Legislative Corruption.

THE following communication, in reference to the ground recently taken by us in regard to the corruption in the State Legislature and its remedy, contains a good deal that is true, as well as a misconception of the steps necessary to remove the evil:-

To the Editor of The Evening Telegraph;-

We are now having our annual newspaper attacks upon a defunct Legislature. Judging from the past, it is safe to predict that in three or four weeks the whole excitement will three or four weeks the whole excitement will be over, and in the coming autumn the men who are now denounced as corrupt will be re-turned to Harrisburg without serious opposi-tion from the people or the press. During the next session of the Legislature these men will, if required, pass eighteen hundred private bills, for all which they will be well paid, and next spring the papers will give them the usual "blowing up," and then subside for twelve months. This is said in no captious spirit, but simply because it is true. Last spring we had in substance the same lamentations over a corrupt Legislature, and yet, when the over a corrupt Legislature, and yet, when the same corrupt men were renominated, not a paper (so far as the writer knows) took ground, ven timidly, against them.

It is much better to throttle scoundrels who It is much better to throttle scoundrels who are about to rob you, than to send paper bullets after them as they run away with their plunder. It is no easy matter to break up the corrupt political combinations that now exist. But it can be done, and the first step is to secure the hearty, continuous, and bold co-operation of the press. The very moment that the papers of this sity will open their batteries are of editors have who are now in the continuous. the papers of this sity will open their patteries upon bad men of either party who are nominated, in articles as fearlessly written as the article in to-day's New York Tribine, on "Legislative Villany," rest assured that half the work is done. The press very properly controls public opinion upon questions of public interest.

No political convention can be called together, even in these degenerate times, that would be so reckless as to put in nomination for any office a man whose nomination, for reasons stated, was generally opposed by our city papers. Thousands of us who in petitics city papers. Thousands of us who in pelitics agree in nothing, except our desire to see an able and pure body of men in our legislative chambers, have been for years anxiously walt-ing for "the day to break, and there is solid ground" to fear that we shall die without the

It is, indeed, true that the popular indignation which follows the close of a legislative session almost entirely disappears before the next election, and that those who are most indignant in April against bribery and corruption, vote in October for the return of the men who have at least tolerated iniquity, if not participated in it. Our correspondent grows positively indignant over such fickleness, and throws all the blame on the newspapers. If, however, he would think for a moment, we doubt if he would hold the editors of the city to blame. What alternative is presented to the journals of Philadelphia, when we see two political parties nominate two candidates, each two political charlatans, the purity of either of whom we would not trust, what choice is him to Harrisburg. They cannot nominate a Rebel section. good man, and if they venture to name one whom they consider fitted for the position, it ic at once ascribed to personal favoritism, if not corruption. The responsibility does not rest with the papers-it is with the peoplethe people who are indignant at the course of the journals, and who throw all the blame on them, when really it rests entirely on those who complain. Our correspondent says that he, with thousands of others, is waiting the day of political purity, and asks us when it will arrive. We return the question, and ask the same of him and those who think like him. The reformation will commence just when the honest voters go to the primary elections and fight the fight there. It is at the delegate elections that the battle is decided. It is there the candidates are selected. Let the gentlemen who desire reform attend these meetings, and defeat the objectionable candidate, and put a good man in his place. It must be a very bad man whom we must go outside of the party to defeat. The contest for purity must, if possible, be fought within the party lines. There have been few instances where the citizens of a party are so disgusted at the nomination as to elect the opponent. It is at the delegate elections [that the reformation must commence; and until the people take the matter in hand, the only thing the papers can do is to point out the evils and continue to advise the remedy. This we will continue to do, but we cannot expect success until the dissatisfied cease to complain and begin in good faith to apply the remedy.

Colored Emigrants to Liberia.

