AMUSEMENTS.

NEW ARCH STREET THEATRE.—On Friday evening, the 22d, Mr. Frank Mordaunt, the leading actor of this establishment, takes his first annual benefit. Mr. Mordaunt has performed in Philadelphia for the past three or four years, and during that time has made hosts of friends. By his energy and ability he has gained one of the first stock positions in this city, and won for himself an excellent reputation as an actor. This is his first benefit at the "New Arch," and his friends should turn out en masse. He presents Still Waters Run Deepand Virginia Mummy, with the favorite Philadelphia Ethiopian performer, Frank Brower, as "Ginger Blue," and Mrs. F. Mordaunt in a favorite character. JARVIS & SCHMITZ'S SYMPHONY CONCERT.—
The last of these splendid entertainments came off at the Musical Fund Hall on Saturday evening last, and, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large and highly discriminating audience was in attendance. The performance was one of the finest of the Symphony season, and proved a fitting finale to the urilliant and successful series. A pleasing episode connected with it was the presentation to Mr. Schmitz, the falented leader, of a beautiful baion, made of ebony, and heavily mounted with gold. The gift came from the orchestra, and was handed to Mr. Schmitz by Colonel Fitzgerald, who, in the remarks accompanying fitzgerald, who, in the remarks accompanying it, said that, in the pleasing duty imposed upon him of presenting the splendid testimonial, he could emphatically say that, as a man and a could emphatically say that, as a man and a musician, no one was more deserving of such a high compliment. Colonel Fitzgerald was warmly applauded, and the audience seemed very much gratified at the interruption and its cause. Mr. Schmitz did good service with the baton in the piece that concluded the concert—the "Fackelfanz"—and the curtain dropped on the most successful season of classic music ever given in Philadelphia.

MR. WOLFSOHN'S FIFTH MATINEE,—Such concerts as Mr. Wolfsonn provides for this public would be regarded in any European city as belonging to first-class exhibitions of the art. as belonging to first-class exhibitions of the art. The programme is a spiendid one, Mad'ile Brinkerboff, one of the best interpreters of classic songs in America, is to sing the greatest vocal composition of the grand old maestro Beethoven. Besides, Mr. Wolfsohn plays the accompaniment. Such a work, with such exponents, ought to satisfy the most fistidious taste, and we doubt not it will. Mr. Wolfsohn plays some choice compositions of Chopin, Liszt, Schumann, and Schubert; and as these authors are all so femiliar to be well as a femiliar to be seen as a second control of the second cont are all so familiar to his mind and talents, a most perfect rendering may be expected. Tickets may be had for any single concert of Mr. Wolf-

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON TO-MORROW MORNING. —A partial eclipse of the muon, to-morrow morning, is predicted by those who are learned in the science of the heavens. The time of greatest observation here will be 348 A. M., the moon passing from the shadow at 5-21 A. M. The full wing table shows the beginning. A CURIOUS CASE OF MISDEMEANOR,-Upon information lodged with Lieutenant Tolbert at the Sixteenth District Station House, Wil-liam O'Donnel and Hugh Crothy, two boys aged respectively twelve and ten years of age, were arrested yesterday afternoon, on the charge of setting fire to a stable in Thirty-seventh, below Sansom street. It appeared from the evidence elicited before Fire Marshal Blackburn, Lieutenaut Tolbert, and Sergean Saunders, that the two boys had, on the 29th of January last, left their school, which is in the Police Station building, during the time de-voted to recess in the morning, and had run to Phirty-seventh and Sansom streets, started the fire in the stable with some friction matches and loose straw, and then ran back to school. They kept their secret until a few days ago, when it leaked out by their inadvertance. on y reason they could give for their crime was that they wanted to have a run to the fire, and "See the steam engines squirt." The boys were held in $500 ball by Alderman Allen to answer the charge of misdemeanor.

A Pronactous Phisoner.-Last evening a couple of men who had been arrested near Eighteenth and Filbert streets for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, got into a fight in one of the cells of the Filbert Street Station House, where they had been locked up for the night. Peter McQuillan, who had the most spirit in him and the most under its influence, made a furious assault upon his comrade in misery, a man named Thomas. The noise attracted the attention of the turnkey, who came and sepasated the two combatants, but not until Thomas had been pretty severely bruised. McQuillan had a hearing this morning before Alderman lones, who held him in $1000 bail to answer for

A DARING OUTRAGE .- About 9 o'clock last light a man by the name of James Hays, whiist aboring under the influence of whisky, went hto the house of Mr. O'Neall, in Pilling street, rankford, and made a violent and murderous saault upon Mrs. O'Neall. He drew a mife and stabbed her in two places, inflicting evere but not dangerous wounds. Mr. O'Neall in to her assistance, when Hays selzed him and thrust his knife into his abdomen. The cries and shricks of the two victims brought as-sistance, and Hays was arrested, and the two afferers were taken to the Episcopai Hospital, where their wounds were dressed.

