THE LIQUOR-SELLERS' MEETING ON SATURDAY. The Liquon-Shillens' Meering on Saturbar. —The action which produced so remarkably unanimous a closing of drinking houses on San-day was the result of a largely attended meeting at the saloon of ex-City Commissioner Given Uate Shinn's), in Broad street, above Chesnut. Colonel Owen Petted called the meeting to order, and moved that Mr. Given preside, which was agreed to. Mr. Johnson acted as Secretary, and Mr. Carson as Treasurer.

and Mr. Carson as Treasurer.

Mr. Given, on taking the chair, announced that the object of the meeting was to take into consideration the law closing the public houses after 12 o'clock at night, and on the Sabbath. He recommended in all that was said as tew words as possible, and the entire exclusion of politics.

politics. Colonel Robert Winslow moved to exclude all who are not interested in the retail inquor busi-ness. Captain Binder understood this call was for tavern-keepers; that the cause was a just one, and the meeting ought to have no secrets. Colonel Winslow remarked that his resolution did not apply to the members of the press. Mr. Foster moved an amendment, that those persons who are not tavern-keepers be excluded from entering into the debate. The original resolu-tion was withdrawn, and the amendment

A motion to permit all persons keeping taverns or restaurants, and also mineral-water and sarsaa motion was offered that the present officers act as the officers of the permanent organization. Agreed to. A letter from a wholesale wine house, offering any assistance that was desired, was submitted. The following letter was then read:-

The following letter was then read:-HARRISBURG, May 22, 1867.-James Freeborn, Evq.-Dear Sir: Your note of the 21st instant 1 have. The bill No. 70 of general laws you refer to, was passed on the 9th of April in the House, as it passed the Senate, and in the shape it appears in the general laws. No amendment appears to have been proposed to except Phila-delphia, and my record does not exhibit any opposition being raised to the bill. I mail you Nos. 131 and 135 of record as you

I mail you Nos. 131 and 135 of record, as you request. Truly yours, JOHN A. SMULL, A member said that all present feel aggrieved at the action of our Representatives. They had paid agents at Harrisburg who suffered them to be oppressed in the halls of the Legislature,

The liquor men are the most oppressed people in the country; the Government imposes an onerous tax. This letter was no palliation for the conduct of the members of the Legislature. The tavern-keepers have a right to know who voted for and against the bill, so that they can get their just deserts at the coming election. DA motion was made to lay the letter of Mr. Smull on the table.

William J. Evans, Sergeant-at-Arm s in the House, said that the bill was rushed through in the House with other bills, and every member voted for it. The yeas and nays were called on it in the Senate, both political parties voting for and against. for and against.

Mr. Foster moved to receive and file the letter, which was agreed to, Mr. John Jenkins offered the following reso-lution, which was agreed to:-

Whereas, At the last session of the Legisla-ture of the State was passed an act regulating the time of closing and opening hotels in this Commonwealth, and as the representatives from this city deny that they voted for such a law, or knew of its passage, therefore be it Resolved. That a committee be appointed to act with the committee appointed by the meeting held by the German citizens, to ascertain who of the representatives from this city voted for or against the aforesaid law. Mr. Foster moved that a committee of five be ointed as a central committee. Agreed to.

A committee of three from each ward was appointed to act in conjunction with the central committee, which consists of W. H. Harrison, James Folley, Thomas H. Green, O. W. Petted,

George D. Glenn. Mr. Given stated that, with several others, he had waited on the Mayor, who was favor-ably disposed towards the tavern-keepers, and did not think that the law applied to restaurant-keepers who sold "soft drinks." He considered the closing of doors at 12 o'clock sufficient. On Sunday the doors must be closed, and he hoped

HIS FAREWELL .- The Roman Catholic Bishop of this fanswell. — The tomain catolic bistop of this diocese said farewell to his people at the Cathedral, in Logan Square, yesterday, in an af-tecting address. He sail: for Rome on Wednes-day next, to pretent to the Pope the money con-tributed by the churches of the diocese for the relief of the paral treasury. On June 29th, the cighteenth centennial martyrdom of St. Peter is to be solemnized at Rome, when bishops from all parts of the world will assemble. A batch of saints, including Christopher Columbus, and the Dutch martyrs in Japan, are to be canonized at this time.

at this time. Bishop Wood takes with him as compagnons de voyage, Rev. J. F. Shanahan, rector of the Preparatory Theological Seminary; Rev. Nicho-las Cantwell, pustor of the Church of St. Philip de Neri; Rev. Michael F. Martin, pastor of St. James' Church, West Philadelphia; Rev. Very Rev. Dr. O'Hara, who intended going in the same steamer, has decided to remain at home. The offerings borne by Bishop Wood to Rome amount to $45,000, gold value, and many rich presents beside.

