Mr. King presented an ordinance abolishing

the Department of Wharves and Landings, and requiring all the duties that hitherto belonged to the Commissioner of Wharves and Markets, o devolve on the Commissioner of City Pro-

Mr. King stated that the city would save about $4000 per annum if the department was abolished, and would not be put to inconvenience by abolishing the same Mr. VAN CLEVE moved a postponement of the ordinance.

Mr. SMITH was in favor of reform, and was in favor of a special committee to inquire what departments of the city government could be dispensed with, but he was not in favor of abol-ishing the Department of Wharves and Mar-kets, as proposed in Mr. King's ordinance. The motion to postpone was agreed to. Yeas, Common Branch.

The Chamber was called to order at a quarter past three o'clock. President Joseph F. Marcer, Esq., in the Chair,

John K, Tyson, Esq., member of Council from the Second Ward, presented his certificate of election, and being sworn in, took his seat, Mr. MARCEE presented the annual report of the City Controller, which was ordered to be printed

A communication was received from Mr. Dixey, City Commissioner, stating that he had corresponded with Captain H. W. Janes, informing him that Moyamensing Hall was burned down while in charge of the Government, and it is expected that the building will be not in the same condition as when it and referred to the Finance Committee. be put in the same condition as when it was received from the city. The communication was referred to the Committee on Law. Mr. Harpen presented a petition of citizens asking for the passage of an ordinance to pre-vent Passenger Railway Companies from salt-

An ordinance to that effect, and making it a penalty of $75 for any violation of the same, was presented by Mr. Harper. It ied to a general debate, entered into by Messrs. Evans, Wagner, Conrow, Billington, Simpson, and others others.

The yeas and nays were called, resulting—yeas, 23; nays, 24. The bill was lost.

A communication from the Board of Directors of the Fire Department, in reference to the reorganization of the Fire Department, was referred to the Committee on Fire and Frusts.

Mr. Tyson presented a petition of the Directors of the Second School Section, asking that the ground upon which Moyamensing Hall stood be appropriated for school purposes. Referred to Committee on Schools and Police.

Mr. Simpson moved to amend the item salary of engineer from $4000 to $2800.

Mr. Franciscus moved to further amend by making the salary $1000.

Mr. Potter objected to the amendment. He argued that the city had not the money to advance a single salary. The income for 1867 is fixed, and the appropriations to the various city departments will absorb the entire revenue.

Mr. Franciscus said that his amendment was on the score of economy. The laborer is worthy his hire. Compensation for labor depends upon the talent expended, and the charge by the Union party in caucus will benefit the city and increase the treasury.

Mr. Evans was opposed to the increase, and spoke at length on the subject. He said that the present Chief Engineer had faithfully discharged his duties, but members of Councils had been endeavoring to kill him.

Mr. Henszey made an able speech. He favored Mr. Franciscus' amendment, on the score of economy, arguing that by paying a good

Whereas, The reconstruction of our National Union is the lifting of the entire nation into the practical realization of the true republican idea of a Government founded on a baselitic irrelication. of a Government, founded on absolute justice as the corner-stone; therefore, to aid in this practi-cal work, we agree to form a society to be called "The Pennsylvania Equal Rights Society," The purpose of the Society, as stated by the first article, was to secure equal rights to all citizens, especially the right of suffrage, irreof a Government, founded on absolute instice as spective of race, color or sex.

The following nominations were made and idopted:— President—Robert Purvis, per, William Alston, Dinan Mendenhall.

Vice Presidents—Lucretia Mott, Wm. Whip-per, William Alston, Dinan Mendenhali.

Recording Secretary—Mary B. Lightfoot,
Corresponding Secretary—Fanny M. Jackson,
Treasurer—John Wildman,
Executive Committee.—William Still, Sarah
J. Hawkins, Eilen M. Childs, Sarah Pugh, Harriet Furvis, Clementine Johns, Elisha Weaver, Alfred H. Love, Octavius Catto, Louis J. Roberts, James Chappel. James Chaapel.

Miss Susan B. Anthony made an earnest appeal to all, especially to the women of our na-tion to contribute to the financial support of the present society.

The following resolutions were offered:— Resolved, That reconstruction should begin at home; that since a majority of the citizens of Pennsylvania are now taxed without representation, and governed without consent, and since those who would be free themselves must strike the blow, therefore the primary object of the Pennsylvania Equal Rights Society is to demand and obtain suffrage for the women and colored men of this State.

