Mr. J. C. Martin moved that Common Council concur in the amendment of Select Council to the resolution to meet in joint convention for the election of police magistrates on the 13th (yesterday) instead of the 20th.

Mr. Hetzell opposed this carnestly. The object of the motion was, he said, to re-elect all the present police magistrates, who, violating their oaths, have failed to pay into the city treasury the heavy fines and fees collected by them in their official capacity. The number of volumes now in the library is 3100, besides several hundred duplicates and books. The bound volumes added for the past five years have averaged nearly five hundred a year. Many of these are imported by the Society from Europe. Of pamphiets, unbound because of incomplete sets, there are over 16,000, besides many duplicates, kept to enable other collectors to complete their files. There are also 308 manuscripts, mostly historical, 560 ancient autograph letters, and 455 likenesses of eminent Baptists, of various countries.

OBSERVED ITS ANNIVERSARY YESTERDAY AF-TERNOON.—The third anniversary of the "Old Man's Home" was held yesterday afternoon, in the Princeton Presbyterian Church, corner of Thirty-ninth street and Powelton avenue. Rev. J. Addison Henry presided. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Albert Barnes. After the reading of the Scriptures by Professor Saunders, the annual report was read. It is stated that the aim of the managers is to take under their protection a class, helpless indeed, yet not helpless from youth or sex, but simply from misfortune, from old age, and from the absence of all natural ties with any on whom they may depend for the little term of life yet left them. They feel that every such man is entitled to that earnest sympathy which prompts them to use every means of securing for him a home where he may close his eyes in calm content. The Home is located on Powelton avenue, and will accommodate from twenty-five to thirty inmates. It now contains eighteen. The cost of carrying on the operations of the Society is about $3500 annually. The Home belongs to the managers, having been purchased on favorable terms. During the afternoon addresses were made by Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Dr. Stork, and others.

THE COMING FOURTH .- The Special Committee of Councils, at a recent meeting to consider the propriety of observing the coming Fourth in a manner commensurate with the day and its memories, submitted the following: The Special Committee appointed to consider he proper observance of the Fourth of July, 1867, respect ully report that although the day is one that is held sacred by every true lover of liberty, and every annual return of it should be commemorated in a suitable manner, yet, owing to the severe and expensive contest the country has recently passed through for the main-tenance and perpetuation of that liberty, causing an expenditure to the city of upwards of $10,000,000, which sum still remains a heavy debt for the tax-payers to pay, and also in view of the inct that it would require an expenditure of about $8000 to make anything like a creditable display, compels the Committee to report that it is inexpedient to make an appropriation for the celebration of the Fourth of July,

The Committee therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

RETURN OF THE TURNVEREIN .- The Philadelphia Turner Association, after participating in the Musical Festival at Baltimore, where the first prize was secured, returned to the city last evening. The delegation was met at the Balti-more depot by members of the Association, and, headed by a band of music, were escorted to the ball, N. Third street. A torch-light procession was formed, and fireworks were pientifully used along the route.

TARGET PRACTICE.—On Tuesday last, at the target practice of the Philadelphia Rifle Club, J. G. Schmid won the first pr.ze, as entering the most rings on the target; William Siegrist the first prize, as the first best shot at the ring terrest. At the regular targets with Parkets ring target. At the regular targets Mr. Barbst won the first prize.

REPORTED KILLED .- It is reported that a Philadelphian, named John Neil, was killed near the Fish House, New Jersey, yesterday after-noon. He and a party of men are reported to have passed the day in sport at the Fish House, and when about to return a railroad train came along. The party ran to get out of the way, but Mr. Neili was not quick enough. The engine struck him, and he was instantly killed.

"THE QUEEN"-a portrait presented to George Peabody, Esq.—may be seen day and evening at Earles' galleries, Chesnut street, above Eighth.

NEW J. RSEY AFFAIRS. THE STRAWBERRY FETE AT HAMMOSTON .-Those who part copaled in the excursion to Hammonton, New Jersey, will long remember the occasion as a very pleasant one, at least so we found it; and if we are to believe what the participants stated to us, so did they.

Firmmenton, as is pretty well known, but not half as well as it should be, is a village of three thousand inhabitants, struated on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, thirty miles east of Philidelphia. It is, par excetence, the great strawberry district of the United States, its inhabitants claiming for, and those familiar with its pretension in this respect conceding to, it the proud pre-eminence of producing a greater quantity of fine small fruits, and especially of strawberries, than any territory of similar extent in the world. This great truit-producing region was, less than two great fruit-producing region was, less than two years ago, a wilderness, as untuviting a territory as is to be found in any part of New Jersey. To-day it beasts a population of nearly four thousand souls, a capital invested in fruit cultore amounting to more than a million of dollars, and with a decided tendency to increase in breadth or territory set to fruit as well as in culinary vegetable culture.

