The Occupation of Empresses and Queens.

Homer has given us some action of the employment of princesses of his day, one of the most interesting episodes in his immortal epic being a descriptive account of the daughters of Physics engaged with their needles. It is curious to observe how that domestic occupa-tion survives, although its mode has greatly changed, and is still occasionally indulæed in by living Empresses and Queens, to relieve their minds from the cares of state and the weariness of Courts. Thus, the Empress of the French, the Empress of Russia, and the Queens of Spain and Bavaria, we are told by Court newsmen, beguile their hours with the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines. The needle, as used in the old-fashioned way, is fast departing from our domiciles, but we have a far better substitute in these invaluable and elegant machines indeed, as the Times says:—"To possess a Sewing Machine, and to know how to use it, is to possess a little mine of wealth."—Pall Mall

OLIBAGEOUS CONDUCT .- We are called ipon to chronicle another one of those vile, disgraceful deeds which now and then are per-petrated by base and shameful wretches. James . Hayles, a married man of 28 years, resides with his wife in a dwelling occupied by another family in New street, below Second. On the night of the 9th of December, 1866, Hayles, who occupies rooms on the third story, spoke to the lady of the other family, aged about 19 years, who at the time was going up into the fourth story, and requested her to step into his room, as he had something of importance to make known to her. This she refused to do, and was about to move up stairs, when Hayles ran out into the entry and roughly pulled her into his room, slammed to the door, and then shamefully assaulted her.

The cries of the lady were not heard, inasmuch as Hayles took the opportunity when all Complaint was immediately lodged against Hayles, and he was arrested and mitted until a hearing could take place, the lady at the time being in such delicate health, and there being also a death in the family, prohibited her going out. Yesterday, however, a hearing was had before Alderman Kerr, by whom Hayles was held in $2000 bail to answer the charge at Court, where he will meet with such a punishment as is worthy the base crime

AN EXCITING CASE IN CAMDEN. - The case of Herwanki Maddox and wite, indicted for conspiring against Charles F. Redman, Assistant Assessor for Camden county, has created much interest among our neighbors across the water. Mr. Redman is charged by the defendant with undue familiarity with Mrs. Maddox, and, by his own testimony, paid the hus-band, who made demands for his wounded honor, several hundred dollars in greenbacks, and took numerous releases and quit claims. The defendants kept on bleeding the Assessor till he paid over fourteen hundred dollars in money and furniture. He then had them arrested for conspiring to defraud him, and his counsel produced the contession, which seems to have been patterned after the Sickles case, and also four separate releases for the alleged criminal intimacy of Mrs. Maddox. The woman is twenty years of age, and pretty, and has the sympathies evidently of jury and spec-It bids fair to rank among the causes s for the romance and the many strange developments of the case, and draws audience to the Court House. THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION-FRESH MEAT AS AN ANTIDOTE. -So long as consumption continues the principal disease which ravages the human race, remedies without number will continue to be put forth. Hitherto none have proposed that have met with more than partial success. We are informed, however, that the fresh meat cure has performed many cures in an almost miraculous manner. Dr. Weisse was the first to employ this remedy, and the great success which attended his labors in Europe engaged the attention of the leading physicians of Europe, by whom it was intro-duced into the hospitals of Paris, Berlin, and Vienna. By this method, the nutriment of fresh meat is infused into the system in an artificial manner, and not by the usual digestive process. It results in stimulating and invigorating the system in a way that soon raises the despondent hopes of the patient. This remedy is put up in the form of a syrup—each bottle, which is sold at one dollar, containing the essence of a pound and a half of raw meat. S. C. Upham, No. 25 S. Eighth street, is the agent here, and it is for sale by all druggists.

MENNERCHOR BAL MASQUE,-This old and well-known musical association will hold their annual masked ball—their seventeenth fancy ball—at the Academy of Music, on Tuesday evening, the 29th instant. The preparations for the same are on a large and liberal scale, and being the close of the bal masque scason. will no doubt be a well-attended and grand affair. They have the reputation of giving the best balls of the kind, and they are looked upon by our best class of society as social reunions and unexceptionable in all particulars. The two grand orchestras will be led respectively by Professors A. Birgfeld and T. Herrman, and Mr. Doyle, of the Continental, will be the caterer of the evening. Tickets, $5, each admit ting a gentleman and two ladies, can be had by subscription only, of the members and managers as noticed in another part of THE TELEGRAPH. We advise all who want to enjoy themselves

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- About 3 o'clock this morning, as a peacefully disposed German, named John M. Ehrenberg, was slowly wending his way in the neighborhood of Front and Lombard streets, his abstractions were suddenly brought to a close. All of a sudden two ruffians confronted John, and before he could speak one of them gave him a blow between the eyes that laid him out. They then tried to re-move John's watch from his pocket, and in the effort broke the chain. But John held on to his property like a Trojan, and veiled for help, Officer Burns, of the Third District, heard the disturbance and rushed up, and the robbers rushed down the street with Burns after them, He captured one, who gave the name of Daniel Andrews. He had a hearing before Alderman Butler, who committed him to answer.

