A GREAT CURE OF CONSUMPTION BY DR. SCHENCE'S MEDICINES.

New York, November 27, 1866,-Dr. J. H. Schreck-Sir:-I consider it my duty to express to you my gratitude for the cure which your valuable medicines, viz., the Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, have effected in my wife's case. From the beginning of the year 1861, my wife had a most distressing cough for four years, during which time she had been under the care of two physicians. However, in November, 1865, she grew worse and was confined to her bed, and the physicians gave up all hopes of her ever getting well, as every medicine used afforded no ease. At that time I was assured by her physician that she was in the last stage of Consumption. and beyond the reach of medical skill, nd therefore could not live much longer. His last advice was for her to go South, which she intended to do; but I am happy to say, before she could get ready for the voyage, I had the good fortune to hear of your valuable medicines; and she at once called upon you, and had an examination through your well-known Respirometer, the result being a promise on your part to cure her. So by the faithful use of your valuable medicines she soon recovered good health, and I am happyto state and say that she is now perfectly well. I attribute it all to your valuable medicines, and I beg you to accept my sincere

My only anxiety now is to make her experience known to others, so that the virtue of your medicines may be more fully known. I give you full privilege to publish this. Most respectfully, Louis M. Voegel, Chief Steward of steamship Saratoga, Pier 21, foot of Fulton street, N. R. Residence, No. 208 Elm street, near Spring.

Dr. J. H. Schenck is professionally at his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, corner of Commerce street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.

He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every Tuesday; and No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer, the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 per half dozen; Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. A full supply of Dr. Schenck's medicines for sale at all times at his rooms. Also by druggists

AN INTERESTING MISSIONARY MEETING .- Last evening there was held at the St. Luke's P. E. Church, on Thirteenth street, above Pine, a most interesting meeting, being no less than a missionary gathering to hear and report on the progress made in Christianizing the souis of the Indian tribes of the Great West. The of the Indian tribes of the Great West. The church was thronged with persons deeply interested, and there was present an Indian delegation to participate in the exercises. The meeting was opened by the services common to evening worship. Rev. Mr. Hare, of Christ Church, presided, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Howe, Rector of St. Luke's.

Howe, Rector of St. Luke's.

Rev. Thomas Hinmau, who has labored long in the far-off West, among the Dakota Indians, was introduced, and made statements of facts and gave descriptions of Indian life, all of which were listened to with great attention by the large and interested audience. In his own experience, during his early labors, more than two hundred warriors of the tribes of Southern Minnesota were converted and baptized, bringing their warlike weapons to the ministers of God to have them destroyed. The good work was, as he stated, progressing in a most gratifying manner. After the conclusion of this address, the Indian delegation sang a hymn, following which Rev. Mr. Jackson, an Indian missfonary, delivered an interesting and powerful appeal to the people not to esting and powerful appeal to the people not to healtate in the work, but to press onward, for the prize, that of gaining souls unto God, was Petry Larcentes .- Prances Moore, a colored woman, last evening stole a bundle of clothes from a dwelling at South and Fifth streets, for which theft she wis arrested at Seventh and Fitzwater streets, by Officer McCullen, and committed to answer.

James Sullivan also appropriated several articles near Second and South streets, for which he was remanded by the Alderman for which he was held to answer.

Mary Ann Ireland, aged 35, was in a very accommodating mood yesterday afternoon, in the Seventeenth Ward. An old lady was wending her way towards a depot, lugging along a heavy value, when Mary ran alongside, and in a most affable manner requested to carry said value. This the old lady granted, when the "Merry Ireland," under full sail and high pressure, moved quickly into the distance, leaving the eider craft perfectly horror-stricken and shaky, Mary was committed to answer this afternoon. Mary was committed to answer this afternoon.

