POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—Chief Detective Lamor and Officers Train and Smith arrested last night a young man, Thomas Riley, on the charge of robbing the cigar store of Mr. Grim, No. 331 Arch street, on Sunday morning. The goods stolen were recovered.

Mollie Conner, alias Hogan, whose picture has adorned the Rogues' Gallery for some time, hails from st. Louis, and is notorious as a female expert in shoplitting. Yesterday she was cap-tured in this city, and now occupies one of the Central Station cells. She is charged with entering a store on Eighth street and stealing a piece of grenadine, valued at $80. Next she visited a store where a bonnet was lying upon the counter, which had been sold to a lady wrapped up, and was in tront of the purchaser. Mollie adroitly slipped the bonnet oil the counter, and left with it without interference. Next she proceeded to the store from which the piece of goods had been taken, and there she was caught in the act of rolling up a mantilla. In-formation was sent to Chief Detective Lamon, who despatched Detective Webb to the store, and escorted Mollie to the cell above referred to. She will have a hearing at 2 o'clock to-day.

Loss $5000, partially insured. Three valuable horses and two cows were in the lower of the structure and were saved. The two Germantown engines, together with one from Manayunk, saved the adjoining property trom being burned.

THE WEST INDIA TRADE, -A part of the imports at this port last week, from the West Indies, was 4300 hogsheads of sugar, 1550 boxes of sugar, and 6000 hogsheads of molasses. This is the most substantial evidence of the extensive commerce which Philadeiphia has with the SOMETHING ABOUT SUNDAY CARS .- The Judges