A NEW IDEA.-The International Adver-A NEW IDEA.—The International Advertising and B. P. Company of New York city have rather taken Philadelphia by storm in the way of advertising. They have leased the right of placing signs on the tops of street cars run by the principal railway companies. 'Tis certainly one of the best means for putting a business before the public (aside from the regular medium of the press) that we have seen. As they seem to have the that we have seen. As they seem to have the right go-shead spirit, we wish them success; and, judging from the manner the public take hold of it, they cannot fail of schieving it.

"THE TEMPTATION."-The second sermon in the course on the "Temptation of our Lord" will be delivered to-morrow evening, at the First Baptist Church, corner of Broad and Arch streets, by the Rev. G. Dana Boardman. The geats will be free on this occasion.

SAILORS HOSPITAL MONEY.-We have received from a correspondent, signing himself "Ring-Bolt," a communication from which we make the following extracts:-

"Fditor Evening Telegraph:—
In your report of the speeches delivered at the anniversary of the Pennsylvania Hospital, the other day. I read a statement that the sailor paying one dollar to the United States Government thereby gained the privilege of being admitted into the Hospital. Without dispiting this, I wish to inquire where such a law can be found, so that others may be blessed with the information which others particularly need. Although we callers do not know be blessed with the information which others particularly need. Although we sailors do not know much, we do know something about paying hospital money, and the benefits resulting from it, which may not be known to all your readers. All seamen, from the Captain down to the cook, in fact, all who follow the water on the sea, lakes or rivers (whalers and fishermen excepted), have to pay twenty cents per month, whether they are in the navy or the merchant marine. But if Jack, after fifty years' service, comes into this port well and falls down and breaks his limbs, or is taken sick after he leaves the vessel, and a-ks for a permit to alls down and breaks his finites, or is taken size after he leaves the vessel, and asks for a permit to enter the Hospital, he is told that he cannot have one. If he leaves the merchant marine after two-score years of service, he forfeits all claim on the mind to which he has contributed. He may serve in the navy equally as long, but as soon as he leaves it he less all claim on the Naval Hospital.

"According to our Government regulations, the sailor must get well in four months, or go out sick, unless, on appeal to the elemency of the Scoretary of the Treasury, he is granted a permit to remain."

SEALERS CRUSHED BY ICEBERGS .- We called to see this great painting of Mr. Bradford, owned by Mr. Le Grand Lockwood, of New York, now on exhibition at Scott's Art Gallery, No. 1020 Chesnat street. It is emphatically a big thing on ice. Those who have not seen it have missed a great deal. It would be impos-sible to describe its many beauties in a short newspaper article, or to appreciate them under hours of close study. The grouping of the wrecked scalers in the foreground is pleturesque and artistic in the highest degree. The ship, as it is heaved up on the towering hummocks, crushed and torn by the mighty icebergs, stands out in stern relief to the most lovely and grand mass of ice that towers like a mountain above i and around it. In the distance is a ship which has been deserted and set on fire. The crews can be seen far off wending their way across the fields of ice towards two other ships still further off in the hazy distance. The beautitui emerald green of the water, and the rich coloring effects of the water and ice are most effectively rendered, and as one looks upon the scene he can almost feel the cold. Mr. Bradford made three voyages to the arctic regions to obtain the necessary sketches for his picture, and will shortly proceed to Berlin, Prussia, to have it chromo-lithographed, The chromo-lithographes (300 in number) are 24 by 32 inches, and are sold only by subscription. About half have been taken.

PETTY POLICE CASES .- Theresa Gorman, who has been for some time past employed as a domestic at a boarding-house No. 216 Vine street, took French leave yesterday morning, Not satisfied with taking leave, she took also a breastpin, some silver spoons, and some other little unconsidered trifles, Officer Reeder arrested her at Sixth and Callowhill streets yesterday afternoon. She was committed to answer by Alderman Beitler.

Margaret O'Brien enticed a green young man into a crib in Acorn alley, and then relieved him of a pair of fur gloves, valued at $15. Margaret came to grief soon after, as the man had her arrested on a charge of larceny, and after a hearing before Alderman Tunison, she was held in $500 bail to answer.

A lad named Francis, aged sixteen years, was up before Alderman Patchel, charged by his parents with acting in a very disorderly manbeing also very disobedient. He resided at No. 326 S. Fifteenth street, but will, for some time to come, reside at the House of Refuge until he mends his ways.

