THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE NORTHERN HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN. - As was antici-pated, this atlair was a complete success. It was held in the Union M. E. Church, an edifice was held in the childh M. E. Church, an earlied with a capacity for seating two thousand per-sons comfortably. Not only was every seat occupied, but the aisles, vestibules, steps, etc., were packed with a deeply interested audience, while large numbers were unable to gain ad of the speakers Punctually at hall-past 7 o'clock, the house being then filled, a skilfully executed voluntary was performed on the fine organ of the church by Mrs. Mack, which was tollowed by a brief prayer by Dr. Suddards, and an appropriate anthem by the choir of the church, under the leadership of Professor Rev. J. Neill, the gentleman an-Mason, Esq., was called to the chair, which position he filled until the arrival of Rev. Dr. Nadal. The Invocation was then sung by the children in a most effective manner. This was followed by the Salutatory, in which twelve little girls, representing the months of the year, participated. After Scriptural recitations and more singing, his Honor the Mayor was called for, but was non est inventus. This was a disappointment, of course, but was not permitted to interrupt the exercises. They were continued by the singing of the "Alpine Hunters' Horn" by the colldren, which was done in most admirable style. Judge Brewster's turn to adoress the and ence now arrived. He was called for by the Chairman, but, like his Honor, the Mayor, was not on hand. The next exercise was a Grade Dintogue, by muc little girls, who introduced a cradle, and a nicely dressed baby, and in true womanly style prolittle obstreperous, to sleep. The three cradle hymns were sung in a very touching style; the audience expressing its delight in the most mark ed manner. Mrs. Partington's Tea Party, which was performed by four little girls, attired as old lady tea-drinkers, was inimitable in style, and would have done credit to far older performers. Among the features of the evening was the reci-tation of an affecting piece, entitled the "Dying Soldier," by the orphan boy of a deceased soldier. The singing of a most pathetic song by the chil-dren, entitled the "Soldier's Orphanage Song," followed by a most touching appeal to the audience by the Rev. A. Cookman, brought tears to the eyes of very many, and, we nope, a large addition to the funds of the Home.

Judge Pierce and Rey. Mr. Conkling not being present when called for, Colonel McFarland, the State Superintendent of the Soldiers' Or phans' Schools, a veteran who lost his leg at Gettysburg, was introduced by Rev. Dr. Hutter, and delivered a brief but interesting address, in which he adverted to the fact that the State of Pennsylvanta had 4000 soldiers' orphan children under its charge, and appealed powerfully to those present to aid in their support. A collec-tion was taken, during which the "Marching was sung by the children. A little fellow three feet high then took the stand, and in a neat and appropriate address, which was deli vered in a very happy manner, presented a handsome aquarium to A. M. Spangler, in the name of the children and the Home, as an expression of their appreciation of his services for the past three years in the musical department.

Mr. Spangler responded briefly, stating the fact that the proficiency of the children's sing-ing was attributable rather to their great love and aptness for music, than to his attention, as they received but one hour's instruction in cach week. "The Basket of Flowers" was next presented by twelve boys and girls, each one of whom held a neat bouquet, with an appro-priate motto. These bouquets, when collected, formed a beautiful flower-basket, which was handed to Mr. J. W. Claghorn, with the request that it should be by him presented to the twelve lady managers of the Home, there being a bouquet and a motto for each one. Mr. Claghorn received it, and presenting it as desired, made a few happy remarks to the children, after which the "Good Night Song" was sung by the children, and the audience dis-was sung by the children, and the audience dis-missed by Rev. Dr. Hutter. As a whole, the exercises were of the most creditable and interesting character. Notwith-standing the crowded condition of the large church, the structest order was observed throughout. The recitations by the children THE SCHOOL CONTROLIERS .- The Board of School Control held its regular monthly session yesterday afternoon. Mr. Shippen presided. Mr. Elkin moved to refer the communication to the section sending it. This was lost. The name was confirmed. From the seventh section came a similar com-munication, announcing the name of the schoolhouse at Seventeenth and Pine as the Southwest. Confirmed. From the eleventh section, announcing the elec-

Bills amounting to $24,436 37 were reported by the Committee on Accounts. They were approved and directed to be paid. The Committee on Text Books reported a reso-

The Committee on Boys' High School reported a resolution declaring E. J. Houston, A. M., elect-ed Professor of Physical Geography in the High School Assess to school. Agreed to. The Committee on Girls' High School reported a resolution requesting Councils to appropriate the lot of ground occupied by the armory at Broad and Race streets for a new building for the Girls' High School.

