OUTRAGROUS CONDUCT,-John Howard, aged forty-five, a colored man, was quietly mixing mortar, in South street, above Fifteenth, yesterday aliernoon, when a while thing in man's shape came along, and lipped him headforemost into the seething lime. Howard was admitted to the Hospital, but is unable to see, and it is feared his eyesight may to destroyed, but the physicians can give no definite opinion as to this at present. The mouster who committed this shocking deed effected his escape, but it is to be hoped that all the power vested in the authorities will be brought into requisition to secure his arrest.

The reports were encouraging, and the probability is that accommodations will be secured in the families of those interested in Sunday Schools for four or six hundred delegates.

Faniantsm .- The Academy of Music, last evening, was partially filled by adherents of the Fenian organization, with a sprinkling of ladies, to hear Colonel Roberts lecture upon "England, a Pirate in Ireland." AMUSEMENTS.

GERMAN OPERA. - Last evening the New Chesnut Street Theatre was tolerably well filled with a fashionable audience, to witness the performa fashionable audience, to witness the performance of Halevy's majestic chef dauvre La Juive. This opera is full of classic music of extraordinary excellence, but has not been rendered here often enough to make it popular. The work was chosen to present to us in her finest role the most gifted prima danna the Germans have yet brought this way, Madame Nathalie Scellg. This lady is an excellent actress, a true and finished artiste, and a beautiful woman in form and feature. Her debut last evening as "Rachel," stamped her as a great favorite, and raised an enthusiasm in evening as "Rachel," stamped her as a great favorite, and raised an enthusiasm in the audience that we have rarely witnessed at the debuts of artists more noted, if not more famous. The applause that followed the trio in the third act between Madame Seelig, Herr Franz Himmer ("Eleazer"), and Herr Theodore Habelman ("Prince Leopold"), was really overwhelming, and an encore was given in great spirit and good taste. The great length of the opera was not observed last evening, for it was performed in such an earnest manner and with such evenness throughout, that every one seemed anxious to witness each sucevery one seemed anxious to witness each succeeding scena.

"THE BELLS OF SHANDON."-Dan Bryant's new play by Messrs. Mot/ord and John Brougham was a success. The piece is one of interest from the beginning to the close, the characters were well acted, the scenery and effects capital, and Dan Bryant as "Barry O'Leary" was one of the very best of this artist's personation; it will ge given again to-night. On Monday Emma Waller appears.

MR. JOHN BUOUGHAM visits our city on Friday next, expressly to appear for his young friend Dan Bryant's tarewell benefit.
