THE DOGS IN TRIBULATION.—There is an old nursery rhyme in vogue which, with a slight perversion, is applicable to the present tribula-tions of the canine world. The "dorg" version would run somewhat as follows:—

"Hark! hark! The little dogs bark,
The dog-catchers are coming to town:
Some with ropes, and some with clubs,
And one in a striped gown."
The ordinance, which prohibits "Old Dog Tray" and his comrades from running at large in the summer season, unless they are securely muzzled, went into operation on the 9th instant, but no attempt was made to enforce it but no attempt was made to enforce it until Tuesday. It was then that a sudden panic seized upon the caulne world, and numerous specimens of that unfortunate brute known all over the world as "nobody's dog," were to be seen rushing through the streets with an unseemly speed, that fairly rivalled that of the awine of older times in whom the exercised lemons found sheiter.

This ceremony of dog-catching is frequently

This ceremony of dog-catching is frequently attended with laughable surroundings. About 8 o'clock this morning the small boys in the neighborhood of Second and Spruce streets were afforded a highly edifying exhibition of the sport, to witness which they turned out in imposing numbers, and in the most enthusiastic spirits. A member of the fraternity of "catchers" was the centre of attraction, and every separate and individual stripe of his variegated shirt was eagerly seculiarized by selfvariegated shirt was eagerly scrutinized by all the urchins, ragged and otherwise, in the vicinity. By-and-by a cock-eyed, stump-tailed specimen of hature's handiwork in the dog line came along, and was greeted with the most came along, and was greeted with the most vocaferous appeause. When he was within easy reach of the "catcher," that functionary adjusted his noose with the utmost care, and prepared to entrap the unwary brute after the lashion and practice most approved of by the rancheros of the pisins. But never did mortal man ever missions of successive properties and properties of successive properties. calculate so grossly upon the chances of success in a deed of high emprise—the objective point of the "catcher's" operations was of course the neck of the unmuzzled dog. Now the nature of that dog happened to be unterly deprayed; and, that dog happened to be utterly depraved; and, therefore, just as his ungainly head was about to fall within the coils of the rope, he gave a sudden lurch to the right, and forthwith bounded up Spruce street with as much haste as if his movements had been accelerated by the appendage to his tall of a tin kettle filled with stones. The urchins followed with a tremendous uproar, and the discomfitted "catcher," much depressed in spirits, sauntered along at an easy pace, seeking the presence of the next canine whom he might attempt to devour.

In this connection, we understand that Mr. Palmer, the member of Common Council from the Thirteenth Ward, has prepared a supplementary ordinance, which he will submit to Councils on Thursday, which prohibits dogs from running at large at any time during the year without muzzies, and also extending the provisions of the law to those portions of the city now exempt. It is to be hoped that this measure will prove successful, and that our city will in the end be altogether ridden of the nulsance of wandering dogs,

A TEMPERANCE GATHERING .- A large number of friends of temperance convened at 1210 Chesnut street, last evening, to take action on the reorganization of a city society for the promotion of the good cause.

General Louis Wagner, President of the Society, occupied the Chair. The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Alexander

The President then made a brief and succinct statement in regard to the organization of the Philadelphia Temperance Society one year ago, and the progress of the cause, which was completely successful. He stated the object of the present movement to be the union of all sympathizers in the cause of temperance, in the reorganization of a city society, if deemed advisable, as an auxiliary to the Pennsylvania Temperance Union.

On motion, John F. Cline, George F. Turner, and J. E. McCauliay were appointed a Committee on Credentials of delegates present. By request, the Corresponding Secretary then presented a report of the operations of the Association. Referred to the Executive Com-

The following gentlemen were appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year:—Rev. Altred Cookman, T. J. Jones, Joseph H. Coleman, John Shedden, William Davis, Rev. Kendall Brooks, and B. F. Dennison. On motion, adjourned for one week

A DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION .- In the large room of the Keystone Club, in Twelfth street, below Chesnut, last night, a meeting of Democrats was held. Its object was to give on opportunity for the expression of opinion relative to the nominations of the party to be voted for at the October election. The idea of the participants is to secure the renomination of Judge Ludlow; to name General Peter Lyle for Sheriff; and then to pin the rest of the ticket to the cont-tails of the gentlemen in question, in order to secure the election of their entire ticket.

Ex-Mayor Vaux, as usual, presided. The meeting was called to order by Albert R. Schoneld. A list of Vice-Presidents was named. Mr. William Loughlen, Theodore Cuyler, Daniel Fox. William Bonsall, and Thomas J. Roberts were named as Vice-Presidents, though none of them were present, and Thomas J. Barger and Albert D. Boileau were appointed

Mr. Vaux made a speech, in which he de clared that if the party only made a good ticket, and named none but first-class men, the Republicans would this fall be beaten out of their gaiters.

Mr. John Hulme was called upon for a speech. but did not respond. Counseller O'Byrne afterwards made a very fine address. At a late hour we left him still speaking of the green isle, the battle of the Boyne, and the stars and stripes of the Jefferson Davis party.

ACCIDENTS .- Elizabeth Wilson, aged twentyfour years, living in Black Horse Alley, was cut in the head yesterday with a brick while engaged in a dispute with another colored woman. Her injuries, which were considered severe, were properly attended to at the Penn-sylvania Hospital. About 5 o'clock last evening Louis Ayres, thirty-one years of age, a brakesman on the Trenton Railroad, fell off the tender of the loco-motive, and was run over. He sustained serious this city.

ROBBERGES .- On Tuesday night the dwelling of Mr. Alexander Givin, No. 506 Dickerson street, was broken into and robbed of a valuable gold watch and chain, a pair of sleeve-buttous, and twenty dollars in money. The articles were taken from the room in which Mr.

Givin was sleeping. Yesterday afternoon the residence of Mr. C. Martin, No. 23 Catharine street, was entered during the absence of the family, and robbed of some wearing apparel. The house was tho-roughly ransacked, and considerable personals gathered together, evidently to be carried off. It is supposed the thieves left in a hurry, as some female apparel was found on the stairway. An entrance was effected by climbing over fence, and forcing open the basement

THE WEAVERS WILL NOT SUCCUMB. - The Prothe waxees will, Nor Succisin.—The tro-tective Union of the power-loom employes met last night at Diligent Hall, for the purpose of resisting an alleged attempt to greduce their wages two dollars per week. The men who re-pair their looms, keep them in order, etc., and known as "helpers," now receive sixteen dollars weekly, white the managers, who employ and superintend the hands, have as high as twenty-six dollars. The employers urge that the present state of the trade compels them to reduce the wages, but there appears to be a firm purpose to resist the movement.
