HORRIBLE CRIME.

Yesterday morning, Mrs. Sophia Heintzleman, living at No. 113 Eighth street, appeared before Justice Mansfeld, at the Essex Market Police Court, and related to the magistrate, under oath, an almost incredible story, of which the following is the substance:—On the 7th day of December, 1860, a friend of hers, named Mrs. Hartel, residing in the same house, died, leaving a widower sud an infant child, seven days old, named Katy, a god-daughter to the complainant. For reasons best known to himself, the unnatural father determined upon destroying his child, and for that purpose sought the assistance of Mrs. Heintzleman, who was engaged to take care of the girl and bring her up. He frequently told her that he wished her to expose the child to the cold and damp air with insufficient clothing, so that she would take cold and die, which the woman refused to do. At one time, when the girl was sick, the father sent for Dr. Heury F. Topping, of No. 72 Rivington street, who prescribed a mixture which he said would effect a cure. Suspecting something wrong, the woman did not administer the medicine to the child, but carried it to a chemist, who upon careful examination dis-FATHER CONSPIRES WITH A PRYSICIAN TO wrong, the woman did not administer the medicine to the child, but carried it to a chemist, who, upon careful examination, discovered that it contained a large quantity of prussic acid. In this attempt, as in many others, he was foiled by the vigilance of the woman, who guarded her charge with the utmost care. upon such a charge, in order that the truth n gnt be ascertained.

The above statement was corroborated by the husuand of the complainant, and also by Mary Heuk, a domestic in his employ. The latter testified that she heard Hartel say at one time that the child would surely die on the succeed-ing Friday, and that all the arrangements had been made for the funeral.

Ut on the strength of the affidavits submitted, Justice Mansfield is ned warrants for the arrest of both Hartel and Dr. Topping, which was effected at a late hour in the afternoon by Sergenri Fotter and Officer Chandler of the Court squad. The magistrate demanded $1000 bail from each of the prisoners. Dr. Topping fur-nished the required surety, and was released. Hartel, not being able to get bail, was com-mitted in default. Both the accused asserted their innocence, and claim that they will be able at examination, which will take place on Friday next, to show a clear case of malicious

OBITUARY.

HON. ORVILLE H. BROWNING, SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

This gentleman died yesterday at Washington, after a painful and protracted illness. Mr. Browning was a native of Kentucky. His parents were poor but respectable, and during the intervals of labor on their farm allowed the deceased to attend the Harrison county school, where he obtained a good English education. He afterwards removed to Augusta, where he attended the college at that place, distinguishing himself by his attention and ability in academic studies. In the spring of 1831, after having been admitted to the bar, he emigrated to Illinois, settling at Quincy, and soon obtained a large and lucrative prac-

He served as a private during the Black Hawk war, and in 1836 married Miss Eliza Caldwell, of Richmond (Kentucky). During the same year he was elected to the Senate of Illinois, in which he served four years. Subsequently he was elected to the House of Representatives, and, after serving one term, refused a re-election. Except in 1843, when he was defeated for Congress by Mr. Douglas, Mr. Browning remained in private life until 1861. At that time he was appointed by Governor Yates, of Illinois, to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate caused by the death of Mr. Douglas. In 1866, after the retirement of Mr. Harlan, President Johnson appointed him Secretary of the Interior, which position he held at the time of his death. Mr. Browning was originally a Whig, and afterwards a Republican; but in the dispute between the President and Congress took strong conservative grounds .- N. Y. Herald.

MRETING OF THE LEHIGH COAL AND NAVIGATION COMPANY,—The annual meeting of the stock-holders of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation holders of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company was held this morning at half-past 10 o'clock, at the Board of Trade Rooms.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. S. Cox, President, who moved that Mr. Caleb Cope take the chair, which being carried, Mr. William Mitchell was named as Secretary of the meeting, the Secretary being absent, and having the minutes of the Association in his possession. The report was read and laid aside temporarily, and the minutes of the last meeting were then read and approved. The adoption of the report of the Board of Managers was then taken up and read. Managers was then taken up and read.
On motion the meeting adjourned, and proceeded to the election of officers, when the fol-

The annual report showed the following facts in relation to the operations of the Company:-In relation to the operations of the Company:—

The total amount of coal carried on the Canal in 1888 was 1,066,000 tons, an increase of 30 per cent, on the business of 1865. The total amount of freight of all kinds carried was 1,291,000 tons, an increase of 23 per cent. The production of coal from the Company's mines was 528,800 tons. The tonnage of the Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroad, going both ways, was 647,000 tons against 357,000 in 1865, an increase of 79 per cent. The road from White Haven to Penn Haven is now in operation, and locomotives run continually from Wilkesbarre to the head of navigation, a distance of Wilkesharre to the head of navigation, a distance of fitty-four miles.

