THE MILITARY BU LENFORCED IN FOURTH EDITION

OFFICIAL ORDER OF GENERAL SHERIDAN-THE PRESENT GOVERY MENT PROVISIONAL - " NO GENERAL REMOVALS PROM OFFICE."

From the New Orl Zins Times, 21st, Below we give the official announcement from General Sheridan that the Military bill is in full o peration in this State-the first general order, from "Headquarters Fifth Military District. It is certainly as mild and temperate a document as could have been expected; and may we not hope that in this the General i adicates an intention of carrying out the provisions of the new law with as little hardship to the people as is possible? While, in almost the very language of the law, our present State and Municipal Governments are declared temporary in their character, and subject to change or modification at the will of the commanding officer, it is at the same time distinctly announced that no general removals from office will be made, unless present incumbents make themselves stumbling-blocks in the way of reconstruction under the plan here laid down. This emphatic avowal will be a decided damper upon the ambitious hopes of those devoted patriots who have, in numbers, besieged General Sheridan for appointment to office during the past week, but there are few indeed who will regret that they are thus debarred from serving their country -for a consideration. Here is the order:-

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT, NEW ORLEANS, La., March 19, 1867.—1. The act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for the more efficient government of the Rebei States' having been officially transmitted to the undersigned in an order from the Headquarters of the Army, which assigns him to the command of the Fifth Military District created by that act, consisting of the States of Louisiana and Texas, he hereby assumes command of the

2. According to the provisions of the sixth section of the act of Congress above cited, the present State and Municipal Governments in the States of Louisiana and Texas are neresy declared to be Provisional only, and subject to be abolished, modified, controlled, or super-

3. No general removals from office will be made, unless the present incumbents fail to carry out the provisions of the law, or impede the reorganization, or unless a delay in reorganizing should necessitate a change. Pending the reorganization, it is desirable and intended to create as little disturbance in the machinery of the various branches of the Provisional Governments as possible consistent with the law of the various branches of the Provisional Governments as possible, consistent with the law of Congress and its successful execution, but this condition is dependent upon the disposition shown by the people, and upon the length of time required for reorganization.

4. The States of Louisiana and Texas will retain their present military designations, viz.:—
"District of Louisiana," and "District of Texas."
The officers in command of each will continue to exercise all their military powers and duties as heretofore, and will, in addition, carry out all the provisions of the law within their respective commands, except those which specifically require the action of the Military District Commander, and except in cases of retrict Commander, and except in cases of re-movals from and appointments to office. P. H. Sheridan, Maj.-Gen. Commanding.

The I heladelphia Appointments. The Phikadelphia slate is not settled yet, All attempts to make a combination satisfactory to all parties have proved abortive. The Demo-crats insist upon having the Mint and Custom House, with the Naval Officer and Surveyor, which will not be granted by the Republicans, who are also divided.

Some are willing to yield the Custom House and Mint to the Democrats in exchange for a Republican Navai Officer, Surveyor and Internal Revenue officers, but the leading Republicans strongly oppose any bargains with the Democrats while the South has revers to reserve crats, while the Senste has power to reject all obnoxious nominations. Action upon the Philadelphia appointments in the Senate has been delayed until sil the appointments are made by the President, and if the claims of the Republicans are not allowed, a wholesale re-jection of all may be expected. It will be settled Another Scene in the House-The Butler-Bingham Imbroglio.

General Butler has had the verbatim report General Butler has had the verbatim report of Mr. Bingham's reply to him printed in paniphlet form, in parallel columns, with the report as written out by Mr. Bingham. In a note attached, General Butler says that as the speech was never delivered as printed, he could not reply to it. The pamphlet has been placed on the desk of every number, and the affair has caused quite a ripple of excitement.

General Butler has just risen to a personal explanation in the matter, alleging that such niteration of remarks in a personal controversy is against the rules, General Butler states that his assertion that Mrs. Surratt was hung innocently, was deliberately made. Upon Booth's cently, was deliberately made. Upon Booth's body was found his diary, giving minute particulars of his crime. If that diary had been produced, the court that tried Mrs. Surratt might have come to a different conclusion.

He charged upon Mr. Bingham that he supposes of the address of this diary and that the pressed the evidence of this diary, and that the diary which was now before the Judiciary Committee had been mutilated, by having the first eighteen leaves cut out, embracing events up to the time of the assassination. Who mutilated the diary and caused an innocent woman to be hare?

lated the diary and caused an innocent woman to be hung?

But one remarkable passage remained in the diary, in which Booth says he had endeavored to cross the Potomac three times and failed, and proposed to return to Washington and give himself up and clear himself of the great crime. How was he to clear himself? Who was it that changed Booth's purpose from the capture of Lincoin to that of assassination? Who was to profit by assassination that would not profit by capture?