Mr. Stanton moved to postpone for the present, until the size of the lot could be reported. Agreed to. The report of the Committee on Accounts, returning several bills without sanction, came up. The bills thus returned were those of G. Glessner & Co., first section, for stationery, considered un-necessary and extravagant; John McManus, second section, stationery, extravagant in quantity and price, was reduced from $93 12 to $55 62 -still excessive; John C. lic money. C. T. Swilkey, J. H. Wisler and J. McGuigan are returned for 1867, but were contracted in 1866 and 1864. That of McGuigan has been sued out and judgment obtained. Lonabaugh & Son, for stationery in nineteenth section, $108 75; extravagant in price and unne-cessary in quantity. The practice of allowing sectional boards, said the report of the committee, to purchase such quantities of stationery as are shown, should re-ceive the condemnation of this Board, for it is evident that the amount purchased by some sectional boards cannot be legitimately used, and if permit-ted will lead to greater excesses. The bills of the First District were rejected. The bills of the Second were laid over.

The bills of the third section were rejected. The bill of Thomas Connelly, for gas pipes, was approved. The bill of Philip H. Lutz was rejected.

The bill of Hubbs & Co., for lounges, was re-

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE FIRE YESTER-DAY MORNING- Loss $100,000.-The main structure of the extensive wopllen and cotton mill of Mr. Simeon Lord was 272 feet in length and 55 feet in width. It was built of stone, and was three stories in height. Immediately adjoining this, on the southwest, is the picker-room, also built of stone, separated from the main building by a heavy wall, which projects above the roof about two feet. Adjoining the picker-room is the engine-room, two stories in height, and the dye and wash-house. These buildings occupy a frontage of 226 feet, and are about the same depth as the principal structure. The fire originated in the extreme conthwestern-most corner of the main building on the second floor. The flames were first discovered by the watchman, who had passed through the apartent about halt an hour previous. The mill contained on the first floor one hundred and fifty looms; the second floor eight full sets of cotton and woollen machinery, and the third floor upwards of tour thousand spin-dies, with the necessary machinery to propel the same, all of which were entirely rulned. The total loss on machinery alone is estimated at $95,000. The foundation of the burned edi-fice was laid in 1862, and the structure was finshed and commenced running during the fol-lowing year. The cost of the structure, in-cluding the picker, engine room, etc., was about $90,000 The walls of the burned mill are not much injured.

The main building, with all its contents of valuable machinery, finished goods, etc., was fotally desuroyed. The entire loss will amount to over $100,000, of which amount $80,000 was ipon machinery.

The insurance on machinery and stock in all the buildings amounted to $94,500, of which $86,112'18 was on machinery and stock in building destroyed.

ANNUAL MEETING .- At the annual meeting d the American Sunday School Union, held yesterday, the following-named gentlemen were Sectoraly, the following-named gentlemen were elected Managers for three years, ending May, 1870:-John M. Atwood, Lewis R. Ashhurst, George Cookman, J. W. C. Leveridge, New York, Benjamin B. Comegys, Charles H. Cummings, Thomas Cooper, James M. Brown, New York, Dr. N. Bishop, New York, Robert Lenox Kennedy, New York, B. G. Godfrey, B. F.

Crozer. The Forty-third Anniversary of this Institution will be held in the Academy of Music on the evening of the 28th inst., an interesting feature of which will be the singing by nearly one thousand Sunday School children.

A MARVELLOUS ESCAPE .- Yesterday afternoon, a little girl named Clarke, residing at No. 1335 Vine street, slipped down the roof from the back attic window. In doing so her hands caught at the extreme edge of the water-pipe, where she hung suspended at the height of four stories, the korror-stricken spectators expecting her to fall every moment. Preparations were made for her rescue, but time was precious, and her mother, a small, frail woman, was seen creeping fearlessly head foremost down the roof until she reached the giddy edge; with great nerve and presence of mind, encouraging the child to hold fast, she reached over and rescued her from a certain and frightful death. She had a narrow escape.