A CASE OF FALSE PRETENSE .- Thomas C. Boyd, aged thirty-two, was arrested last even-ing in the neighborhood of Darien street and Girard avenue, on the charge of receiving goods Girard avenue, on the charge of receiving goods on false statements. It seems that Thomas, some days since, stepped into the tailoring shop of George Hines, bought a suit of clothes, and offered in payment a check on a National Bank in the interior of the State, for the sum of $41. All things moved easily for a time, when, desiring to make a payment, Hines ascertained the fact of the worthlessness of the paper which Boyd had given, He telegraphed to the President of the First National Bank, and learned that no person named graphed to the Fresident of the First National Bank, and learned that no person named Thomas C. Boyd had money in that institution. Hines lodged complaint, and Boyd was yester-day afternoon arrested and committed by Alderman Fitch to answer.

A Discount of Fifty fee Cent.—A youth named Thomas Donnelly was engaged by Mr. Stockton as a salesman in the latter's dry-goods store, at Second and Poplar streets. Soon after the advent of the young man into the business, the profits of the concern perceptibly decreased. Mr. Stockton entertaining suspicions as to the honesty of his new cierk, gave notice to Detective Brown. Mr. Brown, a day or so ago, in the absence of Mr. Stockton, went to the store and made purchases to the amount of $25.25. The proprietor, in looking over his books, found the amount of the sale marked at $18. The youth, having made the entry, withheld the money, For this he was this morning arrested, and committed for a hearing this afternoon. A DISCOURT OF FIFTY PER CENT .- A youth BURGLARS CAUGHT.-Notice was some time ago given in the Telegraph of the robbery of about $200 worth of pipes, cigars, etc., from a store No, 331 Arch street. The burglars effected store No. 331 Arch street. The burglars effected an entrance by prying open the back door opening into Dannaker's Court. Last night Chief Detective Lamon, and Detectives Train and Smith. arrested John Riley, familiarly and Smith. arrested John Riley, familiarly known as "Tinny," and Harry Swayne, in the vicinity of Third and Race streets. When arrested a valuable meerschaum, since identified as one stolen, was found upon Riley. Both were committed for a hearing this afternoon at 20 clock.

ROUND-RENTS, $210 and $90 a year.........$3000, 1,400 HEARINGS AT SHE CENTRAL STATION .- Before Alderman Beitler, at the Central Station to-day, Thomas K. Donelley was charged with larceny. He was a cutter with Owen J. Stock-ton, a tailor doing business at No. 832 N. Second street. He acknowledged that he had stolen $200. He took $13 out of $22-25 at one time. The defendant was arrested by Detective Brown. He was held in $1200 bail to answer. Rachel McSorley was charged with abusing a Mrs. Hunt, who was a witness against her nuband, who was committed to prison a short time since. Rachel was held in $600 bail for her good behavior. Harry B. Swain and John Creighton, alias Harry B. Swain and John Creighton, alias John Reilly, were charged with entering the store of Louis B. Grim, No. 331 Arch street, and stealing a quantity of pipes, etc. The particulars will be found elsewhere in our columns. Several parties were present, who testified that they bought a pipe of Creighton, Swain being in company with him. The prisoners were each held in $2000 bail each for their appearance at Court.

Charge of Swindling .- James Morisy was before Alderman Beitler yesterday afternoon upon the charge of swindling. The evidence not being sufficient to criminate him, he was discharged. This morning a warrant was issued for his and his wife's arrest upon the same charge.

Two reserve officers proceeded to his place of residence. He keeps a boarding-house at No. 748 Swanson street. He was not there. The 748 Swanson street. He was not there. The officers went to a tavern near by, and as they entered Morisy left by the back door. He was discovered looking over the fence in the yard and arrested. He said his wife Agnes had gone to New York. Reserve Officer Parker captured her shortly after. The story of her having gone to Gotham proved a fabrication. Both parties are charged with swindling a sailor out of $750. He deposited the money with them for safe keeping, and they invested it, the wife says in keeping, and they invested it, the wife says, in oil stocks. Morisy, on the contrary, says they received no money. The parties will have a hearing to-day, when the facts of the case will be divulged.

