SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON A PASSENGER RAILBOAD. - Yesterday morning, un accident of a very serious character happened on the Frank-Passenger Railway, a short distance from the Episcopal Hospital, resulting in an engineer of one of the "dummy cars" used on the road lesing both his arms. It appears that between 10 and 11 o'clock the car, containing a large number of passengers, was navancing at a rapid rate towards the city, when Mr. William Harri-son, the engineer, espied a large piece of ice lying on the track, and believing it would throw the car from the track and involve serious consequences, be immediately reversed the engine and jumped from the engineer's box to the ground; in doing which he slipped, it is supposed, and fell under the car, which passed over both his arms, lacerating them in such a fright al manner that he was taken to the Episcopal Hospital, where both arms were immediately amputated. The car passed on and pushed the place of ice before it from the track without the circumstance attracting any attention from the passengers, scarcely the slightest jarring occur-Mr. Harrison remains in a very critical

CONSECUATION OF GLORIA DEI CHURCH CHAPPL.—Bishop Vail, of Kansas, on Wednesday evening last, presided and set apart for religious purposes the chapel connected with the Church Gloria Dei, in Swanson street, below Chris tian. Addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Leeds, of St. Peter's; Rev. Dr. Hare, Rev. Mr. Smith, of St. Andrew's, West Philadelphia, and the Rev. J. Saunders Reed, rector of the church. The Rev. Mr. Graham and the Rev. Mr. Mr. Moore assisted in the services, which were very solomn and deeply impressive.

The building is of brick, constructed in a neat and substantial manner, and will seat about five hundred persons comfortably. Its cost is not far from $7000. The success of this enter-prise is mainly due to the energy and Christian spirit of the rector, Rev. Mr. Reed, one of those active men whose aims and efforts are continually used for the advancement of his Master's cause, ably seconded by the congregation, which ranks among the oldest in the city.

ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS .- A lad named Day, aged about sixteen years, employed in the wholesale notion house of rless, Rogers & Chambers, No. 411 Market street, was brought up at the Central Station yesterday alternoon, before Alderman Beitler, charged with robbing bis employers.

Jacob S. Hess deposed that defendant had been in their employ for about six weeks; that they had missed a quantity of perfumery, pocket-books, etc.; suspicion fell upon Day. who was arrested at noon yesterday by Detec tive Lamon, as he was walking out of the store. The officer found seven penknives, a lot of neckties, and a pocket-book.

Day acknowledged giving several articles to a young girl named Fanny Lee, living at No. 239 Currant street. The latter testified that Day gave her half-adozen pairs of stockings, two bottles of cologne, a pocket-book, gloves, breast-pins, etc. Day was committed in default of $1200 ball

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE .- Henry Allen, sometimes called Codger, who, in company with another convict, escaped from the County Prison a few months ago by cutting through the ceiting of the cell, and thence through the roof, and lowering themselves down outside of the walls by means of a rope made of bed-clothing, has been recaptured by Prison Keeper Grubb, and returned to his old quarters. The arrest was made through a remark, overheard by Mr. Grubb, as to a place where Codger had been seen. It was at a house in that part of the southern suburbs of the city knows as Smoky Hollow. The officer repaired to the spot designated, and by a nice piece of finesse succeeded, without exciting the suspicions of the inmetes. in getting access to the room in which the fugitive was concealed.

CHURCH IN A DANGEROUS CONDITION .-The new Cohocksink Presbyterian church building, located on the north side of Columbia avenue, above Seventh street, has to be propped up to keep from tumbling into a mass of ruins. The building is high, with a very steep, large, and heavy double-pitched slate roof. The front of the structure is of brown stone. The roof is well framed. Its steep pitch is more for orna-ment than use. The recent heavy westerly wind blew the building considerably towards the east. Every effort is being made by means of "shores" and iron rods with swivel screws to force the building back to its original

THE TAX ON WRITS, ETC.—Among the items of revenue of the State is the tax on writs, wills, deeds, etc., and Philadelphia, last year, furnishes her fair quota, as compared with the returns from other counties in the State. The total amount of tax from Philadelphia was $12,369.25. Of this sum Lewis R. Broomali, Recorder of Deeds, paid $8000; Frederick G. Wolbert, Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, $640.98; J. Ross Snowden, Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, Eastern District, $1171; George Kelly, Prothonotary of the District Court, $2497.27. In addition to this there is a tax upon the offices, and Mr. Broomall paid $2686.82; Mr. Kelly, $757.69; George H. Moore (Quarter Sessions), $2907-79,

