A PRAISEWORTHY INSTITUTION-PHILA-DELPHIA SOCIETY FOR THE EMPLOYMENT AND INSTRUCTION OF THE POOR-WHAT IT HAS BEEN AND IS STILL DOING.—We paid a visit to a very praiseworthy institution yesterday. It is called the House of Industry, and its objects are to relieve and give and and comfort to the poor, and to heal the sick, irrespective of color, sex, or religious belief. It deals out its charities and help to all who apply.

The building is situated in Catharine street, above Seventh, and is a fine large brick buildng, three stories in height, and replete with every modern convenience that could conduc to the comfort of the inmates. On the first floor, besides a large and commodious hull, there is a doctor's dispensary where the sick are prescribed for, and an apothecary establish-ment, presided over by Mr. Creatick, on the left of the hall On the right are the committee-room and private rooms of the matron, Mrs. Hammond. On this floor, also, is the dining-room, capable of seating fifty persons comfort-ably. The kitchen is fitted up in fine style. There are also on this floor a laundry and bath-room, with five private baths, fitted up with hot and cold water. In the cellur is a fine bakeoven, capable of baking a barrel of flour at one heat, and the boiler-room for heating the house with steam from a locomotive boiler.

In the second story are the school-rooms. The room for the white scholars is fitted up with desks and appropriate maps and black-boards, and is capable of accommodating fifty scholars—the average attendance being fortyfive per day. There is a larger school-room for colored children, which accommodates one hun-dred children daily. There is also attached to this room a smaller class-room and a small workshop, for making shoes, etc. On each Friday evening the mothers of the colored children hold a meeting, for the purpose of listening to the reading of essays, etc., and to sew. On the second floor are also a couple of large, well-lighted sewing-rooms, one of which is used as a meeting-room for the Board of South-

In the third story and in the a tics the dormitories are situated. In each of those on the third floor are placed two iron bedsteads, with clean, near clothing, and in the attics are twenty eds, for the accommodation of the home less wanderers. There are sometimes persons who have been in good circumstances, and are temporarily without means, that find a temporary home here until they find employment. The poor and destitute children also get good This institution has, since September.

During the winter, when the house is most used, its daily duties are somewhat as follows:-The inmates, varying generally from 30 to 50 in number, are called at 61 by the officers of the establishment, the doors of their dormitories are unlocked, and from the washing rooms they assemble, at about 7 o'clock, to breakfast of bread, meat, and coffee. The men, and most of the women, go out to look for work, apply for situations, etc. Several of the women remain-ing assist in putting the rooms in order, and wash or scrub under the direction of the matron; others are in the hall, waiting to receive persons calling in search of domestics, work people, etc. At 12 dinner is given to such as remain, and also to the children in the industrial school. Frequently the hall is filled with persons waiting for the physician's visit, and for medicines ordered from the dispensary. All the in-mates reassemble by 6 o'clock, at which time supper is given of bread, meat, and coffee. As most of them have not returned to dinner, the evening meal is more substantial than would otherwise be given them. At 9 o'clock all are required to be in their rooms, and the doors are ocked. New arrivals are taken to the bathing and washing rooms, and obliged to make them selves clean before going to their apartments. Religious services are held in the hall on Sabbath evenings, conducted by members of the Methodist Church. During the past year the expenses of the house, irrespective of the dispensary, were $2742 27, and $435 additional for the dispensary. During the year nearly 4000 patients have been prescribed for at the dispensary. The institution is in urgent need of the gene-rons support of the public to enable it to carry out its benevolent objects, and contributions are earnestly asked for.

BURGLARIOUS OPERATIONS,-Last night the dry goods store of William S. Ringgold, No. 1540 Market street, was entered by burglars. They gained entrance by going through an alley, that runs from Sixteenth street to the rear of the building, and jumping over into the yard; they then pried open the back wiadow with a jimmy and entered the store. They made a selection of fine sitks, but before they had time to make further researches Mrs. Ringland was a wakened and gave the alarm and gold was awakened and gave the alarm, and her husband running down stairs, the burglars decamped, taking with them two or three pieces of sitk worth about $400. Two pieces were tound in the alley leading to Sixteenth street, through which the burglars had fied.

REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER, the most eloquent man of the times, will deliver his splendid new lecture on "Universal Suffrage" at the Academy of Music this evening; and, despite of the weather, our citizens will not allow the opportunity to escape them to be posted on the difficult subject announced by the able and distinguished orator of Brooklyn.

