Mr. Walter and the London "Times." Not long ago the American resident in Lon-don and the friends of American vere consider-ably scandalized by learning that Mr. Waiter of the London Times had been entertained at Washington by Colonel Forney, and that a large number of Republicator representing Con-gress and the press had united in the reception. Mr. Waiter had been the most implacable foe of the United States during the late way. Ho has the United States during the late war. He has been the implacable for of freedom in his own country, and it was from his fortress that poisoned arrows have been for a quarter of a cen-tary flying at Cobden, at Bright, at every one who was alming to uplift the people of England. Under these circumstances our English friends naturally expressed very freely their sense of the bad taste of an entertainment ac-porded by radicals to the propriate of the sense of the bad taste of an entertainment ac-corded by radicals to the proprietor of the Times. The report in some of the American papers that Mr. Walter had experienced a change of heart, and had expressed his regret at the course of his paper during the American war, excited a general surprise, and called forth the remark that Americans must be green indeed if they imagined that the Times would swerve from its traditional course of slandering American. Well, Mr. Walter has returned Colonel Forney doubless read the Times, and

Colonel Forney doubtless read the Times, and he will probably be impressed by the American letters and the editorials which have been filling that paper ever since the tidings of the proposition to impeach the President came to these shores. He (Colonel Forney) will not fail to find his own name mentioned repeatedly in these editorials of his friend Walter's paper. I need not refer particularly to the articles. It is enough to say that the malignancy, the mean-ness of "the bloody old Times," as Cobden used to call it, have never at any period been more concentrated than in the daily leaders which are now directed against Congress, Stevens, Ash-ley, Forney, and everybody else who is battling for the threatened security and dignity of Ame-

It supports Johnson with precisely the same purpose that it supported Jeff. Davis, and by the same systematic faisehood. To-day it pub-lishes a letter from its Washington correspondent, detailing, by permission of the President, a conversation with that "humble individual." This is the second time that Mr. Johnson has chosen the London Times as his vehicle for consider the course of the Times in the late consider the course of the Times in the late Rebellion, the appropriateness of the selection is underlable. But if Johnson falls none will lamont him harder the Times lament him harder the Times. It is now engaged in the service work of eating its own words on the subject of the Ala-bama claims, and a very dirty meal it is. To use John Bright's phrase, it "scatters dirt," well knowing that it can eat it afterwards if it is no cessary. I may say here that no proposition has ever excited more enthusiastic approval among our real friends here than that to imamong the President. Mazzini said to me the other day:-"If the American Republic purges its Presidency of that man, it will be the sub-limest sight the world ever saw, and form an epoch in history.-Extract from the N.Y. Tri-bune's London Letter.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE. - Last night Mrs. D. P. Bowers appeared as "Lady Amyott," in Maria Lovell's beautiful play of The Wife's Secret, to a large and fashionable audience. She acted her role in an impressive and eloquent manner, and was warmly applauded. Mr. McCollom, as "Sir Walter," was stiff and formal, and did not make a very favorable impression.

This evening Mrs. Bowers personates "Diana," in Love's Masquerade, and Mr. McCol-lom essays the part of "Perrin," which was so pleasantly played by Mr. James H. Taylor, a

A BUNGLING BORGLAR CAUGHT WHILE OPERAT-No .- This morning about 2 o'clock, while Offirecord the control of the store doors on the store doors on Thompson streets, he heard a noise at one of the store doors on Thompson street. Slipping up quietly, he found William Johnson operating at the door of a store under Foece's tavern, having the key adjusted and ready to turn. He "nabbed" Johnson in no geatle man-ner, and brought him, with his kit of tools, to the Station House. If we judge "a workman by his tools," Johnson is not a professional "cracksman." His "kit" was composed of all manner of keys, some having hotel numbers, no skeletons, a "bit" which had seen long and hard service, an old punch, a lock (which he owned he had taken from a store door that night), and lastly, a "sizer" of dangerous ap-pearance, and loaded. These were found lying loose about the doorsill, being evidence that he was far from being an adept, for they in all work and heat is the taken and work and cer Theodore Dottell was going his rounds near loose about the doorsill, being evidence that he was far from being an adept, for they in all cases keep their tools in order, and ready to pick up and make off. Johnson halls, as he says, from Canada, and is about nineteen years of age. He has not the appearance of a sharp burglar, and is rather unwieldy in his propor-tions. He claims that the tools found in his possession were handed to him by a man at Fifth and Callowhill streets. This afternoon at 2 c'clock he will have a hearing before Aider-man Bettler.