Resolved, That we call upon the people of Resolved, That we call upon the people of Pennsylvania, without distinction of party, to form Equal Rights Clubs in every county, township and ward, to demand suffrage as the natural inalienable birthright of every citizen; to circulate tracts, pamphlets and petitions, to organize meetings; to create and concentrate public sentiment; to direct attention to the existing grievances and disabilities of our disfranchised classes; to catechize candidates for all offices, State or National, and to make the extension of suffrage the test question in all fotures political sciles. After a protracted discussion, the above resolutions were adopted, with various slight verbal modifications. After the transaction of unimportant routine business, the Society ad-

THE LINCOLN INSTITUTION .- The annual meeting of the contributors to the Lincoln Institution was held at the building, No. 308 S. Eleventh street, yesterday morning. The first annual report was submitted. It referred to the organization of the institution from a communication to the Church Home for Children, from Mr. Burrows, State Superintendant for Soldiers' Orphans, asking after orphans received and that appeal resulted in ten children being received. Mr. Burrows subsequently offered to place out in any institution under Episcopalian charge, one hundred boys, whose parents belonged to that church, and pay $110 for each of them until they were sixteen years old. Out of this proposition grew the Lincoln Institution, Subsequently the present building admirably adapted to the required purposes, was purchased for $22,500 cash, of which $16,000 yet remains as a mortgage upon the building, and which should be speedily cancelled. April 17th, 1866, the Institution was dedicated with appropriate services, at which General Grant was present, and two boys were received. At present seventy-five boys are under charge, and the quota of one hundred will soon be complete. With the greatest economy exercised the average annual cost of each child is $130, making an annual defleit of $200 to be provided for by the free will offerings of our citizens.

Rev. Dr. Newton presided yesterday. Major-General Meade, Rev. Phillips Brooks, Mayor-McMichael and other prominent gentlemen were present. The following Counsellors were President-Gen. George G. Meade.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS,-The Republican caucus of Select Council met yesterday and neminated for Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works, Charles Graeff and John A. Houseman, FOND OF HORSES,-Abraham Weaver, Fond of Horses,—Abraham Weaver, who lives in Lancaster course, had stolen from his stable, on Sunday evening. January 6, 1867, a dark sorred horse. George Washington Schnader, alias M. Brook, is the name of an individual who has annoyed the farmers of Pennsylvania for some time past, by depredations upon their horses, wagons, etc. It seems that George, finding himself short of "greens," in order to provide himself with the "necessary," took the horse from Mr. Weaver's stable, rode him over to Allentown, and there sold him to a man named Jacob Kichline for $200. He then started for this city, and arrived here on Friday night last, and put up at the Penn Hotel, and night last, and put up at the Penn Hotel, and from there went to a boarding-house, No. 310 North Eleventh street. Mr. Weaver came to the city yesterday morning with a photograph of the thief, and stopping in at the Central Station, asked Sergeant Crout "If he knew a man like that?" exhibiting the photograph. The officer replied that he did, Both then repaired to Alderman Hurley's office, and a warrant was issued for the approhension of Schnader. Sergeant Crout visited his boarding house, and secure I his prisoner, and escorted him before Alderman Hurley, who held him to answer in default of $1000 ball. He will be taken to Lancaster county jail this evening, by the Sergeant. Schnader is at present under $600 ball for stealing a horse and wagon from Dr. L. Z. Ringwaldt, of Churchtown, in the same county.

REVENUE CASES,-Before United States Commissioner Hibler yesterday, Edward Mariey had a hearing on the charge of distilling spirits without a license. Defendant's place, at Twenty without a heense. Defendant's piace, at I wenty-third and Naudain streets, was visited on the 11th of January, and two stills found there in operation, with mush in them. No special tax nad been paid. Held in $1000 ball for trial. Before United States Commissioner Smith, James Robinson, R. L. Pamora, and James Clary were charged with distilling without a license. The distillery of detendants is said to be on a farm on Oxford turopike, three miles above Frankford. The arrests were made by the Deputy Marshal, who testified that when he visited the place the still was in operation. Held for trial.

INSTALLATION SERVICES .- The installation services of the Rev. S. A. Mutchmore took place last evening, in the Cohocksink Presbyterian Church, Germantown avenue, above Fifth street, and were conducted by Rev. William O. Johnston, Dr. Reed, Dr. Beadle and Rev. T. M. Cunningham. The usual exercises attending occasions of this kind were engaged in. The attendance was large, and was composed of representatives from the different churches in the reighborhood. The new house of warship in neighborhood. The new house of worship in-tended for this congregation, which has been erected at the intersection of Franklin street and Columbia avenue, will be ready for occu-pancy in a few weeks. The building will ac-commodate about one thousand persons, and will be one of the most substantial and neatly built structures of the kind in the city. The congregation is increasing rapidly in numbers,

ROW IN COMMON COUNCIL.-Last evening after the adjournment of Common Council, and while the members were conversing in the main aisle of the chamber, Mr. Charles Miller, one of the Gas Trustees, made a remark which was not altogether liked by Mr. Ray, member from the Eighteenth Ward.

The latter replied to Mr. Miller, and receiving an answer from him similar to the remark he had previously made, Ray caught hold of nim and dealt him several blows, and would have followed it up had not the members interfered and separated the belligerents.

REPORTED FOR DUTY .- The following named officers have reported for duty at the United States naval station at League Island, viz:—Com-modore Oliver S. Glisson, Commandant; Com-mander George W: Ransom, and Lieutenant-Commander E. W. Henry. This is now a new and separate department from the Philadelphia Navy Yard, its title is United States Naval Station, League Island, Pa.
