CPTY EVANGELIZATION .- The Rev. John Moore delivered a sermon on the above subject last evening, at the Wharlon Street Presbyte-rian Church. His text was Matthew zi, 1:--"And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he de-parted thence to teach and to preach in their office."

The preacher said the labors of Christ were mostly confined to cities, and the same was true of the Apostles whom He sent forth. There was an evident design in this. Cities were the centres of influence, and controlled essentially the countries of infinitice, and controlled essentially the countries where they existed. The city of Jerusalem was, in an in-portant sense, Pales-tine; the city of Rome, the Emptre; and Athens was Greece. Corist knew that if the Gospel was established in the large citles it would radiate from them into the country. He told the Apostles that when they were not received in one city to free to another. At the present day great cities are eminently

At the present day great cities are eminently centres of influence. In no country is this more the case than in this. Boston, New York, and Philadelphia are sending out continually pulsa-tions of influence which are felt all over the country. Our cities increase very rapidly, hav-ing continually pouring into them multitudes of human beings not only from different parts of this country, but from foreign nations. These need the Gospel, and the luture of our nation must depend very much on our success in reachmust depend very much on our success in reach-ing them with the Gospel. It is one of the most important questions of the day, How are the masses in our great cities to be reached? They cannot be reached in the ordinary way of preaching. The most of them never enter a church to hear preaching. church to hear preaching. The command is to go to them in every possible and laudable way. go to them in every possible and laudable way. Carist and the early preachers did not wait for men to come to them in the established and ordinary way, but they went to them. They preached publicly and taught privately as they had opportunity, in the temple, the market-place, the synagogue, the wayside, and elsewhere. In the text it is declared that Christ 'departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities." An eminent commentator areas that this in. An eminent commentator says that this in-cludes public preaching and private instruction. In this work He was not absolutely commend to set times and places. He did good as He had set times and places. He did good as He had opportunity. There should be more open air preaching. Thousands can be reached in this city in this way that otherwise would never hear the Gos-pel. During a great part of the year this method of reaching the outlying masses might be suc-cessibly carried out. Ministers and churches should be alive to this; the responsibility rest-ing upon them is very great. They should not hesitate to adopt and encourage this method of hesitate to adopt and encourage this method of doing good, from false notions of dignity or pro-priety. It is honorable and dignified in the highest sense to preach the Gospel faithfully wherever we can reach human beings. The preacher laid great stress on this mode of pro-moting evangelization in this city.

He regarded the Sabbath School institution as a very important instrumentality for reaching the youth; but much depended on the mode of conducting it. It is useful in proportion as It is made subservient in bringing the young under the influence of the sanctuary. A Sab-bath School may be conducted in such a way as positively to injure the church with which it is connected. The members of a school should be brought up to attend Divine worship; they should be brought under the influence of a preached Gospel. Unless this institution is made subservient to this it will accomplish but little. Multitudes of the home heathen of this city were once members of Sabbath Schools, and not having formed the habit of attending Divine worship while scholars, when they left the Sabbath School they turned their backs on all the means of grace and religious instruction. This is a vital point; and until it receives a proper share of attention, this institution will fall far short of doing the amount of good it otherwise would accomplish. The circulation of tracts is another important way of promoting city evangelization. A tract has often been the means of saving a soul from death. There is one small tract published by the American Tract Society, which several years since was found to have been the means of the conversion of four hundred persons. But much depends on the spirit with which tracts are distributed. We need men and women with hearts overflowing with Christian feeling to circulate these, who in their very looks as well as words show to others their hearty interest in their wellare. In prosecuting the work of city evangelization in general, we should cherish strong confidence in the Gospel as adapted to the proposed end. The human soul is the same it ever was, and the Gospel has not changed. It is now the power of God unto salvation, and will be to the end of time.

THE AMERICAN UNCLEDE MISSIONARY SOCIETY MERTING.-On Saturday afternoon last, at 3 o'clock, the above organization held a meeting o'clock, the above organization held a meeting at the Academy of Music of a very animated character. The children connected with the various Episcopal Sunday Schools in the city and suburbs assembled to the number of some twenty-five hundred, their superintendents and leachers accompanying them, and the standard-bearers carrying at their front the different school flags of this army of little Christians. The body of the Academy and every tier, ex-cept the amphitheatre, was crowded before the exercises commenced.

copi the amphilicentre, was crowded before the exercises commenced. At 3 o'clock P. M. Rt. Rev. Bishop Lee, of Iowa, entered, accompanied by prominent cler-symmn of New York and this city, and was made President of the meeting. After the usual introductory exercises, the Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., of New York, deli-vered an address to the children before him, they historical the children before him.

they listening attentively, and responding unani-mously to the questions proposed to them by the reverend gentleman. Addresses were also delivered by Rev. Dr. Newton and Rev. R. J. Parvin.

