"Matilda Beron (Storpe) closed her brief and unpro-fitable engagement at the chesnat on saturday night, as 'Kate Peyton' in Graphik Gaunt During toe evening several persons in the thear to were engaged in the innocent amusement of 'gaying' her, by leaghing at her atteinpts at pathos. It lystood this for some time, but in the fourth act she became restiess and fixing her eyes upon a couple of her 'nunny' irlends, proceeded to administor a rebuke in the tartest leaguage we have ever heard from a lady on the stage. This caused a scene of the wildest excitement some hissing and some cheering until our Tilly' eit the stage. When she returned, another sorm greeted her, and so on to the end of the piece, when she was called before the curtain and made a speech which did not raise her at all, appa-rently, in the eyes of the public."

LARGE FIRE-LOSS ABOUT $75,000-PARTIALLY COVERED BY INSURANCE. - This mora-PARTIALLY COVERED BY INSURANCE.—This mora-ing, about half-past 3 o'clock, a fire was dis-covered in the large three-story brick building owned by Mr. E. Ivins, on North Sixth street, above Columbia avenue. The firemen were soon on hand, and went diligently to work to stiffe the flames, but the dense black smoke arising from the burning of the wool, cotton, etc., con-tained in the building, soon drove them back. This circumstance was the cause of the great loss sustained in the stock, which, if it had not been certain sufficiently for any one to enter been certain sufficient for any one to enter the building, could have been saved. The fire originated near the chimney-stack, around which lay waste matter which had been accumulating there for some time, but whether the fire originated in this waste or not, is not known. The building, notwithstanding the strenuous exertions of the firemen to save it, was com-pletely destroyed, with all its contents. Nothing was rescued from the devouring element, and all that remains are the walls, large portions of which have fallen in, and the rest must be torn down. The loss sustained by the parties doing business in the building is large, and but par-tially covered by insurance, the particulars of which are as follows:— E. Ivins, manufacturer of brass and glided mountings for utilizer continues to be a mountings for military equipments, loss on building, of which he was the owner, machinery, and goods, estimated at $35,000-insured for $15,000.

William Scoles, woollen yarn manufacturer, loss on machinery, $8000; on stock, $4000-insured for $5000. John J. Glazier, hostery manufacturer, loss on machinery and stock, $18,000 - insured for $1060.

Slifler & Mattis, loss on machinery, $3500-no nsurance

Isaac Stead, woollen spinner, loss on machi-nery and stock, $13,000-insured for $11,000.

The building fronting on Sixth street, owned by Bacder & Adamson, glue manufacturers, was damaged by falling walls and water to the amount of $3000-fully covered. The surrounding properties were fortunately saved, with slight damage. The building was situated right in the midst of the large glue factories. Some of these took fire, but the fire-men saved them. A short distance off from the burning building, a large house, used for the storage of all kinds of old machinery, was Baeder & Adamson, containing twenty mules, also took fire. The mules and harness were rescued, and the building saved. The fences in the vicinity took fire, as did a row of small tenement-houses on Columbia avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets. They were saved. The fire was dis-covered by James Wilson, a watchman em-ployed by Messrs. Bacder & Adamson, who smelt smoke, and had been hunting for the fire for an hour before he discovered it. He says the o dor was strong, like burning oil waste.