A DASTARDLY ASSAULT .- On Friday evening a man called at No. 1615 Market street, and asked for Mr. Martin, a boarder in the house, He came down to the door, and, without any provocation whatever, the man set upon and beat him in the most unmerciful manner, and then made his escape. Martin is a journeyman plasterer, and being satisfied with the wages his employer gave, did not enter into a "strike" with some of his fellow-craftsmen. The assailant is known to be one of the latter, but those who know him refuse to reveal his name, and by this means the rascal is shielded from the hands of justice. We hope the par-ties will overcome their reticence, and the offender receive his just deserts.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC was crowded last evening with a fashionable audience, to witness the splendid and triumphant debut of Madame arepa Rosa in opera in this city. We cannot see the reason why the steady stream of ladies and gentlemen should have been forced to submit to an execriation of costume by squeezing into a single small entrance, while our great Academy is furnished with several commodious doorways. The success of the troupe, we think will warrant the employment of at least one more doorkeeper.

THE WHISKY FRAUDS .- Special Agents of the Revenue Department are in this city in connection with the whisky frauds, under the management of John Miller, Revenue Agent. They are detailed for sixty days, to hunt up and seize all spirits offered or sold for less than the Government tax. These officers are now as siduously at work, and have already made some important seizures, and great good is expected to result from this movement of the depart-

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Officer Bartlerus ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Officer Bartlerus arrested a young man on the corner of Callowhill and Fifteenth streets, for lounging about. This fellow suddenly jerked himself away and ran into a neighboring engine house, and when the officer followed to rearrest him, he was assaulted by Daniel and James Smith, the latter of whom threw bricks in an energetic manner. All three were arrested, and committed by Alderman Hutchinson in default of 5600 ball each. of $600 bail each.

Music.-We have received a charming little ballad, entitled "Would thou wert mine!" the words of which were written by Mr. J. E. McCaullay, the accompaniment being the com-position of Proiessor Jean Louis. It will be a position of Professor Jean Louis. It will be a rare treat to the numerous friends of these two musical amateurs to secure a copy of their joint Reed Meyer, of No. 722 Arch street, is the publisher.

EDITION The Town of Wilkesbarre Nearly Destroyed by Fire.

EASTON, April 9 .- A fire broke out at 7 A. M. to-day in Wilkesbarre, which has by this time destroyed all the buildings on Market street, from the Court Hause to the bridge. The telegraph office being burned, no com-munication has been had with that place.

From Delaware.

WILMINGTON, April 9.—Governor Saulsbury, of Delaware, has appointed James A. Bayard, of Wilmington, United States Senator to fill the of Wilmington, United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Hon. George Read Riddle. He formerly occupied the same position, but resigned in 1864, in consequence of the test oath. He will take his seat at once. Senator Saulsbury passed through this city last night, on his way home to Georgetown. If he resigns he will probably be succeeded by his brother, now Governor of Delaware.

THE LATE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

An Unheard-of Atrocity-Bar Iron, Rati-way Ties, and Kegs of Natis Placed upon the Track of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad-Fearful Accident in Consequence - Arrest of the Perpetrators of the Deed, Etc.

From the Pittsburg Chronicle of last evening.

A piece of diabolism more frightful and coldblooded than anything we have been called upon to record for a long time, was perpetrated yesterday on the Pennsylvania Railroad near this city. The results of the deed, so far as buman life and limb are concerned, are comparatively small, but it is only by an apparent miracle that we are spared the necessity of recording a wholesale slaughter of men, women, and children.

The Cincinnati express train, consisting of one baggage and one express car, three passenone baggage and one express car, three passen-ger coaches, and sleeping car, left the Union depot yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock. The train was filled witd passengers, forty of whom had arrived during the forenoon from Cincin-nati. When the train had gone about three-quarters of a mile beyond Turtle Creek Station, and was near Spring Hill, the engineer, Robert H. Kerr, discovered an obstruction on the track. The obstruction was placed upon a curve of the road, and could not be seen until the train was close upon it. The engineer im-mediately reversed the engine and whistled "down brakes," but could not sufficiently check the locomotive to prevent the collision. The engine struck the obstacle and was thrown from the track, together with the tender, the ex-press, baggage, and two passenger cars, leaving only one passenger coach and the sleeping-car on the track.

