CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS - NE OUTSIDE PAGES,] Hospital Items.—The following named persons were yesterday admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital:—

William Kain, 27 years of age, residing on Fitzwater street, below Seventh, got into a fight with a man on Spafford street, and was struck on the head with a bar of iron. Benjamin Jackson, aged 26 years, yesterday had his leg broken, the accident occurring on board the ship E. St. Clair Edwards.

James Black, colored, was cut on the head with an axe by a woman in Spafford street, near Bedford, yesterday.

Patrick McCaulley, a hand on board the schooner Manle, had one of his feet severely injured, yesterday, by falling on the deck of

A SHOCKING OCCURRENCE .- A Mrs. Ellinger, an elderly lady, was terribly gored by a steer on Monday evening, at Second and Tasker streets. The animal, with others, had been driven from a drove yard, and being jaded, became very cross and surly, and evinced a disposition not to enter the pen, on Tasker street, just as Mrs. Ellinger, with a basket in her hand, attempted to pass by, but before she had time to do so the steer, with his head close to the ground, made a terrible advance and caught her on his horns, one of which ter-ribly lacerated her thigh, and the other entered her side between the hip and the ribs, producing a shocking and dangerous wound. Aid was procured, but it was thought yesterday that her injuries would prove mortal, from the fact that she spit considerable blood.

THE INDIANS.—Last evening a meeting of the friends of the different Indian tribes was held in the hall corner of Ninth and Spring Garden streets, at which addresses were made by A. H. Love and others. Dr. H. T. Child presided. The Society of Friends was well represented by many of its members. Mr. Alfred H. Love made a lengthy and very interesting address. The object was to excite sympathy in behalf of the Indianitribes, and to petition Congress for the passage of laws by which the Indians might be protected.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETING. - This Society held its last meeting in its present quarters, Broad and Arch streets, last evening. The display of flowers, plants, rare exotics, and magnificent bouquets was one of the finest ever given by the Society, and elicited universal praise from the numerous visitors in the rooms. The display of early vegetables, though small, was good. The scaffolding about the new hall will be removed on Friday, and the next meeting will be held in the new building.

THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP VAIL, of Kansas, administered the rite of confirmation to about forty persons, at St. Luke's Church, on Sunday evening last. The church was crowded, and the services were solemn and of a deeply interesting character.

AMUSEMENTS.

BENEFITS OF THE FAMINE FUND,-Reports from the South to day indicate no abatement in the saffering. In view of this fact, it becomes the citizens of Philadelphia to assist the fallen for to rise from starvation, as earnestly as they rushed to crush a once powerful and bitter enemy. Every person should give something to the Southern Famine Relief Fund, if it is only half a dollar, and this half a dollar can be expended to profit and amusement, by purchasing with it a ticket to some dramatic or musical entertainment.
This afternoon a grand dramatic matinee has been arranged at the Academy. Mr. James E. Murdoch, Miss Lucule Western, Mrs. John Drew, Miss Josie Orton, Mr. Edwin Adams, Mr. George H. Ciarke, and other stars now in the city, have volunteered their valuable services, and they will be assisted by the entire corps aramatiques of all our theatres, together with aramatiques of Simon Hassler, Charles R. Dodworth, and Benjamin E. Woolf. The bill selected is very attractive, and embraces, among other things, a beautiful modern drams and two pleasant comedictas.

This evening the Parepa-Brignoli troupe will give a grand concert at the Academy in aid of the Famine Fund, to which we would direct especial attention. Madame Pareps will sing "The Bird that came in Spring," "Una Notte in Venezia," and the favorite ballid, "Five O'Clock in the Morning;" Signor Brignoll, a serenade composed by Gottschalk, and "Good-bye, Sweetheart;" and Signors Ferranti and Fortuna popular and attractive pieces. In addition to these attractions, carl Rosa will perform a couple of solos on the violin in his masterly manner. A grand orchestra will be present under the lead of Mr. Burgfield, which, during the evening, will execute two overtures and a march. The concert will be one of the most attractive ever given in our city, and when the price of admission and the object to which the proceeds are to be applied are taken into consideration, there can be no doubt that every seat in the Academy will be filled on the occasion. Reserved seats can be secured at Trumpler's and at the Aca-

This evening, also, the Shakespeare Dramatic Association will give an excellent entertainment at the Assembly Buildings, the proceeds of which will be devoted entirely to the Famine

Our Southern friends will see that Philadelphia is doing her whole duty in this matter, and all we ask in return is that the people of the South reorganize at once and make their desert States bloom like garden spots.

THE THEATRES .- Mr. Murdoch created quite an excitement last Monday evening as "Vapid," in the Dramotist, His admirable acting was greeted constantly with rounds of applicase from a large and fashionable audience. Mr. Mackay, as "Lord Scratch," was good as usual, and Mr. Dubois, as "Floriville," played his difficult and somewhat brilliant role with taste and force, for which he received some well-merited applause. Last night Mr. Mordoch appeared as "Alired Evelyn," in Bulwer's beautiful comedy of Money. This evening The Gamester will be played. Those who saw Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kesn in this powerful play will be curious to witness Mr. Murdoch's rendition of the great role of "Beverly."

At the Wainut Street Theatre Miss Lucille Western will appear as the Jewess in Leah, the Forsaken, for the last time,

On Saturday atternoon Miss Western has a complimentary benefit at the Academy of Music. At the request of her friends and admirers, she will personate "Lady Isabel" and Madame Vine," in East Lynne. On Saturday evening the same benefit will be continued at the Walnut Street Theatre, when The Child Steater will be presented.

At the Arch Mr. Edwin Adams appeared in his role of "Jean Vaubaron," in Charroyance, before a large audience, for the last time, last evening. To-night the Morble Heart will be

At the American Theatre the usual attractive variety entertainment will be given.

THE CABNIVAL FINALE,—On Tuesday, the 20th instant, the grand Shakespearian Carnival and Bat Masque will be given at Concert Hall. This ball is arranged in splendid style by the attsches of the Wainut Street and Chesnut Street Theatres, and of the Academy of Music, at all of which places of amusement tickets may be obtained any evening. The coming fele dansante is to college the source given last year in almost every particular, and we have no doubt the occasion will be a very enjoyable one to all the subscribers.

THE MOYA'S BALL .- The grand annual ball of the Moyamensing Hose Company; takes place at the Academy of Music next Monday night, the 22d astant. We are assured by the managere that everything will be done to provide the subscribers every comfort that can be obtained. The notic on the occasion will be furnished by a fanous orchestra, composed of our best must class. The supper is to be comme a faut, and the company recherche. Several distinguished persons will be present on the loccasion to trip the light isotastic toe. Tickets, five dollars each, to be had of any of the managers.

Company of the second second second

Cannenoss & Dixey are still playing the House that Jack Built to good houses. An olio and variety entertainment is also given every

THE BLACK CROOK.—Mr. John E. McDonough is already engaged in preparations for producing this great spectacle at the Academy of Music next month, in a style of splendor equal. if not superior, to the production of the piece at Niblo's. Efforts are being made by the "stay at homes" to have Mr. McDonough play the Black Crook throughout the summer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The following information, dated January. 1897, respecting a sunken rock recently discovered inside Wilson Island, on the west coast of Klusin, has been received from Commander Charles Bullock, H. M. S. Serpent Rock lies three-quarters of a mile from and inside Wilson Island; it has only from nine to tweive feet of water on it. From the rock the northeast point of Wilson Island bears N.NW., the south point W.SW., and the north point of Kokosima E.NE. The Serpent grazed over it while carrying six fathoms regular soundings in both chains.
