RELIEF OF THE FREEDMEN .--- At the recent RELATE OF THE FREEDMEN.—At the recent stated meeting of "The Association of Friends of Philadelphia and its vicinity, for the Relief of Colored Freedmen," held at the Arch Street Meeting-house, the fourth annual report of the Executive Board was read to the contributions. From this document we learn that the opera-tions of this praiseworthy institution during the past year were as follows:— The contributions of the year amounted to $35,457, of which amount $15,569 were received from Friends and others in England and Ire-land. The total contributions made to the fundaç of the Association since its organiza-tion have amounted to $207,260. In addition to the money received from abroad, packages

Hon have amounted to $237,260. In addition to the money received from abroad, packages valued at $32,415 were received through the "Birmingham and Midiaud Freedmen's Aid Association," of which packages of the value of $27,711 contained ready-made garments and material, shoes, blankets, etc. This large sup-ply of clothing, with some stock remaining from last year, has enabled us to relieve a large amount of suffering, without encroaching on the funds of the treasury, further than to pirr-chase a few hundred pairs of shoes, for which urgent appeals were received from every quarter.

In the distribution of clothing, the practice of having the garments made up previously to sending them to the South has not been folsending them to the South has not been fol-lowed. Sewing schools having been established at many places, all the material received has been sent to them to be cut out and made up therein, under the supervision of suitable per-sons. During the severe winter weather, food and fuel were furnished to misny who had no means of providing for themselves. Accounts from Yorktown speak of over one hundred families in that district thus receiving assistance. assistance.

families in that district thus receiving assistance. The articles distributed during the year con-sisted of 383 pairs of blankets, 20,107 garments, 11,632 yards of material, 1374 pairs of shoes, and $48 pairs of stockings. The freedmen who have been the recipients of this substantial aid were those of the District of Columbia; Alexandria, Richmond, Petersburg, Fredericksburg, Win-chester, and Danville, and the country sur-roundirg them in Virginia; Wilmington, Beau-fort, and other sections of North Carolina; the coast and interior of South Carolina; Natchez, Mississippi; and New Smyrna, Florida. Large supplies of seeds were also distributed by the agents of the Association at Yorktown and Danville, Virginia, and at various points in North Carolina, and have been of great ser-vice to many families in distressed circum-stances.

A property of eighty acres, near Yorktown, Va., has been purchased, and the Mission House and school buildings removed thither; but some difficulty has arisen concerning the but some difficulty has arisen concerning the little, which is happily in a fair way of settle-ment. The schools of the Association at Washington have been closed, and measures taken to soil the real estate there, as it is believed that the money can now be used to better advantage elsewhere. In addition to this the Association has purchased property, and made improve-ments in the way of schools and mission houses at various points in Virginia and North Caroat various points in Virginia and North Caro-lina, at a cost of $7530. In these two States eighteen different schools are now in successful and regular operation. The salaries of seven colored teachers in Maryland have also been paid. Not less than six thousand children are in attendance at the various schools of the Association. sociation.

in attendance at the various schools of the Association. A large amount of substantial and religious literature has likewise been distributed during the year, including 180,000 copies of the "British workman" and "Band of Hope Review;" 4039 copies of the Holy Scriptures or parts thereof; 186,568 copies of tracts, hymns, etc.; 3760 hymn books; 5602 books of other kinds; and 512 valu-able books to the libraries of the more advanced schools at Danville, Greensboro, and Yorktown. Such is the good work which this Association has been prosecuting, in a quiet and unosten-tatious way, during the past year. It should commend itself, not only to the Friends of this differing freedmen of the South. The officers of the Association for the cur-rent year are as follows:--President-Samuel Hilles. NEW ENGLAND ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

