AN ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD THE REVE-

An Alleged Attempt to Defrauding of the Revenue came up this noon before United States Commissioner Hibler. The defendants were Jas. Degorge, Frank Adams, and E. C. Clarke. The first witness called was Mr. Amos J. Michener, who affirmed as follows:—

I am a United States Inspector; I visited the place of these defendants; begorge is established at No. 128 S. Water street he is rectifier and wholesale and retail dealer in liquors; Adams' place is at No. 129 in the same street; he is engaged in the same business; I visited these pieces on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock: I went in company with the officers; I went to Adams' place and saw Mr. Clarke in the act of passing checks for the cayment of whisky; the amount of the checks were one for $1280-49, which he held in bis hand, payable to the order of E. C. Clarke; the other was for $25 67%; I asked what the checks were for, and they answered it was for whisky purchased; Adams said it was soid at $2.45 and Degorge at $2.25. The name of William B. Grover was signed to both the checks; I inquired for the key of Adams' warehouse, and he said the drawman had it. Degorge said he had sold six barrels; it these were i roof-spirits the lowest price three could be soid at would be $2.00 per gallon; at the price of $2.25 the six barrels would be valued at $670, whereas the check for said sale was but $358 67%; Int. Degorge had not the book required by law; on the saleshook of Degorge there was an entry of a sale of six barrels of whisky or 248 gallons, which at $2.25 would amount to $547.

Mr. Adams said that he had sold sixteen barrels the day before, but the sale was cancelled the day preceding on account of some misunderstanding with Mr. Clarke there were $22 gallons, which would make a cost of over $500; he had not the books showing purchases, sales, shipments, etc., required by law; the real amount, or the lowest price at which this liquor could be sold, would call for about $700 over and above what the check for said sale called for; all that I saw Clark do was the pass LARCENY OF A WATCH.—Last evening Charles Smith, a young man, in company with some friends, stepped into Lewis Schaeffer's 'sloon, at No. 842 North Thirteenth street. While the others were engaged in familiar conversation with the keeper, Smith, on some pretext, went out and soon returned. Again he went out, as it was supposed in the yard, but it is alleged that the lady of the house saw him up-stairs. Nothing was said. Smith came down, and, s'anding close to one of his acquaintances, slipped a silver watch slily into the latter's pocket. When they left, this person put his band into his pocket, brought forth the watch, and, handing it to Smith, said, "This is not my watch; If you are a thief, I am not." Smith took the watch and said nothing. The loss was discovered, and late last night the officers proceeded to Smith's residence, No, 1211 Ogden street, and attempting to arrest Smith the younger, he was beset by all the other Smiths belonging to the household. Smith, Sr., and Smith, Jr., were finally taken into custody, and, at a hearing before Aiderman Massey, Charles was held in $1000 ball. William, the father, for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty, was held in $000 ball to appear at Court. LARCENY OF A WATCH .- Last evening Charles

The Morality of Our City.—Our readers have doubtless observed by the presentment of the Grand Jury for the April term, a marked decrease of crime. This is due, in a great measure, to the severity of the Judges in punishing offenders, and to the watchfulness of the police. There are 334 cases less this term than there were for the corresponding term of 1866. Occasionally there is a terrible crime that startles the community by its horrible details, such as the case of Mrs. Magliton; but the cases of assault and battery, burglary, and fraud, to which we had almost become accustomed, seem to have ceased, and those who committed such deeds have at last learned goolness.

Our police reporter, in making his usual rounds this morning, met with no case worse than drunkenness. The citizens of Philadelphis have cause to congratulate themselves on THE MORALITY OF OUR CITY .- Our readers phis have cause to congratulate themselves on the improved state of the morality of this city, especially as the population is increasing with rapid strides; and it is but natural to suppose that crime would keep pace with it.

