THE PEABODY PORTRAIT-IT WILL BE EX THE PEABODY PORTRAIT—IT WILL BE EXRIBITED IN THIS CITY—On the 26th of April, a communication was addressed to George Peabody, Esq., by Mayor McMichael and other prominent citizens of Philadelphia, requesting that the portrait of Queen Victoria, recently presented to him, might be placed on exhibition in this city, before our citizens had commenced to leave for their summer resorts, the proceeds of the exhibition to be devoted to charitable objects, under such directions and restrictions objects, under such directions and restrictions objects, under such directions and restrictions as Mr. Peabody might prescribe.

Mr. Peabody responded on the 30th ultimo, and it will be seen from his letter, which is given below, that we shall have an opportunity of beholding what is, perhaps, the most artistic and finished enamelied portrait ever produced in any art of the world.

The portrait will be exhibited at the establishment of Messrs. James S. Earle & Sons, No. 816 Chesnut street, and will be thrown open to visitors on Friday, the 17th instant, Mr. Peabody's letter in reference to the matter reads as follows:—

Peabody's letter in reference to the matter reads as follows:—

New York, April 29, 1897.

To Hon, Morton McMichael, C. Cope, Esq., C. Macalester, Esq., and others, Philadelphia.
Gentlemen:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your note yesterday, requesting that I would permit you to take charge of the portrait of her Majesty Queen Victoria, which she has presented to me, and to place it on exhibition in the city of Philadelphia.

I am glad to be able to accede to your request, and therefore, will now place it in your hands, to exhibit as you think best and as you propose that "the proceeds be applied to charitable objects." I beg to say that I believe no distribution of any benefit which might be derived from it could be more pleasing to the kind and benevolent heart of the Queen, than that one-half should be appropriated towards relief of the the suffering and destitute at the South, and the remaining half devoted to such cuaritable purposes in your own city as you may yourselves think proper.

With this suggestion, gentemen, I will place the portrait in your hands, and have it transported to yill during the present week. It has as yet been seen only by a few of the leading citizens of this city, who have called for the purpose at the house of the friends with whom I am staying.

I have no directions to give in regard to its exhibition, as I am sure you will take every precaution in the care of it, while it termains in your hands, to secure from the possibility of injury the memento which, aside from its artistic merit and intrinsit value, I must ever prize so highly from the associations with which it is connected.

You will, therefore, after exhibition, retain the portrait, subject to my future instructions.

Respectfully and truly.

GEORGE PEABODY.

A "FAIR" TIME AT NORRISTOWN .- On the 6th and 7th of June next the spring exhibition of the East Pennsylvania Agricultural Society will be held at Norristown, on the permanent grounds of the Society. It is expected that the collection of stock and agricultural implements, as well as of other objects of great interest to the farming portion of our population, will be complete, and well worth seeing. There will also be several contests between norses of note in the trotting world, there being nine differ-ent premiums to be competed for in this de-

During the progress of the Fair the ladies of the Montgomery County Soldiers' Monument Association will hold a Fair for the sale of useful and fancy articles in the main building of the Agricultural Society, which will add considerable that the sale of the control of the contr rably to the other attractions of the occasion. The proceeds of this Fair will be appropriated to the Monument fund, and as soon as its proportions will justify the measure, it is the in-tention of the Association to erect an appro-priate monument, on which will be inscribed the names of all the Montgomery county sol-diers who perished in the war for the preserva-

AN ATTEMPTED LARGENY .- William Hackett invited James McCoy to step into a saloon at Twenty-third and Callowhill streets, and partake of the "ardent." This being done, Hackett inquired of the lady bartender whether or not she could change a $20 note. She thought she could, and stepped up stairs to get the desired amount. Coming down, she caught Master Hackett with his arm stretched over the counter and his hand in close proximity to the money-drawer. She screamed out that she was being robbed, and in doing so dropped her pocket-book, containing $40, upon the floor. Hackett, with an innocent mien, averred not, and while looking steadily at the lady, also stooped down and laid hold of the pocket-book, and clapped it under his arm. This action was detected, and the lady calling out to her husband, who was near by Hackett was arrested and handed over to Officer Francis, who took him before Alderman Pancoast, who commuted

COLLECTING MONEY UNAUTHORIZED .- Yester day afternoon a man named William Miller was arrested at Fortieth and Market streets, for collecting money on false pretenses. He represented himself as having been authorized to collect money to defray the burial expenses of William Howard Coyle, who met with such a distressing death on the way to the fire yes-terday morning. He (Miller) had in his possession a paper drawn up by himself, stating that "We, the undersigned, etc.," and had a number of names attached for subscriptions. Inquiry into this transaction developed its spurious nature. He was arrested, and committed by Alderman Allen to await a further investiga-

New Publications .- We have been pre sented (from Mr. A. Winch, No. 505 Chesnut street) with all of the latest received English magazines and lilustrated newspapers. Hon Leonard Myers has our thanks for the "Acts and Resolutions of the Thirty-ninth and Fortleth Congresses of the United States," recently issued from the Government Printing Mr. J. Teal, Purser of the steamer Wyoming, has again put us under obligations for files of late Savannah papers.

