The Southern Negro Vote.

The New York Herald, in a temperate and conciliatory article upon the negro question in the South, ascribes to the Republican party a desire to organize the whole body of the negroes into one compact party, voting always "in opposition to their white neighbors," and proceeds to argue the probable ill effects if such a policy should be carried out.

The Republican party has no desire whatever to array the negroes of the South as a class against the whites, or to see them voting always in opposition to their white neighbors. On the contrary, the Republican party would know nothing whatever, either at the South or at the North, of colors, races, or conditions. It simply recognizes men as men.

It must be remembered that this class of citizens have but just won a recognition of their rights, and that not through the voluntary action of their "white neighbors," but through the powerful interposition of the Government of the United States.

Mr. W. E. CHANDLER, for some time Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has resigned. In the discharge of his duties he has given general satisfaction.

Jefferson Greeley and Horace Davis. From the Chicago Times. It needed not, however, the presence of Jefferson Greeley in the Court of Judge Underwood, and the manifest odium of his friend Horace Davis, to convince the jury of the ferocity and consistency of his friendship.

A Crime that should be Checked. JOHN H. DRELL, Esq., Collector of the Second District, deserves the thanks of the community for having caused the arrest of a party who had sent him money under circumstances which admitted of no other interpretation than that it was intended to influence his action as an officer of the Government.

The New Minister to Berlin.

The selection of the Hon. George Bancroft as Minister to Berlin, to succeed the late Joseph A. Wright, is one which has given universal satisfaction. If all of the appointments of the President were of the class of men to which Mr. Bancroft belongs, there would be nothing but praise accorded him on each new appointment.

To a great extent, they are far from the best specimens of our gentlemen or ladies. It must be by having diplomats of the highest education, refinement, and reputation, that we can show to aristocracy that the citizens of a republic are not necessarily untutored.

Weak Defense of the Mobile Rioters. Our Democratic contemporary endeavors to excuse the attempt of its friends in Mobile to murder Judge Kelley, by heaping vituperation upon that gentleman's head for daring to go South at all.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Union League of Philadelphia, held March 12, 1867, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, In a republican form of government it is of the highest importance that the delegates of the people, to whom the sovereign power is entrusted, should be so selected as to truly represent the body politic, and there be no provision of law whereby the people may be deprived of their right of electing delegates, and all parties having recognized the necessity of such organization by the formation of voluntary associations for that purpose, and

Whereas, There are grave defects existing under the present system of voluntary organization, which it is believed may be corrected by suitable provisions of law; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Board of Directors of the UNION LEAGUE OF PHILADELPHIA, that the Secretary be and is hereby directed to offer eleven hundred dollars in prizes for essays on the legal organization of the people to select candidates for office, the prizes to be as follows, viz:

Three hundred dollars for the first; Two hundred for the second; One hundred for the third; and One hundred for the fourth; and on condition upon which these prizes are offered are as follows, viz: First, All essays competing for these prizes must be addressed to GEORGE H. BOKER, Secretary of the Union League of Philadelphia, and must be received by him before the FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, 1868, and no communication having the author's name at the end, or with any other indication of origin, will be considered.

Second, Accompanying every competing essay, the author must enclose his name and address within a sealed envelope, addressed to the Secretary of the Union League. After the awards have been made, the envelopes accompanying the successful essays shall be opened, and the names notified by the result.

Third, All competing essays shall be the property of the Union League; but no publication of rejected essays, or the names of their authors, shall be made without consent of the authors in writing.

DR. L. Q. C. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL. A GREAT REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF TBROAT AND LUNG DISEASES. PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL. It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained.

It is the only safe and reliable remedy which has ever been prepared from the Juice of the Pine Tree.

It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite.

It strengthens the debilitated system.

It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs.

It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs.

Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation.

It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with the positive assurance of its power to cure, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

CAUTION. Whereas, Base and designing men, regardless of the lives of the sick, and with a view solely to their own pockets, are making and vending a spurious article worse than useless—representing it as my Pine Tree Cordial, copying, in some cases, my labels and bottles, with slight variations to protect them from the law, the subscriber has been induced as a protection to the public, to publish a fac-simile of his bottles as last patented by the United States Government; and he hereby cautions all persons who value their health and life against purchasing any Tar Cordial, unless my name and a Pine Tree is blown on the bottle; all other being a wicked imposition to deceive the suffering and fleece them of their money, regardless of consequences.

The genuine Pine Tree Tar Cordial is made by a process and of ingredients known only to myself, which secret has never been divulged, and any and all persons claiming to make my Pine Tree Tar Cordial are but vile impostors.
