THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

Limitation of the Time in Which Articles May be Entered.

J. C. Derby, United States Agent, has recently received official information from Paris, that on the 29th of March the regularly appointed officers of the Paris Exposition having the matter in charge, will proceed to a general inspection, and will prepare a list of exhibitors whose stalls shall not have been completely finished and furnished with products at that time. Exhibitors who have then failed to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them, will not be permitted to compete for prizes. This regulation has been made because all means of access and transportation are now at the disposal of the exhibitors, and also because complaint has been made that in previous exhibitions certain exhibitors have layed sending in their products beyond the day of opening, either through negligence or for the purpose of presenting to the jury products the most recently unpacked, and in the most advantageous aspect.

A Curious Correspondence-A Change of Political Opinions.

General O. B. Wilcox, who was nominated by the President to be a Colonel in the Regu-lar Army, finding that his confirmation was opposed by the radical Senators from Michigan, wrote one of them the following letter:-

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 22, 1867,-Hon. M. Howard, United States Senate-Senator -I have the honor to explain that I have been That's the honor to explain that I have been brought up in the military service over twenty (ut of twenty-four years, including my cadet-ship (for which I was included to your fivor), That hest summer, while in civil life, and not expecting to recenter the service, induced by as do er's feeling of magnatimity towards con-quered fors, I invored conclinatory measures, but that time and observation have taught me my noistake, and that now military measures are necessary in the South, until those rebel-lious people completely acquiesce in the terms imposed by Congress for restoration.

My present position is best defined by Major-General George II. Thomas' letter recently pub-lished, and in his views I most heartily concur.

Very respectfully, your ob't servant O. B. WILCOX. He also opened negotiations which procured the following indorsement:---

WASHINGTON, February 22, 1867.—Dear Sir:— General O. B. Wilcox has called upon us and urged us very strongly to recommended his con-Inged us very scionely to recommended miscon-firmation as Colonel in the Regular army. He has assured us that he is satisfied that he had made a great mistake in connecting himself with the party inaugurated at Philadelphia on the 4th of August last, and that he is satisfied that Mr. Johnson's reconstruction volicy is wrong, and that he is now a warm supporter of the Courses local voluce. He also sites that the Congressional policy. He also states that his principal object in resigning his position as Assessor of the First District and taking a posi-tion in the army was to discontinue his connec-tion with the Johnson movement. He further states that in his professional character aran officer of the army he shall ended characteras an officer of the army, he shall endeavor in good faith to carry out the Congressional policy of reconstruction of the Rebel States. Relying upon these statements and the earnest professions of General Wilcox, we are of opinion that his nomination for a colonelcy, now pending in the Senate, had better be confirmed.

Assault with an Axe by a Wronged Husband.

From the Hartford Post, March 12.

On Saturday afternoon last Morris Shields, of this city, went to New Haven to visit his friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Hogan. The latter family seemed very glad to see him, and treated treely to whisky, over which all got pretty merry. Then some business called Mr. Hogan out for a time, and on returning he found his wife in the arms of Mr. Shields.

Enraged at the sight of this, he seized an axe near by, and rushed upon the parties, dealing Shields a powerful blow with the back of the axe on the back of his head, flesh wound, about five inches long, and cutting into an artery. He continued to strike with the axe, hitting Shields the second time on the forearm of his right arm, causing a bad gash, and hitting him the third time on one of his hands, which he held up to protect his head. He also dealt Mrs. Hogan a blow, producing a slight wound. Shields' cries brought help to the house, and all the parties were taken by the Police to the Station, where Shields' wounds were dressed, after which he was taken to the residence of his brother. He was very weak from the loss of blood, and it is not unlikely will die of his injuries. Hogan was committed to jail to await the result, and his wife was locked up on a charge of drunkenness.

