AMUSEMENTS.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE. - The Philadelphia Necessary was produced last night in spien did style. The house was filled with an enthusiastiand admiring audience. The applique was general, and the new drama was voted a complete success. The acenery was unusually fine, and the pictures of The acceery was unusually fine, and the pictures of the Evening I eleghard office. Independence Hall, Inquirer office curard College, etc., are mithful and fine. Mrs. Barner Withams, as the "Newsboy" created much merriment by her droll and with expressions and acting. She distributed gratis two bundred and fifty copies of the latest edition of The Evening Telegraps, containing full lists of the drawings of the Crosby Opera House Art Association. These papers proved very acceptable grits to the people.

The new drama will be repeated this evening, and every night until further notice. No one should fall to see it.

New Arch Street Theatre—The Foxes,—The new spectacular hariequivade patienime of Jack and Gill, etc., was greefed with a crowded house last evening, at the Arch Street Theatre, and was generously applianded. It is to all respects the best piece of its kind yet produced in Philadelphia, and the management of the Arch deserve credit for the manner in which it has been but u son the same. The final fransformation is costly and beautiful, shording a more judicious blending of hiss and effects than we have ever before seen in efforts of this kind. The pantomime will be played every evening this week, preceded by a laughable comedicita. NEW ARCH STREET THEATRE-THE FOXES,-The WALNOT STREET THEATRE. — Mr. John Brougham produced tolumbus Reconstructed at the Walnut last night, to a good house, and in excellent style. It is very lunny and deserves a long run.

GRAND GALA NIGHT AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC-BAL MASQUE OF THE SENGRIBUND -The great Carmval Bal Masque of the Sangerbund, at the Academy of Music last night, was one of the Lest we have ever attended. The company were elite and fashionable and the amusement afforded by the managers was or a sort to be reliabed by every body. The masquerading was magnificent; and there were more grotosque and comical figures present than we have ever witnessed at a hall of kind. The grand promenade and o'aracters on costume masque took place at 9 osterous cheering. The order of dances was as

The vestibules and fronts of the balcony and family circ os were tastefully draped with flags and the music was farn shed by two grand orchestras, led by Prop sao's J. Ritter and Carl Guertner, It

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

1 For Additional Local Rems see Third Page.

A GRAND COUNTERFEITING SOHEME .-There appears to have been quite a stir in police fireles in New York in regard to a bold attempt that was made to circulate an immense quantity of counterfeits through that city. The spurious enrrency purported to have been issued by the banks in this city. It seems that a detective in New York learned, at an early hour, that a man named Clark, allias Cook, was anticipating the arrival of a large amount of counterfeit notes from a certain party in this city, which were to be ochvered to him at a certain hotel in Cort landt street, near West. Clark, it is alleged, has been for the past week securing the services of a large number of well-known counterfest ven dors, all of whom were last evening to have made a grand raid on all the retail dealers throughout that city, over $50,000 of which was to have been put in circulation. Owing to the prompt action taken by the above officer, the party in question having got wind that matters were not all right, and that his appearance at the hotel might cause his arrest, decamped, and up to a late hour last night had succeeded in avoiding arrest. It is said that nearly $100,000 worth or counterfeit bills, of various denominations, upon the several national banks of this were received by the above party, alt o which were manufactured here. Some twenty women, it is said, were engaged to put in circulation the money, of which they were to receive fifty per cent, for all disposed of,

PETTY POLICE MATTERS .- Gillem Clay a sneak thief, was arrested last night by Officer Dundas, at Taird and Girard avenue, on a charge of larceny. It appears that he went into a house, and appropriated two overcosts to his own use without asking the leave of the owner. He had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker, who committed him in detault of

George Donisis was arrested at Fourth and Market streets last evening, on a charge of stealing a firkin of lard from in front of a provision store. He had a hearing before Alderman Godbou, and was committed in default of bail to answer. The lard is at the Fourth District Station House, in Cherry street, and can be had by applying to Lieutenant Bowers. Harry Williams is the name of an individual who is gifted with a remarkably bad memory. He boarded at a bouse No. 322 Spruce street for two weeks, and then left and forgot to pay his board, which amounted to about $12. As his Christian deportment and example was not considered an equivalent for his board, he was arrested, and had a hearing betore Alderman Tittermars, on the charge of committing a travel. That gentleman, kinder than his old landlord, furnished him with board at the city's expense, until he had an opportunity to prove his innocence.

