CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM WM. CORNELL JEWETT. CONTINENTAL HOTEL, Philadelphia, December 19, 1866.

To the Editor of the Evening Telegraph: -I enclose Colonel Forney's reply to my late letter urging his withdrawal of letter withdrawing as a candidate for the United States Senate. I can only add my regret that statesmen of Colonel Forney's patriotic and unselfish stamp should be lost to the councils of the nation at this most critical period in the history of the republic, and do hope his friends will press before the Legislature of Pennsylvania his claims as all paramount. Mr. Stevens is already in Congress, battling ably and conscientiously for his country. General Cameron has had Senatorial and other honors, with how much honor, let us in all charity draw a curtain over. Go vernor Curtin is fresh from the honor of an efficlent Governor, vindicating the Constitution and Union. Let all withdraw as candidates in favor of Colonel Forney, who has "borne the heat and burden of the day," without reward, and won the title to high position.

WM. CORNELL JEWETT.

COL. FORNEY TO WM. CORNELL JEWETT. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 18, 1866 .- My Dear Sir:-I owe you sincere thanks for your numerous favors. Every hour's reflection convinces me that I acted rightly in withdrawing as a caudidate for Senator. Indeed, when I remember what Mr. Stevens has done for the country, and how much better off we should be to-day if we had followed his early counsel, I am ashamed that I did not take this step before. There is, besides, another consideration, Upon the unity, and therefore upon the success of the great Republican party, depend, in my opinion, the triumph of the real experiment o' republican government, and I fear that, adding myself as an element in the conflict, I might contribute to such a catastrophe. Rather than be thus guilty I would consent to forfeit all hopes of political preferment. I may be mistaken in these views, but I entertain them sincerely, and I believe you will give me credit for the motive that has prompted me.
Yours, very truly, John W. Forney.
WM. CORNELL JEWETT, Philadelphia.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC .- Madame Adelaide Ristori, Countess del Grido, appeared as Maria Stuarda last evening, to a large and fashionable audience. Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War, and Major-General George Gorden Meade occupied seass in the directors' proscentum box.

This evening, Madame Ristori appears as "Lady Macbeth," in which role she is said to be superb. The plot of Shakespeare's tragedy is so familiar to Americans that it is unnecessary to present it here. On Friday night, Ma ame Ristori appears for her benefit in Marengo's celebrated tragedy of Pia dei Tolemei, the plot of which we shall publish to-

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional Local Items see Third Page.] FIRE IN NORTH BROAD STREET.

Several Large Warehouses Burnt-Loss Over $80,000. This morning, about uve o'clock, a fire broke out in the extensive malt liquor establishment of Mr. Allen, No. 227 North Broad street, above Race. The building at the time was filled with malt and hops, a i of which were totally destroyed.

The building was three stories high, and i now a total wreck—the roof being barned off, and floors of the second and third stories talling to the ground. The loss is about $40,000, upon which there is an insurance of $20,000. The fire communicated on the south side to No. 225, occupied by Samuel L. Hall as a distillery. All his atock is completely destroyed. He estimated the second of the south side of $20,000. mates his loss at $10,000, and is insured for $6000, in New Haven and New York companies. The third story of this building was occupied by a carpet-weaver, whose name we could not earn. His stock and machines were totally

The cellar No. 225, on the south side, occupied by Bushong & Jones, was flooted with water. About $200 will cover the loss; fully No. 229, on the north side, was occupied by

J. H. Dewachle, dealer in provisions and produce. His loss is about $5000, which is insured

The buildings belong to Nathan Smedley, and are valued at $50,000, which is nearly covered by insurance. They are in a very unsafe condition, and will have to be pulled down and new ones erected in their place. The firemen worked with superhuman efforts to prevent the fire from spreading, and deserve a great deal of credit. The Good Will steamer was still throwing water on the burning debris when we left the scene at

And if he does know what he wants, behold the assortment from which he is enabled to make his selections! In the way of fruits, he will find raisins, currants, figs, citrons, dates, English and American pickles, and English, Indian, and American sauces; and he will discover an assortment of French and Spanish sar-dines, jellies, preserves, paper-shelled almonds, and every variety of preserved vegetables

The canned fruits and vegetables, in particular, have been "done up" in the most admirable style. The fresh peaches are especially noticeable for the richness of their flavor, while quinces, peas, corn, Lima beans, and succotash—that delectable compound of the two-are not a whit behind them.

And then, in the way of caceses, just read the list: — Stilton, Cheddar, Edam, Neufchatel, Young America, Jenny-Lind, sago, pinc-apple, and—we tire of the enumeration. As an offset to these we find French and Spanish olives, mustards, capers, petits-pois, champignons, trufes, pates-de fotes gras.