The profits for the year, though not so large as those of previous years, would probably be deemed satisfactory, nevertheless, considering the reduced rates of transportation which prevailed during the year, and the excessively low prices at which coal was sold during the latter part of the season, and also the fact that notwithstanding the great progress made in the construction of the new railroads, the only portions in operation during the year were from Wilkesbarre to White Haven, and the six miles from Penn Haven to the head of navigation.

The profits were as follows:

From water and ground-rents.

From sales of town lots.

From toils on navigation.

The profits and transportation on the Lenign and Susquehauna, and Nanticoke Railroads and Use of cars.

THE SEA-SIDE.—There is some consolation in a knowledge of the fact, that the present damp and gloomy weather cannot last for an indefinite period, without some intermission. In two or three weeks, in fact, we may confidently anticipate a return of something ap-proximating to the summer heats. Then is the time and the proper occasion for a jaunt to the sea-side. Many persons labor under the delu-sion that it is neither becoming nor pleasant to frequent a watering-place before the first of July but never were people more mistaken. July, but never were people more mistaken. A bath in oid ocean early in summer or late in the fall is much more invigorating than on a sultry August day. And if the sea-side world could but persuade themselves to look at the matter in the true light, they would soon be forced by the prevailing outlook in fastion. forced, by the prevailing opinion in fashion-able circles, to leave the city a full month earlier than is customery at present. For the the benefit of such as desire to bring about this change, as well as of those who set summer fashions at utter defiance, the Surf House, at Atlantic City, will be opened this season on Saturday, the first of June. This favorite resort has been thoroughly overhauled during the winter, and its accommodations will be found to be superior, even to what they were last year. As for Mr. William T. Caleb. the proprietor, it is unnecessary to say anything more than to remind our readers that he is the most genial and the most painstaking of sea-side

SALE OF HIGH CLASS AMERICAN AND Foreign Paintings:—We would call the attention of all our readers to the sale of Highest Class Paintings, which takes place this evening, and to be continued on Wednesday and Thursday evenings following, at Scott's Art Gallery, No. 1920 Chesnut street. These paintings are all first-class specimens of art of the leading artists, English. Flemish, French, and Dusseldorf schools. We would advise all those who want fine pictures to take advantage of these sales, as they are the last important ones of the season, and such another chance will not be afforded for some time to come. They are to be sold positively without any reserve what-FOREIGN PAINTINGS:-We would call the attenbe sold positively without any reserve what-ever by B. Scott, Jr.

A DISHONEST BEGGAR .- One of the many impositions upon the benevolent public was revealed yesterday in the person of Isaac Willisbach, an aged Israelite, who, with sorrowful mien, clothed with ragged apparel, and looking mien, clothed with ragged apparel, and looking a most disconsolate and destitute object, was receiving money and clothing from the citizens in the vicinity of Eighth and Buttonwood streets. Detective Reeder made an examination of this apparent object of charity, and on him found in a leather bag beneath his vest two one hundred dollar bills, and sixty-five dollars in smaller notes. He was bound over by Alderman Beitler for obtaining money under false pretences. false pretenses.

COUNTY CONVENTION OF UNIVERSALISTS .- The Universalists will hold their annual Philadelphia County Convention for the transaction of all business connected with their religious faith, on Wednesday (to-morrow) afternoon and evening, at the Church of the Messiah, Thir-teenth and Locust streets. The afternoon session will be devoted mainly to the transaction of business. At the evening session, com-mencing at 8 o'clock, the annual sermon will be delivered by Dr. Thayer, of Boston, a learned and eloquent divine. The Sunday School chil-dren of the Universalist churches in the city will participate in the singing. The occasion will no doubt be of great interest.

