

THE INDIANS.

Interesting Letters from General Grant and Major Douglas Regarding the Treatment of the Indians—Government Agents and Traders Supplying them with Arms and Ammunition, Etc.

WASHINGTON, February 7.—The most comprehensive statement of the existing Indian troubles on the frontier, and their causes, is to be found in the following correspondence, which includes a letter from General Grant to the Secretary of War inclosing the accompanying report from Major Douglas, of the 3d Infantry, now in command at Fort Dodge, Kansas.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, D. C., February 11.—Sir: The enclosed papers, just received from General Sherman, are respectfully forwarded and your special attention invited. They show the urgent necessity for an immediate transfer of the Indian Bureau to the Department, and the abolition of the civil Indian agents and license traders.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT, General, Hon. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Fort Dodge, Kansas, January 18.—General: I consider it my duty to refer to the Indian affairs in this country, so that such representations may be made to the Department as the Interior by the Secretary of War.

General: I consider it my duty to refer to the Indian affairs in this country, so that such representations may be made to the Department as the Interior by the Secretary of War.

General: I consider it my duty to refer to the Indian affairs in this country, so that such representations may be made to the Department as the Interior by the Secretary of War.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

STREET FIGHT.—Yesterday afternoon, the quiet citizens in the neighborhood of Franklin Street were startled by a row which broke out between two men, named Kempton and Jackson, who were formerly partners in the coal business, and had a serious quarrel.

A NEW ICE BOAT.—The necessity of a new ice boat, or even of two vessels of the kind, was never more apparent than this season, when steamers had to be packed up after packed up.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR FRENCH-MINDED CHILDREN.—This institution, one of the most deserving and successful of the charitable institutions in the State, presents its Fourteenth Annual Report. During the last year there were over 150 inmates, from all the States in the Union, and of all ages, varying from 5 to 65 years of age.

THE DELAWARE—STEAMERS IN PORT.

Yesterday and to-day before were a general, life-inspiring display of the ice block.

Such was the case of the ice block, which was broken up by the Delaware steamers.

Such was the case of the ice block, which was broken up by the Delaware steamers.

Such was the case of the ice block, which was broken up by the Delaware steamers.

Such was the case of the ice block, which was broken up by the Delaware steamers.

Such was the case of the ice block, which was broken up by the Delaware steamers.

Such was the case of the ice block, which was broken up by the Delaware steamers.

INSOLENT BEHAVIOR.—George Grant, a colored man, being out of any employment, and having nothing whereby to engage himself, took up his abode in the corner of Sixth and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon.

INSOLENT BEHAVIOR.—George Grant, a colored man, being out of any employment, and having nothing whereby to engage himself, took up his abode in the corner of Sixth and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon.

INSOLENT BEHAVIOR.—George Grant, a colored man, being out of any employment, and having nothing whereby to engage himself, took up his abode in the corner of Sixth and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon.

INSOLENT BEHAVIOR.—George Grant, a colored man, being out of any employment, and having nothing whereby to engage himself, took up his abode in the corner of Sixth and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon.

THE MONONGALIA OIL CASE AGAIN.

Before Recorder Enoch yesterday, a hearing was again had in this case. The representations made to the court by the parties in the case in question was in West Virginia; 614 acres of it could be bought for $60,000; and that the land belonged to the party in Virginia.

Such was the case of the oil case, which was brought up by the parties in the case in question.

Such was the case of the oil case, which was brought up by the parties in the case in question.

Such was the case of the oil case, which was brought up by the parties in the case in question.

Such was the case of the oil case, which was brought up by the parties in the case in question.

Such was the case of the oil case, which was brought up by the parties in the case in question.

Such was the case of the oil case, which was brought up by the parties in the case in question.

AN ASSAULT ON A CITIZEN.—Daniel Dougherty, one of those many individuals who are never satisfied unless they are engaged in a quarrel, was engaged in this morning.

AN ASSAULT ON A CITIZEN.—Daniel Dougherty, one of those many individuals who are never satisfied unless they are engaged in a quarrel, was engaged in this morning.

AN ASSAULT ON A CITIZEN.—Daniel Dougherty, one of those many individuals who are never satisfied unless they are engaged in a quarrel, was engaged in this morning.

AN ASSAULT ON A CITIZEN.—Daniel Dougherty, one of those many individuals who are never satisfied unless they are engaged in a quarrel, was engaged in this morning.

MARRIED.

GEORGE THURBER.—On February 6, 1867, by the Rev. R. C. Malink, ISRAEL LOUIS GEORGE to Miss EMMA ADELAIDE THURBER, all of this city.

YOUNG-GILLIARD.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Charles J. Cooper, Mr. JOHN W. YOUNG to Miss MARY GILLIARD, all of this city.

YOUNG-GILLIARD.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Charles J. Cooper, Mr. JOHN W. YOUNG to Miss MARY GILLIARD, all of this city.

YOUNG-GILLIARD.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Charles J. Cooper, Mr. JOHN W. YOUNG to Miss MARY GILLIARD, all of this city.

YOUNG-GILLIARD.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Charles J. Cooper, Mr. JOHN W. YOUNG to Miss MARY GILLIARD, all of this city.

YOUNG-GILLIARD.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Charles J. Cooper, Mr. JOHN W. YOUNG to Miss MARY GILLIARD, all of this city.

YOUNG-GILLIARD.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Charles J. Cooper, Mr. JOHN W. YOUNG to Miss MARY GILLIARD, all of this city.

DIED.

ALLEN.—Suddenly, on the morning of the 7th instant, ROYALD C. ALLEN, aged 21 years.

ALLEN.—Suddenly, on the morning of the 7th instant, ROYALD C. ALLEN, aged 21 years.

ALLEN.—Suddenly, on the morning of the 7th instant, ROYALD C. ALLEN, aged 21 years.

FOURTH EDITION.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of New Mexico, asking for the appointment of a Commission to investigate the claims of that Territory for property destroyed during the Texas invasion.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS ROBBERY.

REARREST OF TWO OF THE ROBBERS, WHO HAD ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

REARREST OF TWO OF THE ROBBERS, WHO HAD ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

REARREST OF TWO OF THE ROBBERS, WHO HAD ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

PHILADELPHIA STOCK EXCHANGE SALES, FEB. 8. Reported by De Haven & Bro., No. 43 S. Third Street.