Besides all these there is a tempting display of potted meats, including ham, beef, tongue Strasbourg anchovy, partridge, liver, shrimp, Yarmouth herring, and bloaters. But all these would present a temptation to thirst alone were it not for the innumerable bottles of Kupfererg's renowned sparkling Rhine wines, and the brandles and wines, of perfect purity, prepared tor medicinal and family uses, some of them being of very old date and of equal rarity.

And now will any one, whether epicure or otherwise, say that in all this rich and varied stock he can find nothing that will suit his own palate, and make glad the heart of his wite?

THIRD SALE OF HIGH-CLASS MODESN Oil Paintings .- We announce with pleasure that our friends and lovers of the beautiful are again to have the rare opportunity of supplying themselves from the very valuable collection of modern oil paintings the auction sale of which is to be finaugurated this (Wednesday) evening, and continued the two following evenings of

This valuable collection comprises the works of the leading artists of European schools, and are to be seen at Scott's Ait Gallery, No. 1020 Chesnut street, where they are to be sold. These pictures, which are offered for public competi-tion, are imported direct from the studios, and placed within the reach of those who can rightly appreciate their worth, beauty, and originality, which cannot be questioned.

Many of our citizens no doubt, have long been anxiously on the look out for an opportunity that would enable them to purchase some of these works of art for themselves, of to present as a gift to some friend. This they have been unable to do at the establishments where such pieces were offered for sale, consequent upon the enormous rates set upon them. But now, if they but act upon the offered inducements, they can at once gratify themselves by procuring at reasonable rates the works of noted artists. The as-ortment is very select and large for one of its kind.

The pictures number nearly three hundred, and comprehend landscapes, marine, figurative, and cattle scenes, humorous and pathetic pieces, which, for expression, conception, and composition cannot be surpassed by anything of their kind in the country. This is an oppor-tunity which should not be unappreciated by our citizens who desire to ornament their homes with that which is beautiful and artistic. No such collection has ever been placed within the reach of the public. The enterprise of Mr. Scott in offering this rare occasion for the gratification of all lovers of art, is surely to be commended. The auction rooms, No. 1020 Chesnut street, have been fitted up into one of the finest of art galleries. The large and beautiful pictures ornament the walls and crowd the stands. In consequence of the importance of this sale, it has been found necessary to issue tickets of admission, which can be obtained of the auctioneer gratuitously. Remember, to-night and the two following evenings, at Scott's Auction Rooms, is the place to secure these beautiful works of the favorite European artists.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE LAST SALE OF RARE WORKS OF ART.—This morning commenced the sale of the rare selections of articles of nertuthe Concert Hall building, by the Messrs. Viti Brothers, and which continues to-morrow. The rooms were crowded with persons eager to supply themselves with the elegant and artistic works offered; and, by the manner the works were sold off this morning, we would admon shit those who have not attended, and are desirous to secure specimens, to at once avail themselves of this golden opportunity, if they would be suc-The collection surpasses anything ever cessiul. offered to the public. The sale will close to-morrow morning, when those wishing to avail themselves of so desirable an opportunity should not new contract.

E DANGEROUS AMUSEMENT. - A Young lad named Conrad Raster was arrested yesterday afternoon, near Canal and Fourth streets, tor indulging in the amusement of firing a pistol. It appears that there were a party of boys, of various ages, sizes, and conditions, indulging in the amusement of skaling, when Conract. thinking the sport was not exciting enough, drew a pistol and commenced shooting at a mark. He got the boys to put their caps on the ice and let him fire at them. He had been at this some time when a police officer appeared on the scene and stopped his fun, and arresting him, took him before Alderman Shoemaker, After hearing the facts of the case he was fined and held in $300 bail to keep the peace, and was dismissed with a severe reprimand from the POPULAR FAIR .- The most elegant affair of this kind held of late in our city is the charming Bazaar now arranged in the large saloon of the Assembly Buildings, at Tenth' and Chesnut treets, for the beneat of the Bethany enterprise at Twenty-second and Shippen streets, which is erecting a large building for Sunday School and Church purposes, and is doing a grand work in the way of city missions in that section of the The Fair has been gotten up by the ladies of the various Presbyterian churches of the city, and is a most superb collection of fancy and useful articles. This is one of the most pleasant places to spend an evening that can be found anywhere.

DISORDERLY HOUSE CASE.—Lieutenan Goldey made a descent last night upon a disorderly house, that has been in operation for some time, at No. 125 Gothic street. The place is kept by a woman named Phoebe Brown. Several complaints have been made against it as a nuisance to the neighborhood. A lady got out a warrant against the keeper of the house and Lieutenant Goldey sent out a detachment of police, who made a surround last night, and captured the proprietress and about half-a-dozen disorderly characters, who were within at that time. Phœbe Brown and the others had a hear-ing before Alderman Bu'ler, who held her in $1000 bail for keeping a disorderly house, and the rest in $300 bail to keep the peace.

