BALL OF THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPHIC UNION.—The National Telegraphic Union, of this district, will give their grand annual ball at the Musical Fund Hall, on Tuesday evening, March 12. This will be an excellent soirce dansante, and as the proceeds are to be devoted to excellent ends, we hope the company will be brilliant and numerous.

brilliant and numerous.

A New Venus.—We were favored yesterday with a view of "A New Venus," just painted by Mr. Veron Fletcher, of this city, a young artist of considerable promise. This picture is not without faults, but we consider it more delicate in conception than the master-work of Page. The drawing of the anatomy is especially fine. The coloring is light, bright, and natural. The position is easy and graceful, and the toutensemble is very pleasing. We are gratified to learn that Mr. Fletcher has consented to place his "Venus" on exhibition next week. He has been offered $5000 for the work by New York parties, but he prefers to have the opinions of his fellowbut he prefers to have the opinions of his fellow-citizens upon this "labor of love" before parting with it. This "Venus" has been modelled from life, and has cost the artist over with it. This "Venus" has been modelled from life, and bas cost the artist over $1000 in this way alone, yet we can assure our lady friends that it will be to them the least objectionable goddess to look upon that has ever been exhibited here.

SALE OF VALUABLE OIL PAINTINGS .- The sale of the valuable collection of oil paintings now on exhibition by B. Scott, Jr., at the Academy of Fine Arts, in the southeast gallery, has been postponed to Friday evening. There are a great many fine paintings amongst the collection, that are well worthy of the attention of lovers of the fine arts. A very fine a sketch by H. Hijof the fine arts. A very fine sketch by H. Hildebrand, entitled "Winter in Holland," is worthy of mention. The principal figures in the foreground are the Dutch farmer, with the the foreground are the Dutch farmer, with the pipe in his mouth and whip in his hand. By his side walks his "frau," heavily loaded with market produce, and with a look of patient resignation upon her face. The painting is well conceived and forcibly drawn. A beautiful little sketch after Meyer, called "Hush, Baby, Sleep," is one of those finely finished Dutch pictures that will bear close inspection. The principal figures are a little girl rocking a child in a cradle whilst she is knitting. child in a cradle whilst she is knitting.

How to NULLIPY GAME LAWS .- If the laws wisely passed for the preservation of game were properly enforced, there would be no danger of the extinction of game. But our people will not contribute to the enforcement of these laws. Pot hunters will even at this late day destroy quail and ruffled grouse, and no one will inform upon them. There is another matter worthy of attention. Every man who orders at any eating house, at this season of the year, a quall or grouse, contributes to nullify the game laws. After awhile the magnificent ruffed laws. After awhile the magnificent ruffed grouse will disappear from our kills, just as the pinnated grouse has disappeared from Long Island, and the woodcock from nearly every State in the Uuion. Every lover of field sports should make it a personal matter to prosecute people who shoot game out of season, and should warn the proprietors of eating houses against purchasing game at this season.

LAYING IN A SUPPLY OF BUTTER .- A man giving the name of John Cuff was arrested last evening, at Duponceau and Locust streets, on a charge of larceny. It appears that Cuff had been sneaking around the market wagons on South street, and had been particularly attracted by the aroma from some lumps of fresh butter laid away in one of the aforesald wagons. It is asserted that Cuff did furthermore, and pounds of said butter, and confiscated the same to his use. Cuff. however, was soon collared and taken to the Station House. After a hear-ing before Alderman Tunison, he was comwith felonious intent seize on to twenty-five ing before Alderman Tunison, he mitted in default of ball to answer.

PLUNDEREING FREIGHT CARS .- Two persons giving the names of Francis Hickey and John Fritz were arrested last night at the Gray's Ferry Bridge, on a charge of larceny. It is alleged that the two had been engaged in breaking into the freight cars of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, and gathering up unconsidered trifles from said cars. In this way, it is said; that they obtained a quantity of Havana cigars of home manufacture, and also a small supply of clothing. It is said they have been taking toll in this manner for some time past. They had a hearing before Alderman Lutz, and were committed in default of $1900 ball each to answer.

PILING ON THE AGONY .- J. A. Wernard, a lad of sixteen summers, was arrested yesterday at Fifteenth and Buttonwood atreets, on a charge of breach of the peace. It appears that Wernard constituted himself a committee of one to inflict additional punishment upon the unfortunate candidates who happened to be rejected in the examination for admission into the Central High School. He waited for them, and belabored some of them over the head with a bag of flour. Not relishing such floury remonstrance, they had Wernard arrested, and he had a hearing before Alderman Massey, who held him in $800 ball to keep the peace.