Two beautiful hymns intervened, when the resentation of certificates of membership to the schools and scholars took place, the Rev. Mr. Reising, of New York, Secretary of the Society, making the presentation to those who had paid the individual yearly membership of fifty cents, and life membership of ten dollars.

A HEAVY ROBBERY .- The fur establishment of A. K. & F. K. Womrath, Arch street, above Fourth, was robbed of fars, on Satur-day night, valued at about $6000. The robbery was first discovered yesterday morning, at 8 o'clock, when the door on the street in the rear was found open. An exami-nation of the premises developed the fact that the robbers must have been secreted in the building at the time it was closed on Saturday evening or have secured an entrance by means of skeleton kevs, as no locks were broken. All the goods appear to have been examined, and in-indicated the robbers had a knowledge of the skins, as they removed only the most valuable. Three hundred and fifty-six sable skins, ten dozen chinchilløs, and a quantity of ermine skins were among the spoils carried off. The firm has been very unfortunate in the way of robberies. Eighteen months ago the store was entered, and about $5000 worth of skins removed. A private watchman is employed in the neighborhood, but the robbery on Saturday night was effected so quietly as not to attract the attention of any one.

A reward of $1000 has been offered for the return of the goods, and a further reward for the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

THE SCHUYLKILL NAVY REVIEW .- The review of the Schuylkill navy on Saturday afternoon last drew forth a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen as spectators. After the various barges were drawn up in line, Commodere Charles Vezin, who was on board the Atlanta, gave the signal, and the boats filed the Atlanta, gave the signal, and the boats filed from right to left up the stream as far as Girard Avenue Bridge, when they returned and came down the river in open order, presenting a beautiful appearance. When opposite the upper boat house, the Commodore's barge, followed by the new boats, New Atlanta, six oars, and New Undine, four oars, of the Undine Barge Club: Lotus, four oars, of the Bachelor Barge Club: and the Bertha, a two-pair scull boat of Club; and the Bertha, a two-pair scull boat, of the Quaker City Barge Club, passed between them, the crews giving the customary salute. After this the various evolutions were gone through with; after which the different crews engaged in short races. The annual regatta of the navy takes place on the 8th, 12th, and 15th of the coming month.

ANOTHER STREET Row .- On Saturday night an affray occurred in Buck's tavern, on the an affray occurred in Buck's tavern, on the corner of Shippen and Broad streets, which resulted in the stabbing of Samuel Buck, a severe wound having been inflicted, the weapon entering the left breast, near the nipple. Mrs. Buck was assaulted at the same time, About 1 o'clock in the morning Alexander McNeill, who is alleged to have been prominent in the tavern brawl, and to have stabbed Samuel Buck, made his appearance at Broad and Ship-pen streets, and some members of the Buck family went to him to settle the affair of a few family went to him to settle the affair of a few hours before. In the affray which ensued a pistol was discharged, the load from which entered the side of McNeill just above the hip, seriously woun nim. He was removed the Hospital. McNeill is twenty-nine years old, and resides in Shippen street, between Broad and Fiftcenth streets. Alderman Dallas took the statement of McNelll yesterday, with a view to the arrest of the persons engaged in the attack upon him.

Craig, Mr. S. Hemple, Mr. H. Rivers, Mr. L. L. James, Mr. Wains, Miss Lizz'e Price, Mrs. Thayer, Miss Fanny Reeves, and others; while Miss Susan Denin, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Mr. Fawcett, and Miss Effic Germon will appear in the laughable comedicita of Sketches in India, and Mr. Dan Bryant, Mr. Craig, Miss Annie Ward, Miss Reeves, and other members of the Arch Street Company, in the side-splitting farce of Danny the Baron.

THE MENDELSSOHN MUSICAL SOCIETY will give a grand concert in ald of the Southern Fauine Retief Fund, at the Academy of Music, on Thursday evening, June 6. They will be assisted by Wenzell Kopta, violinist, Theodore Habelmann, tenor, H. G. Thunder, pianist, and a number of other distinguished artists. The aftarr will be conducted under the baton of Pro-ference Leave Leave fessor Jean Louis,

They will comprise "Meg Merrihes," "Lady Macbeth," "Duchess of Malä," and "Iago." It s generally conceded that this great artiste, in these four characters, has no equal.

CONCERT HALL .- Mr. Hartz, the illusionist, begins an engagement of two weeks at Concert Hall this evening. His great reputation and wonderful performances should insure him a full house.

Assembly Buildings .- Messrs. Edward and Jerome Lubin, at the Assembly Buildings, are having excellent success. They present a great variety of novelties, and are visited by full houses, and are really very clever performers.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY, at the Eleventh Street Opera House, are as lively as ever. They have all sorts of Ethlopian delineations, and are highly popular with all classes,