M'me Adelaide Ristori, Countess del Grillo, has had forwarded to us a neat souvenir of her visit to America, which is very acceptable.

AN INGATHERING OF STREET WALKERS .- Some time since a note was sent to Lieutenant Con-nelly, of the Fifth Police District, containing laints of the annoyance caused in the neighborhood of Spruce, between Eighth and Ninth streets, caused by all manner of disdespatched a sergeant and posse of men to that vicinity, who, in the shortest possible time, gathered together, and escorted to the cells of the Station House, nineteen inveterate streetwalkers, of both sexes, of all colors, creeds, and element This gallets work, which effectually classes. This quick work, which effectually cleaned out that neighborhood of such characters, deserves a word of praise.

CREATING A DISTURBANCE,-Thomas Weir while visiting at a lady's house in Girard avenue, near Thirteenth, last evening, became angry at some trivial affair, is alleged to have very bad language, and threatened the general destruction of the domicile and its con-tents. In fact, he trespassed upon the pre-mises, and acted disorderly, which led to his arrest, and he was committed by Alderman Fitch in default of $1000 bail.

A Knock-Down .- Thomas McConnell was on Richmond street yesterday afternoon. Pass-ing an old colored man, who was peacfully making his way along, he, without any provocation, but merely to gratify his own wishes, knocked the latter down. Thomas, for this display, was taken in charge, marched to the Station House, appeared before Alderman Clouds this morning, and was committed in default of $1000

A SUICIDAL ATTEMPT.—J. Wonderly, who resides at No. 1424 Frankford road, has for some time, so it is said, been laboring under a fit of melancholy. About 2 o'clock this morning he attempted to commit suicide by cutting the throat palmy as the instrument of his dehis throat, using as the instrument of his de-struction a case knife. The result was that he caused a deep and ragged gash in his throat, which will result fatally, it is thought.

INTERPRENG .- George Jarrett this morning interfered with the clerk of the market, at interfered with the clerk of the billion of Girard avenue and Sixth street, while the latter was fulfilling his duties. Officer O. Howard took nim in custody, and at a hearing this morning, before Alderman Fitch, Jarrett was morning, before Alderman, held in $800 bail to answer at court, LARCENY OF MONEY .- Daniel Maginnis whose residence is at Fifth and Girard avenue. was arrested at that place on a warrant issued by Alderman Toland, for an alleged larceny of money. He was held in $800 bail to answer.

DEAD INFANTS,-The Coroner was notified yesterday that, in the vicinity of Passynnk road and Broad street, there was a box containing two dead infants. Suspicions are that there has been foul work.

An Assault .- John Ellis was arrested at Sixth and Chesnut streets, yesterday afternoon, for assault and batery on a citizen. Alderman Williams held him to answer.

FIRE ON FRONT STREET THIS MORNING-DAMAGE ABOUT $30,000.—An alarm of fire was struck this morning about 5 o'clock, in the vicinity of Front and Dock streets. Soon after flames were discovered issuing from the second story of the large brick building, No. 216 South

Bront street.

The steamers were soon on hand, and partly by the strenuous exertions of the firemen, and partly owing to the heavy wooden partition which surrounded the room, the confisgration was confined to the second-story entirely. Had the flames spread from this one apartment, a most destructive and disastrous fire would have been the result, as the warehouse addoning was filled with high wines, liquors.

adjoining was filled with high wines, liquors, and other very combustible articles. The cause of the fire has not yet been definitely ascertained; but from the appearance of the charred ceiling, walls, and other indications, it is believed to have been the result of a gas explosion—the gas excaping from the pipe and coming in contact with the lights in the office of Neal & McBride, back of the second story, which was kept burning throughout the night. The building is owner by Mr. Jesse Godley, and is damaged by water and fire to the amount. of $2000. There is an insurance upon the build-ing in the Franklin Insurance Company of $2500.