A COURAGEOUS SERVANT GIRL,-Last evening a couple of the light-fingered trater nity went on a cruise in the vicinity of Eric and Fitzwater streets. Seeing some clothes let hanging on the line in a yard, one of them, named John Welsh, leaped over the fence, and commenced taking the clothes, and handed them over to his accomplice on the other side A servant girl employed in the house went out and discovered Welsh at his little name. She seized on him and yelled for help. He knocked her down and kicked her when she was down: but her spirit was mighty, and she couldn't be subdued. She held on to her prisoner, and yelled "murder, help, fire, thieves," etc. Her cries attracted Officer Weston, who made his opportune appearance in time to take Welsh nto custody. He was taken before Alderman Tittermary, who, after bearing all he had to say, sent him below until he could have an opportunity of convincing twelve intelligent men that he "hadn't been a doin' nothin"."

A STABBING CASE. - Oscar Crozier, a colored man, was arrested at No. 718 Spatford street, last night, for daugerously wounding a colored girl rame | Ann Mittee in three places The affair took place last evening about half past seven o'clock. Crozier got into a difficulty with the girl, and after some crimination and recrimination between the two, he drew a knife and stabbed her in the groin, in the side, and in the back. She fell, and was almost insensible when Officer Hergshelmer entered and arrested Crozier. The latter had a hearing before Alderman Butler, who committed him to await the result of her injuries. She is now lying in a very critical condition. They had been living ogether for some time past, and had frequently quarrelled, it is said.

A BOLD HIGHWAY POBBERY.-Last Sunday evening Mr. James Steel, who had been out sleighing, left his horse and sleigh in charge of a man at Twelfth and Girard avenue, whilst be stepped inside to call on a friend. He had been gone but a minute when two men came along and knocked down the one left in charge, and both jumping into the sleigh, drove off. Mr. lodged information with the police de partment, and yesterday morning both of the guilty parties were arrested. John Mack was in Lawrence street, and William Larison at Eleventh and Coates streets, by Sergean Johnson. The sleigh was recovered. They had before Alderman Hutchinson, and were held to answer the charge of larceny.

SNATCHING A WATCH AND CHAIN.-Edward J. Duffee stepped into the saloon corner Front and Callowhill streets, and demanded certain drinks for his individual refreshment. It so happened that this same Duffee had for sometime been greatly in arrears at this same saloon, and hence his demands were decidedly refused. At this he took umbrage, and, making a noise, was put out by the barkeeper, Frank Sweep. When outside the door Duffee snatched a watch and chain from the barkeeper's pocket but being held by Swoop, was arrested by a passing officer. He had a hearing before Alderderman Kerr this morning, and was held in default of $600 bail.

HANDSOME TESTIM MIAL. - This morning Mr. Robert Beatty, for many years occupying the position of Chief Clerk to the Receiver of Taxes, was the recipient of a very handsome testimonial, in the shape of a splendid gold watch and chain, from the attaches of the office. The occasion was the retiring of Mr. Beatty from his position, and was the more grateful to him as it was wholly unexpected. The presentation was made by the new incurabent, Mr. John L. Hill, and the recipient tendered his thanks in a few well-chosen words.

THE WEATHER.-Yesterday was unusuunpleasant, locomotion, after the storm of the night before, being anything but desirable. It was sinch, sluch, sluch everywhere, although the thermometer had only a slightly upward tendency. At 5 A. M. it stood at its highest point, 37, falling to 34 at midday, and 33 at 3 o'clock. Towards evening it threatened another snow spat, but during the night the wind changed to the westward, and this morning the pathways assumed an icy appearance. The reappearance of the sun was most welcome.

DISORDERLY HOUSE CASE,-Complaints having frequently been made against a place at Eighth and Bedford streets, kept by a man giving the name of Thomas Marshall, the police paid him a visit yesterday morning. By special invitation Marshall and three of the in mates of his crib paid a visit, in company with everal police officers, to Alterman Tittermary, at his office. The result of the visit was, that the Alderman accommodated the four of them with lodgings at the public expense, until they could be tried for keeping a disorderly house.