HENRY VINCENT,-A number of prominent citizens of this city have extended an invi-tation to Henry Vincent, the celebrated English orator, to repeat his deeply interesting lecture on Oliver Cromwell. Mr. Vincent has accepted the invitation, and the lecture will take place at the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening, January 16.

A CHAPTER OF INVESTIGATION-CON-SUBSTITUTE OF THE NEW INCUIRING INTO THE BURNING OF THE NEW IRONSIDES, AND THE WHISHY FRAUES. -This morning two committhe Bous: of Representatives left Wash ington for this city, with the view of looking into certain matters here on which the body they represent desires some official information them is the regular Naval Committee, col sisting of the following gentlemen:—A. H Rice, of Mass., Chairman; John A. Griswold, o ork: Frederick A. Pike, of Maine; Wil liam D. Kelley, of Pa.; Augustus Brandagee, of Conn.; Charles A. Eldridge, of Wisconsin; Charles E. Phelps, of Md.; William A. Darling, of New York; and Francis C. Le Blond, of Ohio.

The object of this committee in visiting our city is to investigate the burning of the New The investigation was ordered on a motion of Mr. Brandagee, of Connecticut, whose sole aim in Congressional life would appear to be the location of the iron-clad Navy Yard at New London, in his own State. By this manouvre, he evidently expects to cook up a fresh argument in favor of his project, by proving that the iron-clads will all fall a prey to the devouring flames, if they are not shortly removed from this locality.

But as the bill locating the fron clad navy recommendation of this same Naval Committee and passed the ordeal of the House of Representatives, it would seem that the New London gentleman had started on a Quixotic adventure which will profit him and his schemes but little The other committee is the one ordered by the House, on motion of Mr. Darling, of New York, to investigate the frauds in the payment and collection of internal revenue on distilled pirits, tobacco, and cigars. It consists of the following gentlemen:— William A. Darling, of New York, Chairman: Fernando C. Beaman, of Michigan; Benjamin Eggleston, of Ohic; Leonard Myers, of Pennsyl ania; and L. S. Trimble, of Kentucky.

This last committee have already visited our city on one of its missions, but, if we mistake not, they will still find something to do in their particular branch. Quarters for both Committees have been provided at the "Continental," where they are expected to arrive just as we go to press. Their labors will detain them here several days.

NAVAL AFFAIRS - TRANSFER OF LARGE DETACHMENT OF BLUE JACKETS. - About 10 o'clock vesterday morning, a detachment o three hundred and lifty sailors was transferred from the United States Receiving Ship Constel ation, at the Navy Yard, to a steamer, and carried to the Camden and Amboy depot, where they were embarked in a special train of cars for Jersey City: There a naval tug from the New York yard was in waiting, and conveyed them to the Receiving Ship Vermont.

The detachment was in charge of Commander M. A. Adams, U. S. N., assisted by Acting Master White, and a picked guard of the United States Marine Corps, consisting of four Sergeants, two Corporals, and twelve privates. The draft and baggage filled seven cars, the doors of which were locked, and a marine sentinel stationed at each end.

Near Jersey City one of the sailors jumped from a window, but was brought up with a "round turn" by a shot from an officer. Some of these men are to go to sea in the new squadron fitting out, and others to be discharged The steam gunbost Aroostook sailed on Saturday for the East Indies. The iron-clad Modoc is in the sectional dock. No vessels fitting out

AN UNNATURAL Son .- About half-past eight o'clock, as Officer Mabyn was going along his beat in Philip street, above Columb a avenue, he heard screams and sounds of a vio lent quarrel issuing from the house occupied by a family named Devlin. Going in, he found that a young fellow named Michael Devlin was beating his mother, and chasing her with a large butcher-knife in his hand, threatening to kill her. Officer Mabyn seized him to make an arrest, when the brute kicked him in the stomach. He succeeded, however, in arresting Devlin, and he had a hearing before Alderman Clouds, who held him in $500 bail to answer at Court the charge of assault and battery,

THE GAME OF SNATCH .- Two colored men went into Hopson's hat store, at the corner of Twelfth and South streets, last evening, and whilst the storekeepe; was busy with some cusnamed John Wilson picked up a tile of the latest style, and walked out of the door with it at a rapid rate. The act was observed and John was pursued, and in the course of his flight he threw away the hat, which the other negro picked up. Although John could "run bully," he was brought to at Tweltth and Lombard streets by Officer Williams, and escorted to the office of Alderman Morrow. That gentleman heid him in $600 bail to answer for his little joke.

