THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH .- PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1867.

A WORD OR TWO ABOUT SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

We presume that there is not a single reader of our paper, or any other intelligent person in the community, that has not heard of Dr. Schenck's famous Seaweed Tonic. It is one of the few really great medicines of the age, and is performing wonders wherever it is perseveringly and properly used. It is :--

First. A Tonic or Stimulant.

Second, An Alkali,

Third. A Purifier, and yet perfect harmless.

Three-quarters of the people in this community, more especially in the spring, need just such a medicine as this. They feel indescribably dull and heavy, have little or no appetite, and after eating are still more heavy and dull and stupid; food sours, as it is sure to do when this condition of things exists: the mouth tastes bad, and there is a most uncomfortable state of matters every way; this need not be; the hint should be taken at once that there is something most emphatically wrong, and that it should be corrected without delay. Use Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and our word for it you will soon be well. Your appetite will return, you will feel buoyant and energetic, and thus, doubtless, save yourself from a prolonged and expensive spell of sickness. It is marvellous what Schenck's Seaweed Tonic will do. It is the great friend and strength of the stomach; it urges that important organ to the performance of its duties, without which there is no health, no good feeling, no satisfactory purpose in life; it takes the food in hand, prepares it for easy and healthy digestion, and sends it gladly on its way to be converted into shyle and chyme and blood, imparting energy, strength, and life to the patient.

The thousands of sallow-faced individuals seen in every city and town in the country, running over us, as it were, with bilious poison, could be saved like a charm with Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. There is no need of them making such miserable spectacles of themselves. A few Mandrake Pills to clear away the rubbish and filth, followed by a generous use of this Tonic, would give them good blood, and plenty of it, a clear, healthy, and handsome skin, and energize them into live men and women, instead of, as now, useless drones.

As a stimulant, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is unequalled. Taken in the morning, or at any time, it is sure to create an appetite, without which there is but little use in trying to live. People must have food; and this food, when properly applied and distributed, sustains our natures and increases our strength. The Seaweed Tonic is sure to thus prepare the food for the body. It has been the means of saving thousands of lives, and is destined to save a million-fold more. With the Mandrake Pills we have already named, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, used in time, we have no doubt whatever that seven-eighths of the diseases which afflict the land would be cut off, and the afflicted be easily restored to health.

The matter is very simple. The stomach is the headquarters of the body, the central point of the system. It is from this that all good and bad effects go out to bless or curse its possessor. Make it clean, put it in good running order, treat it handsomely, and there will be no more disease than in the solid rocks of the granite hills. We repeat it, that Schenck's Seawced Tonic will do this for the Stomach. It is nature coming to the rescue of man in his peril. When the nature and condition of disease are thoroughly understood, it will be seen that the doctrine we briefly inculcate is the true one, and that the medicine we advocate is predsely adapted to the doctrine. Thousands of "reconstructed stomachs" in nearly every State in the Union will gladly testify to this and praise, as they should, the marvellous viitues of Schenck's Seaweed Tonic.

ANOTHER COAL OIL FIRE-LOSS ABOUT $6000. -About half-past 10 o'clock this morning, two cars attached to a train on the Pennsyl-vania Railroad, bound for Greenwich Point, caught fire as they were coming over the iron bridge on the Schuylkill. The locomotive at-tached to the train ran on for about two squares, and then cut loose the burning cars which by this time were wrapped in a second flame. The two cars contained 110 barrels of coal oil.

The two cars contained 110 barrels of coal oil, and averaged about 42 gallons to the barrel, which makes 4620 gallons. It was refined oil, and is valued at apout $1617. A tremendous smoke was made, and the whole southwestern portion of the city had the appearance of being on fire. The cars stopped at the junction of the railroad at Gray's Ferry Road. The Pennsylvania Railroad telegraph office and the watchman's box were totally de-stroyed. The fences in the neighborhood caught fire, and had to be torn down in order to prevent the surrounding property from prevent the surrounding property from catching.

The names of the owners of the oil we could not learn, but we were informed that it be-longed to parties in West Philadelphia, and was consigned to other parties at Greenwich Point. The cars were ordinary freight cars, and were probably worth $4000, thus making the total loss about $6000. The origin of the fire is at present unknown.