THE LUTHERAN BURIAL GROUND-LATEST FACTS IN REFERENCE TO THE PARTIES .--More facts in relation to the past action of the Church Council have been elicited by evidence, both verbal and documentary. In the petitions and prayers offered to the Legislature and Courts, one of the arguments, in fact the main one, set forth by those desiring the immediate disposal of the cemetery for building purposes, was the redemption of the church debt. This debt was stated to be of so large an amount that the prosperity of the church necessitated its immediate payment, which could only be done by the dis-posal of the property. Now, evidence is brought to light that the debt was made to appear much larger than its true amount, and this is plainly evinced in the petitions offered to our legislative body and Courts. Why this has been done can only be answered by interring that either the only be answered by interring that either the books of the corporation were in a confused state of keeping, or that it was inten-tional, to give force to the petitions. Documentary evidence show that, in the fall of 1864, before the properly appointed officer, $33,000 was swora too as the exact debt. The Council, in their petition to the Legislature in February, 1865, stated it to be $48,000; and in their petition to the Court, in the same year, the amount was $60,000. In March, 1866, the book-keeper, giving evidence before the Examiner, stated the debt to be $65,000, which, on cross-examination, was re duced to $51,000. Confusion in the book accounts must reign supreme, or there must indeed be large business transactions, in order to cause this great fluctuation in the church's indebtedness within the space of one year. Even taking it for granted that the debt is the largest of the given amounts, the income accruing from the church property of all kinds would redeem the debt in a very short time. The annual income reaches about $19,000; that of last year, according to the book-keeper's report, signed by the church committee, greatly exceeds that sum. The opposition party are energetic in collating all the evidence and facts attainable to support their position. Every Thursday atternoon, at the Wetherill House, Sansom street, examinations are held. The evidence is becoming volu-minous. At the last examination persons were in attendance from the surrounding villages, to put in their pleas against the sale, well sup-ported with facts bearing strongly upon the nondisposal of the cemetery.

THE WILLIAM PENN HOSE ON THEIR TRAVELS.—We learn from the Boston Traveller of the 27th, that the delegation of the William Penn, of Philadelphis, consisting of President T. N. Kockersperger, Daniel Craig, John Klufkee, Charles H. Smith, and Philip Dempsey, in company with their friends, the William Penn, of Salem, visited the Naumkeag cotton factory on the 26th, by invitation, and were very much pleased with the sights. In the evening of the same day they made a friendly call upon the Volunteer Engine Company No. 4, of South Danvers, and presented them with one of their cards of thanks, which was re-sponded to by Foreman P. L. Winchester, who extended them an invitation to their annual ball, on New Year's night, at Hamilton Ha'l, Salem, which was accepted. After partaking of some refreshments, an invitation from Chief Engineer Little, of South Danvers, to visit the Engineer Little, of South Danvers, to visit the Peabody Institute and the steamer General Sutton, was accepted. The Philadelphins were highly pleased with the Institute and what they saw there. After registering their names on the book kept for that purpose, they examined the steamer, and left for Salem, leaving one of their cards with Chief Engineer Little. Later Later in the evening Griffen's Band was employed, and a screnade given to Chief Engineer George Sanborn, who entertained them handsomely, At 4 o'clock they started on a grand sleigh ride to Marblehead.

THE WEATHER .- The weather of last evening was a decidedly welcome improvement upon that of the preceding evening, a change which no doubt greeted all our citizens in an acceptable manner. The wind, although not equal in force and coldness to that of Thursday night, tended to clear the streets of their usual number of occupants. It came in sudden gusts, disagreeablyfouffeting thosefwho were perambu-lating around the city. This morning the air became more mild, and we had a cheering ray of sunshine to gladden the heart and warm the body. A few flakes of snow were seen, but whether or not we are to have a sufficient quantity for the winter enjoyment of sleighing does not yet appear, and remains for patient people to see.

BURGLARY .- Three men. John Owens, James, alias "Sailor" Burk, and Thomas Donohoe were arrested last evening on a warrant from Mayor McMichael, charging them to have been engaged with others, in entering and robbing the house of Patrick Conway, No. 1110 South Twentieth street. They broke into the house and stole some chickens, a silver watch, and a brass four-pound weight. Not satisfied with stealing Mr. Conway's goods, they beat him and his wife and then left. Owens was arrested at Nineteenth and South, Burk at Nineteenth street and Washington avenue, and Donohoe at Eighteenth and Bedford streets. They will all have a hearing this afternoon at the Central

Two AMAZONS .- Ellen Himes and Rose Mulryan were arrested at their residence, No. 509 Noble street, yesterday afternoon, while indulging in a bit of a skrinimage. Each had bei ingers twined around the other's tresses, and when the police appeared on the score their waterfalls had fallen, and their faces looked like the star-spangled banner, from the scratches. It was pretty hard to ascertan at the origin of the disturbance, but the immediate result of it was the binding over of Ellen in $500 bail before Alderman Massey, and Rose, on cross-suit, in $300 bail by Alderman Hibberd.