"TAKEN IN AND DONE FOR."-Last night a nan who was desirous of seeing around town, sopped at a forty-ninth-rate hotel, near Swenth and Bedford streets. Two of the young females of the estab ishment, Annie Mack and Charles of the care after making many friendly females of the estab ishment, Annie Mack and Elzabeth Graves, after making many friendly avances, and inducing the unsophisticated stanger to indulge in a few drinks of concen-tated whisky, robbed him, it is said, of the sum of $50 in Government currency. The two women had a hearing before Alderman Swift, wie, notwithstanding their denial of the soft impeachment, held them in $400 bail each to answer the charge of larceny.

DEATH OF A POLICE OFFICER .- John McFee tem, aged 33 years, a member of the police fore, died yesterday at his residence, in Eighth street, below Christian. Mr. Fetters entered the force under Mr. Henry's administration, and has been connected with it ever since, except during the war, when he entered the exect during the war, when he entered the sewice, and served until honorably discharge at he close of the war, when he returned to the dules of a policeman. He was a remarkably fainful and efficient officer, sober and reliable. The funeral will be attended by the Orders of Mesons and Odd Fellows, and by the police of the Second District. THE FRENCH ETCHING CLUB .- This association The Frence Etching Club.—This association of he artists of Paris have again sent a collection of their works to be sold in this city. The exhibition is now open, free, at the gallery of Mosrs. Birch & Sons, auctioneers, No. 1110 Chesnut street. The collection comprises some nitely-three paintings, including works of the most distinguished artists of the day. The sale will take place on Friday evening.

THE COLLECTORSHIP OF THE FIRST INTERNAL REVENUE DISTRICT—A DELIGHTFUL LITTLE MUDDLE—It will be remembered that, about an hour before the term of Mr. A. B. Sloauaker, as Collector of Internal Revenue in the First District, expired by operation of the Tenure of office bill, that gentleman, with the strategic forethought, for which he is so famous, revoked the commissions of all his deputies, and apthe commissions of all his deputies, and appointed them to mere clerkships. He then commissioned Mr. George Kelly, who still enjoys the reputation of being a radical Republican, to the position of chief and sole deputy, and when the clock struck 12 on that dire 4th of March, Mr. Kelly thus found himself, by virtue of the Tenure-of-office bill, the acting and responsible Collector.

Mr. Kelly at once entered upon the discharge of his duties, but not many days had clapsed before he had experienced so many of the perplexities attached to the holding of office in these precarious times, that he began to dream these precarious times, that he began to dream of the loys of private life. This dream was so sweet that he at once forwarded to Washington sweet that he at once forwarded to Washington the resignation of his office. But just here "a change came over the spirit of his dreams"—the authorities at Washington, seeing in Mr. Kelly a temporary relief from at least one of the perplexities by which they are at present sur-rounded, denied to Mr. Kelly the repose he so much coveted. In other words, his resignation much coveted. In other words, his resignation was returned to him, unaccepted.

Mr. Kelly thereupon became alarmed. The February lists were about coming in, and should be remain in charge of the Collector's office until they had done so, he would render himself responsible for the collection of about $200,000, which might take full six months of the time which he appearantly desired to devote to time which he so earnestly desired to devote to private life. Mr. Kelly then determined upon trying the effect of a flank movement, after the trying the effect of a flank movement, after the manner of the strategic Sioanaker. So on the 15th instant he appointed as his chief and sole Deputy the Hon. William F. Johnston, sometime Governor of the Commonwealth, and sometime Collector of Customs of the Port of Philadelphia. Perhaps Mr. Kelly thought that the Secretary of the Treasury would graciously accept his resignation when he had chosen to succeed him as acting Collector a man(who was so much after the President's heart. But just hegathe matter becomes inextricably

But just here the matter becomes inextricably nixed—so mixed, in fact, that Mr. Sloanaker suddenly left the city to escape the turmoil in the political world. This gentleman, since leaving the Collector's office, has opened a law and collecting agency on the second floor of the very building in which he formerly held sway. It is not to be supposed that Mr. Sloanaker selected this location in order that he might be perpetually reminded of his departed glories. No one suspects him of being such an incon-