The ofigin of the fire is at present unknown. Some say it was from sparks of the locomotive, and others that some boys were smoking on the bridge, and threw the stump of a cigar into the car. The investigation of the Fire Marshal will no doubt solve the mystery. Messrs, Joseph Harrison & Brother are losers to the extent of $500, mostly from fences de-stroyed. They are insured. It was very difficult to obtain water, as where the cars stood was an isolated spot, and water the cars stood was an isolated spot, and water plugs were few and far between. The cars were allowed to burn out, the firemen principally directing their attention to saving surrounding property.

ROBBERY AND INTENT TO KILL .- Two young ROBBERY AND INTENT TO KILL.—Two young men, Adam Erford and Charles Mathews, aged respectively 24 and 25, stepped into a store at the corner of Third and Canal streets yes-terday afternoon, and demanded the funds con-tained in the till. This the proprietor refused to give, and, without further ado, one of them presented a large-sized navy revolver of for-bidding aspect and held it to the head of the storekeener while his companion proceeded to storekeeper, while his companion proceeded to investigate the contents of the money-drawer, obtaining in his search about eight dollars. The bit in the search about eight donars, the proprietor, continually reminded that any at-tempt at forcible remonstrance on his part would prove disastrous to himself, could do nothing. After obtaining all the booty to be found in the place, the parties left. Notice was lodged with Lieutenant Spear, who put his men on the watch, which resulted in the immediate errest of path the parties in the visinity of the arrest of both the parties in the vicinity of the morning's depredations. They were taken before Alderman Snoemaker, who committed them for a hearing this afternoon in default of $2000 bail each.

Spring .- These first few days of April have opened to us with the delightful weather and atmosphere of spring. This season has come at last, and the trees and grass in our public parks and streets are showing the first buddings of their new annual life, Soon all nature will be clothed in the luxu-riance of a new vernal vegetation. Spring time with us is the most pleasant season of the year; the simile of youth, with all its high-born hopes the simile of youth, with all its high-off hopes and budding aspirations, but particularly this year do we welcome its advent, after our long, severe, and tedious winter. Extremes meet, however, and we fear that the summer, to cor-respond, will be long, dry, and hot, in order to compensate for the excessive quantity of compensate for the excessive quantity of moisture and extreme cold that has been expe-rienced for the last few months; but till this comes we can refresh ourselves in this new spring life, observing its daily unfoldings of beauteous life with pleasure and profit, as it commences and merges onward into the meri-dian life of the summer.

PUGNACIOUS FEMALES .- Margaret Black is a white woman, about twenty-five years of age, and lives in the vicinity of Rodman street, above Tenth. She is notorious as the possessor of a wilful and violent temper, which incites her to commit numerous misdeeds. For one of these she was arrested, but pertinaciously re-fused to accompany the officer peaceably, deeming it consistent with her nature to punch, smite, and otherwise annoy her captor, who, nevertheless, took her before Alderman Swift, who fined her and committed her in sufficient Elizabeth Alexander is an older person, noted for noise, and continually getting into difficulties. Yesterday she had a penchant for shying bricks, stones, mud, etc., in the violnity of Eighteenth and Lombard streets, at every-body and everything, to the general defacement of personal and public property. She was com-mitted by Alderman Swift in the sum of $500 bail.

Educated to the medical profession, Dr. Wistar engaged in its practice with marked success, until his refire-ment about fifteen years ago. But his sphere of usefulness was not restricted to the private circle in which his talents as a physician were displayed. For a number of years he was the Secretary of the Philadelphis Dispensary, de-voting all his energy to the building up of that beneficial institution. He also displayed great activity in forwarding the interests of the Orphans' and Widows' Asylums. Although he had been so long in retirement, he never abated the good work to which he early devoted his life.