Some Trouble with a Painter.—A good German citizen, who resides at Beach street and Laurel, surveyed the outer and inner appearance of his domicile, and concluded that an application of paint would do it no harm. So a day or two since he employed Daniel O'Connell, a master of the brush, to transform his residence. Now, it is alleged that Daniel went to work inside, and soon numerous placards marked "paint" gave evidence that the transformation was going on. Yesterday afternoon it was discovered, as given in evidence, that with the metamorphosis a transfer was made from the bureau drawer to the painter's made from the bureau drawer to the painter's pocket of articles such as finger and carrings, breastpins, and five dollars in money. Officer Cave was informed, and after a chase of five squares held on to the painter, and took him before Alderman Massey, who committed him

RESIGNED-A SUBSTANTIAL TESTIMONIAL .-Yesterday afternoon Mr. G. B. Stockdale, who Yesterday afternoon Mr. C. R. Stockdane, who for so long a time past—seventeen years—has been the Principal of the Madison Boys' Grammar School, resigned his position. The school-room was filled with scholars, who were warmly attached to their teacher, who now was about to sunder the official tie which bound him to the school, but not that of friendship and love, which would be ever cherished. A testimonial which would be ever cherished. A testimonial in the substantial shape of a set of silverware was presented by the pupils, to which the teachers added a beautiful silver pitcher and saiver. Addresses were made and attentively listened to. Mr. Stockdale resigns his position to assume the duties incumbent upon him, he being appointed First Deputy in the Collector's Office, of the First District, by Mr. Charles

Overbeek, southwest corner of Eleventh and Vine streets, and presented him with a solid silver cornet, valued at $300, as a substantial evidence of their appreciation of his efforts on frequent occasions where the services of the band have been required. The presentation speech was made in a neat and appropriate manner by Colonel Stephen N. Winslow, of the Commercial List, and the reply by Professor McClarg in his usual happy style after which the party were invited to a sumpthous entertainment. ASSAULT AND BATTERIES .- Robert Smith yes

Assault and Batteries.—Robert Smith yes-ternay assaulted Mr. Rumford, manager of the Beading Railroad stables, corner of Sixteenth and Willow streets. It is alleged he struck Mr. Rumford without any provocation whatever, He was arrested at Fifteenth and Willow streets, and was held by Alderman Hutchinson in $800 ball. Daniel O. Hurn, for displaying his pugilistic

WANTED LIGHT, BUT FOUND DARKNESS .- Wil-WANTED LIGHT, BET FOUND DARKNESS.—William Grubb, in a manner as yet unknown, appropriated a number of tallow candles from a store at Third and Callowhill streets last evening. FIRE THIS MORNING—A CHIED BURNED TO DEATH, AND FIREMAN SERIOUSLY INJURED.— DEATH, AND FIREMAN SERIOUSLY INJURED.—About half-past ten o'clock this morning a flie broke out in a house on the nothwest corner of Acorn alley and Locust street. The fire originated in the third story, which was consumed. It was occupied by a colored woman ty the name of Mrs. Mary Crippin, and her mother. Mary had two children, aged respectively six and eight years, named Virginia and Mary. This morning when she went to work she left the children locked in the room.

They found some matches, and while playing with them set fire to the bedclothes, and were