Messis, Fuguet & Sons, who occupied the entire first floor, suffer severely by the damage done their stock by water, which was thrown into the building, perfectly saturating the larger portion of their stock. They had on hand an assortment of the finest brands of imported cigars, valued at about $100,000, on which they

They are insured for $55,000, divided among the State of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania Fire, American, North America, and Enterprise Insurance Companies of this city.

The three upper stories are occupied by Messrs. Neal & McBride, wholesale and retail dealers in the finest of liquors. Inasmuch as the fire was confined to this part of the room, the damage to the stock is great, estimated at the damage to the stock is great, estimated at $12,000, caused by fire, water, and smoke, the latter probably doing the greater damage to They have an insurance of $10,000 in the Fire

Association. The cellar, used as a bonded ware-bouse, was stocked with a quantity of sugar, owned by Watson & Sons. Their loss, amount-ing to about $1000, is fully covered in the Liver-pool, London, and Union Mutual Companies.

HEARING BEFORE UNITED STATES COMMIS SIONER PHILLIPS—The case of John Monroe & Co. was heard before United States Commissioner Phillips at noon to-day.

& Co. was heard before United States Commissioner Phillips at noon to-day.

* Mr. James J. Brooks testified as follows:—On Saturday, May H. I visited the distiliery of John Monroe & Co., situated at Broad and Comberland streets, while there I saw parties in the act of loading a wagon with spirits; I subsequently saw the wagon leave the distilery with four barrels of spirits on it, which were taken to No. 206 N. Sixth street; at that place I examined marks on the barrels and found they had been inspected March 29, 1865, by John Hill; they were numbered 21, 22, 23, and 24; I visited the office of the Collector of the Fourth District, and there ascertained that John Monroe & Co., according to their records, had entered nine barrels of spirits at different periods, numbered from 1 to 2; I was assured by the officers of the District that no such numbers as 21, 22, 23, and 24 had been entered, the highest number being 9. Believing, from this information, that fraud had been committed, and in accordance with my instructions from Washington, I caused John Monroe, as proprietor of the distillery, and Mr. Gillespie, whom I had seen in the distillery and riding in the wagon that conveyed the liquor, to be arrested.

Mr. John G. Smith being sworn, said:—I reside in the Twenty-hourth Ward, and am a clerk in the Assessors' Office of the Fourth District; on the 4th of April Mr. Hill handed me a certificate which he made in the office for four barrels of ilquor, numbered 5, 6, 7, and 8; on the same day the same amount was withdrawn which was entered on our books, supposing it to be the same that had been entered; when inspectors of distilleries were first done away with, the duty fell on the general Utiled St tes I unspector, wilch, in this drawn which was entered on our books, supposing it to be the same that had been entered; when inspectors of distilleries were first done away with, the duty fell on the general United St tes Inspector, which, in this case, was Mr. Hill: the first certificates filled py me were recorded different from Nos. 1 or different distilleries; I asked him why this was the case; he replied, he numbered bonds successively from each distiller, starting from the last number he had ganged.

Thomas F. Shewell sworn—I reside at No. 1114 Spring Garden street, and was acting Collector of the Fourth District on the 4th of March. A certificate of inspection, dated March 20, 1865, signed by Mr. Hill, was presented for barrels marked 21, 22, 23, and 24. Mr. Spewell stated he was not sufficiently acquainted with Mr. Hill's handwriting to say whether it was his signature, but thought it was He found on looking on the margin of his record of April 4, that James Monroe had obtained a permit to remove from bond four barrels of whisky, numbered in the margin originally 21, 22, 23, and 24, but they were afterwards erased, and the numbers 5, 6, 7, and 8 placed over.

SHORT MEASURE. Felix Fisler, a Jersey man, was arrested this morning for setting potatoes in a short bushel measure. Mr. George W. Shaffer, sealer of weights and measures, informed him of the fact, and advised him to nave it corrected, but he paid no attention to it, and Mr. Shaffer subsequently had him ar-re ted, and taken before Alderman Beitler. where it was ascertained that the measure had not been inspected since 1865. He admitted it had not been stamped since 1865, but denied that the measure had been altered, but the hoops around it had been driven up, clearly proving it, and on testing it, it was found an inch short. The Alderman fined him $10, the amount prescribed by law.