A SEIZURE OF THE "ARDENT."-Within the last two or three days, Revenue Inspectors J. Orlando Tobias and Harry Wolf have seized about five hundred barrels of whisky, which ad been shipped from New York to dealers in this city. The reason of the seizure was the false marking of the barrels. While it was marked rectified it was not so, the object being to admit of it being sold at a price below the Government tax. When whisky is marked "rectified," the presumption is that the Gov-ernment tax has been paid upon it, as it is supposed to have been in bond.

CAMDEN AFFAIRS.

THE CAMDEN HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN. An election of Trustees and Managers for this institution was held yesterday atternoon, at the Home, No. 522 Federal street, with the follow-ing result:-Messrs. G. W. N. Custis, James L. Hinds, John F. Starr, Charles Rhoads, J. C. Delacour, Edward Bettle, George Wardwell, and John C. Stockham were elected to fill vacancies as Trustees, to serve four years. Mrs. Jesse W. Starr, Mrs. Thomas Browning, Mrs. R. C. Clark, homas Lamson, Mr. Mrs. Rebecca Hatch, and Miss Nicholson were elected as Managers, to serve for four years also, the last two for unexpired terms. The other officers remain the same as the previous year. Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Swinney directly superintend the Home, and they are entitled to great credit for the superb manner in which it is kept. In the evening the anniversary was held in the Third Street M. E. Church. Matthew Newkirk, Esq., presided. The principal feature of the evening was the singing by the children, which brought forth the plaudits of the assembly. The annual reports of the President of the Board of Managers and Treasurer were read. By the latter it appears that the finances of the institution are in a flourishing condition-the balance in his hands being a permanent fund of $2448.36. Addresses were then delivered by Rev. Charles H. Whitecar, Rev. Charles H. Ewing, Hon. Judge Peirce, of Philadelphia, and others, at the conclusion of which the audience dispersed well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

were perfect of their kind, while the singing was not only excellent and highly retished by the audience, but the selection of songs and hymns very appropriate, while the organ accompaniments were rendered in the brilliant style which always characterizes the performances of the gentleman who presided at the instrument.

A synopsis of the annual report was read by Dr. Butler, the Secretary of the Board. From this we learn:-

The receipts of the two Homes, Northern, and Soldiers' Orphans, during the year ending May B67, were $38,937.98. The disbursements were:—For their support, $26,254.73; on repairs, purchases, etc., $1080.64; in trust for lot, $2650; paid on new building, $7333 22; ground rent and printing, $913.33; balance in the treasury, $706.06. There were received into the two Homes during the year 290 children, of whom 98 were soldiers' orphans. There were in the two Homes, May I, 1867, friendless children. 149; soldiers' orphans, 132; making the total number of children in the two institutions at present, 268. The average number during the car was 282. It speaks volumes in behalf of he sanitary condition of these noble charities that during the last twelve months but a solitary child has died, which, in a family of nearly three hundred children, is indeed a remarkable fact.

The Home is represented to be in good order, having all necessary comforts provided for the children who have sought shelter under its roof, and the efforts of the ladies to secure these desired ends have been crowned with signal success.

The Managers hope that a benevolent public will not fail in the future, as in the past, to contribute towards this noble charity.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING OF THE JEWISH FOSTER Home was held on Tuesday, May 14, at the Hall of the Harmonic Society. A very large atten-dance of ladies and gentlemen was present. The meeting was opened by reading a chapter The meeting was opened by reading is chapter from the Bible, the minutes of the last meeting, and the annual report. After which the Trea-surer's report was read, showing the expendi-tures during the year for the support of the Home, $4453-12, and a balance at present in the treasury of $706-32. The Board of Council made a report that subscriptions had been ontained from the Jewish community of $5000 a year, for the next five years, to place the Society on a permanent footing, and to enable the managers to continue their good work in behalf of the orphans and inmates of the Home, ranging from four to fifteen years of age.

The children went through various recitations and showed great proficiency in their studies. Some translated Hebrew into English, and read in the former ancient language,

The members then went luto an election for thirty managers for the ensuing year, when the thirty managers for the ensuing year, when the following ladies were elacted managers: - Mes-dames A.
