BAILEY & Co.'s SUPERB COLLECTION OF AMERIcan and Foreign Paintings.—The increased demand for beautiful works of art, especially those of the pencil and brush, has induced Messrs. Balley & Co. to offer a collection of paintings at public sale which have never been surpassed. They are rare specimens, not easily surpassed. They are rare specimens, not easily to be obtained, as connoisseurs, knowing well their great beauty and the artistic skill displayed in them, rarely allow them to go out of their possession. Messrs, Balley & Co. have, with great labor, collected these works, and offer them at public competition to those who can appreciate their worth and beauty.

The collection, embracing one hundred and fifty-five pieces, and now on exhibition in the eastern gallery of the Pennsylvania Academy eastern gallery of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, will be sold by B. Scott, Jr., on the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday, March 27 and 28. The collection is ready for a public examination, and it is hoped that all who can appreciate the beautiful will give gome attention to it. We have noted some of the most prominent, and would add the following, which we think are of great merit and worts: which we think are of great merit and worth "Good News," representing a maiden sitting at a kitchen table, and holding in her hand a welcome love letter. The painting, which is a large one, combines in a remarkable degree two effects of light—that of the moon shining Werner, Berlin, represents an old lady counselling her son, who is about to depart with his regiment, "Fruit and Flowers," by J. Robie, of Brussels, who stands at the head of all flower painters of the world.

"Fruit Piece," by J. U. Preyer, the celebrated fruit sainter, who has been acknowledged without a superior in his department of painting.
On one of the leaves of this piece is a dew-drop, painted with such nicety, and aplearing so natural, that a gentleman attempted to brush it away, believing it to be real.

Gilbert Stuart's "Washington" needs no encomium. Its merits are understood by all who

Prominent among this collection is a piece entitled "Morning on Lake Lucerne," exhibiting the combined effort of Eagene Verboeckhoven and F. Roffiaen. These two great artists have exemplified their peculiar talent in this picture in the highest degree. cture in the highest degree The animals in the foreground are the work of the former, and are painted with a precision and delicacy no to be equalled; while the rugged mountains, the silvery lake, and the softness of the morning light, of unsurpassed beauty, are the work

A number of "Herzog's" specimens are in the collection, and are remarkable for the effe-the light, especially in his "moonlight" pi This collection is too large, and its beauties too many, for a mere notice. Let those who wish to purchase some of these rare works, not forget the time nor place.

PETTY POLICE ITEMS.—Last night a party of roughs went to a drinking-saloon in Manaroughs went to a drinking-saloon in Mann-yunk, and after indulging in a few drinks, got into a fight. One of them, named William Jackson, is said to have been prominent in the disturbance, and was arrested. He had a hear-ing before Alderman Ramsdell, who committed him in default of $1000 bail. About half an hour after 12 Tclock last night a man named William Rumley was arrested at a piace in Manayunk, on a charge of being con-cerned in a robbery that took place a short time ago. He had a hearing before Alderman Rams-dell, and was held in $800 bail to answer. Charles Hollander was arrested last Saturday night at Sixth and Chesnut streets, on a charge of being concerned in relieving a gentleman of a gold watch valued at $200, several days ago. He had a hearing before Alderman Butler upon the charge, and was committed in default of $800 bail to answer the charge of larceny.

Henry Clough was arrested last Saturday night, at Eighth and Eneu streets, on the charge of larceny. It is alleged that Clough had been in the habit of stealing small quantities of iron from the railroads, and had also stolen lead pipe from a house in that locality. I committed to answer by Alderman Tittermary As usual, quite a number of young men were arrested yesterday for lounging around the corners, and impeding travel. They were generally held to bail to keep the peace. All over the city there are numbers of young men who seem to have no other business than to prop up the corner of a house, and make themselves as obnoxious as possible to quiet citizens. The city is in urgent need of a missionary for these pecimens of humanity.

END OF THE EQUINOX—RESUMPTION OF BUSINESS ALONG SHORE.—The vernal equinox is at last over, and the sun once more shines. On Delaware avenue the change of affairs was remarkable at an early hour this morning. Shippers were busy in receiving and delivering goods. Special telegraphic advices to THE EVENING TELL GRAPH announce the sailing of the Pioneer, Captain Bennett, from Hampton Roads yesterday. She will be up this afternoon, Other advices announce the sailing of the Alliance, Captain James R. Kelly, from Charleston, S. C., on Saturday noon. She will be due here in seventy hours. The new steamer Wyoming, Captain Teal, for Savannah, Ga., expects to sail to-day; but the unusual character of the last week has, of course, interfered with her loading, and she may not get off. The Star of the Union, Captain Cooksey, is at last discharging her beautiful and the cooksey. END OF THE EQUINOX-RESUMPTION OF BUSI-Star of the Union, Captain Cooksey, is at last discharging her cargo of sugars, etc. at Arch street wharf, and will come down to the Company's wharf to receive her Havana and New Orleans freight. She will sail on the 30th in-stant. The Saxon, Captain Matthews, cleared on Saturday and sailed for Boston. The other arrivals and departures of Saturday and Sun-day were of minor importance. day were of minor importance.