The firemen reached the apartment by means of the ladders, and Messrs. apariment by means of the ladders, and Messrs, Richard Keich, of the Good Intent, and James Fearon, of the Schuylkill Hose Companies, brought the children down. Both were severely burnt, and Virginia died in a few moments. Mary was so scriously burned that her recovery is deemed impossible. Chief Engineer Lyle had his hair ainged in attempting to rescue the children, While the firemen were engaged in extinguishing the flames, an axe was carelessly dropped from a neighboring house, striking in its fail a lad named Richard Kelly, who was standing on the pavement, and inflicted so serious a wound on his head that he is not expected to recover. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where his wounds were dressed.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT! By virtue of authority vested in me by the Constitution of the United States, I hereby declare and order that all that part of the North American Continent situated north of the 60th parallel of north latitude, heretofore known in our school geographies as the "Russian Possessions in North America," now known as "A big thing on ice," shall not interfere with the rights of other States by intruding its local peculiarities into their territory without the invitation or consent of such States. Complaint is made by many of the Middle States, particularly those whose chief products are peaches and strawberries, that an unnecessary and unwarrantable series of "frosts" and "cold snaps" have been thrust upon them ever since that territory of icebergs has been reckoned in the Union. And notwithstanding that efforts have been made by many, including the celebrated Clothiers, Charles Stokes & Co., under the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, to render the citizens of the said Middle States warm and comfortable, by providing suitable and chesp clothing, it is understood many are still unprovided for-I therefore order that all persons shall thus provide themselves with suitable clothing from that House within thirty days from the date of this proclamation.

NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE UNION PAPER COLLAR CO.,

New York, May 3, 1867. )
A notice to the public headed "A Commantion of MANUFACTURERS," has recently appeared, in which certain parties, claiming to be wholesale dealers in Paper Collars, Cuffs. etc., have certainly dealt in wholesale abuse of this Company, its patents, and its dealings with the trade and the public,

"The respectability of many of the parties whose names are attached to that document entitles it to notice, because it is apparent that they at least have been misled into signing it without a knowledge of the truth or falsity of its statements.

A brief statement of facts as to the suits brought by this Company and their present condition will readily dispose of the chief allegation, viz., that we are attempting to enforce by threats patents which we do not dare to enforce by process of law. Under advice of our counsel, we brought at an early ustern c.tics. For the suit in Boston, we selected as use of Charles Well & Co., as repreuse of Charles Weil & Co., as repre-. . . . H. Ward, of New York. That suit was disposed of by the defendants submitting to a perpetual injunction, and a decree against them has been entered accordingly. In New York we brought our suit against the house of J. R. Blossom & Co., said Mr. Blossom being President of the so-called "The Paper Collar Manufacturers' Association" of New York. To this suit two styles of defense have been adopted-the one being an attack upon the character of our corporation, which certainly is not likely to test the validity of our patents, and the other an answer to our bill in equity, of so vague and general a character that our counsel has been obliged to apply to have it striken off or so amended as to give us some information as to the defense really intended to be made under it. Our third case, brought in Philadelphia, is against Cornellus Van Densen, Henry Boehmer, and John Van Deusen, trading as the firm of Van Deusen.

Boehmer & Co., who are agents of the Keystone Paper Collar Company, so-called. In this suit the only defense taken by Henry Boehmer and John Van Deusen was a plea, "that the said Cornelius Van Deusen is not nor has he been, since the first day of January, 1866, a member of the said firm of Van Deusen, Boehmer & Co., nor in anywise connected in business with these defendants; but that Isanc Van Deusen, of the city of Philadelphia. and a citizen of the State of Pennsylvania, is and has been, ever since the first day of January, 1806, a member of the said firm of Van Deusen, Boehmer & Co. and connected in business with these defendants, as constiners in the business of manufacturing paper collars." And the only defense made by Cornellus Van Deusen was, "that he is not, and has not been since the 1st day of January, 1886, a member of the said firm of Van Deusen, Boehmer & Co., nor is he nor has he been, since the date last aforesaid, in any way connected in business with the said Henry Boenmer and John Van Deusen." The sufficiency of these pleas is yet to be determined by the Court. Those who were induced to sign the "Notice" may from the technical defense, judge for themselves what party has afforded, and which has avoided, a full opportunity to try the real merits of the cause. It must be personally known to most of the parties signing that "notice," that we have also commenced. numerous other suits upon our patents, almost all those parties being themselves defendants in such suits, and each one of them having therefore an excellent opportunity to ascertain by personal experience whether we are in earnest or not, and whether those who promise indemnity will furnish it or not. For the benefit of those who desire to know where they can safely purchase goods made under our parents, we subjoin a list of our licenses:-AMERICAN MOLDED COLLAR CO., Boston,

DR. WISHART.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIAT DYSPERSIA HAS THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

let. A constant pain or uneasiness in the pit of the Stomach—Which is caused by a permanent contraction of the stomach upon the undigested food. It generally begins immediately or a short time after eating; is often very severe and obstinate.

