AMUBEMENTS.

THE GERMANIA.—The following is the programme or the concert at Musical Fund Hall to-morrow benevolent society.

CAMBEN AFFAIRS.

BURGLARY .- Last evening the house of I avid Palmer, on Fifth street, below Walnut, was entered by cutting a panel out of the back The thieves rummaged every drawer and cupboard in the house, and turned everything upside down. They were evidently hungry, and were no doubt frightened off by something, as several crackers, spread with butter an inch thick, were found lying on the table. They took with them several deeds and a lot of clothing valued at $300. No arrests were made.

MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCILS .- Last evening the City Councils held their regular stated meeting. No business was transacted. A resolution was offered and adopted that the Councils adjourn until Thursday hext, out of respect for the death of one of their fellowmembers (Samuel McClain, of the Middle Ward), and that the members accompany the remains to the grave in a body. He will be buried on Saturday, the 20th instant, from his residence, Federal street, above Second.

HEAVY WIND,-The wind blew so viobatty in this city last evening, that it required great physical exertion to maintain an uprigh odicy position. One little girl, at Fourth and Hamilton streets, was litted from her feet, and thrown down a hill a distance of twenty feet. She received no bodily injury, but was fright-ened considerably. Officer Hawkins, who was passing at the time, picked her up and took her

AN OLD OFFENDER.-Charles Hinkle was arrested yesterday upon the charge of assaulting a man and woman residing in California row, and for breaking the windows of an out-house belonging to Mr. Caffery, opposite. He was a short time since released from the State's Prison, having served out his imprisonment for assaulting a Mr. Caldwell. He was committed in default of bail.

Accident .- A man named Mat. Bell, employed as a driver of a coal-cart attached to Mr. I't neh's coal yard, was seriously injured by a neavy stick of wood falling on him in the yard. It struck him on the head, tearing off a part of the scalp, and injuring his face. The wound bled profusely. He was removed to his home in Chesnut street, above Railroad,

THE CAMDEN WARDS .- The question is being agitated at present of dividing Camden into six wards. This would indeed be a beneuit to the city, and all that is needed is a few of our prominent men to take the matter in mand,

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE WEATHER.-Last night was one of those periodically occurring oreary, comfortless sights which clear the streets of pedestrians, and even make the invincible policemen cuddle into some sheltered corner, or seek refuge near some triendly stove. A violent wind, cold and shilly, blew down the streets, howled around the corners, whistled through the alleys, pene grated through the thickest and wirmest of flothing, and made those who were walking or riding shiver all over by its unwelcome con-tset. Its force was such that it tended to lift unsuspecting individuals from off their feet, or to greatly impede their further progress. was the immediate cause of the banging of gates, slamming of window blinds, and rattling of sashes, which greatly disturbed the equasimity of all within doors.

We hear of the blowing down of many chimtwys in all parts of the city, and considerable damage done to the scaffoldings of the new churches in process of erection.

The weather this morning was of a freezing tendency, and the day one of the coldest experienced this winter.

FIRE IN QUIGG'S COURT, IN QUARRY STREET, BETWEEN SECOND AND THIRD-LOSS ABOUT $1000. This morning, about half-past 8 o'clock, the root of a building in Quigg's court occupied by August Dufuer, was discovered to be on fire. A son of his, in company with another lad, had gone on the roof and built a bonure. The wind blowing a stiff breeze at the time, soon scattered the burning brands over the roof and set it on fire. Part of it was burned off, as was a portion of the next one. There are four houses in the court, occupied respectively by Michael Quinn, loss about $50; Patrick McGarven, loss $100; Peter Welsh, loss $50; August Dutuer, loss $75. All of these buildings were floded with water. The upper story of No. 219 Quarry street, occupied by David Hays, was damaged slightly by water. In the rear of No. 221 a house occupied by Dennis Gibbons was also damaged by water to the extent of $100. In all the houses the furniture was broken. Very few articles were rescued in a perfect state. The buildings are owned by Mr. Frishmuth, and are insured for $150 each.

SACRED CONCERT .- In spite of the incle mency of the weather last evening, quite a large audience was assembled at the First Presbyte rian Church, at Thirty-afth and Bridge streets The concert commenced with a selection of songe, which were sung very creditably. Then followed a series of selections of solos, duetts, and a quartette. The music was under the direction of Professor George J. Corrie, and the piano was of the Steinway make, and came from the establishment of Messrs, Blasius Brothers, 1006 Chesnut street. The full, clear tones and the rich volume of sound that are so emi-nently characteristic of Steinway's planes, anded greatly to the merits of the performances. The concert closed with a fine rendering of the cantata entitled "The Origin of the Sca sons," the words of which were written by Miss Anna E. Federhen, and the music by Darley Newcomb, Esq. The different characters represented in the cantata appeared in appropriate costume.