STREET LOUSGING .- A batch of twenty-one young gir's was before Alderman Swift this morning, on charge of street lounging and improper behavior. They were put under ball to keep the peace.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE LEIS HOMICIDE.

ontinued from the Second Edition. In the law Thomas Leis had his best friend. Had false witnesses been brought to Court, they would have been sent away. Had deorge Eller been proven guilty, he would have been punished by years, and years of imprisonment; and the stain would have been washed from the family of Thomas Leis, as much as anything on earth could have done it.

It may be and is the impulse of human nature to take the life of any one who should bring such dis-grace upon his family, but it is not the law of Peon-sylvana. It is our impulse, but the law is wiser than that. Thomas Leis carefully weighed all these things and deliberately sent George Eller to an untimely grave. and it is to be feared that the verdict must be that this man was sane when he killed Eller, and that that killing was murcer.

Pressing the jury to a calm and cool consideration of the case, Mr. Mann concluded his remarks.

ARGUMENT FOR THE DEFENSE. ARGIMENT FOR THE DEFENSE.

Gustavus Remak, Esq., then followed for the defendant. He stated that he was no stranger to trials of this kind; he fully felt the responsibility that devolved upon himself and colleagues as counsel for the prisoner. This case could be no more touchingly detailed by the most eloquent than by the humble and honest witnesses. This was a case that appealed to the heart and mind, and upon which volumes could be written, upon which orations could be delivered. And it his duty to the public did not prevent there could be no better counsel for the prisoner than the District Attorney, for his heart was in the right place. But, notwithstanding, he had in his son placed his own flesh and blood upon the outside of the bar to aid in the prisoner's detense, showing that he believed in his heart that Thomas Leis was innocent, and should have a quick and true deliverance.

That happy home of Tuomas Leis had been eloquently and truly depicted. It was not overwrought. The prisoner has been traced through his peaceful life, from childhood up to this heart-breaking calamity, and he has been shown to be one whom the best might be proud to take by the hand, and call him the best, the most noble of God's work, an honest man.

This best of husbands, most loving father, and this

This best of husbands, most loving father, and this law-abiding cilizen, is before you to be tried upon the charge of the gravest crime known to the law-here to be tried for his life. How did he iail? It has been shown how the great Dr. Webster fell. But how did such a man as the prisoner has been proven fall so low as to shoot a man in the very sanctuary of justice, before Justice before fusice before? The law says that where a man of previous uniform good character, one who has led a lite of honesty and sobriety, or whose previous life has been irreproachable, suddenly changes and commits a deed of blood; when a woman of Christian bearing and purity suddenly gives way to lasciviousness; when a man of remarkably conomicual habits becomes at once profligate; when a kind, affectionate man becomes ruce and violent to those most dear to him, then it is to be considered how far this sudden change is an evicence of insanity. Had that law been written for the case of Thomas Leis, it could not lit better.

Mr. Remak was here interrupted by the adjournment of the court until 3 o'clock.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA HAS THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

1st. A constant pain or uneasiness in the pit of the Stomach—Which is caused by a permanent contraction of the stomach upon the undigested food. It generally begins immediately or a short time after eating; is often very severe and obstinate.

2d. Flatulence and Acidity.—These symptoms arise from the indigestion of food, which ferments instead of digesting.

3d. Costiveness and Loss of Appetite.—These symptoms are the effects of the unnatural condition of food in the stomach, and the want of a pure bile and gastric juice. The stomach is often painfully distended by wind; the appetite is sometimes voracious.

ath. Gloom and Depression of Spirits.—This state unfits many for the enjoyment of life, and is caused by the impure blood furnished by Imperiect digestion. In this stage of the disease many persons commit suicide. There is a constant foreboding of evil, and an indifference and positive inability to perform the offices of life.

5th. Diarrhoa.—After being at first costive, the sufferer is afflicted with diarrhoa, which is owing to a diseased condition of the bowels, produced by the undigested food, which is evacuated in the same condition as when eaten, and of course gives no strength to the system. system.

6th. Pains in all Parts of the System—Arise from the action of impure blood upon the nerves, They are felt chiefly in the head, sides, and breast, and in the extremities. In many cases there is an uneasiness in the throat, with a sense of choking or suffocation; the mouth is often clammy, with a bad taste and a furred toward.

7th. Consumptive Symptoms and Palpitation of the Heart.—Many persons pronounced as having these diseases have, in fact, nothing but Dyspepsia, the lung and heart disease being only symptoms, sth. Cough,—This is a very frequent symptom of Dyspepsia, and leads very often into confirmed consumption.

9th. Want of Sleep.—A very distressing symptom, resulting from mental derangements. 10th. Symptoms of External Relation.—The patient is affected painfully by cold and heat, which is owing to unnatural dryness of skin, and the skin is often affected by cruptions and tetters. The gloomy dyspeptic avoids society as much as reastly. much as possible.