But to our excursionists. We left Vine street wharf at half-past 7 o'clock yesterday morning, a party numbering some one hundred and fifty in all, and all provided with free passes, through the courtesy of the managers of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company. The rain of the previous evening had rendered the atmosphere bracing and pleasant, so that we were in htting mood for the enjoyment of the treat in store.

On our arrival at Hammonton we were es corted to the Presbyterian Church, a neat edi-fice on Bellevue avenue, which had been kindly placed at the disposal of the excursionists by the congregation. A volunteer choir was soon formed from the party, the organ loft taken pos-session of, and a number of fine pieces sang, which were followed by several pleasant speeches, after which the party adjourned to Ellis Hall, to partake of the handsome collation provided by Elwood Mattock, of this city, who ir: m its incipiency has been intimately identified with the interests of Hammonton. It is only due to Mr. Matlock to state that ample justice was done to the superb strawberries, Delaware county ice cream, and toothsome sandwiches, etc., liberally provided by him. At least 500 persons were cutertained at this place; among them, some fity members of the New York Farmers' Club, who visited Hammonton as a committee to inspect the fruit crops, and award the premiums to competitors at the exhibition.
Carriages being provided, the excursionists availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded them of visiting different parts of the village, all expressing the highest gratification at what they saw.

At 1 o'clock the Strawberry Exh'bition was opened in the M. E. Church, and it is safe to assert that a finer display of strawberries has never been made in this country, and yet, we were assured by one of the most prominent fruit-growers there, that, but for the busy season, it would have exceeded the present display fulls tenfold. Of this there can be a reason, fully tenfold. Of this there can be no reasonable doubt.

Governor Ward and his Secretary of State visited the exhibition in the course of the after-noon, and in brief speeches expressed their gratification at what they saw and heard. They were warmly received. At three o'clock the excursionists again assembled in the Presbyterian Church, and passed onanimously a series of resolutions expressive onanimously a series of resolutions expressive of the pleasure the visit had given them, and complimentary to the railroad company, the fruit-growers, and the ladies.

A word in regard to the fruit display. All present—and among them were some of the most prominent and skillul pomologists in the country, united in pronouncing it superior to anything they had ever seen; and so, indeed, it was. Hundreds of dishes of the most extravagantly large berries were neatly arranged on the long tables, exciting the admiration of visi-gantly large berries were neatly arranged on the long tables, exciting the admiration of visitors, and causing a mouth-watering on all sides. Nearly all the prominent, market varieties were on exhibition, the Wilson's Albany predominating in quantity. The Philadelphia Seedling was shown in greater perfection than ever before, while Boyden's Mammoth, Mr. Evoy's Superior, Stinger's Seedling, the Agriculturist, and other superb varieties, abounded in profusion.

profusion. As a whole, the excursion was a most pleasant All appeared to enjoy themselves, and were loud in their expressions of gratification. Indeed, we never saw a more surprised party. Most of them started with the prevailing impression that they were about to be permitted to wade through acres of sand, and witness the feeble growth of balt-a-dozen or a dozen straw-berry plants; instead of which they had fine graded walks on which to promenade, and were ermitted to see strawberry plantations which, for extent and productiveness, are unequalied.

FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF CAMDEN HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN.—Last evening the Sons of Malia, to the number of seventy, made a donation of $100 through their Grand Master. Eijah G. Cattell, Esq., President of the Home, in receiving it, said:-Gentlemen:-As presiding officer of the noble institution for whose benefit this grand far is being held, on behalf of the managers I thank you; and for these dear little orphaus under our care, we tender to you our gratitude for your munificent donation, and for your appearance among us to-night. We are pleased when by this demonstration we find that your order kindly remembers the orphans and the friendless. We assure you, gentlemen, that your liberality could not have been applied in a more praiseworthy direction. We do not doubt but that you will be amply repaid by the satisfac-tion you will each derive in assisting to support and educate these poor little children, who have been deprived of their natural protectors. Your actions to-night will not only swell the fund we are trying to realize by our Festival, but, gentlemen, your example will be felt, and will have a decidedly beneacial effect upon other orders and societies, and will doubtless induce them to follow in your care for the orphans and the friendless. We also thank you in behalf of the noble, self-sacrificing ladies (God bless and reward them for their efforts in behalf of our institution!) the gettersup of such an extensive and pleasant entertainment. They deserve success, and it certainly bids fair to equal their expectations. They have the warmest thanks of the friends of the friendless. Again, gentlemen, we thank you and all others who, by their presence and material aid, have encouraged and assisted the managers of the Home in their labor of love.

Two young ladies then presented each member of the Order with a bouquet, after which they left the hall. As last evening was to witness the closing of the Fair, the successful contestants for the tea service and Bible were mentioned. The former was announced as the property of Rev. D. Shock, of Merchantville, and the latter as beonging to Lodge No. 15, of the Freemasons The Fair closed with a grand supper. The amount realized will exceed $1500. The Festival reflects great credit upon the managers, and be remembered by those who fortunate enough to participate, as connected with some of the most pleasant days of their