presents beside. The Convent of Notre Dame presents a miniaure coal mine, typical of the great staple product of our State, with coal car and everything complete. Gold dollars to the amount of one hundred are interspersed over the black dia-monds. The other schools send presents, either in the form of money or otherwise. The con-tributions of the city churches amount to $39,184'42, and the country churches $21,138 71. The blind presented their offerings in the shape of useful and ornamental articles, evidencing the most skilful and artistic workmanship. The pupils of the Convent of the Immacu-Heart of Mary, Frankford, a eilver fish with the inscription:-"Aperto ore ejus et in-venies staterem." The mouth of the dish works on screws, and when opened displays a number of gold dollars. The appropriateness of this gift is derived from the text of Scripture which informs us that the Savlour, being called upon by the tax-gatherer for his tribute to the State, commanded St. Peter to go down to the sea, catch a fish, and open its mouth, where would be found the necessary money to satisfy the internal revenue emissaries of Casar.

Missing .- Samuel Salt, a lad of nine years, a son of Policeman Robert Salt, of the Fourth District, left his home in Arch street, above Front, about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and went to the second wharf above Arch street, for the purpose of getting some oranges from off a versel, since which time nothing has been heard from him.

SLIGHT FIRE .- About 7 o'clock yesterday morning, a slight fire occurred in the linen fac-tory of Peter Wattson, located on Ninth street, above Columbia avenue.

BURGLARY .- The dwelling No. 1213 Bedford street was entered on Friday night, and robbed of a gold watch and chain and some clothing.

AMUSEMENTS.

MR. GEORGE HOOD'S BENEFIT .- None is more worthy this handsome compliment than the benefictare of the evening. His gentlemanly manners and accommodating disposition have laid claims upon the habilues of the Academy, which will not be disregarded. Already very many of our prominent citizens have secured their places, and there is promise of a brilliant and inshionable audience. The attractions of the programme are very inviting, being the whole English Opera Company, with its popu-lar prima donna, Miss Caroline Richings, who will be supported by the great lyric tenor, Mr. Will be supported by the great typic tenor, Mr. Habelman, whose name alone is a tower of strength. He will sustain the brilliant and dramatic role of "Fra Diavolo," in Auber's cher d'auvre and pet composition, to which in his advanced years he has added recitatives, thus bringing it up to the standard of grand opera. Mr. Hood may expect a grand success.

HER FAREWELL ENTERTAINMENT.-Mrs. General F. W. Lander will give her masterly rendi-tion of "Elizabeth" at the Academy of Music, for the last time, this evening; and all who have not witnessed her extraordinary acting in the part should not tail to do so to-night. We are pleased to announce that her engagement at the Academy has proved a complete and splendid success, and Mrs. Lander can now lay chaim to the title of the most accomplished and powerful tragic actress of our country. We part with her reluctantly, but trust that the summer vacation maybring her renewed strength and vigor, and that she will return to us to achieve new triumphs next fall.

that the tayern-keepers would not sell as boldly as heretofore. The complaints to him had not come only from the temperance people, but also from those who attended church

Captain Binder remarked that the Mayor had no right to give any instructions. The law was in existence, and, if violated the violators were amenable. He urged the avern-keepers not to sell any liquor on Sunday. He con-sidered that by themselves they could do nothing, but the workingman was the one who could assist them. He said "drinking men are honest men." The speaker urged upon those present not to sell any liquor with closed doors. The tavern keepers should close, so that all drinkers shall be on their side. The poor man, after his hard week's work, would then, on being refused his drink, be against those who made the law. Do not sell with closed doors, do not sell on Sunday, and the people will be in your favor. Right will always conquer, and an unjust law cannot stand. It was moved that every tavern-keeper close on Sunday, and that it be ascertained through the Ward Committee what other occupations are allowed to keep open. The question was called for, but Mr. Thomas Bell said the motion was superfluous, as it would have no effect on the law. The law, which was so stringent against selling liquor on which was so stringent against selling liquor on Sundays, said nothing against drug stores, candy shops, cigar shops, and various other businesses pursuing their callings upon that day. The motion was carried. A member said that he did not complain of the Sunday law, but of that part which com-pelled them to open at sunrise and close at 12 o'clock at night. It might under some circum-stances be very difficult to comply with the first part of the law in relation to opening at sunrise. The Central Committee was then aunounced to meet on Monday afternoon, at the same place.
