CITY INTELLIGENCE.

(FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE INSIDE PAGES THE PENN STREET HOMICIDE. DEATH OF EDWARD C. BURTON AT THE HOSPITAL-TWO MEN ARR ARRESTED ON SUSPICION-THE CASE STILL INVESTED WITH MYSTERY.

Yesterday afternoon we gave an account of Yesterday afternoon we gave an account of the discovery of a workman in the cooper shop of Mr. Benjamin Kirby, No. 569 Penn street, below Lombard, who had been brutally beaten about the head and face by some unknown person. The shop fronts on both Penn and Largin streets, the first story of the Penn street front being the second story of the Larkin street front. The only person at work in the shop yesterday morning was the wounded man, Edward C. Burton by hame. The discovery, as already stated, was made about II o'clock in the morning, by some children who had entered the place to gather chips. Previous to this ho the place to gather colps. Previous to this no one had been observed to enter or leave the place for some time, so that the assault must have been made early in the morning.

The wounded man, when discovered, was lying on the floor near Larkin street. At his side was a heavy tool composed of wood and fron, called by the coopers a "frow," and used for splitting staves. It was covered with blood, as was also a stave lying near, to which a small plece of flesh and a few hairs likewise adhered. This would seem to indicate that at least two persons were engaged in the murderous assault. Near the body stood a bucket of water, in which the guilty person or persons had evidently washed their hands, as the liquid was deeply tinged with blood. tinged with blood.

As soon as the horrified children had made their discovery they gave the alarm, and the persons that came in answer removed the insensible, but still breathing man, to the Pennsylvania Hospital. An examination of his wounds was made at once by Dr. Norris, who found that the bone over the left eye was fractured, and the nose broken, while there were several severe cuts upon the head of the unfortunation. tunate man. Burton lingered until five o'clock tunste man. Burton lingered until five o'clock in the afternoon, when life finally became extinct. From the moment of his discovery until his death he was insensible, and not a word could be obtained from him as to the persetrators of the brutal deer. During the afternoon his wife visited the hospital, but his features had been so greatly disfigured by the blows in flicted, that she could not recognize him, and was about turning away, when her attention was attracted by a away, when her attention was about turning away, when her attention was attracted by a large sliver ring which the deceased wore upon one of his fingers. By this the sorrowing woman recognized her husb nd.

The deceased resided in a neatly-furnished two-story brick house, at No. 114 Carpenter street. He was a native of Wilmington, Delastreet. He was a native of Wilmington, Delaware, and was about twenty-six years of age. During the war he served with credit for four years in the 11th Regiment of Onio Veteran Volunteers. He was a fine-looking man, of stout build and great muscular power, and is represented as having been an excellent workman, of sober and industrious habits, respected by all his acquaintances. Some time since he meditated the carrying of some weapon upon his person, but his wife reasoned with him upon the subject, and he was induced to give up the idea. About seven months ago he was married, and since that time his wife, who is a mere girl in years and looks, says they had girl in years and looks, says they had living together almost like children, in perfect happiness. Previous to his marriage, Burton had been an active member of the Shiffier Hose, but at the request of his wife he resigned from the company and soid nis equip-ments, although he was still in the habit of wearing a fireman's red shirt, with the number "32" upon the bosom.

The Coroner, baving empanelled a jury in the case, visited the Hospital this morning, for the purpose of viewing the body, which will be turned over to the wife of the deceased for burial. Two persons have already been taken into custody, on suspicion of having been con-cerned in the affair. The inquest will take place at I o'clock to morrow atternoon.

The first arrest made was that of Orianto T.

Samson, who was given a hearing late last evening, by Alderman Tittermary. A small boy by the name of Henry Johnson was the only witness then examined. He testified that only witness then examined. He testified that about ten days ago he overheard a quarrel between Samson and a man who is supposed to have been the deceased.

