THE INTERNAL REVENUE LAW-AN IMPORTANT CIRCULAR TO BANKS, BANKERS, AND BROKERS.

The following circular has recently been issued by order of the Internal Revenue Department, and gives a comprehensive view of what is required of banks, bankers, and brokers, and their several duties as regards the internal revenue. The circular has been made public for their special information, and will tend greatly to clear up doubts, and make plain legal requirements, which heretofore were but im-perfectly understood:—

Who are to be Reparded as Banks or Bankers?

(Act of June 30, 1806, section 70 subdivision one)—
Every incorporated or other bank, and every person, firm, or company having a place for the transaction of one or more of the following kinos of business, is to be regarded as a bank or banker:

According to the ruling of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, money borrowed or received by a bank or banker on interest, and employed in his business must be considered as capital and taxed accordingly.

All money, therefore, thus borrowed or received and basiness must be considered as capital and second gly.

All money, therefore, thus borrowed or received and used in banking, no in b okering as margins upon which tax is paid by stamps, is required to be included in monthly returns of capit u.

All who have neglected to make returns for any portion of the time for any tax required since the law came into force in 1894, are required to make returns for such time for whatever tax. It not made at once the assessment with penalty added will be made.

ARRESTED ON SUBPICION OF ROBBERY.—Richard C. Knory, being in the employ of Mr Orr, the proprietor of an ire-cream saloon, on Lombard street, above Second, had free access to all the rooms. On Monday last he brought two young men, whose appearance was suspicious, about the premises. On Monday evening all three yield the the complete of Mr. Orr. While the two latter waited below, Knory went up stairs, and, after a short stay, hurriedly came down, saying that he was off for the metropolis. Mr. Orr, stepping up stairs soon after, found that a couple of trunks in one of the rooms had been tampered with, and after an investigation he discovered that $150 in money and two gold and silver watches were missing. Knory was believed to be the thief. Last night he returned from New York, and this morning was arrested by Officer Benjamin Baglettes, of the Third District. Alderman Butler held him for a further hearing. None of the missing articles were recovered. ARRESTED ON SUSPICION OF ROBBERY .- Richard were recovered. IMPORTANT TO STRAMBOAT CAPTAINS AND IMPORTANT TO STEAMBOAT CAPTAINS AND OWNERS.—By an act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, passed on the 6th of April, 1867, all captains or owners of steamboats or other vessels are prohibited from landing excursion or pic-nic parties on the banks or wharves of the Delaware river, at or near Delanco, or Fiorence Heights, or the Rancocas river, etc. etc., under a penalty of ten dollars for each and every person so landed or disembarked, and shall be liable to arrest, and for all damages that may be committed by such excursion or pic-nic parties to the property or persons of the cilizens or residents of the county of Burlington.

ROBBING A MONEY DRAWER.-Alderman Lutz yesterday committed a boy named William H.
Browne for robbing a money drawer, in a store at Fifth and Morris streets, of a small amount of money. He was held to answer at Court.

HOW ONE MAN COOLLY WALKED AWAY WITH ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE—An affair which yeared yoccurred in the vicinity of the "creek" and Carpenter street was productive of no lit. 'e excitement. It seems that the immediate diablic the wherein the transaction recorded took place, is the abode of a certain class who know as little of individual rights and the true principles of freedom as any class could know who never beard of such rights or reincloles.

never heard of such rights or principles.

Mr. and Mrs. McGowan were taking their case upon the step of their house, when one John Hurst, who is decidedly inimical to the peace and comfort of McGowan, passed by He stopped to meditate a moment turned back, and taking the lady by the heard claimed here. and, taking the lady by the hand, claimed her as his bride, and deliberately walked away with her, to the utter consternation of the legal Recovering from the spell this sudden trans-

Recovering from the spell this sudden transaction had caused, the latter stepped up to Hurst, and desired to know why and wherefore thus abruphly bereft of his spouse. As an answer to such an absurd interrogatory Hurst felied him to the ground, which was succeeded by punchings, and kickings, and soreamings all intermingled with curses, which soon drew around the trio a circle of interested spectators. Hurst was arrested and committed, while McGowan, with an expansive head and black eyes, meditates upon inconstancy and the mutability of human affairs.

MEETING OF THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY .-The Agricultural Society of this city held a regular stated meeting at their rooms, No. 702 Walnut street, commencing at 11 o'clock this morning.

The Society passed a resolution inviting Dr. Higgens, of Baltimore, to lecture before the Society upon the agricultural resources of Maryland.

Maryland.

A report was read upon the subject of appointing an inspector of fertilizers for this State. A bill for the appointment of such inspector was presented to the Legislature, but failed to pass, owing to lateness of presentation.

A working model of an atmospheric churn was shown, and its working illustrated.

A very curious effect of in-and-in breeding of domestic fowis was shown in the diminished size of an egg that was laid, and which was about the size of a pigeon's egg.

Dr. Emerson read an essay upon time, and the various manners in which it is used as a fertilizer, and the different states in which it is used.