2d. Flatulence and Acidity.—These symptoms arise from the indigestion of food, which ferments instead of digesting.

3d. Costiveness and Loss of Appetite.—These symptoms are the effects of the unnatural condition of food in the stomach, and the want of a pure bile and gastrie juice. The stomach is often painfully distended by wind; the appetite is sometimes voracious.

4th, Gloom and Depression of Spirits.—This state unfits many for the enjoyment of life, and is caused by the impure blood furnished by imperfect digestion. In this stage of the disease many persons commit suicide, There is a constant foreboding of evil, and an indifference and positive inability to perform the offices of life.

5th. Diarrhosa.—After being at first costive, the sufferer is afflicted with diarrhosa, which is owing to a diseased condition of the bowels, produced by the undigested food, which is evacuated in the same condition as when eaten, and of course gives no strongth to the system.

oth. Pains in all Parts of the System—Arise from the action of impure blood upon the nerves. They are felt chiefly in the head, sides, and breast, and in the extremilies. In many cases there is an uneasiness in the throat, with a sense of choking or suffocation; the mouth is often clammy, with a bad taste and a furred tongue.

7th. Consumptive Symptoms and Palpitation of the Heart.—Many persons pronounced as having these diseases have, in fact, nothing but Dys-pepsia, the lung and heart disease being only symptoms.

8th. Cough,—This is a very frequent symptom of Dyspepsia, and leads very often into confirmed consumption.

9th. Want of Sleep.—A very distressing symptom, resulting from mental derangements.

loth. Symptoms of External Relation.—The patient is affected painfully by cold and heat, which is owing to unnatural dryness of skin, and the skin is often affected by eruptions and tetters. The gloomy dyspeptic avoids society as much as possible, lith. Vomiting.—A frequent and distressing symptom. It relieves the pain, but emaciates and wears out the patient.

12th. Dizziness, dimness of vivion, headache, and staggering in walking.—These are very alarming symptoms, which are speedily removed by our medicines; but if neglected are quickly followed by numbness and sudden death.

13th. It is impossible for us to give all the symptoms of Dyspepaia in so small a space, but the above are considered sufficient, if we add that the patient loses his memory and regard to surraunding objects, and frequently becomes morose and sour in disposition. We should say, however, that pains in the joints and stiffness of the limbs, which go by the name of rheumatism and neuralgia, are produced by Dyspepsia. Also, a hardness of the muscles of the abdomen, which becomes contracted and hard; and in some cases the belly sinks, instead of being gently prominent.

gently prominent. N. B.-Perhaps we have not said enough of that strongest symptom of Dyspepsia, melancholy. We have examined hundreds of cases of Dyspepsia, who were so much affected in their minds that they constantly forbode loss of their reason, which unfitted them for business of any kind, and many of them have been patients of the Insane Asylum, who are now permanently cured by our medicine. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly, and hundreds of thousands of the best men and women of America linger in pain and die, and fill a premature grave, with that awful disease, Dyspepsia. They try this physician and that physician, but alas! alas! no relief, no cure; and the next we hear of them they have gone "to that bourne from whence no traveller returns," Out of the thousands of cases of Dyspepsia that have used Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial, not one of them has failed of a perfect cure. We warrant a perfect cure in every case, no matter if it be twenty years' standing. Sold by all druggists everywhere, and at Dr. Wishart's Office, No. 10 N. Second street, Philadelphia, Pa. All examinations and consultations free of charge. Send for a circular. Price of Pills, One Dollar per box. Sent by mail, free of charge,