RIVER ADVICES TO-DAY .- The steamer Norman, Captain Crowell, regular Boston line, sailed for that port this morning at 10 o'clock. The Tuscarora has nearly finished taking in her cargo, and will sail on Saturday, 16th inst., at 8 o'clock A. M. The Juniata had not yet arrived, although several days overdue. ups, be one of the causes of her non-appear ice, it taking an additional twenty-four hour to run in and out. The weather, outside, is said to be very heavy. During two whole days Cap-tain Catharine saw nothing but fog. Coast na sation, under such circumstances, is almost a dangerous matter, but Captain Hoxie is one of our most skilfol and experienced sations, and there is, consequently, no cause of alarm. She may possibly, on account of the continued prevalence of land winds (NE.) have run out of coal, and so be compelled to come in under sail. The Pioneer, from Wilmington, N. C., will be e here on Saturday, and sall again on Tues day next.

CASE OF LARCENY AT CENTRAL STATION .-Augustus Langbine, Lewis Bellerpue, and George Kemberly were before Alderman B-1-ler at the Central Station this afternoon, charged with stealing prosbes from the store of Mr. Atmbruster, in North Third street. The thieving had been going on for some time, and the amount stolen at different times will sum up in value thousands of dollars. Belterpue admitted taking a large quantity of brushes and bristles from Mr. Armbruster's establishment On being called to the stand, Bellerpue acknowledged taking the brushes and bristles to a Mr. Langbine in Camden. He had been selling these goods for a long time to the two different parties, Langbine and Kemberly. The last sale was made last Friday, of some bristle to Mr. Kimberly. The next day he was arrested. The prisoners were held in $1500 bail to answer the charge of larceny.

STRALING THIRTY DOLLARS' WORTH OF PENNIES. STEALING THIRTY DOLLARS' WORTH OF PENNIES. —A man named John Weaver was arrested this morning for stealing thirty dollars in pennies, it seems that Weaver had been fol-lowing a soap wagon, driven by one Patrick McClusky, for the purpose of appropriating a box of pennies which he knew was under the seat. The wagon stopped before a soap factory (Cooke's) in face street, above Second, and the driver went in on business. Just as soon as he had disappeared Weaver ran up to the wagon, got hold of the box, and was making off, when he was discovered by a policeman, who arrested him. Alderman Williams committed Weaver in default of $600 bail.

ASSAULTING AN OFFICER .- Yesterday morning Officer Hessobserved a crowd of young men bstructing the sidewalk at the corner of Fifth obstructing the sidewark at the corner of Fifth and Buttonwood streets. Seeing that they showed no disposition to move on, he spoke to them, and told them to do so. One of the party answered back in a very insulting manner, giving the officer permission to go to a very warm place. The officer then attempted to arwarm pince. The oncer then attempted by ar-rest him, but in doing so, it is alleged, he was knocked down and kicked by a man named Edward Aschenback. The latter was arrested for the offense, and had a hearing before Alder-man Toland, who, after hearing the facts of the case, held him in $500 ball to answer.

WAR OF THE RACES .- John McCain is a small specimen of humanity, lately imported, but is endowed with a most irascible temperament. having a propensity, when excited to knock down everybody and everything. This morn-ing being a cold one, John got into a warm and angry discussion with a negro named White, on the South street wharf. He asserted veheon the South street what, He asserted vene-mently that the latter was a "baste, and not a mon," and this being refuted in the same spirit John entered upon a knock-down argument, which lasted some time. For this he was arrested, and Alderman Butler held him to enterest Court appear at Court.

STREET-WALKERS SENT BELOW .- A number of the nightly perambulators of the region im-mediately around Washington Square were arrested last night, at a very late hour. Unde-terred by the weather, these nuisances to society continue their evening walks in that neighbor efforts to put a stop to their operations. H a night passes but several are arrested and sen below. The party who were taken into custody last night had a hearing before Alderman But-ler, and were furnished lodgings at Moyamonsing Prison for the next thirty days. Annual Meeting of the General Ticket Agents of the United States and Cana-das at Memphis.

The annual Convention of the General Ticket Agents of the United States and Canada was held 'at Memphis, Tennessee, last week. Mr. William R. Barr, of the Eric Railway, Presi-dent of the Association, presiding. Mr. B. F. Patrick, of the Chicago and Northwestern Bail-way, was elected President for the ensuing year, and the Based of the forming and Nachwills and J. F. Boyd, of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, Vice President.