Ech answers, a "single waron-load from the Balti-more depot," Miserable Chesapeake affairs, watery and good for nothing; and about twenty thousand "Morris River Coves" ("cullens"), $5 per thousand, and "primes," $10, with scarcely shade of difference in the size of the article, so difficult was it to discriminate between the LARCENIES.-Edward Albert was arrested esterday atternoon by Officer Hart, for the lareny of a lot of boots and shoes, the property of Broadhead & Kent. No. 211 N. Third street. He was caught in the act of making off with them. He was committed in default of $1000 bail by Alderman Beitler. James Richardson was charged before the same Alderman with the larceny of a coat from a boarding-house No. 120 N. Fifteenth street. The article belonged to Robert Hervey. He was committed in default of $1500 bail.

Several complaints have been made at the Central Station about a man named Richards or Richardson, by parties having lost coats, etc. All those who have lost such articles within the last month or two are requested to be present at the hearing, which is to take place at the Central Station, at 2 o'clock on Monday,

STEALING BOOTS .- Henry Albright adnired the fine styles of boots that were exhibited at a shoemaking establishment at No. N. Third street. Walking into the store, he didn't think it worth while to bother the pro-prietor about such a small transaction, and was nelping himself to a number of pairs of the best, when the owner appeared upon the scene of operations, and expressed a decided disapproval of such a proceeding. Henry was helped to a proper conception of what he had been doing, when a police officer appeared upon the scene and politely requested the pleasure of his company as far as Alderman Beitler's office. After stating the case before that gentleman, Albright was held in $1500 bail to answer the charge of BURGLARY .- Between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock this morning the hardware store of Mr. John Brady. on Frankford road, above Palmer street, was entered and robbed of $200 worth of fine cutlery, chiefly penknives, and also two overcoats. The thieves obtained entrance through the rear of the store. With a brace and bit they bored out a piece from the back door, and putting in the hand and arm, easily thrust back the bolt, and thus effected an entrance. There did not appear to have been anything else of any value disturbed, and the thieves must have been frightened off before they had succeeded in doing all they intended.

ARREST OF A LEADER IN DISORDERLY CIRCLES, -- By the vigilance of Constable Sullivan (to whom credit is due for ferreting out those engaged in the robbery of two farmers the other day at a disorderly dance-house), a leader in the lower circles, and a proprietor of a house of ill-fame, No. 468 N. Front street, was arrested yesterday. He was identified by Wil-liam Smith, one of the farmers, as the person who kicked him in the mouth. He was held by Alderman Williams in $1000 bail to awaita fur-ther hearing next Thursday atternoon, when the others concerned in the affair will be finally Just at this particular time, it caunot fail of being of great value to the public.

A FAT JOB .- Nicholas Devine and John Carr, whilst prowling around the South Second Street Market, about 2 o'clock this morning, having a go-cart in which to deposit findings. Watching their chance, when he was not looking in their direction, to hoist a barrel of fat into their cart, they attempted to make good their escape. But the butcher was too sharp tor them, and he had them both arrested. They have a hearing hefere Alderman Butler, who undertook to relieve a butcher of a barrel of fat had a hearing before Alderman Butler, who held them to answer the charge of farceny.

SHUFFLED OFF HIS MORTAL COIL .-About 7 o'clock last might the people in the neighborhood of Front and Prime streets were startled by the report of a pistol, that came from a house in which a young man named John Cox lived with his father-in-law's family. For some time past John had been troubled about something that he would not divulge, and had declared he was tired of living. Last even-ing he got a pistol and deliberately shot himself through the heart, killing himself almost in-

A NEW PATENT BURGLAR PREVENTIVE .- Mr. Macferran, No. 721 Chesnut street, has recently per-lected a small and not expensive article for preventing burglars from entering doors by means of keys, which is so simple, easily applied, and infallible in its object, that its universal adoption by prudent people can hardly admit of a doubt. Those who read the newspapers will have observed that a large majority.—in fact, nearly all of the robberies that have taken place, here and elsewhere, for some months past, have been effected by unlocking the doors, which is really so easy a matter, whether the key is left in the keyhole or removed, that the key is left in the keyhole or removed, that locking a door simply seems almost useless. What Mr. Macierran has now brought out is a smal article composed or a single piece of strong wire, to be inserted in the handle of the key, whereby the simplest lock is rendered more absolutely burglar-proof than any fastening that we have ever examined or heard of. The article can be attached to the door-knob in an instant, and, if desired, made a permanent fixture by means of a screw; or it can be put on and taken off at will. To persons travelling this instrument will be found persons travelling this instrument will be found invaluable, as it can be carried in a neat case, scarcely larger than a spectacle sheath, and applied to any door having a key on retiring. We have heard of the movements of powerful machinery being arrested by the accidental introduction of a very sma'l piece of metal. The small piece of metal here referred to, it promptly applied to the coors of our dwellings and chambers, will more effectually arrest the machines which burgiars inploy for entering our houses.