BURGLARS .- James Smith, living on Beach street, above Coates, who follows the water, and George Smith, who lives on Fifth street, above Coates, a bolt maker, were up before Alderman Beltler on Saturday, for engaging or intending to engage in a burglary. The particulars will be found in our local columns of to-day. All their tools found on them at the time were brought forward and displayed. Suspicion of their real intention was entertained by their baste to get away when arrested. Officer Miller said they would be taken to the Station Honse, and searched. The prisoners said that it would do no good, as they were peaceable; notwithstanding this assertion, facts proved differently when they were Searched at the Station House, and their tools, including a seven-shooter, were found upon them. On them were also found pawn tickets, calling for various articles of wardrobe, which were obtained by the officers, produced, and were entirely new. Each was held in $2000 bail to answer at Court. In default, they were sent to prison. street, above Coates, who follows the water, and In default, they were sent to prison.

THE SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BURIAL The Second Preservenian Church Burlat Ground,—Commencing to-day, by order of the trustees of this church, which has lately purchased the burial ground in the rear of Noble street, west of Fifth, originally belonging to the First Presbyterian Church, the bodies therein will be removed to a piace obtained by the latter church in Mount Vernon Cemetery. The bodies will be disinterred, placed in new cases, removed, and buried in the cemetery, at the expense of the church itself. The reason for this removal is because the old ground is no more used as a place of sepulture, and persons constantly removing the remains of their relatives has led the First Presbyterian Church, of which such deceased persons were members, which such deceased persons were members, to purchase a ground wherein all such remains may be interred. The number of interments n the old ground is between six and seven Anniversary. - Despite the unpropitious state of the weather yesterday, the Kensington M. E. Church, generally known as the "Old Brick," situated at the corner of Richmond and Mariborough streets, was filled to overflowing by an appreciative audience, the occasion being the celebration of the sixth anniversary of the Juvenile Missionary Society, composed of the members of the Sabbath School. As usual, the exercises were of the most interesting character, the singing by the children being the most prominent feature. The addresses, which were delivered by the Rev. Robert Paxson, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Wesley Bates, of the Sanctuary, were listened to by all with marked attention. We learn from the report of the Secretary that the contributions during the sanctuary, were interest from the report of the attention. We learn from the report of the Secretary that the contributions during the year reached $582, being subscribed by the different classes composing the Society. After the award of testimonials by the pastor, the assemblage was dismissed with the benediction.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- On Saturday, William Cush was arrested on complaint of Mary Kent, living at No. 1039 Sargeant street, It seems William, in a fit of anger, struck her with a chair, and although the young lady was very reluctant in answering the questions of the magistrate—because she "didn't want to prosecute the young man; he was nice, and would not do it again"—yet it was ascertained that she had been rather badly lamed. Cush was held in $1000 ball to appear at Court,

LIQUOR STORE ENTERED AND ROBBED,-Yesteray morning the liquor store of Mr. William John Givens, situated at the corner of Marl-borough and Belgrade streets, was feloniously entered and robbed of money and valuables smounting to eighty dollars. REVIVAL MEETINGS,-The revival meetings being held in the South Street Presbyte rian Church have met with such unexpected success, that they are to be continued every evening during the present week. This will make the fifth week. CHICKEN THIEF .- An eld man named William Reynolds, sixty years of age, was arrested near Fortieth and Market streets this morning, on a charge of suspicion of larceny. The case was continued until the next term of the Court.

The case of John A. Smith, who is charged with shooting James Lukens on the 21st of December last, and who died on the 12th of January, 1887 was fixed for this morning. The affair happened at the hotel of Washington thugley, southwest corner of Second and Lombard streets. An hour and a half was consumed in empannelling a jury,

Before they were sworn, Mr. Goforth presented the following: — Commonwealth vs. John A. Smith—murder.

And now, March 22, 1867, the defendant, John A. Smith by his counsel, John Goforth and J. Duross G. Bryan, moved to quash the bill of indictment in the above case, and assign for cause, that said defendant was committed by the Coroner to the County Prison on the 18th day of January A. D., 1867. That said commitment, under the Act of Assembly, was to answer the charge of murder at the then next term of this Court. That he bill of indictment was presented to the Grand Jury, and found a true bill by them on the 25th day of January, without any notice to the defendant. That said 25th day of January was not in the then next term of said Court, but was in a term other and earlier than that to which the defendant was committed for trial. That said defendant, was by this improper sending of the bill of indictment to the Grand Jury, without notice to him, deprived of his right of challenge of said Grand Jury. That on the 25th day of February, A. D., 1867, defendant was brought into Court and arraigned upon the bill of indictment, and upon retusing to plead, and standing mute, a plea of not guilty was entered upon the bill of indictment by order of the Court. The Court overruled the motion to quash. The jury were then sworn.