The dispute took place on the river front, and during it Samson is said to have threatened to take the life of his opponent. The boy was not certain that the latter and the deceased were one and the same person, but the Alderman deemed the evidence sufficiently strong to justify him, not in committing the accused to answer at a further hearing, but in holding him in $5000 bail to appear at half-past 5 o'clock this afternoon. If Mr. Samson had been the guilty party, he was thus given all the opportunity that he could desire to effect his escape; and if he had been guilty, no one can doubt but that he would have sacrificed his bail for the sake of saving his life. It is pretty certain, however, that Mr. Samson had nothing bail for the sake of saving his life. It is pretty certain, however, that Mr. Samson had nothing whatever to do with the affair, as it is said that he can show conclusively that he was ongaged yesterday morning in unloading a vessel in the lower part of the city; so that no evil will in this case result from the strange and unwarrantable proceeding of Alderman Tittermary.

A short time before 11 o'clock last evening, Patrick Quinn was also taken into custody, at Eleventh and Hamilton streets, by Officers Yoder and Carson, on suspicion of being the guilty person. He was conducted to the Union Street Station House, and there confined during the night. This morning the accused was given the night. This morning the accused was given a hearing by Aiderman Morrow, by whom he was committed to answer at a further hearing this afternoon.

Our reporter this morning had an interview with Mr. Kirby, the proprietor of the cooper shop in which Burton was employed. From Mr. Kirby we learn the following facts:—
Some time since he had a heavy contract for furnishing Lovering's Sugar Refinery with hogsheads and barrels, but lost it recently through his former foreman, Mr. James Young, who is now in business at Eleventh and Carpenter streets, offering to do the work at a lower rate. Mr. Kirby then found it necessary to discharge all his hands except two, Burton being one of those retained. It is rumored that conone of those retained. It is rumored that considerable ill-feeling was manifested towards Burton by his fellow-workmen on this account. Among those discharged was Patrick Quinn, who had been employed as a drayman in the establishment.

Shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Kirby left his office in the upper part of the building, and on going down stairs found Quinn present, in company with the deceased. Mr. Kirby shook hands with Quinn, and asked him if he would not walk up town with him. Burton, at this invitation, addressed Mr. Kirby, saving. stablishment. "You wouldn't walk with an Irishman like

"You wouldn't walk with an Irishman like him, would you, Ben?"
At this unflattering remark by the deceased, Qninn stepped forward, and said:—
"Oh, yes! I guess he would have no objection."
Mr. Kirby and Quinn then approached the door, and stood for awhile talking about the purchase of a horse. Mr. Kirby then departed, while Quinn remained at the shop, in a very merry mood, resulting, possibly, from his partial intoxication at the time.

Nothing further is now known of Quinn's proceedings until he was taken into custody last evening. After he had been secured in the Station House, Lieutenant Goldy asked him what time he left the cooper shop yesterday morning. To this question he replied. "12 o'clock." He was told that Burton was at the Hospital at that time, and he then said that he had left the shop about ten minutes after the departure of Mr. Kirby. He also acknowledged to the Lieutenant that he was drunk during the morning.

On examining the clothes of the prisoner this morning, it was found that the sleeves and bosom of his shirt, as well as other portions of his garments, were stained with blood! Detective Lamon, assisted by Lieutenant Goldy and his police, are busily engaged in working up the case, and it is quite probable that, before the hearing of Quinn takes place this afternoon, the crime will be fastened upon him. Quinn is an Irishman by birth, and has been but a short time in this country. He is about twenty three years of ace, unmarried, and resides at Eleventh and Hamilton streets, near where he was arrested last night.

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS .- For some time the proprietors of the numerous warehouses on Front street, between Market and Arch, have Front street, between Market and Arch, have missed numbers of bags, such as are used in packing dry goods, coffee, etc. By their wish an officer of the First District was put upon the watch. He soon discovered that the thefts were made by little boys, who were instigated to such oriminal acts by two old men named Peter Armstrong and Rouert Sanders, the one white and the other of a darker hue. Both the istter regularly employed these boys to engage in petty thieving for their profit, they receiving the stolen goods at their underground establishment on Third street, between Chesnut and Market. The boys were held as witnesses, while the old men were held in $600 ball each to answer at Court.

