MADAMS ADELAIDS RISTORI -HER DEBUT TRIS EVENING AS "MEDRA"-The greatest living tragedienne will make ber first appearance in this city at the Academy of Music to-night, and we are happy to announce that the audience will be large, clite, and distingue. The cast of Medea is as follows .-

Here is the argument of the play (Medea) this

Here is the argument of the play (Medea) this evening:—

"The mytholowy of the Greeks has furnished the incidents of this play. The Argonautic Expedition, commanded by Jason, the object of which wa to obtain the polden fleece in Colchis, having arrived at that country, sought to obtain the coveted prize. Medea assisted Jason in his here c adventures, and he finally obtained her heart. With the utmost ingratifude, after two children had been born to them, Jason abandoned the namily. The first acts represents Medea, wandering with her children, in search of Jason. She arrives at the Court of Creen, in Corinth where his daughter Creusa is on the eve of her maringe. The interview of Medea with Creusa discloses that Jason is to be the husband of the fair Corinthian; and Medea, incited by the Fates, pours forth the most violent wrath at the discovery. In the second act there is an interview between Jason and Medea, in which he proposes to take one of the children, and jermit Ardea to have the custody of the other. This arouses all the maternal tenderness of the abused Misdea, and she determines to take vengeance on the ungrateful hero who has abandoned her, after having derived much of his renewn from the magic arts of the unhappy princes, who was once the inverte daughter of Actes, king of Colchis. The third act displays the character of Medea under the influence of the Faries, the vengeance upon Jason tens taken by the sacrifice of the two children at the hands of their mother. The varied history of Ja on and Medea, as recorded in Greek mythology has furnished many of the incidents in this drams but the reatment of it by M. Legouve is or ginal in many respects, without being made por derous by cassical e aboration." Legouve is or ginal in many respects, without being made por derous by classical elaboration."

The public are respectfully requested to be promp in faking the researt, as the play commences at eight o'clock precisely, and it is most desirable that no tiffur ance should occur during the performance.

THE CRATORIO OF ELIJAH.—Mendelssohn's grand oratorio of E-ijah will be produced at the Academy of Music on Thursday evening, December 18th, in truly magnificent style, by the popular and energetic Handel and Haydu Society. It will constitute the first concert of the season, and will be an important musical event. The best talent that could be secured in the country has been engaged for the solo parts, counsising of Dr. C. A. Gui-mette, of Boston; George Simpson, of New York; Miss H. M. A exander and Miss Caroline McCaffrey, or Philadelphia. I hree boys will sustain the parts of the youth and the angel's chorus, who are being instructed by Professor Pierce, the who are being instructed by Professor Pierce, the accomplished organist of St Mark's Church. The choruses will be most effectively rendered by the members of the Handel and Haydn Society, consisting of over three hundred voices. Carl Sentz, the popular leader of the Handel and Haydn, directs the entire affair.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Peirce.—At the present time, in regard to the business of this Court, the cry is "still they come." Prisoners and prison cases still roll in pleunfully. This morning there were fourteen tasteful selections in the dock, all whom looked like "raw recruits for the pay." LUCRATIVE PHILANTHROPY.

James Brown was convicted of a charge of the isrceny of a watch and chain, and a pocket-book valued at $22, the property of Thomas Boyd. Boyd got drunk one day, and Brown kindly offered to see him safe home. The offer was gratefully accepted. Brown stayed with his charge a while, rummaged his vest and pants' pockets, and went for a cab. He took the scolen articles with him, and never returned with the cab.

with the cab. ANOTHER ONE. Issac Burrs, colored, was convicted of a charge of the larceny of backets and buffato robes, valued at $40, the property of his employer, Daniel McCui-lough.

A GAY STEAMBOAT MAN. John Wilkinson was convicted of a charge of the larceny of clothing and money valued at $60, the property of Henry Crawford. White the steamer Pilot Boy was lying at arch street whart Wilkinson went aboard, stole the goods, and made for Bristol, where he was caught and deprived or his plunder.

MISTAREN IN THE HOUSE. Ransom Jones was convicted of a charge of burglary, in entering the house of Susan Kelley in the night time with intent to commit a felony. One morning about 2 o'clock he was seen coming out of the house of said Susan Kelley with a shawl around his body which belonged to the said Susan, a cand e in his right hand, and a piece of pork in his left. These circumstances were entirely too strong.

PLEA OF GUILTY. Elizabeth Augustus pleaded guilty to a charge of the larceny of clothing, amounting to $22, the pro-perty of Jul'a Sulivan. The prisoner was a servant in Miss Sulivan's house. One day, while the lady was out, this girl stole these clothes, put some of them on, and went out for a wark for the good of her health, which was abructly cut short by a young man who knew the girl and knew the dress. NOTEA BURGLAR.

Andrew Flumer was acquitted of a charge of burglary, in entering the house of James S. Sargeant, No. 2829 Amber street. About 34 o'clock A. M., November 28, two men entered Mr. Sargeant's bedroom, with their faces stained, presented a pistol, telling him to make no noise, stole a watch and pair of pants, and so' away. That morning one of them, a man named Flick, was arrested while washing the stains from his face. The latter was convicted last week. But there was no evidence against this defendant. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Sargeant recognized him as one of the burglars, and, moreover, the detense proved an alibi.