LADIES' FAIR. - This Fair, at the new church. Franklin street and Columbia avenue, is still in operation, and continues to draw large crowds. The ladies have been indefatigable in their management to please all who attend, and their labors have been crowned with success.

Articles of all kinds—to ornament, to use, and to cheer the outer and inner man -ace still disposed of from the loaded tables. The voting on the hose cart at last accounts stood as follows: Resolution, -Hand-in-Hand. Taylor. -

Six regalias, for Masons and Odd Fellows, are eliciting an exciting vote, the result of which will be announced.

ROBBERIES IN OUR RURAL DISTRICTS. -On the night of the 22d, the house of Mr. William Stevens, on Broad street, above Rising Sun lane was entered, and a quantity of apples two jars of preserves, a quart of molasses, eight pounds of sugar, four pounds of butter. 18 or 20 eggs, and a goose were stolen. The thief, who was evidently laving up for Christ-mas, had entered through the cellar door which

On the evening of the 18th, the house of Mr.
S. Cole, at the corner of Nicetown lane and the Township line road, was entered, and robbed of a quantity of clothing.

HOME ART - SALE OF CR. LEBRATED PAINTINGS - THE PRODUCTIONS OF AMERICAN ARTISTS.—Scott's Art Gallery has become ideatified as one of the permanent institutions of our city. Its opening is eagerly looked for by our citizens, who know that it is always the signal for the sale of beautiful and rare works of art. Some, in fact the very best, collections of articles of artistic skill in workmanship, and elegance in appearance, have been offered here within the past month; and now the public is again informed of another sale of oil paintings, which no doubt will be more acceptable, because the most noted productions of our own artists. The present collection numbers 275 pleces, which are to be sold at the Gallery, No. 1920 Chesnut street, by B. Scott, Jr., on a riday, Saturday, and Monday evenings, December 28, 29, and 31. In our edition of yesterday attempore, by a transparantical error. terday afternoon, by a typographical error, i lection ever offered at public sale at the above gallery, whereas it should have road the finest: and this expression cannot do justice to the merits of the paintings, which, for composition. onception, and artistic skill, cannot be sur-

The collection consists of oil paintings, comprising views of all descriptions; pastel pictures which rival in delicacy and peauty the finest of paintings; crystal medallions of exquisite elegance and appearance. These collections have been received from the American Art Gallery of New York, which contains contributions from srtists in all parts of the United States. Surely these great inducements offered cannot fail to meet with appreciation among our citizens, who desire fine works of art, inasmuch as the pieces are of a superior order, and their authors our own countrymen. The sale will take place at Scott's Art Gallery, No. 1020 Ches nut street, to commence this evening, when all hould be on hand.

HEARING BEFORE ALDERMAN BEITLER. —Yesterday afternoon Louis Derdine had a hearing before Alderman Beitler. He is a sneak-thief, and for some time has been in the habit of taking lodgings in the evening, and in the morn-ing decamping with whatever he could lay his hands on. A multiplicity of witnesses were examined. The following were the most im-

Samuel R. Sperry sworn—I reside at No. 1752
North Tenth street; I had stolen from me an overcoat and pair of gloves, and a small sum of money; the defendant, who had several diases, came to the house on the evening of the twelfth of this month, engaged board, and left in the morning with the property. The witness iden-tified a cost as his, among a large number of articles recovered by Detectives Levy and Tyson. James T. Malvin testified that he resided on North Seventh street, and that he had been robbed by defendant of a watch, dress-coat, shirt, and a handkerchief, on the morning of the 2d inst. Witness had recovered the shirt.

Mrs. Mary Florar, proprietress of a blanding-house on North Seventh street, testined that the young men who boarded with her had be a robbed; the prisoner came to her house on the sixth of this month, and left at an early hour the next morning, taking with him the stoleproperty: the defendant gave the name of Allen Jameson and several others were exmined, and testified that they had been robbed at different times of clothing, etc. The witnesses poarded at different houses in the city, and in every case the prisoner engaged board in the evening and left early the next morning. Nearly all recovered some of their property, and idea tified the prisoner.

Derdine was committed in default of $5000 bail. AN ATTEMPT AT ARSON, -A man named Peter Madden was arrested at 8 o'clock this morning, on a charge of attempting to set fire to the Providence House, on Main street. Frankford. The attempt was made about 3 o'clock this morning by firing some bags, saturated with coal oil, under the front platform of the hotel. Very fortunately, Officer Marcilliott happened to be near by when the flames were started, and put them out before they had gained any headway. When he first saw the fire, the wind was blowing directly into the cellar underneath the building, and if it had got a start it would have caused a severe conflagra-Madden, the man arrested for making the attempt at arson, was seen to try and enter the building a few minutes before the fire broke out, and, when arrested, his wife was trying to induce him to enter his own house. He was was held for a hearing to-day.