THIRVES ATTEMPT A ROBBERY-ARE FOILED, THISVES ATTEMPT A ROBBERY—ARE FOILED, AND ARRESTED.—About I o'clock yesterday afternoon three young men, named Matthew Quigly alias John Daley alias John Hutzel, Daniel Henry allas Dan Taylor, and John Crawford, entered the salcon kept by Mrs. Sanford, at No. 1110 Girard avenue, and demanded drinks. Their wants in this direction being supplied, two went out with the ostensible purpose of leaving, but Instead went around into the back yard, and with little labor gained an antirapea into the kitchen by prying open the pose of leaving, but instead went around into the back yard, and with little labor gained an entrance into the kitchen by prying open the shutters of a window. All the time the third one was entertaining Mrs. Sanford with engaging conversation, but this ultimately flagged, and the lady keeper stepped back into the kitchen. What was her surprise to see the two whom she had supposed away from the house, trying to get upstairs. She screamed, and they left in "double quick." Now it so hap; ened that Alderman Fitch, the well-known Police Magistrate of the Twelfth District, was passing by, and attracted by the scream, came in Hearing the account from the excited lady, he rushed out of the house and into the street, where espying Officer Crock he hailed him, and both went after the thleves up Eleventh street in quick time, the dapper legs Eleventh street in quick time, the dapper legs of the worthy Alderman keeping blm considerably ahead. He arrested Quigly at Eleventh and Jefferson streets, officer Crock laid hold of John Crawford at the same place, while Sergeant Brodie seeing the crowd rushing by, also maked out and solved Dan Henry at Warnock rushed out and seized Dan Henry at Warnock and Jefferson streets. Each of the parties were then arraigned before the magistrate, and held in $1000 bail each to answer at Court. Being in default of ball they were committed.

REUNION.—The pleasure of rejoicing after a certain difficult task has been accomplished will be felt this evening at the reunion meeting of the Tabernacie Baptist Church. During the early history of this church, which was founded about twenty years since, much perseverance and energy were called for from its first promoters. The patience necessary for this toll-some business was abundantly supplied by one of the first pastors of the church, Hev. Minor G. Clarke, to whose energy and untiring zeal the Society doubtless owed its incipient prosperity amid the discouragements and financial embarrassments of its early history. The work which was so well begun by Rev. M. G. Clarke, and followed up by his successors, Drs. Brantly and Eddy, has been brought to a completion during the past week, chiefly through the un-REUNION .- The pleasure of rejoicing after a during the past week, chiefly through the un-wearled application and executive ability of the present beloved pastor of the Tabernacie Church, Rev. George A. Peltz. The entire indebtedness of the church has now been extinguished, and the members of the church and congregation meet this afternoon and evening to hold so dal and developed reunion services with their forand devotional reunion services with their for-mer pastors, to celebrate the event. To-morrow evening, at the Academy of Music, the Sunday Schools of this church will hold a grand must-cal celebration, at which Rev. G. A. Peltz will oc-cupy the chair, and Rev. M. G. Clarke, and Drs. Eddy and Brantley will be present. Full par-ticulars are given in our advertising columns.

APPOINTMENTS IN THE REGULAR ARMY .- The APPOINTMENTS IN THE REGULAR ARMY.—The Board of Examiners for candidates for commissions in the United States Army, now sitting in New York, of which Colonel A. J. Slemmer (of Fort Pickens fame) is President, receitly passed George B. Carse, E.q., of Philadelphia, as captain, and he has been assigned to the 45th United States Infantry. Captain Carse entered the army in 1861 as a private in the 28th Pennsylvania Regiment, and served till the close of the war, when he had been appointed a captain in the 24th Veteran Reserve Corps, and complimented with the rank of brevet colonel. He has been for some time past on colonel. He has been for some time past on duty at Danville, Va., in charge of Freedmen's Eureau affairs, and will be continued there in his new position as captain in the 15th. He is a brave, intelligent, and energetic officer, and will prove an acquisition to the Regular army.