THE KILLED, The cars, as we have said, were filled with passengers, and were thrown about helter skelter, yet miraculous as it may seem, not a passenger was killed, and none were injured beyound a few bruises and scratches. The employes on the train did not escape so fortunately.
Martin Pracken, a brakesman, was found sesurely wedged in between the first and second cars. In obedience to the signal he had tight-ened his brakes when the crash came, and the platforms of both cars were smashed, he being caught and held between the iron railings of the platform and the end of the car. An axe was employed to cut him out, but it soon became apparent that the railing would have to be cut off, a work which occupied over thirty minutes, during which the unfortunate man suffered inexpressible. suffered inexpressibly.

His left thigh was found to be terribly crushed from the knee to the hip, and he sustained internal injuries of a serious nature. He was brought to this city and taken to his boarding-house, No. 58 Walnut treet, where he has been living for a number of years with his cousin. He was attended by Dr. Hamilton, who had been called to the scene of the accident, and who came in with the unfortunate man.

THE INJURED.

Peter McCanley, an engineer on the road, was on the train proceeding to his home at Latrobe. He had his right foot badly crushed, and he received some cuts.

Robert H. Kerr, the engineer of the train, was Robert H. Kerr, the engineer of the train, was badly scalded, received several cuts about the head. He resides at Latrobe.

W. Wilhelm, the baggage-master, had his shoulder badly bruised and received other injuries, but not very serious. He lives in Philadelphia. The injured men went on to their homes in the first train. THE OBSTRUCTION.
The cause of this terrible accident was easily

The cause of this terrible accident was easily ascertained. Five cross ties, a bar of railroad iron, some kegs of spikes and other articles had been laid upon the track. They had evidently been carefully and skillfully placed with a view been carefully and skillfully placed with a view. to accomplishing the purpose which had been so well subserved. The ties and one end of the rail lay upon the South track, while the other end of the rail and the spikes were placed on the north track, so as to make sure work of whichever train should come along first. The perpetrators apparently not being certain that flist train would be eastern or western

THE CRIMINALS. Three persons are supposed to have been con-cerned in the perpetration of the diabolical affair. Mr. Stone, who was on the locomotive affair. Mr. Stone, who was on the locomotive with the engineer, informs us that they saw standing near the obstruction a man, who, as soon as the collision took place, jumped the fence and ran. He was pursued and captured, and during the afternoon brought to the city by a gentleman named John Duff, residing at Turtle Creek. Mr. Stone accompanied the prisoner. The man is an evil-looking person, having the precise appearance of a North Carolina soldler in the Rebel army in the last year of

He played dumb then, but was brought to speech eventually. About I o'clock this morning two other men, named Paul Howard and Paul Price, were arrested at the coke-ovens in the Ninth Ward, and brought in. They say they are strangers from Harrisburg. They were locked up, and await proceedings.

CRAY'S PATENT MOLDED COLLARS

Are the foundation of the immense business now done in Paper Collars, and the present sale of them nearly equals that of all other makes combined. They have been made from uniform stock from the commencement, which now costs THIRTY-THREE per cent, more than that used in the production of any other Collar—consequently they cost the dealer more. Therefore, when consumers are ured to buy other makes at the same price as GRAY'S, it is because the interior goods pay more profit.

If you want the VERY REST, then buy!

If you want the VERY BEST, then buyl Gray's Patent Molded Collars, AND TAKE NO OTHERS.

GRAY'S PATENT NOVELTY COLLARS, The original and only patented Spaced Collar—and the most popular one over made—and the Collar which all manufacturers strive to equal.

GRAY'S PATENT EURERA COLLAR. The only Stand-up Collar ever made and mold as to throw the upper edge away from the neck. GRAY'S PATENT LINEN-FACE COLLAR In the favorite Novelty style (from imported stock made expressly for this Collar), and costing but a triffe more than the all-paper, will wear twice as long and in summer is not as easily affected by perspiration.

If you want a good collar at a less price, then buy UNION PAPER COLLAR COMPANY'S A Full-spaced Turn-over Collar, from a strong, finefinished paper, and equal to anything in the market