Reckless Driving .- R. E. Jones was arrested for racing in Faltmount Park yesterday afterneon, to the great danger of those who had visited that place of resort for a time of quiet pleasure. Alderman Massey fined and held him to keep the peace.

George Snaaf, for reckless driving at Fifth and Jefferson, whereby one A. Peterhoff sustained painful injuries, was committed by Alderman Toland to answer.

Wholesale Wife-Beating,-James McKinley was brought before Alderman Swift this morning, charged with a brutal assault and battery on his wife. She bore marks on her face and neck of a rather severe beating. The brutal husband was bound over in the sum of $500 to appear at Court.
James McCracken and James Dougherty were charged with similar offenses before Alderman Swift, who held each in $500 ball to appear at Court.

COLONEL JAMES BUCHANAN CROSS, the notorious forger and swindler, passed through this city last night, on his way to Chicago. For travelling companions, the Colonel was hon-ored with the attentions of several detectives from the latter place, and a sharp eye upon his movements was kept by them, lest at any moment he should give them the slip. It is to be hoped that this consummate rascal will at last receive his just deserts.

Doing Damage Generally,-John McCartney, last evening, being about half intoxicated, went into the residence of Mr. Wear, on Dock and Water streets, and did then and there, in the absence of the inmales, demolish furniture by wholesale, deeming it a great pleasure to smash everything in his way. He was arrested, and computed by Aldarman Rotler to answer and committed by Alderman Butler to answer at Court.

SPEAKER COLFAX will this evening repeat his popular lecture entitled "Across the Conti-nent," at the National Hall, on Market street, above Twelfth; after which, by express invita-tion, he will visit the Union League. This is the last lecture to be delivered by Mr. Colfex, and all who desire to hear him should embrace the opportunity now offered.

A Collision .- About 7 o'clock this morning the West Chester train collede with car il of the Chesnut and Walnut passenger cars, at Thirty-first and Chesnut streets. The latter was almost entirely demolished, but, fortunitely, the car was empty and nobody was injured, although the attaches of the car were considerably frightened. considerably frightened.

AN ASSAULT ON A LADY .- Robert Springfield, As Assault of a hapt.—Housert springfield, a young man aged eighteen, was arrested last evening for having assaulted Miss Ellen Weberly, in the Park at the intersection of the Baltimore pike with Forty-second street, It is alleged that he knocked her down, and otherwise maltreated her. He was committed by Aiderman Allen to answer at Court, THERATENINGS.—William Leary is said to have long entertained bitter hostlity against a man with whom he had a slight altereation. It is alleged that he lately threatened to put an end to the earthly existence of said person, by means of a suife. For this threat he was accessed and hound over by Alderman Massay arrested and bound over by Alderman Massey in the sum of $800 ball to answer at Court.

THE REV. DR. M. A. DE WOLFE HOWE.—
The Rev. Dr. M. A. De Wolfe Howe, rector of St.
Luke's P. E. Church, having been assigned the arduous yet welcome task of writing a memorial of the late lamented Bishop Potter, has left the city for his summer residence, at Bristol, R. I., where, in quiet retirement, he will complete the memorial. The Rev. Dr. will be absent for several months. On Sunday last he entered on the twenty-second year of his ministry at St. Luke's Church, and stated to his congregation that he had declined the call to the church in Rhode Island, and would resume his official functions in October next. During the church in Rhode Island, and would resume his official functions in October next. During his absence the Rev. Mr. Lounsberry will offici-ate in his stead. Dr. Howe is peculiarly fitted, by ability and association, to write the memorial mentioned. He has also been chosen to deliver a discourse commemorative of Bishop Potter in July next, before the Alumni of Union College, Schenectady. N. THACKERAY'S WORKS,—We have received from G.W.Pitcher, No. 808 Chesnut street, a copy of the first of the diamond edition of Thackersy, issued by M. Doolady, New York. The work before us is "Pendennis," and is got up in the same style as Ticknor & Field's beautiful diamond edition of Dickens. It is really a miracle of cheapness. It contains twelve illustrations. and is well printed on good paper, with clear type and handsome binding. ONE OF THE BROWNS IN TROUBLE.-Lieutenant Leighton, of the Sixth District, arrested James Brown, who had taken a pair of unmentiona-bles from a fellow boarder at the house corner of Tenth and Vine streets. The goods were recovered at a pawnbroker's shop. Alderman Hibberd committed Brown to answer.