EXHIBITION OF THE PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL OF DESIGN FOR WOMEN.—The public is respectfully informed that the annual exhibi-tion of the above-named institution will be held at the school-house, corner of Filbert street and Northwest Penn Square, to-day, the 28th inst., and will be open from 10 o'clock A. M. until 10 o'clock P. M., to continue on Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday.

This exhibition consists of drawings, paintings, etc., the productions of the scholars. Besides the fine collection in this direction, there are collections of works, used as art studies by those in attendance. All who attend, no doubt, will be well satisfied, judging from the well-known merits of the institution and its

NEW FAST FREIGHT LINE TO THE SOUTH. We call the particular attention of our merchants and shippers to the announcement published elsewhere of the opening of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and its connections. This is the only all rail route to the South, and goods may be shipped by it to any point in the Southern country, at Broad and Prime streets, without breaking bulk, as cars run through from Philadelphia to Lynchburg. The rates of carriage are as low as by any other route. Colo-nel James C. Wilson is the agent of the road here. His office is at No. 105 South Fifth street.

A HEAVY HAUL.-Yesterday aiternoon, Mr. Robert C. Gallagher purchased a number of United States 5-20s at the office of Messrs. Drexel & Co., in Third street. He had gone but a short distance from the office, when he put his hand into his pocket to take a look at the package, when he found that it was missing. The stolen bonds amounted in value to about $8000. Mr. Gallagher supposed that his pocket must have been picked in Third street, soon after leaving Drexel's office.

BURGLARY .- Last Wednesday morning, a young man named John Jackson, aged eighteen years, was arrested on York road, near Fisher's ane, on the charge of entering the house of Mr. Potter, on Fisher's lane, near the North Pennsylvania Railroad, and stealing clothes of Mr. Potter, wife, and child. After Jackson was arrested, he acknowledged to Lieutenant Dun gan that he had taken the things. He had a hearing before Alderman Good, and was held in $1000 bail to answer.

THE RUMORED PRIZE-FIGHT AND DEATH OF ONE OF THE COMBATANTS, -It was rumored through town that one of the parties, named McCauley, engaged in a prize fight said to have occurred at the Township line, in the southern part of the city, was killed by a foul blow. The report was that he had died soon after leaving the ground. From further inquiries by our reporter, it appears that the man McCauley was seen drinking in a saloon in the lower part of the city at a late hour last evening.

CAR BLOWN FROM THE TRACK .- Last evening, as a passenger car was going along Haverford street, near the Wire Bridge, a heavy gust of wind blew it from the track down the en bankment. The car was injured, and one of the horses was so severely hurt that Officer Glass had to kill it. Neither the conductor nor driver were injured.

HOUSE RORBERY .- The house occupied by Mr. Knox, in Green street, near Coulter, was entered last night through a back window, by burglars. It is supposed that the thieves were persons who had been employed about the premises. Mr. Knox could not find that they had succeeded in obtaining anything.

THE ALEXANDER CHURCH FAIR, held at the corner of Kineteenth and Green streets, will be continued this evening and Saturday evening, opening at 5 o'clock P. M. The voting or the silver tea set and editor's chair will close at 10 o'clock ou Saturday evening.

THE BOND ROBBERY-FINDING OF THE ox.-The box containing the bonds stolen from he office of C. P. Bayard was found at No. 40. allowhill street, by the wife of a tayern-keeper Most of the stolen property was recovered. was found yesterday atternoon at 3 o'clock, in he alley way, near an ash barrel. The finder at first thought it was a bary, but when she disovered what it was she gave it to her husband. who sent it to Mr. Bayard's office. When it was first handed to the man he did not know what to to with it, but on reading the secount of the robbery in the papers he discovered what the prize was. The most energetic efforts are being made o discover the thieves, but thus far they have managed to clude the search of the detectives.

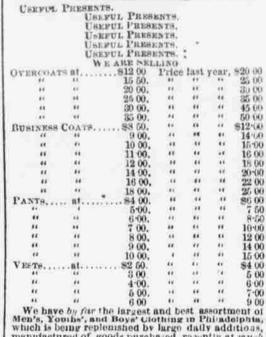

INSANE STRANGER. - This morning an individual respectably dressed was observed wandering around the rooms of the Cityl Councils, and staring at everybody with a peculiar expression in his countenance. When ques-tioned as to his name and place of restience, ne only muttered something that was inaudible He was taken to the Central Station by Reserve Officer Roberts, and there gave his name as Isatah Miller, and said that he resided at the corner of Jefferson street and Broadway, Bala-more. A telegram will be sent to that city to inform his ir lends of his whereabouts.