11th. Vomiting.—A frequent and distressing symptom. It relieves the pain, but emaciates and wears out the patient.

12th. Dizziness, dimness of vision, headache, and staggering in walking.—These are very alarming symptoms, which are speedily removed by our medicines; but if neglected are quickly followed by numbness and sudden death.

13th. It is impossible for us to give all the symptoms of Dyspepsia in so small a space, but the above are considered sufficient, if we add that the patient loses his memory and regard to surraunding objects, and frequently becomes morose and sour in disposition. We should say, however, that pains in the joints and stiffness of the limbs, which go by the name of rheuma-tism and neuralgia, are produced by Dyspepsia. Also, a hardness of the muscles of the abdomen, which becomes contracted and hard; and in some cases the belly sinks, instead of being gently prominent,

N. B.—Perhaps we have not said enough of that strongest symptom of Dyspepsia, melancholy. We have examined hundreds of cases of Dyspepsia, who were so much affected in their minds that they constantly forbode loss of their reason, which unfitted them for business of any kind, and many of them have been patients of the Insane Asylum, who are now permanently cured by our medicine. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly, and hundreds of thousands of the best men and women of America linger in pain and die, and fill a premature grave, with that awful disease, Dyspepsia. They try this physician and that physician, but alas! alas! no relief, no cure; and the next we hear of them they have gone "to that bourne from whence no traveller returns," Out of the thousands of cases of Dyspepsia nat have used Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial, not one of them has failed of a perfect cure. We warrant a perfect cure in every case, no matter if it be twenty years' standing. Sold by all druggists everywhere, and at Dr. Wishart's Office, No. 10 N. Second street, Philadelphia. Pa. All examinations and consultations free of charge. Send for a circular. Price of Pills, One Dollar per box. Sent by mail, free of charge, receipt of money.

FINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

A GREAT REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.

PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained.

It is the only safe and reliable remedy which has ever been prepared from the juice of the Pine Tree. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system,

It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs,

It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with the positive assurance of its power to cure, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure, CAUTION.

Whereas, Base and designing men, regardless of the lives of the sick, and with a view solely to their own pockets, are making and vending a spurious article worse than useless-representing it as my Pine Tree Cordial, copying, in some cases, my labels and bottles, with slight variation to protest them from the law, the subscriber has been induced as a protection to the public, to punish a fac-simile of his hottles as last patented by the United States Government; and hereby cautions all persons; who value their health and life against purchasing any of the many preparations offered for sala as Tar Cordial, unless my name and a Pine Tree is blown on the bottle; all others being a wicked imposition to deceive the suffering and fleece them of their money, regardless of con-The genuine Pine Tree Tar Cordial is made

Maximilian again proposes a Congress to confirm him, or appoint a chief to whom he will resign the power.

The Havana Diario has a letter stating that Maximilian arrived in the city of Mexico at the head of 8000 men. Although Porfirio Disz had several pieces of artillery, he had been prevented by the Imperialists from planting a single battery on the Guadaloupe causeway. On the arrival of Maximilian battle was given to Diaz, and he was completely defeated, losing all his artillery and 1500 prisoners, who were immediately incorporated into the Im-

General Alvarez, owing to the execution of the Imperial prisoners at Puebla, withdrew his command from Vera Cruz by the steamer, bringing them from Diaz, and will disband

Passengers from Vera Croz by the steamer Passengers from vera Croz by the steamer bringing this news pronounce it all false, except that Miramon has not been killed. A gentleman who left the City of Mexico April 21, is certain that noone left for Vera Crozz after that date; that Marquez had about seven after that date; that Marquez had about seven thousand troops, and was closely besieged by Diaz with eleven thousand cavalry, and that no battle had been fought for same time; that Marquez had abandoned Tacubaya and Chepultepec; that the aqueducts supplying the City of Mexico with water were cut, and no food entered the city. The city was supplied with water from attesian wells. On the 28th, Queretaro was more closely besieged than ever, and the garrison having no shot, were firing stones. The death of General Baranda and Commandante Ariza, from wounds received in defending Vera Cruz, is announced.

The diary of the siege of Vera Cruz, published by the newspapers, has been stopped by order of the Imperial authorities.

Several murders have occurred in Havana, committed by a roving band of assassina, of whom forty or fifty have been captured. The finances of the city have not improved; several failures have occurred and more are expected.