A CORRECTION .- To the Editor of the Enning Telegraph.—Permit me to correct a statement appearing in last evening's Tele-GRAPH. The institution which has done me the honor of appointing me, unsolicited, Professorship of Diseases of the Eye and Ear, is the University of Philadelphia, in Ninth street, south of Walnut, and not the University of Pennsylvania, as stated by you. A trilling error, which, nevertheless, I wish to be the first to rectify. Respectfully, F. Von Moschzisker.

A SUSPECTED BURGLAR CAPTURED .-About 3 o'clock this morning, Officer S. N. Miller, whilst on his beat in the vicinity of Front and Dock streets, discovered a man named John Flaherty trying the doors of the houses and stores along Front street. The officer at once took him into custody. As they were going slong at Third and Spruce streets, Flaherty drew a concealed billy, and struck the officer on the head with it. The latter drew his official billy, and soon convinced the suspected burglar that he had to march on. He had a hearing before Alderman Butler, and was held in $1000 ball to answer the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. Officer Miller received a severe contusion on the head, but was not seriously hurt.

RECKLESS DRIVING .- George Smith, who has charge of a coal cart, whipped up his herse and travelled along Girard avenue, near Mariborough street, yesterday noon, at a rather heavy rate of speed, at the risk of coming into forcible contact with other teams in the vicinity. He was arrested by Officer Grant, who was about to take him along to the Station House, when a friend of the prisoner, named James Houghey, interfered to prevent the arrest.

The latter was also taken into custody, and the two were inclor onely escorted to Alderman Cloud's office. Smith was held in $400 bail for fast driving, and the interfering friend found another triend to go his security for $300, to answer for interfering with the officer making the STEALING WASH-CLOTHES. - About 'clock this morning, Officer Young, of the Fifth District Police, came across a colored man named Peter Thomas, having in his possession a bundle of wash-clothes, numbering about forty-four or forty-five pieces. When first accosted, he gave up the bundle and attempted to escape. He ran down Seventh to St. Mary street, and down St. Mary to Sixth street. Officer Young gave chase, and fired two shots at him from his revolver. With the assistance of Officers Gaitan and Ewing the man was arrested, and taken to the Fifth District Station House. He acknowledged to Lieutenant Con-nelly this morning that he had stolen the ciothes from the yard of a house in the neigh-borhood of Franklin and Vine streets. DID NOT GET HIS CHEISTMAS-TREE.— A German named A. Pflom was arrested at Fairmount Park yesterday afternoon for defacing the shrubbery. Our worthy friend was prepar-ing for the old time-honored custom of celebrating Christmas by securing a Christmas tree for the young folks at home. He had succeeded in cutting off a beautiful pine sapling, and was already contemplating, in his mind's eye, its branches filled with good things, when his reveries were broken in upon by the vision of a policeman, who politely requested the honor of his company to his friend Alderman Hutchin-son's office. After hearing the facts of the case, hat gentleman held Pflom in $300 bail.

CHEATING IN MEASURE.—It is only now and then that dealers get detected in using talse weights and measures. A case occurred yesterday afternoon. A man named Aaron M. Smith. hailing from the sandy shores of Jersey, was arrested at Fifth street and Girard avenue, on the charge of selling by false measure. It appears that he was selling coal oil, and his callon measure was a full pintshort. Mr. Seiss, who keeps the grocery store at the corner, de-tected the cheat that was attempted to be practised on him, and bad Smith arrested. He was taken before Alderman Shoemaker, and fine tor breach of ordinance.

The Beer Holiday Giff for a Lady is a Florence ! Ewise Machine — The sewing macline business has grown to signate proportions since the period when the inventor first set the ball in motion. Many patents have been applied for, and the Government has recognized a considerable proportion of them as meritorious and worthy of savetien. At the head of the improved machines stands. The Florence, 'the general agency of which is at No. 680 Chesnut street, and where exquisite specimens of the workmanship of the machine may be critically examined. 'The Florence' is free from the objections to which other machines are liable. Its inventor adopted the lock-sitch in preference to any other, and then added the knot, double lock and double knot either of which may be chosen by the operator to suit any grade of fabric. Thus four different stitches are made with the ease with which other machines suit any grade of fabric. Thus four different statches are made with the case with which other machines make one. Some of its advantages are concisely set forth thus:—The needle is easily adjusted and does not skip stitches. It is almost noiseless. It has a self-adjusting tension of thread. Its motions are positive; there are no springs to get out of order, and its simplicity enables any one to operate it. The Hemmer will turn any width of hem desired. It will hem, fell, bind, gather, braid, quilt, and gather and sew on a ruffle at the same time. It has no eprings to set out of order, and will last a lifetime. Who can doubt the advantages of "The Florence?" Sold at No. 630 Chesnut areet.