A THIEVING MENDICANT.-Yesterday afternoon a man went into the store of Messrs. Reynolds & Sons, for the purpose of soliciting alms. He told a pitiful tale of having no home, and having had nothing to eat for some time. Those in the store did not like his personal without receiving what he asked for. As he was leaving, he picked up an iron register, valued at $8. He was arrested and taken before Alderman Jones, to whom he gave the name of Charles Dayis. He was committed to answer in default

RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT.-Yesterday noon a young woman, residing at No. 2043 Mount Vernon street, was knocked down and ran over y a runaway horse, attached to a milk wagon. she was severely bruised, and was taken to her

FOUND.-A horse and wagon were picked up at the corner of Delaware avenue and Area street last evening about half-past 9 o'clock. They were taken charge of, and can be obtained by applying to Lieutenant Edgar, of the Harbor Police, at Front and Noble streets.

FOUND DROWNED .- An unknown white woman was found drowned in McCrosky's dock, on the Delaware front, yesterday afternoon. The Coroner will hold an inquest on the body to-day.

FROM WASHINGTON THIS AFTERNOON.

Rerocation of an Exequatur, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to all whom it may concern:-

An exequator bearing date the 22d day of March, 1858, having been issued to Gerhard Janssen, recognizing him as Cousul of Olden-burg for New York, and declaring him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers, and privileges as are allowed to consule by the law of nations, or by the laws of the United States, and existing treaty stipulations between the Government of Oldenburg and the United States; and the said Janssen having refused to appear in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, to answer in # suit there entered against himself and others, on the plea that he is a consular officer of Oldenburg, thus seeking to use his official position to defeat the ends of justice:—it is deemed advisable that the said Gerhard Janssen should no longer be permitted to continue in the exercise of such functions, powers, and privileges. These are therefore to declare that I no longer recognize said Gerhard Janssen as Consul of Oldenburg for New York, and will not permit him to exercise or enjoy any of the functions, powers, or privileges allowed to Consuls of that nation; and that I do bereby wholly revoke and annul the said exequatur heretofore given, and do declare the same to be absolutely null and void from this day forward. In testimony whereof I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States of America to be becounte affixed.

THE KIDNEYS.

The kidneys are wo in number, situated at the apper part of the lom surrounded by rat, and consisting or three parts, viz. :- The Anterior, the Interior and the Exterior.

The anterior absorbs Interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine and con vey it to the exterior. The exterior is a conductor also terminating in a single tube, and called the Ureter. The ureters are connected with the bladder The bladder is composed of various coverings or tis sues, divided into parts, viz :- The Upper, the Lower the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate with out the ability to retain. This trequently occurs in children.

To cure these effections we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, Gravel or Dropey may

TREATMENT.

Heimbold's highly concentrated compound Extract of Buchu is decidedly one of the best remedies for discuses of the biadder, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatism, and gonly affections. Under this head we have arranged Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water, scanty secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water, Strangury or stopping of water, Hematuria or bloody urine, Gout, and Rheumatism of the kidneys, without any change in quantity, but increase of color or dark water. It was always highly recommended by the late Dr. Physic in these affections.

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy exercise, by which the watery or calcareous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, as well as pain and inflammation, are reduced, and is taken by MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN.

Directions for use and diet accompany.

Governor Lyon, of Idaho.

It is whispered here that Governor Lyon is a defaulter to the Government to the tune of $50,000. His report that he was robbed of that amount in the cars, is generally disbelieved. It is said that he will be prosecuted at once, as his accounts are in a bad state.

THE OCEAN YACHT RACE. Owing to a break in the Newfoundland telegraph lines, we have been deprived of our usual cable despatches since Monday. We shall probably hear something of the yachts as soon as the line is repaired. THE PREIONG IN IRREAND.

DUBLIN, December 12. - The great Ocean Yacht race, of which we received the news by the Atlantic cable this morning, is exciting much interest among the members of our Irish Yacht Clubs, and they look with anxiety for the news of the first in. Whichever it may be will receive startling news about Ireland on arrival at Cowes.

ENGLISH OPINION OF THE CONTEST. From the Liverpool Courier, December 12. Some enterprising Yankees have got up a really new sensation. This is a yacht race from New York to Cowes, in the Isle of Wight. The stakes are something substantial-$90,000, the whole to go to the yacht that arrives dirst-but the money is nothing to the bonor of victory. The vessels are just two hundred tons each, and are certainly not the safest craft in which to cross the Atlantic in December, but we suppose he probability of being drowned or disabled is part of the excitement. The race was to commence yesterday at 1 P. M., and instructions have been telegraphed to all vessels sailing in the track of the yachts (to be distinguished night and day by distinctive marks) to report the progress of the race at their respective ports of destination. The names of the yachts are the Henrietta, the Fleetdestination. wing, and the Vesta, the owner of the first-named vessal, Mr. J. G. Bennett, Jr., son of the well-known American journalist of that name and the present manager of the New York Herald. It is needless to say that intense inerest, especially in America, is excited in this hairbrained adventure.