Mr. Bingham replied with much warmth, uttriy denying that one word written by Booth prior to the crime ever came into his possession, or snything to 'edicate what caused him to change his purpose!

The scene has caused great excitement in House.

The Question of Adjournment, The Senate Judiciary Committee has had a protracted session this morning upon the House resolution of adjournment. Many of the Serators think the plan of adjourning from month to menth tilegal, and it is pretty certain the resolution will not get through the Senate in its present shape.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Mr. Conness (Cal.) rose to a question of privilege, and denied a report he had seen in certain newspapers, to the effect that he intended, at the close of his present term in the Senate, to enter into the business of manufacturing wine and trandy. He never had any such intention.

Mr. Harlan (lowa), from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported a bill to incorporate the Lincoln Monument Association of Washington. It authorizes the corporators to collect money for the creation of a minument to the memory of President Lincoln.

Lincoln.

All, Sye (Nevada) called up the bill to amend the organic act of Colorado Territory. It provides for blennial sessions of the Colorado Legislature, and fixes the ray of its members at $6 per day, instead of $3, as heretofore. The bill was bassed.

Mr. Pomeroy (Kaussa) called up the Joint resolution to restrain the issue of Agricultural College scripto the States lately in rebellion, until they are represented in Congress.
Mr. Morton (Ind.) said he was opposed to the whole en under which this Agricultural College scriptissued. The scheme was a dead failure. The disgranted for this purpose tell into the hands of culators at haif price. It would be much better to ethe States a certain amount in money to build se Agricultural Colleges.

7. Rumsey (Minn.) offered a proviso, that not rethan five sections of Agricultural College scriptions of the college scription of the college scriptions of the college ownship.

Pomeroy said the amendment was not germane. Mr. Pomeroy said the amendation to the bill.
Mr. Yates (Itl.) said the reason the scrip was below par was, because the land could could not be located

Mr. Thomas (Md.) offered a resolution, declaring it to be desirable that the public property at Harner's Ferry, formerly used as an armory, be turned to use ful account, and directing the Attorney-General of the United States to examine the title papers concerning the property, and report his opinion as to whether the title of the United States is in fee simple, or is morely need in trust by the President for a specific use.

Adopted.

Mr. Sawyer (Wis.) presented a memorial of the Wisconsin Legislature, asking an appropriation for improving the harder of Monomonee river. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Weedbridge (Vt.) Introduced a bill to create the office of Furrogate in the District of Columbia, provide for the appointment and define the powers and duties of guardians. Beterred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Woodbridge asked leave to offer a resolution frecting the 1 corkeeper of the House to retain, durg the recess of Congress, the number of messongers ow employed. Mr. Van Wyck (N. Y.) objected. Mr. Holman (Ind.) asked leave to offer a resolution of the United States, so as to substantially on motion of Mr. Eldridge (Wis.), the Clerk of the House was directed to inrulab to Senator Patterson.of Februsse, a certified copy of the testimony of David A. Huil, taken before the Committee on Public Expanditures.

A. Buil, taken before the Committee on Public Expenditures,
On motion of Mr. Benjamin (Mo.), the Secretary of War was directed to furnish copies of the correspondence of Captain Swittler, formerly Provost Marshal of the Ninth District of Missouri, with the Provost Marshal's Bureau, in reference to the loyalty of the people of that District.

Mr. Donnelly (Minn.) offered a joint resolution in reference to the mode of the payment of mileage and compensation of Members and Senators.

Mr. Brooks (N. Y.) suggested that by its terms, and under the resolution adopted yesterday for adjournment to May, June, August, September, and November, there would be seven sessions of Congress and as many mileages to be paid.

Mr. Donnelly denied that it would have that effect; and the Speaker stated that he would not certify to more than two mileages for each Congress, unless the law was changed.

The joint resolution was referred to the Judiciary

The joint resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Rutler called the attention of the House to the fact that Mr. Binscham had revised, altered, and materially changed the Globe reporter's manuscript of the personal debate of last week between them, and he had laid on the trembers' desks a printed pamphiet, showing the report as written, and the report as printed. He characterized this proceeding as unfair, and in detense of his own assertion the other day that Mrs. Surratt was hung without sufficient evidence, he characted that John Wilkes Hooth's diary, which showed all his movements preparatory to the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, was kept from the knowledge of the Court, and that it now appeared that it had been spollated by having eighteen pages cut out after it got into the hands of the George ment.

Mr. Bingham replied, and repeated his declaration that the gentleman's charge was a calumny, and that he defield him. He denied that the diary would have been proper evidence. He denied all knowledge of its spollation, and asserted that it was the Judge Advecate-General, and not himself, who had conducted the trial.

This discussion altracted much interest and attention.