OVER THE RIVER.-Camden this morning presented a pleasant contrast to the wintry asperity of yesterday. The peculiarly porous character of the sail prevented that slushiness which obtains about Third and Chesnut streets. There was quite an air of vitality about the little city, and the ferries were more liberally patronized. It is now, bowever, thawing, the mercury indicating 33 degrees in the shade at 11 o'clock A. M. Altogether, Camden to-day is an improvement on Philadelphia.

INFRINGING THE GAME LAWS .- Orders have been assued for the arrest of all parties selling game contrary to ordinance. No prairie chickens, grouse, hares, or partridges are allowed to be sold between the 5th of January and the 25th of October, and woodcocks be-tween the 5th of January and the 25th of July, The penalty of selling game between these dates is five dollars for each piece.

ACCIDENT .- About 12:30 to-day Officer John P. Gordon, of the Ninth District, while attempting to get on a Coates street car fell, and the car passed over his hand, injuring it everely. He was removed to his home.

WASHINGTON, January 22 .- Mr. Wilson Mass, )introduced a bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers sailors, and marines, in the late war. The first sec tion gives to each and every soldier, sailer, and marine who enliated in the late war, who has re-ceived, or is entitled to receive, a bounty of $100 and no more, and who has been or may be hereafter honorably discharged, a bounty of eight and one-third dollars per month for every month of service, Second 2 provides that in calculating the amount of bounty due and to be paid, deductions shall be made for any and all payment of bounty or prize money made or agreed to be made by the United States, so that in no case shall the United States bounty exceed eight and one third dollars nonth Men who deserted from the army and navy and Rebel deserters who enlisted in the United States service, are excluded; also, all who were dis charged at their own request, except for transfer or promotion after two years' service. Widows and neirs of deceased soldiers entitled to the bounty are to receive it.
Section 2 provides the order in which the accounting officer shall pay the bounty to widows and heirs; first, to the widow of the soldier or sailor, if there be one; second, if there be no widow, to the children be one; second, if there be no widow, to the children of deceased; third, then if there be no widow or children, to the father or mother of such deceased soldier, sailor, or marine; provided that no bounty shall be paid to the heirs of any claimant not resident in the United States.

Section 4 repeals the bounty law of last summer, and provides that all sums paid under it; shall be deducted from the amount to be paid under this act.

Court of Oyer and Terminer—Judges Pierce and Brewster—Messrs. T. B. Dwight and John O'Byrne, Prosecuting Attorneys.—This morning, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Bastian, the especial venire of jurors was returned, and after considerable parley a jury was empanelled. Mr. Dwight opened the case of the Commonwealth by reading to the jury that part of an act of Assembly which defines murder in the first degree; explaining the meaning of the act; making a few remarks conserning the different grades of murder; and stating cerning the different grades of murder; and stating the following facts as what the Commonwealth expects to present:—A Mr. Peak was sitting in his bar-room, at the seuthwest corner of Federal street and Passyuna road, on the evening of August 1, 1866, when Bastian, a man unused Finney, and some others, entered the p ace for inquor Some spots on the clothes of the deceased were remarked by Mr. Finney, and in consequence of something said, hard words arose, and finally or something said, hard words arose, and finally blows. A man named Hamitton was throwing bottles at Firmey and Harmer, at a door through which Bastian had passed. Bastian went to the kitchen, got a gun, and fired at Harmer, the load taking effect in the body of the deceased, and causing his centh.

Thomas Daly-I am a surveyor in the First District; my business is to take surveys of premises, etc. and make plans from the surveys; I drew that plan of the house of Peak—the house on the southwest corner of Federal street and Passyunk road.

A plan of the bar-room, fixtures, and kitchen were preduced by the Common wealth to this witness for the officiation. The determination of the official entification The defense objected to the offering the plan in testimony, because there was an argu-sent and also because the plan was imperfect in eral respects The Court ordered that the plan be withheld until The Court ordered that the plan be withheld until still the deficiencies shall be supplied. But afterwards the Court said that this plan was offered by the Commonwealth. If it was competent testimony would be allowed in; if incompetent it would be excuded. If the detense wished to have another plan, they themselves had a right to procure it.

Mrs. Amanda Harmer—I am the widow of James J. Harmer; I was living August I last, at No. 1208 South Fifth street; my husband was brought home iteed about 9 o'clock in the evening of August I; the post mortem examination was made upon his body for Dr. Shayleigh, at my house.

