WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF IT!

"All conveniently and systematically arranged, and sold for three dollars, while no other work of the kind can be had for less than twenty dollars. When one looks over a work of this sort, and sees the Industry, pains and patience it cost; its skilful arrangement, as well as its real value as a book of reference, he gets a glimpse of the tremendous brain-power which the business of the country requires and compels into its service."—Liberat Christian,

"Sprang from a practical idea into life. In a few years it will be as generally circulated as are bank-note reporters and city directories now."—Baltimore Weeker. "Fully supplies a long-felt want."-Wheeling Intelli-

"Shows an immense amount of labor." "Shows a conscientious endeavor to be correct." "Is well worth the price asked."—Methodist Home Journal, Phila-

"Mr. Kellogg's pian is very extended. He has be-stowed a large amount of labor upon its execution. Such a book as this must be invaluable to the mer-chant wherever he may be located."—New York Com-

"It is evident that great care has been bestowed upon the preparation of this volume, and it will be valuable not only as a commercial directory, but as a handy record of documents and statistics."—Now York Evening Post.

"We have noticed this volume in many of the best business houses, and should judge it was meeting with great lavor. It is undoubtedly a valuable book of re-ierence."—New York Independent, "Within the compass of a thousand pages there is compressed more of the right kind of knowledge, with less needless material, than we have ever known before in any attempt of the kind."—Christian Standard. Cieveland.

"One of the completest and best works of the kind we have ever seen." - Wilmington (Del.) Daily Cont-"Should be in every business man's bands," 50 SAY ALL OF THE PRESS,