THE RESOLUTIONS-ADDRESS OF WENDELL PHILLIPS. Boston, May 29.—The thirty-seventh annual anniversary of the New England Anti-Slavery Society was held to-day. A series of resolutions were adopted, the first of which declares "That, in the long suffering of this nation under the crafty policy of Andrew Johnson, patience has had its perfect work, and in such ill-judged for-bearance we recognize not the virtue of a great magnanimity, but the folly and wickedness of a short-sighted moral sense, and a complyance a short-sighted moral sense, and a connivance a short-sighted moral sense, and a connivance at wrong." The resolutions further protest against any longer denial to the colored people of all the social and political rights to which they are so clearly entitled; they allude to the Mobile riots as evidence of reviving insolence of the de-feated Rebels, and of their determination to re-enact resistance to the legal and loyal au-thorities of our Government on every available oppertunity; they denounce the shameful retiopportunity; they denounce the shameful reli-cence of the so-called Christian pulpit on these vital themes, and declars that the release of Jefferson Davis proves the South still trium-phant in the Executive Councils, and calls for a large measure of confiscation of Southern lands to give the negro race, that basis of independent action without which the ballot is so often a action without which the ballot is so often a mere shadow.

Wendell Phillips, as usual, was the leading speaker. In the course of his remarks he referred to the release of Jeff Davis, and said Horace Greeley seems to think that all we want is to punish Mr. Davis, but we can disregard a hundred thousand Davises. He is a weed, in a personal sense, upon the surface of present affairs; his only value is as the index of the purpose of the Northern people. "When the Executive released Jefferson Davis, to my mind," the speaker said, "it was a bid of Andrew Johnson for the surport of ten States. The Union League of New York is defied by Horace Greeley, and conquered. Now, the Union League Club of New York and are the strongest of the radical ring of that party; and when the leader of that party attempts to cover and protect the leader of the Rebels, they dare not rebuke him. They forget the great epoch of the nation." Mr. Phillips also said:—I think there are the supposes himself to give an acute knave. The fact that his own comrades and the country presses of his own party dare not rebuke him, is a hamentable fact. 'In regard to the Presidential election of 1869, Mr. Phillips said:—'The country can bear the defeat of a nominal radical, but we can't survive the election of a Grant or a Senator Sherman.'' The speaker said be could not consider the country safe or the great question of the war settled until the purpose of the North is written in the Constitution, and the United States has got the right to construct schools for the chill free heads of the speaker that his own entry of his birthplace, and the could not consider the country safe or the great question of the war settled until the purpose of the North is written in the Constitution, and the United States has got the right to construct schools for the chill dren born on its territory, and when every black person at the South may have forty acres of land for his own within ten miles of his birthplace, and the right to use the ballot and appeal to the b day last was attacked by Indians, between Beaver and Julesburg, and all the stock stolen. of OPERATIONS-TO Citizen General Diaz:-At this moment (7:30 P. M.) I have just received the despatch which I have the honor to tran-scribe for you:-At 3 o'clock this morning the Cruz fort was At 3 o'clock this morning the Cruz fort was taken by surprise. The enemy, thrown thus into disorder, concentrated on the Campanas height. In his retreat thither he was raked by our artillery, which increased his confusion. The whole garrison was at length made pri-soners, and all the enemy's war material cap-tured. Maximilian, and his Generals Castillo and Mejta, surrendered at discretion.

Have the goodness to make known this glo-rious event to your whole gallant Army Corps, and to the citizen Governors of the States along the line of your command, and accept the most cordial felicitations. Independence and the republic! MARIAN ESCOBEDO.

HEADQUARTERS, FRONT OF QUERETARO, May 15, 1867.—And I copy the above for your in-formation and delight. PORFIRIO DIAZ.

TRAIN ON DRUNKARDS.

Mr. Train makes the following pointed reply to an invitation to address a great temperance mass meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, on the Fourth of July:-

Fourth of July:--Fourth of July:--To W. S. Peterson, Editor Playorm, Chairman Com-mittee of Arrangements, Des Moines, Iowa:--When drunkards to the right of us drunkards to the loit of us, drunkards in front of us, blander and stagger, your mission is godilke. When physicians stop giv-ing whisky and alchobolic medicines to their patients --when editors practise temperance as well as preach h--when young men have courage to say "No!"--when preachers stop the practice of giving wine to pledged temperance men at the sacrament--when temperance becomes as fashionable as drunkenness now is cold water will be at a premium. Inclinations may "Yes"-engagements, "No." Shoerely, GEO. FRANCIS TRAIN,
