FORFEITMENT

FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M. (SPECIAL DISPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.) WASHINGTON, February 15.

The Louisiana Bill. The belief gains ground that the Louisiana Provisional Government bill will get through the Senate, but that Mr. Stevens' Military Government bill will fall through want of sufficient time.

Colfax's Closing Reception. There was a perfect jam at the closing reception of Speaker Colfax last night.

A Boston Delegation. A delegation of Massachusetts men, including the State Commissioners and members of the Boston City Council, have arrived here to influence Congress to make a large appropriation to improve Boston harbor.

The Military Government Bill. The Senate has just determined to give precedence to the consideration of the Military Government bill, with the understanding that the Republican side of the chamber will occupy but little time in debate.

Death of an Alderman. Elijah Edmondson, for a long time a member of the Board of Aldermen, died last evening.

The Colorado Bill. The friends of Colorado express themselves confident that their State bill will be passed over the President's veto.

The District Registry. The first registry taken by the judges appointed by the Supreme Court of the District, of the legal voters of Georgetown, was completed yesterday.

Proceedings of Congress. Senate. WASHINGTON, February 15.—The Chair laid before the Senate the certificate of the Governor of New York that the Constitutional amendment had been ratified by the Legislature of that State.

Mr. Anthony (R. I.) from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution to print 500 copies of the report of the Survey of the Upper Mississippi.

Mr. Anthony, from the same Committee, reported a bill to appropriate the necessary funds to print the roster of Union troops furnished by the State of Arkansas.

Mr. Anthony moved that the Senate take up the bill for the election of the Congressional printer, but subsequently withdrew the motion by request.

Mr. Chandler (Mich.) from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill for the regulation of the distribution of the revenue from the violations of Custom laws, which was read and then laid over.

Mr. Williams, at half-past 12, moved that the Senate take up the bill for the more efficient government of the States of Louisiana and Mississippi.

Mr. Sumner moved the Louisiana bill would be taken up first.

Mr. Wade (Ohio), was in favor of both, and indifferent as to which came first.

Mr. Anthony asked if Mr. Williams would let him take up the bill for the regulation of the distribution of the revenue from the violations of Custom laws, if he would otherwise be, it could not give way to it. It was well known that there were certain bills that must be passed within a given time if they were to pass.

The motion was to take up the House Reconstruction bill.

Mr. Davis (Ky.) asked leave to offer an amendment to Mr. Wade's proposed one-term Constitutional Amendment, for the purpose of having it printed.

Mr. Anthony asked if Mr. Williams would let him take up the bill for the regulation of the distribution of the revenue from the violations of Custom laws, if he would otherwise be, it could not give way to it. It was well known that there were certain bills that must be passed within a given time if they were to pass.

Mr. Anthony (R. I.) again appealed to Mr. Williams to allow him to take up the bill for the election of a Congressional printer.

Mr. Williams thought that it would lead to debate, and declined to yield.

The Reconstruction bill was then read at length.

Mr. Williams—Mr. President, I gave notice last night that each State and Territory, at the next meeting of the Senate, should be called upon to ratify the proposed Amendment to Congress one of its citizens for the purpose of electing a Senator.