TAXES COLLECTED IN 1866 .- The following statement shows the mount of taxes col-1866:-Received up to 1st o tember, at which time discounts ceased, $4,678,-522.48; discount allowed, $427,563.69, leaving the nett receipts $4,251,358.79. Received from 1st September to December 31, $542,161.51; from penalties, $11,561 68, making the nett tax $553, 723-19. The total tax paid into the city treasury amounted to $4.806,751-23. The gross amount collected was $5,238,314-81, leaving about $800,000 yet uncollected on the books of the Receiver. Those indebted have until the 15th instant to pay. After that time the bills will be placed in the hands of collectors.

JUDGMENT FEES .- An act of Assembly requires the payment of four dollars upon every suit, where judgment is obtained, before it can be entered upon the books of the Court. The money thus obtained is returned to the City Treasury. During the past year the jury fees in the Supreme Court, which were paid by the city, amounted to $1563'13, and the sum returned on judgments was $164; the fees of the District Court amounted to $7713 17, and the sum re-ceived was $1356. In the Court of Common Pleas only $80 was paid on judgments, while the jury lees amounted to $1756.08. The sum returned from the Quarter Sessions was $1527.

THE MILLER HOMICIDE.-It is expected that Gottleib Williams, who is charged with the murder of Mrs. Miller, in Buttonwood street near Ninth, will be tried at the latter part of the present term or the beginning of the next. There have been no new developments in the case since Williams' committal to prison, and the prosecution will therefore have to depend entirely upon circumstantial evidence. Williams expresses great impationce at the delay in his trial. It is probable that his case will be the first tried in the new court-room.

THE CITY ICE BOAT .- Yesterday morning the new city ice boat, Captain Schellinger, left Spruce street whart for a trip down the Dela-ware to clear the channel for a fleet of vessels waiting an opportunity to go to sea. The new ace boat is a powerful vessel, and she is expected to keep the channel clear, and thus afford an uninterrupted passage for vessels up and down the Delaware.

PERMITS ISSUED. - The wagons, carts, drays, and barrows licensed during 1866 by the ighway Department were as follows: - Wagons 885; carts, 323; drays, 254; barrows, 193. The smount received was $1642.50. The sum of $472 was also received for permits for hotel private, and hackney coaches. This amount private, and hackney coaches. This amount would be greatly increased if the High Constables would return all who fail to have their licenses renewed.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL CHASE -Two of the Major's detectives, who have been on the search for the robbers that carried off the bonds and stocks from the biquer store of Mr. Cochran, in Walnut street, have returned, not having PASSENGER RAILROAD LICENSES,-The various Passenger Railroad Companies paid to the Highway Department during the past year the sum of $12,355. Under the new ordinance of Councils each car will be taxed $50 for 1867, instead of $30, as in 1866.

INFANT ABANDONED .- Last evening a female intant, apparently about two months old, was found in the lear of a yard at No. 434 Maria It was taken to the Station House, and provided for temporasily.

Lyrics from the Latin. Verburn Sat.

I wonder where old Verbam sat, And how he looked when sitting there, And where he hung his Sunday bat, And did he use an easy chair?

And the tise at easy clock
Did Mrs. Verbum al ways look
Angelic when her husband smiled?
And what was Verbum's favorite book,
And had the Verbums ever a child? But no! the subject's wrapt in gloom,

Scant Verbum legends can I trace, Impenetrable as the temb
The darkness is o'er all their race. The solitary record left,
And consolation comes from that—
The fact that time has not bereit

The nation of, is Verbum sat .. London Dramatic Critics.