ASHLAND LODGE, No. 294, I. O. OF O. F .-- On last evening this Lodge colebrated its eighteenth anniversary. The degree of Rebekah was conferred on quite a number of the members' wives. After the usual business was over, the members, with their lady friends, and several visitors from other Lodges, with their lady friends, were entertained at an excellent remy visitors from other Lodges, with their lady friends, were entertained at an excellent repast furnished by Conley & Co. Suspicious.—Terrence Fagan and Thomas Suspicious.—Terrence Fagan and Thomas Fitzsimmons were arrested under rather suspicious circumstances, about 12 last night. It seems that they were found in a farmer's market wagon, at Second and Shippen streets, and, as they could not give a first-class representation of the whys and the wherefores of their being there, they were taken before Aiderman Tittermary to have another chance to explain away their suspicious conduct. Not being able to do so, that gentleman committed them, in default of ball, to answer the charge of suspicion of larceny. on of larceny.

THE BETHANY MISSION-THE NINTH ANNIVERS SARY MEETING—HISTORY OF THE INSTITUTION AND ITS GOOD WORK.—The southwestern sec-AND ITS GOOD WORK.—The southwestern section of our city has for many years been more backward in its moral state than any other. As "birds of a feather flock together," so the subjects of poverty and crime are accustomed to congregate in one locality, thereby rendering their emancipation all the more difficult, but none the less destrable. This locality, therefore, has been the most inviting field in the whole city for the labors of the philanthropist, who has properly recognized the fact by an olst, who has properly recognized the fact by an arnest and determined effort. The movement was started on the second Sab-earnest and determined effort.

The movement was started on the second Sabbath of February, 1858, on which day the Bethany Sabbath School was organized. Their first quariers were in two rooms in the second story of the dwelling No. 2185 South street. Twenty-seven children and two adults were present at the opening session. No benches were to be had, but seats were improvised by bringing pieces of scantling from the cellar, and supporting them upon bricks. Notwithstanding this almost insignificant beginning, the school prospered from the very first, the number of scholars increasing at each successive session, until the roll shows the present membership to be as follows:

Infant school, 275; Primary school, 55; Senior school (boys), 224; Senior school (giris), 247. Total, 801. Male teachers, 24; female teachers, 28. Grand total, 858.

Dr. Challen to over three hundred children. In October, 1858, the corner-stone of a building for the use of the Mission was laid, the site selected being the lot on which the tent stood, itev. John of the Mission was laid, the site selected being the lot on which the tent stood. Rev. John Chambers performed the ceremony, the audience being addressed by him and by the Rev. Dr. Leyburn, Rev. Dr. Brainerd, and Rov. Mr. McLeod. While the mission building was in process of erection, the services of the school were held in the public school house on Twenty-third street, above Lombard.

The building was erected in a neat and substantial manner, being forty by sixty feet in size, and costing, together with the furniture, about $3700. On the 27th of January, 1859, the Bethany Mission Chapel was dedicated, the services being again conducted by the Rev. John Chambers, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Leyburn, Rev. Alfred Cookman, and others. When the Sabbath School was fully organized in its new quarters, it numbered 234 scholars and 17 teachers. Since then its numbers have steadily increased, until they have reached the gratifying figure given above.

But even these commodious quarters have been outgrown by the school, and there is now in process of erection another and larger building, which will occupy the entire end of the block at Twenty-second and Shippen streets, being 1834 feet on Twenty-second street, run-ning to Pemberton street, and 112 feet on Shippen street. The general style of architecture is the Gothic. There will be two buildings, one for the church and the other for the Sabbath School. The church fronts on Twenty-second street, and is 48 feet front by 88 feet on Shippen street, and is as feet from by 85 feet on support