HORSES OVERBOARD .- Last evening about 7 o'clock the terry-boat that touches at South street wharf was unable to reach its slip, owing lowness of the tide. It accordingly to the stopped at the end of the pier, and a plank was let down to the boat from the end. The horses and wagons were assisted up the plank by ropes and pulleys. While they were drawing a wagon to which were attached two horses, rope broke just as the team had come within a very short distance of the edge of CD4 what, and the horses and wagon fell into the river. Both borses were drowned.

A REVENGEFUL MAN .- Charles Clump was arrested yesterday afternoon, at Forty-first and Lancaster avenue, on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. It appears that Clump had been unable to pay his rent for some months past, and had been set out on the street by his landlord in the midst of the late inclement weather. Rendered desperate, he got into a quarrel with landlord, and drew a pistol and snapped it at him. Just as he did so Officer Craig came along and arrested him. He had a hearing before Alderman Maule, who committed him in default of $700 bail to answer.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE .- About half-past one o'clock this morning, one of the workmen employed in Rowland's rolling mill, on Beach street, found a man, named James O'Donnel. lying in an insensible condition in Bruner's lumber yard, and had the man conveyed into the mill, where he died shortly alter. The Coroner was summoned to hold an inquest on the body.

THE DRUG BUSINESS .- There is no business of branch of trade in which skill, knowledge, and en-terprise are more essential, than in the drug busi-ness; nor is there any branch of human industry in nes-; nor is there any branch of human industry in which more charla'anism and imposture prevail. It is therefore to the interest of the public carefully to discriminate between the true and the false druggist. This can easily be done by a simple practical appli-cation of that rule which is as true in matters of lusiness, as morals "by their furits (or results) you sha'l know them." Judged by this rule, Heimbold is a true druggist, and those well-known medicines known as "Heimbold" Preparations" are legitimate remedies. These latter have been before the public prominently for many years, and have been almost universally successful; the Extract of Buchn espe-cially, has secured the public confidence. For its appropriate diseases it is without a rival. The cer-tificates to its usefulness embrace many thousands of names; tut the fact that after the trial of so many of names; but the fact that after the trial of so many years. He'moold's Preparations are in as great a demand as ever, or even greater, is the best possible proof of their legilimate merit.

The Principal Depots for their sale is at Helm-bold's New Store, next the Metropo itan Hotel, N. Y., and No. 104 S Tenth street, Pailadelphia.

AFTER WAR, PESTILENCE, AND INTEMPERANCE. Colds lead to the greatest destruction of human life Colds lead to the greatest destruction of human he, mainly because a Co d is too often considered a very ordinary, triffing affair, just as well tell to go as it came, and hence systematically neglected, until a simple, curable affection is converted into a serious and generally fatal Pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a violent Cough or Cold should never be triffed with, but on the contrary taken care of from its inclusion. of from its incipiency, promptly make use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant a curative which has sustained its reputation for over thirty years as a remedy always efficacious, and sure to exert a most ben-ficial influence on all the Bronchial and Pulmonary organs. The Wreck of the Sylph.

HOLMES' HOLE, December 29.-A carved work of arched board which came ashore at Lambart's Cove yesterday, had the word "Sylph" cut in the centre, in small letters. There also came ashore a sharp stern boat, painted black, with trunks, rigging, sails, deck-beams, a part of the house, etc. It is probably the barque Sylph, of Boston, which has gone to pieces, and all hands lost.