It is some time since we heard of the colonization plan which some ten years since was exciting so much attention. Another solution to the vexed question of what we should do with the negro race has been worked out by the stern course of events. We see that it is sound policy to receive the blacks as citizens, and make them become pillars of the State, rather than drive them to a foreign shore. To such, however, as desire to find a home in Liberia, among their own people, we can see no objection to the gratification of their desires.

The company of colored soldiers that left Philadelphia in December last to settle in Liberia, reached their new home pleasantly by the Edith Rose. Charles A. Harrell, formerly of Elkton, Md., writes thus:-

"I am very happy to say that words cannot describe the good and kind treatment of the people and the kind welcome of the Government and the President. Monrovia is a fast-growing city. As for the land of Liberia, in regard to fertility, it is the best I have ever seen. Vegetables are growing the whole year round. All the company are in good spirits. Tell my friends in Philadelphia that if they wish to procure a good home, as a free gift, Africa is the only place for them. We now reside at Bexley right on the Finley road to Geas Mountain. Finley is very highly spoken of as the most healthy and best region in Liberia."

A new company of colored soldiers, "Lincoln Company, No. 2," is now forming in this city, with the intention of leaving on the 1st of May. The leader was for two years in a colored regiment, sharing in the siege of Vicksburg and the battle of Nashville.

JOHN BULL HOANED .- As an instance of the inability of an Englishman to comprehend a joke, which peculiarity Sidney Smith said only belonged to a Scotchman, we notice in the late London papers an article treating seriously what is reported to be the maiden effort of Mr. Morrissey in Congress. They take for a genuine oration the burlesque speech invented by Mr. David Scattergood, of this city, and originally published in "Our Supper Table Series," and from thence copied into some of the New York papers as a genuine oration, and base thereon forebodings of the result of Americanizing Parliament. Their summary of the speech is very funny. Copying the sentences of our "Series Editor" as being veritably so, they go on to say:-

being veritably so, they go on to say:—

"Mr. Morrissey has been making a most extraordinary display of himself in the American Congress. As fast as any deputy spoke the pugilist interrupted him with some course professional slang. The House got excited and augry, whereupon this worthy declared he wouldn't be handed over to any cuss in the House, and appealed to the Speaker to prevent him from being 'crowded to the ropes' in that manner. He said he did not care for any rules of the House, but he would send up to the Speaker the last number of Bell's Life, with the rules of the P. R., which he hoped the Clerk would read, as also the full score of the 'mill' between the Staleybridge Infant and the Brummagem Chicken. This was too much even for magem Chicken. This was too much even for Congress, and the drunken blackguard was carried off by the Sergeant-at-Arms,"

A Practical versus a Political Opinion. It is but a day or two since our Democratic contemporary had an editorial complaining of General Sickles' recent order abolishing imprisonment for debt, and prescribing certain necessary regulations concerning civil affairs in his district. How the people to be be affected by this order regard it may be seen from the following extract from the Greenville Enterprise. It says:-

"The admirable and beneficent regulations established by General Sickles will do him lasting honor. Instead of using his high powers to oppress, he is using them for the protection and peace of the people. He is doing what the Legislature of South Carolina refused to do. He shows far more respect for the suffering and distress of the country than the majority of the public men of this State, who, contrary to manifest justice and right, wifully continued the heathenish law of imprisonment for dect

AN UNEXPECTED AID.-Grave apprehension has been expressed in certain quarters of the Republican party, lest the blandishments of the Democracy should secure the negro vote in favor of the supporters of the President. To all who feel anxious we have good news. The President is about to start on a tour throughout the Southern States. It is anticipated that he will harangue the people along the route. Such a course will bring back to the fold any of the blacks who feel inclined to wander, and of whom is equally objectionable? Between | will make a unit of the Republican party in the South, the same as it did of the same party in the North last summer. As soon as the left but to support the one who professes correct | news is confirmed, all anxiety may be laid to political principles? The papers can object | rest. The President will save the orators of to a man, and point out the evil of sending the North the necessity of canvassing the late