THE WHISKY BUSINESS --- HEARING BEFORE

THE WHIFEY BUSINESS — HEARING BEFORE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONEE HIBLER. Hugh Cain was before Commissioner Hibler this morning, upon the charge of selling liquor without a revenue license. William King, Assistant Assessor of the Second District, testified that he served a blank to Cain himself, in his store, No. 321 South Twentieth street, in May, 1806, and that he fol-lowed the witness out into the street, and said lowed the witness out into the street, and said lit was time enough to sign that when he was ready to pay it. The officer toid him that that wouldn't do, but he must come down to the office and sign it, or he would be under the necessity of enforcing the penalty. He sent him one or two blanks after that he his assistant. one or two blanks after that by his assistant. William F. Kneass testified that he visited the place, and that Cain kept a retail liquor store, and had paid no special tax for 1886. The defendant was held in $500 bail to answer [SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, April 4. The Reconstruction Bill.

The despatches published in the Northern The despatches published in the Nordern papers for a few days past regarding the pro-posed petition to the supreme Court for an in-junction to prevent the execution of the Re-construction bill in the Southern States had their origin in the efforts of a few extreme men, but the result of the importance forced upon them by the publicity so gratuitously bestowed has been to public a lorge public other gen them by the publicity so gratuitously bestowed has been to enlist a large number of other gen-tlemen in its behalf. Ex-Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, is of the number mentioned who have recently subscribed to similar petitions. It is certain that one has been drawn up, com-prising forty-five pages of foolscap paper, re-nearsing the record of the Government from its foundation, and referring particularly to the history of the State of Georgia, from the date of the Declaration of Independence, and the union of the colorise previous to the Revo. the union of the colonies previous to the Revo-lutionary War. The petitioners argue that Congress has usurped authority not confided in it by the Constitution in setting aside the pre-sent State Governments in the South, and in superseding civil with military law in time of pence. Another netlion sets forth the allera superseding civil with military law in time of peace. Another petition sets forth the ailega-tion that the Provisional Governments formed by the President were also unconstitutional; but it will not be used provided the one above mentioned succeeds. The movement is gene-rally regarded as an effort to compel Con-gress to meet in July, and the South-erners who have been invelgied into it are denounced heartidy by men of all partles. Of course it will be futile, as the Supreme Court cannot take cognizance of the petition until after time enough shall have elapsed to enforce the law complained of. I again repeat my for-mer statement, that the President knows nothing of the movement except common newspaper report. Written statements from parties interested can be procured to the effect that they are making every effort not to im-plicate him in the slightest degree. Alabama is the only one of the cottom States not repre-sented as a State, althouzed it is known that Gov. Parsons is lending his assistance to it. The Russian-American Treaty.

The Russian-American Treaty,

The probability of the ratification of the Russian-American treaty continues to be an absorbing topic of conversation here, and intel-ligence from Europe indicating the view taken of it by the second Europe indicating the view taken of it by the several European powers is looked for with great interest. A representative of one of the leading foreign Governments, speaking this evening of the reported tranquility of the English mind upon the subject of the cession, compares the plea of "incliference," made by the Duke of Buckingham in the English House of Lords, to similar pleas sometimes put for-ward by proud ladies to conceal emotions which are the reverse of indifference. Forthcoming Opinion as to the Right of Commanders in the South to Remove State Officers.

It is stated to-day that the Attorney-Gene-ral's office will soon give a legal opinion as to whether General Sheridan had any right, under whether General Sheridan had any right, thitter the Military Reconstruction act, to remove State officials from office in Louisiana. The President is represented as being of opinion that he has no such right under that law. If the Attorney-General reports to that effect; the recently displaced officers will undoubtedly be restored by the President.

Proceedings of the United States Senate. WARHINGTON, April 4.-Mr. Morton (Ind.) offered a resolution that 10,000 copies of the Armv Register for 1866 are hereby ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate. He did not know how many copies had heretofore been printed, but the Adjutant-General here will that he had been unable to obtain a sufficient number of copies to meet the demand of the regular army. Mr. Morton further remarked it was but just that the late volunteer officers should also be supplied. Mr. Edmunds (Vt.) suggested that the resolutions of must go to the Committee on Printing. Mr. Anthony (E. SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, April 4.