STRALING ROPE .- This morning Officers Cra-STEALING ROPE.—This morning Officers Cramer and Cave, of the Eighteenth District, learning of a suspicious transaction in which two young men, Michael Sharp and Daniel O'Neal, were engaged on Petty's Island, started for that place. Their suspicions were well founded, and they arrested the two offenders for a larceny of rope. It appears that a number of valuable rafts, worth $10,000, belonging to Mr. Jonathan Powell, were lying off Greenwich Point. These young men floated them up to the Island with the tide, and there proceeded to divest them of all their tacking, valued at $100, which they hid in the cubby of an old canal boat, the top of which has just been visible for years past. The boat in their possession bore the stamp of "William Crouse, Poplar street wharf," and is supposed to have been stolen. Alderman S-nix committed the two, in default of $1000 ball each, to answer at Court. to answer at Court.

BEATING HIS WIFE WITH A MURDEROUS IN-FENT.—Yesterday afternoon, Frederick Nean-ber, a Dutch resident of Rising Sun, and a lover of the ardent, came home in a sad state of men-tal and physical debility. His wife took what care she could of him, and he was left to sleep off the soporific influences engendered by too much drink. This done, he awoke in no envia-ble temperament, proceeded to beat his wife in a violent memory and not contant, with work a violent manner, and not content with what his hands alone could do, he seized a large butcher knife and attempted to take her life. Alderman Thomas committed him in default of Those who desire to see it must therefore improve the present opportunity. The interest of the exhibition has been further increased by the recent addition of several large and small photographs. These include a group of all the members of the Board of Trustees of the Peabody Educational Fund, as well as portraits of General Grant, Admiral Farragut, George Peabody, Esq., Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio, Charles Macalester, and others. Macalester, and others.

A PRAISEWORTHY ACT .- Mrs. John Drew and Mr. G. L. Fox have tendered an invitation to the pupils of that excellent institution, the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, to visit the Arch Street Theatre on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Mr. G. L. Fox and his brother, Mr. C. K. Fox, appear in two pantomimes, Nothing in the way of amusements could be more acceptable to those unfortunates, and no sight could be more beautiful than to witness the pleasure of the guests on their witnessing pantomime as rendered by the brothers Fox.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY .- Some time ago one dark night, a burglary took place in the vicinity of Fitzwater and Seventh streets, whereby a lot of gold jewelry was lost. A certain noted person was thereafter missing from his daily walks in this city. Returning last night, he was arrested at Fourth and Shippen sticets, and gives his name as Theodore Hoover. It is slieged that he committed the theft of a gold watch, chain, and money. Officer Lyons made the arrest, and Alderman Tittermary committed Hoover to answer.

MARVELLOUS PROPERTIES.

It stands pre-eminent among the health restoring preparations of the age, and every year adds to its fame, not only in this country, but throughout the civilized world.

SOME OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES seem to think that the triumph of their cause depends, like the fate of Jericho, upon the amount of noise made-in these days of refinement and luxury. an article of real intringle merit is soon appreciated; hence the unbounded and unparalleled success of PLANTATION BITTERS.

This remedy has ever and always been found reliable. As a gentle stimulant and tonic appe tizer it cannot be excelled. It is no doubt a sovereign remedy for stomachic disorders-for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and in stimulating a healthy appetite.

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD is the primary cause of most Skin Diseases, although there are cases where very repulsive forms of this complaint arise from obstruction of the pores of the skin, checking perspiration, causing an intolerable Itching, and terminating in an eruption of Fimples, Pustules, Ringworm, Tetter, Salt Rheum, etc. For all these affections Dr. Jayne's Al-terative is an efficient remedy, cleansing the blood of all impurities, and absorbing the gross particles which obstruct the small perspiratory ducts. By its action on the circulation, it drives all Scrofulous diseases from the system, assists the skin in performing its proper func-tions, and imparts a healthy glow to the com-plexion. Prepared only at No. 242 Chesnut

The justly celebrated remedy, advertised in another column, is one of the standard remedies that has stood the test of nearly a quarter of a century, while its popularity is being continually increased. Unlike quack medicines that run for a brief period and are forgotten, this one maintains its standing, while its curative powers are unsurpassed.