It was decided that free baggage should be limited to one hundred pounds, all in excess of this to be charged fifteen per cent, over firstclass through rates, the costs to be collected as far as such baggage is checked. It was also decided that claims on lost baggage (admitted and unlocated) be charged pro rata to roads constituting the line on which the baggage was checked through. In consequence of the order of the Quartermaster-General of the United States, which states in substance that the Gov-ernment rates which prevailed during the war are abolished, and the old rates existing previ-ous to the war re-established, except in cases where special contracts are made, it was voted that second-rate freights be established as the tastif tariff.

Our Minister at Berlin.

We are sorry to hear that Hon. Joseph A. Wright, American Minister at the Court of Ber-lin, is so ill that serious doubts of his recovery are entertained by his friends. Mr. Wright is one of our most popular Ministers abroad, and we trust that the waters of Karisbad, whither he has gone by the advice of his physician, will restore him to his usual health, and enable him to resume the duties of the position which he has so ably filled.

BREF FORTY YEARS OLD .- A letter from Stockholm says:-"At the last meeting of the Idun Society there was served at supper a curious sort of beef that had been preserved for forty years. In 1827 Captain Parry had placed at School Point, at Spitzbergen, a depot of meat. The flesh was in tin boxes, buried beneath a quantity of stones. The white bears had displaced some of the stones and destroyed several of the boxes, but a few still remained intact, and were brought to Sweden by the Swedish scientific expedition. It was one of these boxes that Professor Phoreil, of Lund, had given to the Idun Society, who found the meat perfectly eatable and of good flavor."

DEATH FROM RELIGIOUS EXCITEMENT. - A Cornwall (England) paper reports the death of a poor woman, aged forty-seven years, the wife of a farm laborer, from religious excitement. A short time ago she was converted at a revival meeting held in the Wesleyan Chapel. The excitement produced a desponding state f mind and concern for her soul, which ended n lunacy. When a physician was called to see her, he found her in too exhausted a state o be removed, and after an obstinate refusal to take food for twenty-one days, she died of starvation.

FOOLS .- The King of Persia once ordered his vizier to make out a list of all the fools in his dominions. He did so, and put his Majesty's name at the head of them. The King asked him why, to which he immediately answered, "Because you entrusted a lac of rupees to men you don't know to buy horses for you a thousand miles off, and whe'll never come back." 'Ay, but suppose they come back ?'' "Then I shall erase your name and insert theirs."

SUICIDE. - The Italian journals announce that M. Girolamo Scola, proprietor of the celebrated Ville del Galcotto, near Lecco, on the Lake of Como, and possessor of an immense fortune, has just blown out his brains. The cause is attributed to grief at having lost a small sum of money. When, after his death, the authorities came to make an examination of his house, they found there upwards of two hundred thousand francs in gold.

SMALL ARMS IN ENGLAND. - The returns asked for by Mr. Gladstone respecting the sums voted and the sums expended upon small arms from 1851 to 1866, have just been published. The total amount voted was £6,643,935, and the sums expended £5,517,922. The number of muskets or carbines manufac. tured was 1,479,152, and the number converted 61,013. All the conversions, except ninety, occurred between 1851 and 1858.

CONDITION OF OUR STREETS .- Philadelphia used to have the reputation of being one of the cleanest, if not the cleanest city in the United cleanest, if not the cleanest city in the United States, but any person who will make a tour through the streets now will be apt to wonder how she ever obtained it. The filth and mud of the whole winter has been allowed to collect and settle in our; streets, until, in some cases, they are almost impassable. In many places there are great gaps made by the caving-in of sewers, whilst in some of our streets that are traversed by the passenger railroads the paying is in a very bad condition along the line of the rails. In Sixth street, between Chesnut and Arch, this is particularly observable. There is plenty of opportunity to get rid of the vast quantity of mud and filth that now encumbers our streets. our streets.

Claims for Damages.

The Special Claims Commission of the War Department, composed of Generals Canby, Holt, and Hunter, have done nothing lately in the way of adjudicating on the cases on their docket, as they have been waiting for official information as to the effect of the recent acts of Congress upon their labors. The result is finally that nearly two hundred claims have been stricken from the list as being barred by the act ordering no settlement of any claims for damages arising from the operations of armies within the limits of the Robel States.