On the contrary, it is shrewdly suspected by some that Mr. Sloanaker still has one or two of his fingers in the political pie, and that he desired to be near the oven, where he might desired to be hear the oven, where he might observe the process of its baking, and now and then give it a salutary turn. But Mr. Kelly made the oven solhot that Mr. Sloanaker, fear-ing the heat might damage the wax-flowers which are known to be in his possession, sud-denly left the city. Whither he has gone, we know not.

know not. The cause of Mr. Sloanaker's astonishment was the revocation yesterday by Mr. Kelly of Mr. Johnston's commission as chief and sole Deputy Collector. Mr. Kelly then started post-haste for Washington, with the determination get rid of his obnoxious commission as act to get rid of his conexious commission as acting Collector, or to suffer death—politically, of course—in the attempt. Thus matters stand at the present writing, and it is expected that some time to—morrow a special agent will be sent from Washington to assume control of the office until a permanent Collector is appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. When that happy day will dawn, no son of a prophet will risk his reputation by pretending

A BAD SPECULATION IN BEEF. -Two drovers named John Baily and Thomas Loller, whilst engaged in driving a number of fat cattle from the Union drove yard to the New York depot for transportation, were met by a plausible individual named McDonelly, who said he wanted to buy a couple of fat steers. The drovers, thinking a couple would not be missed from so many, sold them to him, and received and pocketed the cash. The owner, however, saw at once when they arrived at the depot that he was minus some of his bee, and giving information to the police, Officers Craig and Mars arrested the three gullty parties in the Twenty-fourth Ward. THE INCOME TAX IN ENGLAND .- The income tax returns, says an English journal, are very suggestive and instructive as to the general progress of the country in prosperity. From those contained in the tenth report of the commissioners it appears that the increase of the value of lands, etc. (comparing 1864 with 1853) has been at the rate of 1.16 per ent. per annum; houses, 3.50; gas works 11:45; and railways, 7:57. On the other hand, the improvements in profits of trades and professions in the same period has been at the rate of 4.51 percent, per annum. In Ireland the improvement in this respect was only at the rate of 93 per cent. per annum.

HALLICINATION .- A recent fire in Hull, Engand, was attended with a painful result. The daughter of a gentleman who resides near the cene of the fire was so frightened at the flames that she became delirious. Medical attendance was of course obtained, but her mind, even when the delirium had passed, was considerably disturbed. She labored under the halluncination that her mother had been burned in the flames, and all attempts to remove the delusion were fruitless, notwithstanding that her mother was with her.

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

(SPECIAL DESPATCE TO THE EVENING TRLEGRAPH.) WASHINGTON, March 19.

National Bank Note Printing. An ineffectual attempt was made in the House this morning to suspend the rules to introduce a resolution that the printing of the National Banks shall be done in Washington, instead of New York.

The House Insists. The House has just voted to insist upon its amendment to the supplementary bill disagreed to by the Senate, requiring a majority vote of the registered electors for the ratification of a State Constitution. The vote stood:

aves, 62: navs, 77 Conference Committee Appointed. The House has asked for a Committee of Conference with the Senate on disagreeing to the amendment to the supplementary Reconstruction bill. The Speaker named on the Committee Mr. Wilson, of Iowa; Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts; and Mr. Marshall, of Illinois.

Mr. Stevens' Speech. Mr. Stevens commenced his speech on Confiscation, reading from printed slips in a low tone of voice, and evidently with physical difficulty. After reading a few moments he was compelled by weakness to ask the Clerk, Mr. McPherson, to continue the reading. Before commencing the speech, Mr. Sievens intimated that it would applied by the the only opportunity he would probably be the only opportunity he would ever have of addressing the House on the

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Scnate.

Washington, March 19.—A number of bills passed by the House yesterday, were received and referred to appropriate committees.

Mr Snerman (Onio) called up the joint resolution passed by the House yesterday, authorizing the Scottary of War to turn over to the managers of the National Asylum for Disabled Soldiers, the barracks and other Government property at Camp Chase, Ohio. It was passed, and goes to the President.

Mr. Patterson (N. H.). Introduced a bill for the acknowledgment of deeds in the District of Columbia, which was passed.

Mr. Trumbull called up the House joint resolution to suspeno all further proceedings under the law for the payment of slaves enlisted or draited into the military service of the United States

Mr. Davis (Ky.) hoped Mr. Trumbull would either consent to postpone this measure until to morrow or until the next session.

Mr. Trumbull could not see the necessity for the postponement. It was an old matter, that had already been considered and debated.

Mr. Davis said the bounty now proposed to be withdrawn had been solemnity niedred to the owners.

already been considered and debated.

