THE HON. ALEXANDER G. CATTELL, U. S. S. -A SUBSTANTIAL TESTIMONIAL.—Senator Cat-tell, of New Jersey, is a native of Salem, in that tell, of New Jersey, is a native of Saiem, in that State, where he was born on the 12th of February, 1816. His only opportunities for acquiring an education were such as the village school afforded; and even this was not always available, as a considerable portion of his youth was passed as a cierk in his father's store. In 1840, however, he had become so well known that he was elected a member of the State Legislature. From 1842 to 1844 be served as Clerk to the From 1842 to 1844 he served as Clerk to the House of Assembly, and during the latter year was a member of the State Constitutional Convention. In 1846 Mr. Cattell removed to Philadelphia, where he resided until 1856, when he again changed his residence to New Jersey. On settling in Philadelphia he established the commission and forwarding business which is still carried on by the firm of A. G. Cattell & Co., No. 26 North Delaware avenue. He also became a Director in the Mechanics Bank, and subsequently President of the Corn Exchange Bank, which owes its existence to his efforts, and is still pre-From 1842 to 1844 he served as Clerk to the owes its existence to his efforts, and is still pre-spect over by him. During the war he was zealous and untiring in his efforts in behalf of the national cause, freely giving both time and money towards recruiting and fitting out the celebrated Corn Exchange Regiment. After an exciting and protracted contest, he was in September last elected to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate caused by the ousting of the Hon. John P. Stockton. Senator Cattell entered upon the discharge of his new duties at once, and before the close of the first session had worked his way into the front ranks of our national legislators. He was especially instrumental in securing the passage through the Senate of the bill accepting League Island as an iron-clad naval depot, laboring side by side with Senators Grimes, of laboring side by side with Senators Grimes, of Iowa, and Hendricks, of Indians, while the two representatives of Pennsylvania sat list-

lessly in their seats.

In return for the substantial services thus rendered Philadelphia, several of our leading citizens, without regard to party lines, are about presenting to Senator Cattell a fitting token of their appreciation. It consists of a complete service, in sterling solid silver, valued at $6000. The service embraces a large salver, two waiters, a coffee urn, tea and water pot, sugar bowl, oyster bowl, cream pitcher, slop bowl, two butter dishes, two castors, napkin rings, dessert spoons, teaspoons, mustard and salt spoons, knives, forks, fish knife, fruit knife, etc., all inclosed in a beautiful velvet-lined case of wainut. The principal pieces are ornamented with a neat Roman border, while the covers and handles of the urn and bowls are set off with female heads in frosted silver. The salver weighs 200 ounces, and is alone worth complete service, in sterling solid silver, valued set off with female heads in frosted silver. The salver weighs 200 ounces, and is alone worth $900. It contains the following inscription:—
"Testimonial of esteem and respect to Hon. Alexander G. Cattell, from a few of his friends. May 14, 1867." The box is accompanied by a handsome scroll, enclosed in a silver case. This scroll contains, in the most beautiful and finished chirography, the names of the contributors to the testimonial together with a view of League Island, with the monitors riding at anchor, and a scene on the river front of the city. The service was completed on Saturday, at the anchor, and a scene of the service was completed on Saturday, at the manufactory of Mr. George Sharp, No.414 Locust street, in this city, and embracing, as it undoubtedly does, the fluest specimen of silverware ever produced in this country, will long remain a substantial token of the skill of Philadelphia silversmiths. On Saturday afternoon the entire service was taken to the residence of Joseph W. Bullock, Esq. No. 1822 Arch street, where it was the centre of attraction to large numbers of our citizens during the course of the evening and this morning. To-morrow merning it will be removed to Senator Cattell's residence, at Merchantsville, N. J. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the Committee on Presentation—consisting of Messrs. Samuel T. Candy, Joseph W. Bullock, Deli Noblit, Henry C. Howell, John F. Gross, C. J. Hoffman, and Edwin H. Fitler—together with the contributors, and a number inhatantial token of the skill of Philadelp together with the contributors, and a number of invited guests, will proceed to Merchants-ville to make the presentation.