Margaret Burns was arrested at Third and Wharton streets for appropriating to herself, at different times, the property of others, the last being a little piece of gold lined silver ware. ware.

ATTEMPTING AN ENTRANCE INTO A FIRE-PROOF. -Henry Smith, aged nineteen, and residing at No. 1519 Vine street, was yesterday afternoon arrested in a burglarious operation. In the afternoon he entered the oil store of John Stevenson, at York avenue, corner of Willow street. and had just put the key into the safe, when who should make his unwelcome appearance but Mr. Stevenson himself. Circumstances were sufficiently suspicious to order the appearance of an officer, who walked Henry to the office of Alderman Toland, who held him in default of 8800 bail to answer the question as to why and wherefore he was operating in such a suspicious manner.

LARCENT OF COTTON .- Moses Moncks, aged 28, was seen last evening, in Delaware avenue, near Market street, carrying a large bundle of cotton in a suspicious manner. Officer Brown attempted to arrest him, when Moncks drew a "blackjack" and struck the officer. But he was eventually secured and taken before Alderman Hurley, who gave him a hearing, in which his (Monck's) statements were so contradictory as to when, and where, and under what circum-stances he obtained the cotton, that he was committed, in default of $800 ball, to answer the charge of Inrceny at Court.

EXEMPT PROPERTY .-- A Committee of the State Legislature, consisting of Messrs, William S. Gregory, chairman; James N. Kerns, George De Haven, Washington M. Worrall, and Samuel Josephs, will hold a meeting in Common Council Chamber, on Saturday, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock. They are instructed to inquire and report, with view of future legislation this session, the value, location, and uses of the pro-perty exempt from taxation in this city. Economy should be practised by everybody in all things. One dollar expended now in pur-obasing a bottle of Jayne's Expectorant, by those troubled with a slight Cough or Hoarse-ness or Sore Throat, may save the expense of a doctor's bill. A neglected Cough often ends in Consumption. A slight inflammation of the lining of the wind tabes, the usual symptoms of which are a Sore Throat and a Pain in the Breast, will soon lead, through want of atten-tion, to Bronchitls. A day's delay may entail months of suffering. Let the affilicted try at once Jayne's Expectorant. If is a standard remedy, and its curative proporties have been tested by thousands of persons who have re-covered their health by its use. Prepared only at No. 242 Chemut street, at No. 242 Chesnut street.

IF YOU WANT A RELIABLE AND USEFUL FAMILY CASE OF MEDICINES, we can consolen-tiously recommend one of Dr. Humphireys' Homeopathic Specifics, Having used them ourselves, and knowing of their extensive use by our friends, we hazard nothing in speaking well of them to all who desire having such an of them to all who desire having such an arrangement for family use. NEVER was public opinion manifested more inequivocally than with regard to Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus." WASHINGTON, February 14.

President Johnson Surrenders.

There was a meeting of the conservative Re-publican Congressmen last night at the Metropolitan Club House, for a conference with everal Southern politicians, and with a gentle man represeting President Johnson. It is asserted that the President is willing to abandon his policy, and to exert his influence in favor of the ratincation of the Constitutional amendment and of impartial suffrage; provided those Southern States adopting those measures can be represented in the next Congress. The feel-ing generally in Congress is that the President Stokes Boyd, Esq., at Scot's Art Gallery, No.1020 Chesnut street. The paintings are 99 in number, and by leading artists of the Duch, Flemish, English, and American schools. All of them exhibit a high order of schools. All of them exhibit a high order of schools. All of them exhibit a high order of artistic skill, beautiful composition, great merit in workmanship, and are mostly drawn from scenes in the old country. Among these may be mantioned, "Winter in Holland," which is of great beauty. "Hush, Baby, Sleep," is one of those charming pictures of German conception. It represents an old Dutch kitchen and a little child, its mother knitting while rocking the cradle. Smith's "Harvesting in Mont-gomery County," Marthee's "Penitent Magthe cradle. Smith's "Harvesting in Mont-gomery County," Martine's "Penitent Mag-dalene," the "Rival Chieftains," "Home Scene in Antwerp," "The Hunter's Return," and many others which are worthy of special notice if space would permit, and only to be appreciated when seen. They morit more than a passing description. These pic-tures are now ready for examination at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts (south-east sailery) day and evening, until the time east gallery), day and evening, until the time of the sale.