A London correspondent who appears to be intimate with the gentlemen he writes about, gives the following insight into the personnel of the London dramatic critics;-

I do not know what weight (if any) is attached on your side to dramatic criticism in our papers; but perhaps you may be willing to learn who are our dramatic critics, which can hardly be called a secret here. There is Mr. John Oxenford, who writes for the Times-a man of learning, and a good judge of dramatic wares. who also writes the dramatic criticisms, as well as those famous articles on naughty French plays and books which occasionally appear in the Saturday Review. He may always be seen on first mights in a solitary box, shunning all society, but particularly that of ladies, whose-small talk he holds in abhorrence. He is famous among the box-attendants for refusing all refreshments during the progress of the piece, however late it may detain him; but he will not write an article until he has been home, and, as we say, "slept upon it." Then we have John Hollingshead and Moy Thomas, who represent the Daily News. The former, who also writes for the London Review, and occasionally for Punch, is, perhaps, the plainest and most outspoken of the theatrical critics. Managers hate him accordingly; and his recent evidence before the Parliamentary committee in layor of "free trade in the drama" has served to widen the breach. Moy Thomas would, perhaps, be a good critic if he had any sympathy with the stage, and was not fond of theorizing and philosophizing. He is more at home, I suspect, in writing about the finances f Europe and America, and feels in the theatre like a fish out of water. The Daily News, by-the-way, prides itself in always having its criticisms out the next morning, however late the performance. The Telegraph sends Mr. E. L. Blanchard, who writes farces and pantomines; the Morning Star, Mr. Leicester Buckingham. This gentleman is a great adapter from the French, criticizes his own plays, and always proves to his own satisfaction that the adaptation is better than the original. This gentleman is, perhaps, the most ecstatic of all our critics, and is, as may be supposed, on good terms with the managers,

Every actress is in his eyes divine-ner "facial express'on," her "emotional power," etc., all that can be desired; consequently, if any brother critic lags behind in raptures of this kind, L. B. always takes up the cudgels, and calls his critical brother (for these little amenities of literature are, unfortunately, not confined to America)
"a cowaroly assailant," or "a dastardly attacker of a lady's reputation." The Pall Mall Gazette critic is Mr. G. H. Lewes, who is thoroughly independent, though crochety, and sometimes Mr. Sutherland Edwards, late Times correspondent in Poland, and author of novels and books bout music and the Russian people.

The Examiner critic is its editor, Henry Morley, professor of literature in King's College, ndon, and author of many well-known works. He has lately reprinted a volume of his dramatic notices. He is one of the most independent of his class-knows little, however, about the stage, though much about dramatic literature, English and foreign.

The Athenoum critic is John Herand, a writer of ponderous epics, unactable plays, and trans-cendental books about Shakespeare, and other subjects. His criticisms bave no weight, and he is sometimes replaced by Dr. Doran, who has the advantage of not being a play-writer or adapter, but who is so fond of telling you all about the history of the theatre, and the play, and what old players played in it (if it is an one), that he always unds himself compelled to omit to criticize the matter in hand for want of space. Mr. T. G. Tomlins, a man also learned in the atrical lore, and one of the most active of those who procured the abolition of our patent theafres some thirty years since, represents the Morning Advertiser, and occasionally the

Mr. T. W. Robertson, successful author of the comedies of Ours, Society, and David Garrick writes for the Illustrated Times; Mr. Charles Dumphy for the Morning Post; and Mr. Desmond Ryan, a wonderful critic, who once elaborately criticized a performance of M'me Bosio's three days before it took place, for which sur prising feat, however, an unappreciating editor suspended him for awhite from his duties. Such is the list of our dramatic writers. They de serve to be known, for if there be any truth in the opinions of the late Mr. Leigh Hunt on the possible power of conscientious dramatic criti-cism, they are in no small degree responsible for the degraded condition of the British drama

Fea.Gulls.-An English paper says:-"A mos curious sight is witnessed when a large steamer arrives in Southampton Water. The moment she comes to her moorings a flock of about two hundred sea-gulls hover about her, to pick up the scraps of bread, meat, and offat that are thrown overboard. These birds form a colony that live on the outward and homeward-bound deamers daily lying in Southampton Water."

JORDAN'S CELEBRATED TONIC ALE.—
This truly healthful and mutrifious beverage, now in use by thousands—invalids and others—has established a character for quality of material and purity of manusacture which stands unrivalled. It is recommenced by physicians of this and other places as a superior tonic, and requires but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its great merit. To be had, wholesale and retail, of P. J. JORDAN, N. 3 PEAR Street. [1178]