More, Shooting and a Probable Homicide.—
A little after 9 o'clock on saturday night, Policeman Camac heard the loud report of firearms coming from the vicinity of Front and Walnut streets. Hastening to the spot, he strived in time to aid a man named Thomas Holland, who had been shot by one William Weaver, the pistol bullet passing in the left breast a little over the left nipple, and going entirely through the left lung. Holland was immediately placed in a carriage and taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital, and at the last report was considered in a critical condition, the ball still remaining in his body. MORE. SHOOTING AND A PROBABLE HOMICIDE .-

in his body.

After shooting Weaver effected his escape, and has not since been heard from. An investigation into the affair disclosed the fact that Holland was the keeper of a tavern on Dock street, above Front, which, as has been alleged, is a resort for all manner of dissipated characters. In this house resided a mistress of Weaver, by the name of Mary Vincent, but better known to the police officers as "Big Msg," she being of great proportion, and of mssculine appearance. Holland, it is said, put her out. Weaver regarding this as an insult to himself, started after Holland, met him at Front and Walnut streets, and after a few words of altercation drew a pistol and shot the words of altercation drew a pistol and shot the 'Big Mag' was arrested the same evening at "Big Mag" was arrested the same evening at the Shamrock House, is a besotted condition, and was locked up in the Third District Station House. The wife of Holland was lately sent to prison for shooting at her spouse, and has attempted three times to put him out of the way. The age of Weaver is about 26, while that of Holland is 50. Too much drink was the main cause of the whole affair.

AN ASSAULT ON FRANKFORD CREEK .- Last evening two young men went out in a skiff to have a good time generally on the Frankford creek. When out in the middle of the stream, James Wall, one of the party, commenced to rock the boat until it dipped water, and did rock the boat until it dipped water, and did other things which placed the other party, Eleazer Barwis, in an uncomfortable position. The latter remonstrated with the former, and requested him to stop. Wall not complying, Barwis up with an oar, and, as he says, simply wanted to tap Wall on the head, but, instead of doing so, struck with considerable force, so much so that, after Wail had returned home, he grew stupid and soon was in spasms, the much so that, after wan has in spasms, the he grew stupid and soon was in spasms, the he grew stupid and soon was in spasins, the blow having greatly injured his brain. Wall was taken to the Episcopal Hospital, where he is undergoing treatment. Barwis was taken in custody to await the result of the injuries he caused to his companion. Alderman Holmes

Proceedings in the Court. Appearance of the Stern Statesman

He is Scated Between Wm. B. Reed and Charles O'Conor.

THE PRISONER RELEASED UPON $100,000 BONDS.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.] RICHMOND, Va., May 13 .- At 11 o'clock this morning, Jeff. Davis was conveyed from his quarters at the Spottswood House to the United States Supreme Court-room, opposite Capitol Square. As early as 10 o'clock a large crowd, composed principally of negroes, assembled in front of the hotel, anxious to get a glimpse of the stern statesman. There was no disturbance or excitement.

Shortly before 11 o'clock, a company of United States cavalry reached the hotel, and had a position on Main street. Carriages were held in readiness for Davis, and preparations, made for a procession to the Court House.

General Burton accomplished, however, a flank movement, for, instead of taking Davis out on the main street, he had him transported to the court-room by means of a back door, and while the crowd were awaiting his ap pearance on the street, Davis was safely ensconced in the Court-room.

The Court-room was filled to its utmost capacity, and guarded outside by United States soldiers. Among those present, in addition to the counsel for the prisoner, and the Prosecuting Attorneys, there were General Granger, John Minor Botts, General Schofield, Colonel Gibson, Judge Onld, General Imboden, General Bradley T. Johnson, Horace Greeley, General Brown, James W. Hunnicutt, Provost-Marshal Griswell, and a number of others.