A DIAHONEST EMPLOYE BROUGHT TO GRIEF .-cient to meet his wants, determined to increase them, at a great disadvantage to his employer, by appropriating the latter's property. This he did at one haul, taking six watches, both gold and silver, and the best to be found; breastpins, earrings, in all to the value of $1000. At length, being unusually relicent on the subject of the burglary, he was suspected, arrested, and on his person were found a number of pawn tickets, by which means some of the watches and other jewelry were recovered. Yesterday afternoon, immediately after his arrest, Alderman Jones held him to answer at Court in default of $1500 bail.

A BRUTAL "PARTENT."-Thomas Kelley is A BRUTAL "PARIENT,"-Informas kency is the name of an individual who peddles coal around the streets. To assist him, he takes his son along. Yesterday he became provoked at something the boy did, and beat him with the butt end of a heavy cart-whip. Getting tired of using that end, he beat him with the other. This operation was witnessed by two citizens, who had the father arrested and taken before Alderman Beilier, who held him in sting beil for his appearance at Court. Parents taken before Alderman Beitler, who held him in $600 bail for his appearance at Court. Parents in general are too apt to resort to clubs, etc., to bring their children to a proper appreciation of a thing us they look at it, and this should serve as a warning to that class of the commu-nity who do not punish their children in a milder manner.

STEALING PIPES, CIGARS, KNIVES, ETC .- JAS. Duffee, eighteen years of age, and Daniel L. Chester, sixteen, were both arrested on Coates street, above Sixth, for entering a variety store, and while the proprietor was engaged, taking smoking pipes and cigars, knives, etc. Alderman Fitch committed them to answer in default of $500 bail each.

On motion of Mr. Rice (Maine), the President was requested to transmit all papers, documents, and cor-respondence, relating to the importation of wines from Caola, Spain, or having reference in any manner to the action of the American Consul at Cadiz, in refus-ing to certify invoices of wine shipped from that port. The House then took up the bill reported January 15, from the select War Committee on war debts of the loyal States, to reimburse the States that have furnished the troops to the Union army, for advances made and expenses incurred in raising the same, the question being the motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was recommitted. Mr. Delano (Ohio)asked Mr. Binine (Me.) what

Mr. Delane (Ohio) expressed the opinion that this was not the time to pass such a bill when the indeot-edness of the Government was so large, and when its credit was not equal to that of any state in the Uhion. He reminded the House that is would soon have be-fore it a bounty bill which would take out of the Trea-sury some $250,000,000. Mr. Blaine (Ms.) asked Mr. Delano whether he did not know that this bill would relieve the Government in the matter of bounties to just the amount of bonds to be issued under it, $15,000,000? Mr. Delano replied that he did not so understand

 Mr. Randall (Pa.) thought the easiest way to dispose of the bill was the best way. The bill proposed that the Federal Government should assume debta which it was not bound to pay either in law or squity. The Treasury of the United States was not so flush as to warrant the passage of such a measure.
 Mr. Blaine resumed the floor, saying he had yielded for a question, not for an argument.
 Mr. Schenck proposed that as members did not seem propared to act on the measure now, consent would be given to let it go over for two or three days, and then have a vote on its passage.
 Mr. Blaine said that he cared no more about the measure than any other member, nor was it quite so favorable. O his State as to others. He desired the House to be brought to a vote upon it, and the most direct way of testing the sense of the House non the wote to reconsider the vote recommitting the bill.