The Sabbath School Hall lles south of the Church, and is 83 feet front on Twenty-second street, by 105 feet on Pemberton street. It consists of an oblong room with an arched recess on the south for the platform, on either side of which will be the Infant Schools, 20 by 35 feet, each of which will seat 300 children. There are six class-rooms on each side, each containing 25 chairs, and shut off by glass partitions, for the accommodation of Adult Bible Classes. The large middle portion of this room, designed for the main school, will be 58 feet by 72 feet, and will hold 100 classes and 800 scholars. The Lecture Room of the Church will also be so connected that the large glass partitions can be drawn aside, and this room, 32 by 55 feet, added, if necessary, for special occasions. All the rooms, though shut off by glass doors, can be thrown together during the opening and closing exercises, and thus accommoding the contains the second of the counting the opening and closing exercises, and thus accommoding the contains the second of the counting the opening and closing exercises, and thus accommoding the counting the counti persons. doors, can be thrown together during the opening and closing exercises, and thus accommodations are provided (without counting the Lecture Room) for 1700 persons. The Sabbath-School Hall will be completed first, and then, as fast as means are obtained, the Church will be pushed forward. It is expected that the Sabbath-School building will be ready for occupation early in the fail of the present year.

Last evening the ninth anniversary of the Mission School was held, great interest being manifested in the exercises by a large congregation. The school-room was tastefully decorated for the occasion, not the least interesting adornment, as far as the delighted children adornment, as far as the delighted children were concerned, being the grand assortment of cakes and confections which were to be distributed among the little ones. The exercises were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. T. Lowrie, and the Superintendent, John Wanamaker, Esq.; short addresses being delivered also by the Rev. Drs. Reed and Crowell. Instrumental music was interspersed, and everything resealed fin a most agreeable manner.

thing passed off in a most agreeable manner.

The Mission School, whose history we have thus sketched, has been doing a great and good work in our midst, and we earnestly exhort all to extend to it a helping hand, that its field of usefulness may be even further enlarged.

WORK OF THE AMERICAN COLONIZATION SOCIETY. -We have just received the January number of the African Repository, published monthly by the American Colonization Society, as its official organ, recording the proceedings of the societies, and of the movements made in all parts of the world, for the civilization and evanparts of the world, for the civilization and evangelization of Africa. From this pamphlet we learn the number and statistics of African emigrants from this conntry to Liberia by the ship Golconda, which sailed November 20, 1866; From Macon, Ga., for Simon, 194; from Charleston, S. C., to the same, 11; from Knoxville, Tennessee, for Cape Mount, 155; from Newburg, N. Y., for Carysburg, 168; from Charleston to the same, 13; from Columbia, S. C., to Cape Palmas, 42; from Charleston to Cape Palmas, 16; total in ship Golconda, 599—making in all a grand total of 11,888 persons settled in Liberia by the American Colonization Society.

SALE OF STOCKS AND REAL ESTATE.-The following properties were sold at public sale, by James A. Freeman, at the Philadelphia Exchange, commencing at noon to-day:-

A LIGHT-PINGERED FEMALE.-Catherine Til-A Light-Fingered Female.—Catherine Tilling was arrested yesterday afternoon at South and Barron streets, on a charge of larceny. It appears that Catherine was sauntering along South street with a market basket on her arm, when she observed a particularly nice-looking Balmoral skirt, of the duplex pattern, hanging in front of a dry goods store in that neighborhood. Not wishing to disturb the owner of said article, she took it without saying "nothing to nobody," put it into her basket, and walked off. The said owner, however, saw the cool proceeding and had Catharine arrested, and taken before Alderman Beitler. That gentleman, after hearing the facts of the case, held her in $1000 ball to answer the charge.

JOHN SMITH IN TROUBLE.—That redoubtable John Smith is Thouble.—That redoublable individual, John Smith, appears again before the public. This last appearance is for an alleged drunken and disorderly appearance in public, in the nighborhood of Third and Green streets, last evening. John was laboring under a heavy stroke of Jersey lightning at the time, and like the little boy in the story, he had "nothing to say" when before Alderman Toland, and was held in 4400 ball to apawer, PRIVATE COLLECTION OF MODERS PAINTINGS .-The splendid collection of oil paintings, selected and purchased in Europe and the United States by William Stokes Boyd, Esq., will be sold on next Friday evening, the 15th instant, by Mr. B. Scott, Jr., No. 1020 Chesnut street, on account of the owner, who will shortly leave for Europe. They consist of some of the finest specimens of modern art, painted by masters of the Fismish, Dutch, French, and English schools. Many of modern art, painted by masters of the Fishish, Dutch, French, and English schools. Many of them are very rare and highly valuable. The paintings can be seen until the evening of the sale at the Southeast Gallery of the Academy of Fine Arts. An opportunity like this is seidom offered for securing such gems from the greatest artists of the modern schools. These paintings were chosen from the best sources with much care, and in exceedingly good taste, by Mr. Boyd in person. Boyd in person.