FROM THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF PHARMACY May, 1865; edited by William Proctor, Jr., Professor of Pharmacy in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy—'Will the fluid extracts go out of use owing to the high pilee, or can we have some authorizative modifications of the formulas by which we can make them at a more reasonable cost? It the latter, shall the change be in the quality of the menstruum, or in the manner of applying it, so as to reduce the quantity requisite? Can there be a convocation of the Committee of Revision to authorize some new method or modification of the present recipes?" With regard to the contemplated change in the quantity, or in the menstruum itself, in the preparation of finid extracts. I would take occasion to say that in medicine the health of the patient is the great object to be raived.

The cost of material is something, but when put into the scale with human health, and often human life, it is hardly worthy of consideration at all. My Buchu (Heimbold's) will continue to be made as formerly, and if it cannot be maintained at present prices, they will have to be advanced to meet the advance in the price of material. To such as desire quantity instead of quality we would say that water is a cheap commodity, and may be readily added by the person using the medicine if he desires to do so. H. f. Helmbold, Druggist and Chemist, No. 594 Broadway, New York City. And No. 104 South Tenth street, Philadelphia.

UPHAM'S FRESH MEAT CURE!

For the Prevention and cure of Consumption, Lung Diseases, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Marasmus, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, and all Morbid Conditions of the System Dependent on Deficiency of Vital Force.

The new plan of treating Pulmonary Diseases with FRESH MEAT is creating a p. ofound sensation in Europe.
Its beneficial results have been heralded through the press in both hemispheres. The common judgment of the medical faculty seems to have decided that no mere me medical radiity seems to have decimed that no mere medication can avail, as a curative agent, in that dread scourge of the race-Pulmonary Consumption. The nature of the disease appears to be such that the ordinary appliances of the schools are thrown away in all attempts to combat it successfully. Paliative resurts, at least can only be hoped for under the therapeutic assency of Drags.

nary apphances of the schools are thrown away in all attempts to combat it successfully. Palialive results, at least can only be hoped for under the therapeutic agency of Drugs.

HE FERSH MEAT TREATMENT was first tried in Russia by Dr. Weisse. The results were no less stativing than surprising. Consumptive cases in his hands, which had previously baffled the most skilled of the profession, yielded rapidly, as by charm under the new treatment. The startling success of Dr. Weisse soon became known in Germany, where under the directions of the first medical men or Berlin and Vicana the same scorious results were accomplished. But it is to Professor TROUSSEAU of the CHILDREN's HOSPITAL OF PARI's, that the world is chiefly indebted for making known to the afflicted the great features of the FRESH MEAT CURE. Professor TROUSSEAU has made the subject a special study, and has brought it as we conceive, to a periect system; for it is bositively asserted "that, in no less than des thousand cases in which it has been tried, it proved successful in nearly aid."

The Professor has given the results of his own experience in the Cinque Medicale. The rationate of cure may be briefly stated:—it supplies nutriment and stimulps to the body in an artificial manner, so to speak, instead of the usual processes of eigestion and nutrition, the functions of which had become impaired by disease, are incapable of soing on in the normal way. In a very short time from the beaining of this treatment, the disease powers gradually take on their natural nunctions, until they become re-established in mil vigor, and the patient who has thought himself "appointing in the valvey and shad so of death," begins to rea ize that the danger is past and his health is restored. The blood which had become impoverished and vitilated in consequence of the enteebled state of the digestive powers now revalus us process of the Stenetic and the digestive powers now revalus us process to the stenetic and the state of the Breeziele state of the Breeziele state of t

1. AM'S FREAH MEAT GUAR IS no less applicable for BRONCHITIS and DYSPEPSIA than in CORSUMPtion. It is also specially recommended in Marasmus.
By this aliment is meant emocial on—a wayting away of the flesh without lever or apparent disease. For feneral Debility of insisted of the whole system, this remedy is also particularly recommended.

The FRESH MEAT CURE is now first offered to the American public as a PROPRIETORY REMEDY. It is put up in the form of a syrup, each bottle containing the nuritions properties of ONE AND A HALF POUNDS OF RAW MEAT. It is pleasant to the taste, and a single bottle of the medicine will convince the most skepsica of its virtue as the great healing remeay of the nineteenth century. We do not mean to say that a single bottle will cure any given case of the above named diseases, but we do assert that great benefit will be derived by the use of that quantity in the worst cases, If once an introad is made upon the disease, it will require no stretch of faith to expect a thorough cure through the use of or so potent a remedy in a short period of time.