MISCHIEVOUS. - Daniel Price and John Publess went into a lager beer saloon in the lower part of the city on Christmas day, to eat, drink beer, and be merry, and in the course of events got drunk, and, per consequence, belli-gerent. They smashed glassware and furniture, and kicked up the old boy generally, and then left the field of operations. A warrant was issued for their arrest; but they managed to clude the police until yesterday afternoon, when Price was arrested at Third and Mouroe streets, and Publess at Spruce street wharf. They both had a hearing before Alderman Hibberd, who held them in $1000 ball each to answer.

LARCENY OF BOOTS .- A couple of sneakthieves, travelling in harness, made a raid on a boot and shoe establishment at the S. E. corner of Tenth and Race streets, yesterday alternoon, and one of them, snatching up a pair of fine boots, they both disappeared out of the door and around the corner. Pursuit was given, and they were arrested at Twelfth and Noble streets. They had a hearing before Alderman Jones, and were held in $600 bail each to answer.

PREPARING FOR COLD WEATHER, - James Steward, a lad of fifteen years, it is alleged, undertook to get an overcoat without expense yesterday morning. He went into the stable of a milk depot in Ogden street, above Thirteenth and stole an overcoat valued at $35 from a milk wagon. James was detected in the act, and was arrested at Ninth and Nectarine streets. He had a hearing before Alderman Massey, who held him in $800 bail to answer.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS .- The well-known news-stand at the N. E. corner of Fifth and Chesnut streets will remove, in a few days, to the southeast corner, under the management of Charles Neurath, the old director, where, he wishes to inform the public, they can be supolied with all the daily and weekly papers; also, THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, done up in wrappers, for malling, the New York dailies and weeklies, envelopes, writing paper, etc.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED .- Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock several bundles of muslins, that had been stolen from the store of Messrs. Thorn & King. No. 313 Market street, were found in an empty box in an alley-way back of No. 28 N. Third street, leading to McRea's stables. The owners identified their property, and took it away.

ELECTION OF BANK DIRECTORS. - The election of Bank Directors this morning resulted as follows:

Antional Bank of Commerce — George K. Ziegler, John A. Brown, A. E. Borie, S. W. Cannell, Thomas H. Kutley, George Trott, George W. Page, John Thompson, John Rodman Paul,

ALUMNI SPEAKER .- Mr. James Lynd, lately elected City Solicitor, having been com-pelled by the pressure of the business of his office to resign the position of Speaker of the High School Alumn for 1867, a meeting of the Board of Managers of that association will be held this evening, at which the vacancy will be ANOTHER BURGLARY.-About 8 o'clock last evening the dwelling-house No. 109 Brown street was entered by thieves. They managed to get in the front door by means of false keys, and after securing a small quantity of clothing

ST, MICHARL'S CHURCH FAIR. - A Fair IS now being held in the basement of St. Michael's ('hurch, which is every way deserving of abundant support. A bandsome President's chair is being voted for at the Fair, and the vote last evening stood as follows: Haucock Assemble, 51; James Pa e Library Company, 50; St. Augustine's Beneficial Society, 10; Globe Steam Fire Engine Company, 4; Young Men's Buckwalter (Tub. 1)

FROM WASHINGTON THIS AFTERROOM.

[FREGIAL DESPATORES TO SVENING TELEGRAPH ] WASHINGTON, January 10. Another Roorback.

The story started by telegraph, that matters of a serious and grave nature, are now under consideration at the War Department, in connection with the impeachment measure, and that troops are being sent to various points, is all bosh, and is started for stock-jobbing purposes,

The Davis Mansion at Richmond. Two members of the Richmond city government are here to induce Covernment to turn over the Jeff. Davis mansion in Richmond to the city. They now a'lege that the house was not given to Davis, but only rented by him. The New Tariff.

The Senate Pinance Committee will probably not report their Tariff bill before Monday. It will embrace some provisions or the House bill of last session, but will be framed mainly from the Wells Tariff bill . Indian Affairs.

Mr. Bogy, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, appeared before the House Committee on Indian Affairs to-day, to testify in regard to frauds alleged to have been committed in awarding contracts for Indian supplies. The testimony in the case looks pretty serious.

The Senate To-Day. The Senate is rather thin, in consequence of the number of Senators absent to look after a re-election, or to help their colleagues. Senators Nye, Davis, Trumbull, Yates, Harris, Pomeroy, and Ross are thus absent. Land Office Returns.

The General Land Office returns, received at the General Land Office, show that 13,520 seres of the public lands were disposed of during the month of December last, at the following local offices:-Topeka, Kansas, 7214 acres; Sloux City, Iowa, 2065 acres; Saint Peter s, Minn., 3501 acres.