The Philadelphia Appointments Remain unsettled. Last night a long confer-ence was held between the opposing parties, but an arrangement was not effected, and it does not seem likely any will be, as those who supposed they could carry their candidates at the White House now find that the President will not acquiesce in their schemes, and while he generally nominates the Democrats pre-sented, he invariably substitutes some other Republican for one agreed on by operators. This difficulty will probably explode the whole

No nominations have yet been agreed on for Assessor and Collector of the Fourth District. Hon, William D, Kelley Insists on having Lewis for Assessor, and will yield the Collector to a Democrat, but the hitch comes in at the White House, where any man recommended by Kelley stands little chance of being nominated. For Collector of the same district, Colonel Henry A. Leech and Thomas S. Forsyth have been mentioned by the Democrats. The im-pression is general that Goodwin will be re-jected to-day or to-morrow.

Yesterday he left, and, like a good many other persons, took some-thing with him that did not belong to him; which was a lot of clothing, dresses, skifts, etc., belonging to a young lady, out of whose trunk he took them. Alderman Massey held him to answer in $700 ball.

SUSPICION OF BURGLARY .- Night before last some parties entered the hall of Mr. Wilson's residence, No. 1605 Green street, and took from the rack three coats and some other articles of the rack three cases and some other articles of wearing apparel. They gained admission to the nouse by means of false keys. Notice was immediately given to the detectives, which re-sulted in the capture, at Thirteenth and Wood streets, of two young chaps, Samuel Montgo-mery, aged twenty, and Vorhees Hubbard, aged twenty-one. When caught, they had in their meeting on two costs which here here identipossession two coats, which have been identi-fied as those stolen. These young fellows were brought up before the Mayor this morning, and remanded for a hearing this afternoon.

THE LEAGUE ISLAND NAVAL COMMISSION which, with numerous invited guests, started on an excursion tour to the island yesterday morning, returned last evening about 6 o'clock, per steam yacht Wave, having had a highly pleasurable and satisfactory tour. This morn-ing the examination was continued, and at its ose it was the intention of the Commission to close it was the intention of the commission to visit our many prominent manufacturing works, machine shops, and iron works of every description, not forgetting our large woollen and cotton establishments. They do this no doubt to ascertain the facilities with which Philadelphia manufacturers are able to turn out good and substantial work

A GUN THAT WENT OVP .- Charles Gunn A GUN THAT WENT OFF.—Charles Gunn, having been overloaded at a little gin place in Rodman street, with large quantities of highly combustible spirits—gunpowder whisky—sud-denly went off, part of his body striking an-other man with such force and apparent in-tention of not missing its mark, that the indi-vidual sank, without a word of remonstrance or strength to defend. As a gun when once unloaded is almost useless, and easily handled, so this Gunn was quietly taken, by Officer Polso this Gunn was quietly taken, by Officer Pol-lock, to the Station House, and from thence before Alderman Cloud, and committed to answer.

STRALING RAILROAD IRON .- This common Difference was committed by Edward Fish, at the Washington street wharf, last night. He, with the demeanor of an employe of the Reading Railroad, proceeded to the place, and picked up various articles of iron-ware belonging to that institution. He was arrested in that vicinity and committed to any argument of the the vicinity, and committed to answer the charge at Court.

MOLDED COLLARS

GRAY'S PATENT

Are the foundation of the immense business now

done in Paper Collars, and the present sale of them nearly equals that of all other makes combined, They have been made from uniform stock from the commencement, which now costs THIRTY.THREE per cent, more than that used in the production of any other Collar-consequently they cost the dealer more. Therefore, when consumers are urged to buy other makes at the same price as GRAY'S, it is because the inferior goods pay more profit.

If you want the VERY BEST, then buy]

Gray's Patent Molded Collars.

AND TAKE NO OTHERS.

GRAY'S PATENT NOVELTY COLLARS,

The original and only patented Spaced Collar-and the most popular one ever made-and the Collar which all manufacturers strive to equal.

GRAY'S PATENT EURERA COLLAR,

The only Stand-up Collar ever made and molded so as to throw the upper edge away from the neck.

GRAN'S PATENT LINEN-FACE COLLAR, In the favorite Novelty style (from imported stock made expressly for this Collar), and costing but a triffe more than the all-paper, will wear twice as long and in summer is not as easily affected by perspiration. If you want a good collar at a less price, then buy

UNION PAPER COLLAR COMPANY'S UNION COLLAR, A.

A Full-spaced Turo-over Collar, from a strong, finefinished paper, and equal to anything in the market, except GRAY'S.

A full line of the above goods can always be had of