Davis entered the Court-room at twenty minutes past 11 o'clock, and was assigned a seat in a corner, near Marshal Duncan. He looked pale and haggard, was dressed in a dark suit, black slouch hat, green kid gloves, and carried a cane. He was subsequently provided with a seat near his counsel, and sat between William B. Reed and Charles O'Conor.

The proceedings were opened by Charles O'Conor, who read the writ producing the prisoner in Court. Judge Underwood then relieved General Burton of the custody of the prisoner.

A lengthy speech was made by Mr. O'Conor in favor of admitting Davis to bail, and any amount of bail was offered.

William M. Evarts and District Attorney Chandler then replied to Mr. O'Conor. After some law technicalities were gone through with, Judge Underwood addressed the counsel, and argued the question of admitting the prisoner to bail.

He said it would be satisfactory to the Court, under the circumstances, to admit Mr. Davis to bail in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and he would require ten securities in ten thousand dollars each.

After some further preliminaries, it was decided to admit the prisoner to bail in the sum of $100,000, and twenty gentlemen entered the required amount in the sum of $5000

The names of the securities are as follows:-W. H. McFarland, Barton Haxall, Isaac Davenport, Thomas R. Price, Abraham Warwick, Gustavus A. Miles, W. W. Crump, James Lyons, James Thomas, John A. Meredith, William Allen, William H. Lyons, John Minor Botts, all of Virginia, and Horace Greeley, Augustus Schell, Horace F. Clark, all of the Southern District of New York; Aristides Welch, of the Eastern District of New York;

of Pennsylvania. The two additional securities are, expected from Norfolk this afternoon, and until their arrival Charles O'Conor made himself responsible for the amount assigned them.

and David K. Jackson, of the Eastern District

Jeff. Davis was congratulated freely on the result, and he appeared relieved and gratified. Horace Greeley was the first to sign the bail bond.

Davis got up from his seat, and advancing to Horace Greeley, shook him heartily by the hand, and entered into conversation with him, when Davis left the court-room a free man, for the first time in two years.

The crowd outside all took eff their hats and cheered him lustily as he entered his carriage. He proceeded straight to his quarters at the Spottswood House, where he is now receiving an ovation.

The trial is fixed for the term of the Court which meets on the 4th of next November.

Baltimore, May 13.—The special correspondent of the Sun at Havana says:—The English West India mail steamer arrived from Vera Cruzent the 5th, but brought neither papers nor letters from Mexico.

Vera Cruz was still closely besieged by the Liberals, who were using their only available siege piece with little effect, as only some few houses had been injured, and no lives lost. There was no probability of the Liberals taking the city unless the Imperial Generals should disagree, and thus cause a surrender.

Sickness among the besleged had taken alarming proportions, over 250 invalids being in Medilin.

The city of Mexico was invested on the 18th by General Porfirio Diaz. A commission of ladies who went out asking for terms answered that no quarters would be granted to Generals O'Haran, Marquez, and several others. It was the intention of Marquez to defend the city at all hazards. The besleging force numbers about 12,000, and receives additions daily. The fall of the city was considered certain. Hunger will soon compel the besleged to capitulate, when another massacre of general officers may be expected.

Assaults.-John McCann, and Edward, his brother, were arrested about 9 P. M., yesterday evening at Elevenih and Carpenter streets, by Officers O'Brian and Mink. They had been very disorderly, and engaged in street rows, which led to their arrest.

John had meanwhile run down Milton street, but the officer soon followed, and presenting the sixer, intimated that no more capers would be allowed. He was taken before Alderman Lutz, and committed in default of $800 ball.

Republican Meeting in New Orleans.

New Obleans, May 13.—The Republican mass meeting on Saturday night, in Lafayette square, was presided over by Mayor Heath, and addressed by Judge Kelley, of Philadelphia, Mr. Hamlin, and Mr. Conway. Nothing serious occurred until after midnight, when it is reported that negroes stopped a car on St. Charles street, cleared it of the white occupants, by shoving their clubs through the windows, took possession, and compelled the driver to go ahead. The saloons had been closed at 11 o'clock by order of the Chief of Police.