ANOTHER ORDER FROM GENERAL SHERIDAN-RE-MOVAL OF A LIEUTENANT OF POLICE-EX-HUMING THE BODIES OF UNION SOLDIERS, ETC. NEW ORLEANS, La., April 24.—The following order was issued this afternoon, General Sheridan requested that any citizen having cause of complaint against any person not properly conducting the registry report the same at headquarters. Lleutenant Thomas N. Boy-ian having been reported by three or four re-spectable persons, charged with misrepresenting facts and intimidating the freedmen at the Registry office, and the said charges being proved by the evidence of the freedmen themelves, the General issued the following order discharging him from the police force:-

Headquarters Fifth Millitary Division, New Obleans, April 23, 1867.—Thomas N. Boylan, Aide to the Unief of Police, having, on the 18th inst., intimidated freedmen by making false representations to them, thereby obstructing the law by causing them to leave the vicinity of the registering office in the First District of the city, is hereby discharged from the police force of the city of New Orleans from 12 o'clock M. to down. M. to-day.

By command of Maj. Gen. P. H. SHERIDAN.
Signed-G. L. Hautsuff, A. A. G.

The bodies of Union soldiers which were interred during the war in Cypress Grove Ceme-tery No. 2, on the outskirts of the city, are being removed for final interment to the battle-field f Chalmette. In the Cypress Grove Cemetery the remains of over five thousand soldiers were interred. Some of the graves were never marked; others were numbered with headboards, the number corresponding to names on the hospital register. Some of these boards are decayed, while others have been lost. bodies were placed in pine or cypress coffins and buried about two feet below the surface. Even at that depth the bodies were submerged

MEXICO.

INEPPECTUAL ATTEMPT OF MAXIMILIAN TO CUT HIS WAY OUT OF QUERETARO-LATEST NEWS FROM VERA CRUZ.

The following additional news from Mexico was brought by the United States gunboat Tanoma, which arrived at Galveston on the 22d inst., from Tampico April 17.

A despatch had been received in Tampico from Juarez, dated April 13, which stated that Maximilian and the garrison at Queretaro had about that time attempted to cut their way out, but were badly repulsed. The Emperor, it is believed, will surely be bagged. The Tahoma's news from Vera Cruz reports that place invested by the Liberals with five thousand troops, commanded by Mendez, on the south, and two thousand on the north under La Vega. All access to the city was cut off, and provisions scarce inside. The last beef had been killed, and meat sold at a dollar a pound. The Liberals had driven off a herd pound. The Liberals had drived on starva-of five hundred sheep and goats, and starva-tion was imminent. The city was being shelled.

BORHARIAN PRIGRIMS .- Seventeen deputies from Bokhara and the neighboring countries arrived at Moscow on the 17th of March. They were dressed in bright-colored silk or velvet cloaks, colored shirts and trousers, and embroidered caps on their shaven heads. Those who have performed the pligrimage to Mecca and Medina wear white turbans. Their principal drink is tea, and their food, which is prepared by their own cooks, consists chiefly of rice and raisins. They smoke a great deal of tobacco, and sometimes opium.

A New Propriecy .- Dr. Cumming has published in London another prophetic book. called "The Last Woe," in which he says that the Jews are to be converted as a nation, and the Papacy is to be extinguished, between the autumnal equinox of 1867 and the same period of 1868. The time is short.

A Woman's Spream,-An English yournal says:- "Lady orators have become so ins. eparably associated in people's minds with effor to at the suppression of the other sex, and assertions of the right to wear tronsers, that, as a general rule, no one has a greater appreciation or female eloquence than he has for curtain lectures. Of quite another sort, however, was Mrs. Stirling's speech, returning thanks for the ladies at the dinner of the Dramatic and Equestrian Sick Fund Association. There was nothing masculine in her eloquence. It was a woman's appeal in aid of old age and suffering, and we are sure that the charity of few who heard it took the dreaded form of Sydney Smith's gentleman, "who was willing enough to do the good Samaritan without the oil and wopence.