Dr. E. B. Snapleigh—I was the physician of the late t oconer, and made a post mortem examination upon the body of James I. Harmer: I discovered my gunshot w unds in front of the left arm-pit, within a circle whose radius was about an inch and with ma circle whose radius was about an inch and a haif; the balls passed in between and through the close, tracturing the second rib, through the upper last of the left luns, the upper part of the heart, face lower part of the right luns, and upper part of the left luns, the upper part of the heart, face lower part of the right luns, and upper part of the lever; these are three of the balls found in the bod. Witness showed them to the Jury.) If they were rend they would be about the size of a large pas; the organs I have mentioned were very much riddled; James T. Harmer came to his death in consequence of the wourds I have described.

Cross-vamined—I can not know where or how the e wounds were received; the bullets passed from the armpit of the set side to the elevanth right side; if deceased had been creet the sun that made the wound must have been pointed on the right side; if deceased had been creef the sun that made the wound must have been pointed downwards.

Ex. Coroner Taylor—I was the late Coroner of the county; I held an inquest upon the body of deceased: I was at the premises south-west corner of Federal street and Passyvak road; I received this gun from Mr. Poak; (a gun was then handed to the witness;) I have had it in my possession ever since; my private mark is upon it; Peak gave it to me at my office.

Cross-examined—The subject matter of the jury's verdict at the hearing was that deceased came to his death in consequence of gur-shot wound sinflicted as the hands of Bastian, which wounds were inflicted in self-defense. David Goldy-I knew deceased; I know the

David Goldy-I knew deceased: I know the defendant: I remember the occurrence; on the atternoon of the lat of August I met Mr. Harmer at look street, and rode with him to Peak's place, arrived at the place, Mr. Harmer, myself and Robert and Washington Hamilton entered the bar to take drinks; all approached the bar, and I noticed Harmer having some words with a man named Finney; Harmer made use of some very barsh words to rinney; I quieted Harmer soon by urring all to come and drink; we all drank, and afterwards Finney went to the road-side and sat down in an arm char; Harmer went to the chair and leaning over Finney used more bad language; and leaning over Finney used more bad language; this also weemed to pass away; all of us started out doors; I supposing we were going away; by "all" I mean Harmer, the two Hamiltons, myself and others I so not remember; while we were standing in Federal street, about two stops from the door, I in Federal street, about two stops from the door, it standing at the left side of Harmer, noticed Finney coming out; I did not notice Bastian; Finney weat to Harmer and said, "Harmer, you don't mean what you said?" 'Yes I do, you son of a — "replied Harmer, and he immediately succeed Finney down; Finney and Bastian then ran loto the house; I followed them. Harmer and Washington Harmitton Finney and Bastian then ran luto the house; I followed them; Harmer and Washington Hamilton went in after Finney and Bastian; when I went in I am one of them drop down bonied the bar as it dodging a botile; I think it was Finney; Harmer was firing bottles and glasses as hard as he could; I saw but one person behind the bar; I saw Harmer go up as if intending to strike the man behind the bar; I did not see whether he struck the man or not, but he made a desperate sarike; the next thing I saw was a sun pointed out of a door, and Harmer was standing with his arm raised to throw directly at the door; he was firing at the door; the man was behind the door so that he could not be seen, and he held the gus so for a long time; I cried out—'Don't shoot;" in the meantime Harmer was throwing bottles and glasses right at the door; the gun was fired, and Harmer recled and went about half way to the door before he rell; I do not tuink that Harmer was before he rell; I do not twink that Harmer faither than seven feet from the muzzle of the faither than seven feet from the muzzle of the gun when he was shot; I could see about two feet of the gun barrel; I then told Harmer he was shot; I helped to carry him in; when the gun was fired, I could see only Harmer and myself in the room; I did not see Washington Hamilton; I did not see Bastian after he ran into the room.

Cross-examined—It was about 3 o'clock in the afternoon when I met Harmer in Dock street; he had been drinking, I think; he was lively; we did not start to Peak's until near sunset; between 3 o'clock and sunset we drank s good many times; it was near 8 o'clock when we arrived at Peak's. On was near 8 o'clock when we arrived at Peak's. On Mesers. John Goforth and William G. McCauley