A VIGOROUS ASSAULT SUCCESSFULLY REPELLED Last evening, Sergeant Broomall, of the Third District, was passing the corner of Fifth and Lombard streets, when he was accosted by one Bernard McNickle, of Celtic origin and great proportions, who desired the Sergeant to serve proportions, who desired the Sergeant to serve a warrant upon some party at variance with himself. This the officer refused, when he was at once beset with vigor by the Irate Celt, who would have undoubtedly sadly defaced the man of the law, had not the latter, with a spirit nil desperandum, retaliated in such a manner as to at once put Bernard under his power. After an night of lonely confinement in a cell, McNickte appeared before Alderman Butler, who committed him in default of $800 bail to answer at Court.

POLICE RAIDS LAST EVENING. - Lieutenant Connelly, of the Fifth District, having received several letters from citizens in the vicinity of Eleventh, Tenth, Locust, and Walnut streets, that these neighborhoods were infested with many vagabout females, started out with a posse of men last night to bring all such charac-ters within the walls of the Station. The result of a raid in the vicinity of these streets was the of a raid in the vicinity of these screets was the capturing of twenty-two female loungers, of sges varying from nineteen to thirty, and one

BE ON YOUR GUARD against the imitations and counterfelts of Hostetter's Stomach Bit-TERS, with which the pirates who make a dishonorable living by preying upon the sick and suffering, are now endeavoring to flood the markets of this country. Whenever these poison-mongers are discovered they are immediately prosecuted by the proprietors, who expend thousands of dollars annually in tracing them out and bringing them to justice. Within a short time injunctions have been obtained in the Courts of the United States against a number of individuals and firms, and suits are now in progress against several others, all of whose names will be given to the public. But in spite of the utmost vigilance and activity of their detective agents, the undersigned are, of course, unable to protect the public entirely against piratical imitations of a Standard National Tonic everywhere in request, and as readily convertible into cash as United States Bonds or Treasury Notes. They, therefore, as a measure of precaution, direct attention to the fact that a finely engraved label, representing St. George and the Dragon, and a beautiful proprietary stamp, bearing the official endorsement of the Government, appear on every bottle of the genuine BITTERS. The article is further authenticated by a miniature note of hand, with the signature of "Hostetter & Smith," to counterfell which is a State prison crime. The true BIT-TERS are sold in bottles only, and never in bulk.

Pure Wines and Liquors.—Persons desirous of obtaining a pure article of Brandy, Wine, Gir, or Whisky for medicinal or other purposes, should attend the sale to take place at Scott's Gallery, No. 1020 thesnut street, on Saturday morning, June 8, at 11 o'clock. The catalogue comprises over 600 demijohns and 200 cases of St. Julien Claret, all carefully selected by E. P. Middleton, whose reputation for dealing in pure and unadulterated liquors has been established for the last twenty-five years.

THE GETTYSBURG ASYLUM GIFT ENTERPEISE.

—The following commendable arrangement has been made by the Board of Supervisors of the Gettysburg Asylum Enterprise, Mr. Samuel G. Diehl, Deputy Collector of the Second District, is to receive all moneys paid in for certificates, and in case the decision of the Supreme Court is against the corporation, every certificate holder will receive back his or her money. Mr. Diehl will deposit all the funds in the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives, and keep it there until the decision is announced or the first drawing actually takes place. This plan will insure against loss, under any circumstances, to purchasers of certificates.

This Evening commences the important sale of Oil Paintings from the American Art Gallery of New York. The collection numbers over three hundred specimens, by artists of acknowledged reputation, and are sold for the encouragement of American artists. We wish them every success, as it is a noble object. Those wishing good pictures should attend the sale, which takes place in the Gallery, No. 1020 Chesput street, continuing to-morrow and Friday evenings, by B. Scott, Jr.

Helmbold's Buchu.—Among the many advertised remedies, none more fully and faithfully carry out all that is claimed for them than the above-named deservedly popular medicals. than the above-named deservedly popular medicine. As a curative power for all diseases of the kidneys, female weaknesses, dyspepsia, and other complaints consequent upon irregular habits, there is said to be nothing to equal it, and as a proof of this regular physicians in New York city and elsewhere are freely recommending it for diseases as above mentioned, white at no time during the eighteen years it has been in existence, has its sale been as rapid as now. Like every good article, this as well has imitators; so parties buying should be sure to ask for and get none other but that known as Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu.—Springfield Journal.

One of Maximilian's War Vessels Brings a Prize into Port, Etc.

New York, June 5 .- Havana advices to the 1st instant state that one of Maximilian's war vessels had arrived there with a prize, captured off the coast of Yucatan. As a prize can only be sold in a port held by the captor, it is unknown what course will be pursued by the Havana authorities.

A partial reconciliation of the difference between General Manzano and Mr. Hoffman, Consular Agent of Juarez, has been effected. The idea that the United States Government will interfere in the case of the American barque Ocean Home; is ridiculed [in official circles. The vessel is advertised to be sold, the minimum price being fixed at $15,000.