Mr. Davis said the bounty now proposed to be withdrawn had been solemnly pledged to the owners of slaves, in the form of a law, and this was a proposal te repudiate the plighted faith of Congress. He wished an opportunity to enter his solemn protest seniest? wished an opportunity to enter his solemn protest against it.

Mr. Trumbull said that the Senator from Kentucky had just now entered a protest, and he did not think he could enter a more solemn one if he tried.

Mr. Davis—Well, I will make a little more lengthy, if not a more solemn one. (Laughter.)

By consent, the bill was postponed until to-morrow. Mr. Morton (Ind.), from the Military Committee, reported favorably the bill introduced by him a few days since, to pay the Statekor Indiana for quartermanter stores supplied, transportation, etc., furnished to the milital of the State to repei Rubel raids, etc.

Mr. Sherman (Ohio) said that if the bill was pressed to a vote be should move to amend by inserting Ohio, which had also been at the expense to repel the Morgan raid.

Mr. Morton explained the bill, and the circumstances which led to its introduction, and justified its passage. The Government had already provided for the payment of troops called out to repel the Morgan raid, and if it was right to pay the troops, it was right to pay for their subsistence.

Mr. Johnson said he had been requested by his colleague. Mr. Thomas, since the charges made against that gentleman yesterday, to renew his reference of his credentials to the Judiciary Committee, that full investigation might be made.

The motion was agreed to without debate, and the senate wenf into Executive session, and soon after adjourned.

House of Representatives.

The reading of the journal of yesterday having been dispensed with, Mr. Bingham (Ohio) introduced a joint resolution to correct an error in the enrolment of the bill of last session, increasing the duty on wool and woollens. The error was the omission in the enrolled bill of the words "Canada long wools," which were in the engrossed bill. The joint resolution was passed. peased.

Mr. Julian (Ind.) asked leave to report a joint resolution relative to the issue of Agricultural College scrip to the States recently in rebellion. It recites that on the 3d of April. 1856, Agricultural College scrip covering nearly 270,000 acres was, on the authority and by the direction of the President of the United States, issued and delivered to North Carolina, under the act of July 5, 1852; that the General Land office was now preparing to issue scrip in like manner to Virginia, Georgia, and Mississippi.

Issippi.

That such action by the President took for granted. That such action by the President took for granted that those States were restored to their constitutional relations to the Union, a question which Congress alone could rightfully determine and it protibits the further issue or delivery of such sorip to any of the States intely in rebellion except the State of Pennessee or the acceptance of such sorip or of any heretofore issued, until those States are fully restored to their rights as States by Courrets. their rights as States by Cougress.
Mr. Burr (Ill.) objected to the introduction of the ont resolution.

Mr. Julian moved a suspension of the rules. Agreed o-yeas, 69; nays, 18.

The joint resolution was therefore introduced, and, inder the previous question, was passed—yeas, 108; nays. 20.

under the previous question, was passed—yess, 103; nsys, 23.

Mr. Miller (Pa.) asked leave to introduce a joint resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to cause the National Bank notes, honds, and other Government printing to be done at the Government office in Washington.

Mr. Handall (Pa.) objected.

Mr. Miller moved to suspend the rules. Disagreed to—yeas, 27, nsys, 63.

Mr. Judd (Ilh.) on leave, introduced a bill to exempt wooden ladders from the Internal Revenue tax, and sinted some facts in support of the proposition.

Mr. Garfield (Ohio) moved to lay the bill on the table. Disagreed to—yeas, 32 mays, 61. The bill was then passed.

The Speaker, in compliance with the new rule, laid before the House the message from the Senate announcing, among other things, the disagreement of the Senate to the House amendment striking out that provision of the Senate which requires the majority of the votes cast to be a majority of a least half the votes cast to be a majority of a least half the votes registered.

Mr. Wilson (Iowa) moved that the House insist on its amendment and ask for a committee of conference.

Mr. Bigham (Otio) moved that the House recede its amendment and ask for a committee of conference.

Mr. Bingham (Otto) moved that the House recede Mr. Bingham (Obio) moved that the House recede from its disagreement.

The vote was taken by yeas and nays, first, on Mr. Bingham's motion, and it resulted yeas 62, nays 72, so the House refused to recede.

The motion to ionist, and ask a Committee of Conference was then agreed to without a division.

Mr. Stevens called up a motion to reconsider the vote by which a bill introduced by him on March it. was referred to the Committee of the Whole House, heing a bill to confiscate the public lands in the lately Rebel States, and to confiscate and condemn all such property belonging to the beliggerst suemy, and is declared confiscated by the act of April 17, 1862. He proceeded at great length to address the House in support of the bill.