Sailing Party Drowned at Newark, N. J. At about noon yesterday a family party, consisting of Mr. Frederick Ulmi, of No. 159 Elm street, his wife, and four children, and a gentleman acquaintance, engaged a sali-boat at Mr. Peter Bower's boat house at Newark, and salied up the river towards Belleville on a pleasure excursion. When they arrived opposite the Cemetery, about a mile above the city, a flaw of wind struck the sali and capsized the boat. The men, unable to swim, Mrs. Ulmi and two of her children were drowned. The others of her chlidren, were drowned. The others saved themselves by clinging to the bottom of the capsized boat, and being seen from shore, were relieved by lads who rowed out to and towed them to shore.—N. Y. Tribune.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce—
T. B. Dwight, Assistant District Attorney,—Prison cases were resumed in this court.
Maria Baxter was acquitted of a charge of assault and battery.
John McCalla was acquitted of a charge of larceny.
George H. Vandyke and John H. Smith were tried upon cross charges of assault and battery upon each other. Smith testified that he was attacked by Vandyke in the street without any cause, and waknocked down, kicked, and bruised up generally. Vandyke testified that he saw Smith in the street drunk, and approached him; Smith shook his first in his face, and then he threw him to the pavement; nedid not kick or strike Smith, but waked away leaving him upon the pavement. Verdict gulty as to Vandyke, not gultly as to Smith.
COULT OF OUR RIPER SESSIONS—Judge Ludiow. ing him upon the payement. Verdict gu ity as to vandyke, not guilty as to Smith.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Judge Ludiow—Within B. Mann, District Altorney.—George Thomas was put upon trial upon a charge of arson. The state of facts as made out by the Commonwealth's witness was as follows—Mary Haward was, about a year ago, the mistress of the house No. 1840 Wood street, which was then a house of hil fame. One night this list spring a year ago, the defendant went to this loss with a course of commonloss and the matrices.

He was received by the inmales, and he very soon retired to one of the upper rooms. About two hours after this he was heard, but not seen, to leave the house, and twenty minutes after his departure the room he had been in was discovered to be all ablaze. However, before serious damage had been done, the fire was extinguished. Upon examination by Fire Marshai Blackburn the fire was pronounced to have been the work of an incendiary.

A witness for the defense testified that on that alght another person than the defendant left the house that evening in anger with the inmales; and it was attempted to throw the suspicion from the defendant upon this person.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty, and recommended the pri-oner to the mercy of the Court.

Ellen Metnich was charged was charged with assault and battery upon Mary Hassan. Mary Hassan testified about a year ago she lived one week in service with Mrs. Meinich, but had not been paid. On the 4th of last month she called upon Mrs. Meinich and aaked for the master of the bouse, in order that she might get her wages from nim, Mrs. Meinich then called her a "drunken caffah," and knocked her down.

The defense alleged that the prosecution was, by

Asa C. Adams was charged with the larceny of three bornet frames and a band-box, valued at $3.75, belonging to Charles Arnold. The defendant was sitting in a tayern where this bandbox had been left, and when he thought he was unobserved he picked it up and endeavored to make off with it. The landlord caught him, and asked him what he meant. He said he thought it belonged to him. Verdict not guilty.

Isaac Breidenbach was charged with receiving goods, knowing them to have been stolen. James Benner testified that his son and another boy had stolen from him several gold coine and some silver, together amounting to $15.500 and sold the greater portion of it to a tobacconist in Second street, above offrard avenue. But about the defendant he knew nothing positively.

John Hitter stated that Samuel Benner, the prosecutor's son, gave him some gold and silver, and told he bear and the large and t

John Ritter stated that Samuel Benner, the prosecutor's son, gave him some gold and silver, and told him to sell it. He took it to Breidenbach, and sold some of it to him. This latter witness, on cross-examination, stated that when he was first before the Alderman he did not take an oath, but he did say that he did not say he had sold money to the defendant, because Samuel Benner had told him not to; but afterwards his mother told him to make a clean breast of it, and at the second hearing he did so.

