LETTER FROM PITTSBURG.

Journalistic-The Connellsville Hailread Again-The Western Trade-Soldiers' Pair-Murdoch's Reading, Etc. BWBCIAL CORRESPONDENCE EVENING VEL.BORAPH.] PETTSBURG, March 1.

8

In my last, I mentioned that the Evening Journal had breathed its last. It now appears phat

"It was not dead, but sleeping."

After two days had elapsed, the paper agair, made its appearance on the street, and it bids fair to occupy a place among the journa's of Pittsburg for some time to come.

My brief mention of the feeling here in regard to the defeat of the Connellsville Bailroad bill has created some stir among our business men.

has created some stir among our business men, and the TELEGRAPH was in demand, with none an hand at any price. I speak simply the trath, when I say that the whole of the matter is laid at the hands of the Pennsylvania Central Rail-road Company. This corporation, wielding such a tremendous influence as it does, abso-intely governs the internal improvement, and compare of the Sinte, and what it acts the commerce of the State, and what it says shall not be, or whatever interferes with the monopoly which they hold in their hands, generally comes to nothing.

Men irequently wonder how it is that the city of Philadelphia, year after year, gradually but surely loses the trade of the Western merchants. The solution is, that goods can be bought and forwarded to almost any point West for less money than they can be transported over the Pennsylvania Railroad. They regulate the "prices, and do about as they please, and so far as Philadelphia is concerned, there is no hope for it.

for it. You now have the Eastern travellers passing around your beautiful city without deigning to say so much as "How do you do?" And it will not be long ere you will have Western men doing the same thing. The Allegheny Valley Bairoad is being extended over the mountains at a grade of twenty-five feet to the mile, and as soon as this is accomplished, Western men, soon as this is accomplished, Western men, instead of visiting Philadelphia via the Penn-sylvania road, will go direct by the new route to the city of New York. There is a determina-tion on the part of the business men in this sec-tion of the country to break up the Pennsyl-vania Central monopoly, and they will let no opportunity pass wherein there is a mite of substance that will assist in the consummation of their object. This all comes of the efforts of the Central against the Connellsville extension. a measure that was eminently just, and of the utmost importance to the business interests of

The great Northwest. The great Fair to be held at the City Hall, commencing on the 18th instant, is fast becoming a matter of considerable interest among the people. Contributions are being handed in, and a magnificent new hose carriage has been purchased at a cost of $2000, which will be presented to the company having the highest number of votes cast in its favor. The concern aumber of votes cast in its favor. The concern is styled "The Allegheay County Monument Association." The officers are:-President, Major-General James S. Negley; Vice-President, General A. L. Pearson; Secretary, Horace Snowden, Esq., of the Associated Press; Trea-surer, James Park, Fsq., Jr. The day on which the great boat races are to come off is not yet definitely known. The first takes place between the celebrated oarsmen Hamill and Brown: the second between Messes.

Hamill and Brown; the second between Messes. Chambers and Kelley. As both parties are well known to the "sporting" community as gentlemen of considerable endurance and ability, I suppose the race will be an exciting one. Of course THE TELEGRAPH will know all about it in due time.

I attended Murdoch's first lecture last night. His subject was "Shakespeare and the Bible." The house was crowded to its greatest capacity by wealth and beauty, and the gentleman was listened to with the greatest attention. He insisted that the "immortal bard" obtained most of his beautiful ideas from the Bible, and quoted numerous passages from it and the plays of Shakespeare to hear him out in his assertions. The idea, although not a new one, was novel in this section, and numerous Church hover in including ministers, were present. Many of them never having been inside of the walls of a theatre, appeared astonished at the [S' PRETAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, March 4.

The Organization.

The Organization. At 1275 Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, moved to go into an election for Epeakor. Mr. Brooks objected, assixteen States were unrepro-sented, and he said we were in the midst of a revelu-tion, perhaps bloodless. Too little notice was given of this meeting. He would not call it a Rump Con-gress, but its acts would be the very "rump of rumps." Mr. Dawes asked if President Pierce had not called Congress together at three days" notice. Mr. Bromwell suggested that we had better organize, as the previous Congres had provided. Mr. Brocks read a protest of the Democrats against the organization, and asked that it be put on the journal.

Schoyler Colfax. Samuel S. Marshall. The result was loudly cheered when announced.

The Latest Rumors.

It is now stated that the President has signed the Bankrupt bill and the Woollen Tariff bill, and will sign the Army Appropriation bill.

Bills Killed, and How.

Bills Killed, and How. Quite a number of Senate bills, amended by the House, have been killed which it was expected would have been passed. Ten minutes, open session would have sufficed for their adoption by the Senate, but the last half lour was consumed in executive session in a debate on the confirmation of General Bartlett, of New York, as Minister to Stockhoim. When it was noon by Mr. Wade's watch be declared the Senate adjourned, ignoring the fact that the clock had been stopped, as is the custom.

Indian Affairs.

Information has been received at the Indian Bureau, posititively contradicting the reported mas-sacre at Fort Dodge,

New York Naval Officer.