The greater portion of the land was taken for actual settlement and cultivation under the Homestead law. Convention of Colored Men. A National Convention of Colored Men, to meet to-day, is held pursuant to a call issued by the National Equal Rights League. A number of delegations arrived yesterday, representing several Fastern, Western, and Southern CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Senate. WASHINGTON, January 10 -Mr. Wade (Ohio) pro aented a petition for the passage of the Liouse Tariff bill. Referred to the Finance Committee. Mr. Sherman (Ohio) presented a similar petition, which had a like reference.

Mr. Lane (Ind.) presented a pelition for a mod fication of the duty on cigars. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr Hendricks (Ind.) presented a petition, asking that the duty on flex-red be fixed at not less than thirty coats. Referred to the Emance Committee.

Mr. Morgan (N. Y.) presented a petition for the passage of the House I amiff bill. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherwan called up the bill for the relief of the Winona and St. Peter's Railroad Company of Hinnovata, which was reces, and goes to the House. It directs the Secretary of the Treasury to refund to the Company name! $8431.88, excessive duty collected on railroad iron.

Mr Foland (Vt ) called up the House bill to fix the time for the regular meeting of Congress.

Mr Williams (Oreron) asked if Senators and Representatives would be entitled to more than two mileages for the Fortieta Congress? He thought Mr. Williams said that would add to the expense of the Fortieth Congress, and the idea was that nething would be done more than to effect an organization on the ith of March, He did not believe the people would approve the additional outlay for the nurness.

Mr. Polend said he was not aware that the special sees on of Cougress on the 4th of March was to be of such short duration as Mr. Williams supposed. He thought Mr. Williams would find he was mistaken thought Mr. Williams would find he was mistaken in that belief.

Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) thought there was no necessity for such legislation as this. It was not thought necessary to keep Congress in continual session during the war, and he did not see the need of it now. If it was a party measure he had nothing to say, but if it was claimed to be required by the interests of the country, he would like to have it expained. He believed the country had got along very well without a continuous session heretotore, and he should like to know the necessity for the additional session hereafter. If it was simply devery well without a continuous session horefolore, and he should hike to know the necessity for the additional session hereafter. If it was simply designed to hold the President in check, the country ought to know it. If it was for strictly parry purposes, the country ought to know that. He believed the passage of the bill had been determ ned in caucus, but he thought the Senator having charge of the bill ought to explain the matter a little.

Mr. Edmunds said he had only taken charge of the bill at the request of Senators who were absent, and of members of the House. So far as he knew the reasons that procured the passage of the bill in the House the principal one was to provide an additional officer for the succession to the Presidency, in the event of the death of the President. The bill would gives us a permanent Speaker of the House, which we would not have without it. How much of political significance there might be in the bill he did not know. He was not prepared to say that the unfortunate differences between the President and Congress had not contributed to the passage of the bill though how much it had contributed to that result ne could not say.

Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) inquired if the President pro sem of the Senate could not had over mithe presidency of the Senate could not had over mithe presidency and the section of a new term of the next Congress, that it

Mr. Hendricks (ind.) inquired it the President protein of the Senate could not hold over in the position of a nember of the next Congress, that is the could not hold office during the vacancy?

Mr. Potand (Vt.) replied that he thought he could.

Mr. Hendricks said if that were the case, the contingency of the President's death was already prosided for.

Mr Johnson (Md ) raised the same question put by Mr. Poland, and asked the Chair (Mr. Foster) to Mr. Alley, from the same Committee, reported the bill declaring the Clinton bridge across the Mississippi, at Clinton, fowe, a post road.

Mr. Washburne (Ill.,—It is the same proposition, ubstantially to dam up the Mississippi river.

Mr. Alley proceeded to explain and advocate the bill.

bill.

Mr. Washburne (Ill.) followed in opposition to it, contending that the bridge was a naterial obstruction to navigation, and describing the Northwestern is allowed Company, as a mammoth, stependous, and removes as a mammoth, stependous, and remoras: east monopoly.

Mr. Fornaworth (III ) saked his colleague how long the bridge had poon in existence?

Ar. Farmsworth asked whether there was one authentic case of detention or delay, or injury to authento case of detention or delay, or injury to navigation by that bridge.

Mr. Washburne replied that the testimony on that point had been presented to the Committee.

Mr. Davis (N. X.) stated that the bridge had been opened to mavigation in March, 1855, and not one single suit had been bridget against the Company for damage to a vessel of craft.

Mr. Washburne and there was such a suit now pending in the United States Cour: in lowarms and the configuration of the pending in the United States Cour: in lowarms and the company asked protection of Congress.

The debate was further consisted by Messix. Schoffeld and Alloy.