The detense proved an excellent character, and it was put to the jury, whether a man who has struggled for a lifetime to establish a fair name, and who has succeeded in so doing, is to be literally damned, blasted, ruined upon the bare oath of one man, who is, by his own words, an acknowledged their, vagabond, and scapegrace. Jury out.

Trial of John H. Surratt.

Washington, June 19.—After the recess, John T. Tippet testified that he heard Mrs. Surratt in Issiany she would give any one a thousand dollars it they would kill Lincoln. This was said in the presence of John Surratt, The latter, when there was a Union victory, said "Damn the Northern army and their leaders. They ought all to be sent to hell!" This was when the wilness carried the mail from Whashington to Charlotte Hall.

Ex-Sergeant Cooper testified that he was with Bergeant Dye on the night of the assassination, and also heard one of the men in frost of the theatre call out the time, "Ten past ten," There was nothing which especially excited his suspicion. He corroborated lye's testimony, that while he and Dye were resuring to Camp Barry, and on H street, at No. 54, a middle-aged woman raised a window, and asked what was going on down town. Witness and Dye told her the President was shot by Booth.

The Court took a recess until Thursday.

The Surratt Trial. The defense in the Surratt are have a number of witnesses here to prove an alibi for him on the day of the assassination. The Government testimony that he was here on that day is unexpectedly strong, and Surratt appears much worried and depressed to day.

Important Order of General Orde Brevet Major-General Ord, commanding the Fourth Military District, comprising Mississippi and Arkansas, on the 12th instant issued the following order:—

slippi and Arkansas, on the 12th instant issued the following order:—

With a view to secure to labor in this district its hire or just share of the crops, as well as to protect the interest alike of debtors and creditors from sacrifices of property by f. roed sales in the present impoverished condition of the country, it is ordered that all proceedings for the sale of land under cultivation, or of the crops, stock, farming utensits, or other materials used in tilling such lands, in pursuance of any execution, writ, or order of sale, issued in cases where the debt or other cause of civil action was contracted or accrued prior to the 1st day of January, 1865, be stayed and suspended until after the Soft day of December, 1867. In the meantime, all interferences, under color of any such legal process, with the tawful canant in cultivating or gathering the growing crops, is pro-nivited, provided that the rights or remedies for a recovery of debta at any time, of partical to whom the crops have been hypothecated for money, stock, or other means or material supplied in the cultivation of the land, shell not be hereby prejudiced or past-poned. This order to go into effect from and after the 30th of June, 1867, in the State of Missi-suppl, and from and after the 30th day of June, 1867, in the State of Alkansas.

It having been reported that corn, so much needed by the poor of this district is being made into whighly illocity, sub-district and post commanders are directed, when they can learn of the existence of any distillery engaged in manufacturing whisky, to larrym themselves whether it pays the legal taxes, and it not, to seize it and all the liquor they can find; and as poverty locreases where whisky abounds, the proporty seized will be sold for the benefit of the poor of the county in which it is f und, and the money will be divided under the direction of the Registration Board for that county, to whom it will be duly turned over. Subdistrict and post commanders are intrusted with the execution of this order.

General Sickles' Administration. The Raleigh Scatinet, in commending General Sickles' administration, explains some mea-sures of his in North Carolina, which are generally looked upon as arbitrary, by saying:condition of North and South Carolina precisely similar. Their status is not the same; their wants are not the same; hence, white an order might work well and be needed in South Carolina, it may not suit North Carolina. Gen.
Sickles cannot be present at the same time in every place. He is neither omniscient nor ubiquitous. Had he wise, good, intelligent, unprejudiced agents at every point, who can doubt that his administration would be better adapted to every part?"

A DESERTION CASE—BAD CONDUCT OF THE REPUTED HUSBAND.—For some time past Mr. Charles M. Keyser, a clerk in a prominent bank of this city, has been living with a lady of re-spectable family, as his wife, at a fashionable boarding house.

Everything went on smoothly until the early part of last week, when, for some unknown cause, Mr. Keyser deserted her. She was taken sick immediately after, but he did not make his appearance to minister to her sufferings. Yesterday a warrant was issued for his arrest, and he was taken before Alderman Delaney, who held him for trial.