No Naval Officer was nominated for New York.

Morrissey in the House. At roll-call there was a sensation and laughter when Morrissey answered to his name.

Senate Confirmations.

The Senate has confirmed the following appoint-ments:- Collector of Customs at Boston, Thomas Rus-sell; Appraiser of Merchandise at Philadelphia, Chas. M. Hurley: Assessor of Internal Revenue of the Seventh District of Pennsylvania, J. Lee Englehart; and Robert A. Gilmore, Postmaster at Chicago.

Senate Rejections.

" The Senatel rejected Frank McLaughlin as Post-master at Philadelphia, and William B. Hurley, Sur-veyor-General at Nevada.

lecturer's del neations of the different characters of Shakespeare's creation, and the passion and tenderness which he alternately threw into the different parts of his discourse, were marked by a sort of electricity which ran through the audience, and awoke a feeling of sympathy for the character which it was almost impossible to resist. In every particular the lecture was a success, and the thanks of the community are certainly due the Mercantile Library for these refining and delightful entertainments. To-night Mr. Murdoch gives "An Evening with Sir Walter Scott:" to-morrow night is devoted to "Prose and Poetry."

Business continues dull, and so does the weather.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE "JAPS" AT THE ACADEMY.-Risley & Maguire's great Imperial Japanese Troupe will begin a brief engagement to morrow (Tuesday) evening. The performances of this troupe have been very successful in San Francisco, and the feats performed are said to be original, Bingular, and startling. Everybody should secure seats to-day to avoid the rush to-mor-row. Tickets and seats can be purchased at Risley's News Exchange in the Continental Hotel. Hotel.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.-This evening Miss Kate Reignolds, a very pleasing actress, commences an engagement, and she will produce a new play translated and arranged from the Italian expressly for her, called The Queen of the Silver Ivy. She will be supported by Mr, Frank Lawler, the new "leading man" of this establishment, and also by the antire company.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE .- True to the Core was produced on Saturday night to a very fine house, and it was observed with great atten-tion. The piece is one of considerable merit, house, and it was observed with great atten-tion. The piece is one of considerable merit, being carefully and pleasantly written; is rull of bright and beautiful thoughts and fine situa-tions, and has a very explicit plot. The only regret expressed was that the "prize drama" should have been produced without new and appropriate scenery. True to the Orre is an his-torical picture of the failure of the Spanish Amada to conquer England. It is founded on very respectable probabilities, but not upon fact. The bluff bravery of "Lord Howard," of "Cffingham," and the gracious toleration of "Queen Boss," are strikingly portrayed in the play, and the stubborn pairiousm of an Eng-lish coast and river pilot is truthfully and stri-kingly drawn. Mr. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Walcot, Mr. Chapman, Mr. Ben, Young, Miss Graham, and Miss Leonie Arlington are all admirable in their roles, and with a title better aquaintance with the new plece, will make it entirely acceptable. The to the Core will be repeated to-night. Mr. Davenport will also appear as "Bir Edward Mor-timer" in the Dron Chest, a role that Edmund Kenn has made immortal.

ABOH STREET THEATRE, -- Ours has been very Anoth STREET THEATER. - Or and seen very successful during the past week, and will be performed every evening this week. It is one of the most popular noveities that Mrs. John Drew has ever brought out. Mrs. Drew plays the arduous part of "Mary Netley," assisted by all the favorites of the company.

AMERICAN THEATRE.—Mad'lle I.a Rose, Mad'lle Louise, "The Drummer Girl of the Army of the Potomac," appear for the first time to-night, with the great Variety Troupe.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY will run Italian Airs at the Academy, Laughing Gas, and other pleasant things this week.

THE FIRST CASE OF AN ACQUITTAL.

James C. McElroy and Thomas McMaous, were ac-quitted of a charge of the increasy of a ham belonging to Sellors & Co. The two boys when arraigned plead guilty. But they afterwards withdrew their plea, and guilty. But they afterwards withdrew their plea, and the District Attorney, saying that the prosecutors had expressed a wish that the boys should not be pro-secured, submitted the bill without evidence. The boys were not seen to commit the their, but were arrested on suspicion.

boys were not seen to commit the theft, but were arrested on suspicion. Mary McGinnis was charged with the larceny of helonging to Patrick McGinnis, The defend-ant, who was not formerly Mrs. McGinnis, kept a grocery store in Melvin street, and did a very pretty, neat little businness. Mr. McGinis, an old gentieman, was a good customer of the grocery store. He got his groceries from her, and would by weekly instal-mants give her money, until finally he had placed in her bands (162. But he was still in her debt. About this time the defendant mar-ried Mr. McGinnis' son; and the old gentleman, thinking the grocer had also married in the family, said that as it was all in there family, he should not be charged for his groceries, and therefore demauded his money back again. But the money was gone. The lady had considered that the money was paid for the goods she had ised as her business or plea-sure required. But the prosecution said he did not owe the defendants, having paid for every item of goods as he received it. On trial.