LARCENY OF SHOES .- It is alleged that Anne Young went into a shoe store No. 910 Spring Garden street, and appropriated a pair of shoes. Complaint was made to an officer near by, when Abne was arrested in her career, and, being taken before Alderman Massey, was held in $800 ball to answer at Court.

A Pugilistic Encounter occurred between one Pat. Powers and the goat-catchers, He attempted to stop the officers from catching all those animals that were allowed to ramble about the streets. Alderman Tunison commit-ted Powers to answer at Court, in default of $500

Meeting in St. Louis. St. Louis, May 7.—The meeting of the workingmen at the Court House last night was large.

enthusiastic, harmonious, and quiet. Several prominent speakers addressed the meeting, ail of whom deprecated violence of any kind, and strongly urged unity of action and determination to stand by the eight-hour. The following resolutions were adopted:—

Resolved, That the workingmen of the city of St. Louis, in council assembled, do herebydeclare that we are determined, as law-abiding clustens, to enforce the law making eight hours a legal day's work, and will accept a reaso able reduction of our wages.

Resolved, That we will disconnenance any attempt to enforce the law by any improper means, believing our cause too just to be carried by any other means than moral suasion. than moral suasion.

Resolved, That we invite the opponents of the Eight-Hour law to meet us, at any time and place they may deem proper, to discuss the merits or demerits of the question before the public.

Considerable excitement occurred yesterday among the workingmen in East St. Louis, and a riot was imminent at one time, but matters vere quieted down by an earnest appeal from the leading men.

The laborers were finally induced to go to work on the eight-hour rule for a proportionate reduction in wages.

THE BOSTON STOCKJOBBING CASE.

Boston, May 6.—John Leighton, the unhappy stockjobber, is still in limbo at the Suffolk Jail. He was disappointed in not receiving his bail at the last moment, when its receipt was almost certain.

This afternoon the accused was in the Supreme Judicial Court petitioning Justice Foster for a writ of habeas corpus. The court-room was crowded with men familiar on 'Change daily, who seemed deeply interested in the goings on. Ex-Governor John A. Andrew and Oliver Stephens appeared for Leignton, and J. M. Keith for the plaintiffs in the writ against him.

The petition as read on the charge of the petitioner was arrested on the charge of the ch tioner was arrested on the charge of having converted, with Evans, sixty thousand dollars of the money of the Franklin Mining Company to his own use, and alleges that he has not converted any part of the same to his own use, and is not guilty, and the damages were fixed at one hundred thousand dollars, so as to keep him from liberty. The Treasurer, Mr. Charles Emory, and the Director of the Franklin Mining Company, Aaron W. Spencer, who caused the arrest to be made, were both examined very minutely. The President testified that the books show a deficiency of $51.759.

After the examination John A. Andrew stated that it had been shown that Leighton was liable to arrest for $9400 which he had used to redeem stock, but not to anything more. more. The Court finally ruled that the evidence had brought out the fact that Leighton had not accounted for this $9400, and therefore his bail should be fixed at $12,000. His ball will probably be obtained in the morning. HEARING AT THE CENTRAL STATION. -Before Alderman Beitler, at 2 o'clock to-day, Charles Fortescue, Isaac Warnick, and John Irwin were charged with entering the house of Lewis Hirsch, on Coates street, above Fifth, and purloining a veivet cloak, half-a-dozen silver tea-spoons, $15 in currency, a silver medal, gold rings, pencils, coins, and several other articles, valued at about $200. Most of the articles were recovered.

Stacy Haines saw Forlescue running from the direction of the house, through the lumber, yard at Fifth and Brown streets, about 3 o'clock at Fifth and Brown streets, about a o'clock yesterday afternoon.
Julius Vandever testified that he saw two parties in the lumber yard, and thought, from his appearance, Fortescue was one of them.
Detectives Henderson and Charles Smith arrested the parties, and found a serew-driver on Fortescue, and a chisel and the coins on Warnick, who is known by the name of Holyes.

Holfres. They were held in $5000 ball for a further hearing on Saturday next. Philada, Stock Exchange Sales, May 7