A MOST FAITHFUL, UNTIRING SERVANT.— Letter from Mrs. E. D. Sanborn, St. Louis:—I was among the e rliest converts to the belief that Sewing Machines might be adapted to family sewing Machines might be adapted to family use. I shall never forget my joy on hearing that a friend of mine in Boston—a lady distinguished for her excellent judgment—had purchased one for her own use, that she liked it, and could sew successfully upon it. It was indeed startling news—news of a glorious victory achieved by years of patient, persevering to for "over-worked woman." I immediately wrote to my friend, asking her to tell me about her new treasure.

wrote to my friend, asking her to tell me about her new treasure.

Her reply was:—"My machine is a Grover & Baker. We examined carefully all the varieties of machines before purchasing, but we found none that we liked nearly as well as this. It is so simple that any child can use it. We are delighted with it. You may think me extravagant in praising it, but if you own one yourself you will feel that the half was not told." It was on the 9th of April, 1857, that I became the owner of a Grover & Baker Cabinet Machine. Its arrival caused great excitement in our own home, and much interest among all our friends, as it was the first machine for family sewing which had been brought into our vicinity.

family sewing which had been brought into our vicinity.

It has for five years been a most faithful, untiring servant, and its eye is not dim nor its natural force abated. A multitude of garments has been made upon it, and not one has failed to do honor to the machine. I have had an opportunity of examining and using other varieties of machines, but I very much prefer the Grover & Baker stitch for strength, clasticity, and beauty. I have seen no other machine so simple in its construction, so easily understood and kept in order. understood and kept in order.
I have this winter purchased a Grover &

Baker Machine to use in my Western home, and I find that it sews in the same admirable way, and with less noise than my first love.

No. 1220 WALNUT ST.

During our investigations in the treatment of discase in its various forms by the agency of electricity, we have obtained very many valuable and startling facts, which, added to the previous though limited information, possessed by other and less fortunate operators, place us beyond all previous knowledge of this mysterieus agent. During the course of our practice we have treated and cured, through the knowledge thus gained, many thousands, and by means of our new discoveries have established ourselves as the most successful Medical Electricians in this country or Europe.

Electrical investigation has proved that the human body acts on the principle of the galvanic battery, The brain, mucous and serous membranes, the skin, tissues, and fluids constitute the negative and positive forces, and every action, whether mental or physical, is the result of these antagonistic forces. Digestion, respiration, circulation, secretion, and excretion are due solely to electrical influence. There is a polar action established throughout the nervous system which connects with every part of the body, establishing and preserving a proper balance of the electrical element which constitutes health, and a disturbance of which causes disease. There are strictly but two conditions of diseaseone of inflammation, or positive; the other weak, debilitated, negative-and as electricity contains these two conditions in the action of the positive and negative currents, all we have to do is to neutralize the disease and restore proper, healthy

Among the chronic diseases in which electricity has been, and is daily being by our agency, of the greatest utility, a cure being rapidly effected after the fadure of all other means, are: -

1. Epilepsy, Chorea, or St. Vitus' Dance, Paralysis (Hempjegia), Neuralgia, Hysteria, Nervousaese, Palpitation of the Heart, Lockjaw, etc. 2. Sore Throat, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Obstimate Constitution, Ammorrhoides, or Piles, Billous, Flatulent, and Pamter's Colic, and all affor-

Billious, Flatulent, and Fainter's Colle, and all amocitions of the Liver and Spleen.

3. Catarrh, Cough, Influenza, Asthma (when not caused by organic disease of the heart), Bronchitts, Pieurisy, Pieurodynia, or Rheimanism of the Chest, Cousumption in the early stages.

4. Gravel, Diabetes, and Kidney Complaints, Impotence, and Seminal Weakness. The latter complaints never fail to yield rapidly to this treatment.

5 Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Stiff Neck, Spinal Curvature, Hip Diseases, Cancers, Tumors (those last named always oured without pain, or plasters in any form).

6 Uterus Compiaints, involving a mal-position, as Prolapsus. Antroversion, Retroversion, Inflammation, Ulceration, and various other affections of the Womb and Ovaries. For information desired upon other diseases, application may be made at the office, or by letter. Mrs. BECKWITH has entire charge of the Ladies Department, and all delicacy will be used towards those who entrust themselves to her care. In temale diseases, it is universally successful in her For the convenience of those desiring information, we give (by permission) a few names of persons among the best business men and others or this city and elsewhere, whom we have treated and cured:
