent multiplied evil arising therefrom, imperiling the interests of morality and religion, and of the government, and ruining multitudes of our fellow-citizens, therefore

Resolved, that it is the duty of every patriot, philanthropist, and Christian to exert every influence to avert the evils of this fearful and unequalled curse.