A LARGE HAUL.-Lieutenant Goldey, on complaint of several of the citizens residing near Water and Dock streets, made a descent upon a disorderly house in Water street, above Dock, kept by a man named John Jones. The surround was made in good style, and about half-past eleven o'clock, when the noise and disorder was at its height, the inmates of the house were suddenly disturbed by the appear-ance in their midst of a number of the guardians of the peace. Resistance was useless; they were marched off, as meek as lambs to the slaughter, to the Station House. Besides the keeper of the place, there were some thirteen men and women arrested. Tuey all had a hear-ing before Alderman Butler yesterday morning, and Jones was held in $1000 bail to answer for keeping a disorderly house. The other worthies were each held in $300 ball to keep the peace and answer the charge of disorderly conduct.

A NICE OPERATION FOILED .- Quite a neat little speculation was spoiled by the unfor-tunate circumstance of the actors being observed at their little game. James Shea, John Luchart, and William Whelsn went into an enclorure at South street wharf, and watching their chance when they were unobserved, as they thought, untied a call (a real one) that was they thought, untied a calf (a read one) that was fastened to a stall, in a shed, and threw it overboard. They then got a boat and recovered it, intending to claim it as property found adrilt. They were discovered, however, and tried to creep out of their dilemma by pretending to have found it, and were going to advertise for an owner. But it would not work, however, and they were arrested for larceny. After a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, during which the tectimony clicited was rather severe on the defindants, the latter were committed on the charge. the charge.

A LIGHT-FINGERED GENT FOILED .- John H. sler, whilst perambulating South street, near Eleventh, was very much pleased with the appearance of some cloth that was happing in t ont of a dry goods store in that locality. Visions of a Christmas suit were before his mind's eye, and under the influence of a temporary in-anity, or absence of mind, took hold of the cloth and endeavored to remove it. But the cloth was good and strong, and made a noise in ripping as he tried to force it from the heek, that alarmed the storekeeper. The latter rushed out and caught Hesler in flagrante deticiu, and handed him over to an officer. He had a hear ing before Alderman T ttermary, and was committed on the charge of larceny.

AN IRREPRESSIBLE .- Robert Middleton, Matthew Burs, and another vagrant were artested the other day and locked up in a cell at the Station House for the night. Before the night was over, Middleton got into a quarrel with Burk, who was in a grossly intoxicated condition, and knocked him down, and then kicked him about the face and body in a most brutal manner. When the cell door was opened in the morning Burk presented a most world aspect. His face was covered with blood, and his hair matted with the same. Middleton, who had been arrested for disorderly conduct, was held in $500 bail to answer a charge of assault and battery, by Alderman Shoemaker.

RATHER SUSPICIOUS .- George Brown was arrested at Third and Chesnut streets about noon last Saturday. When arrested he had been inculging rather freely in fincture of old ree, and was rather noisy and obstreperous. being searched at the Station House a quantity of office keys were found upon his person. As he could not give a clear account of the manner in which they had come into his possession, Alderman Beitler, be ore whom the examina-tion was held, committed him in default of $1000 bail on a charge of larceny. It is suspected that the keys were stolen with a view to future operations.

AN OLD OFFENDER.-John Ryan, a man aged over sixty years, was arrested on the double charge of malicious mischief and stealing rope. It appears that Ryan deliberately cut the linand fasts of a canal-boat that was lying at the wharf above Manayunk, thus leaving the vesse to drift down with the tide. However, the mis chief was discovered before anything seriouhappened. Ryan was arrested at Port Carbon schuylkill county, yesterday morning, on a war rant issued by Alderman Gibson, before whom he had a hearing yesterday afternoon. He was held in $500 bail to answer.

VICTIM OF MISPLACED CONFIDENCE .-A man who was induced to go out with a hastily made acquaintance on a bender, on Saturday night, came to grief. After going around town and seeing the elephant and the other animals, the friend (?). who gave the name of William K. Wardell, took him to a hotel in Pine alley, to spend the balance of the night. An hour had passed on, when the man awoke to find his money had disappeared, and his friend also. He. however, gave information that led to Wardell's arrest yesterday morning. The prisoner had a bearing before Alderman Tittermary, and was committed on the charge.

POCKET PICKED .- A man who, at the time, was under the influence of liquor, committed bimself to the care of a faithless friend, named John Manderfield. The latter took advantage of his convoy's condition to relieve him of his pocket-book, containing $64. This little affair happened in the neighborhood of Sixth and Shippen streets, yesterday atternoon. As soon as the victimized man discovered his loss he informed on Manderfield, and had him ar-rested on a charge of larceny. He had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, who held him in default of ball to answer.

AN OPERATION IN SKINS,-Martin Noe. three weeks ago, stole from a morocco dealer and manufacturer in Randolph street, above Jefferson, about nine dozen goat-skins, par-tially dressed and finished. He took part of them to a place in Third street, below Brown, and left them to be sold there. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and the officer came across him yesterday afternoon. He had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker, and was held to answer the charge of larceny.

NEARLY DROWNED .- About half-past 10 o'clock last evening, a man named George Bergen fell overboard into the canal lock, near Manayunk, and but for the assistance of a police officer would have been drowned,
