

Monday, 17.—Banquet given by the members of the Schuylkill Navy to the visiting Boat Clubs from other cities. After dinner they all put in their car, and made a noisy time Tuesday, 18.-Barney Aaron, the bruiser, gets a situation to keep bar in a Baltimore tavers. Failing to smash Collyer's smel-ler and draw the clarst, he tries his hand on brandy-smashes with considerable Wednesday, 19.—Suicide Day. A dozen or so of men and women in the different cities kill another, and then kill themselves, in the most disorderly manner.

June.

Thursday, 30.—City Councils meet. Myth Hancock proposes that the Cierks furnish the newspapers with the account of their proceedings, as the members have not now opportunity "to arrange their speeches as they would wish them for publication."

Friday, 21.-President Johnson leaves Washington on another Monumental excursion to the Hub of the Universe. He takes a number of spare felloes with him, Mr. Seward as spokes man, Saturday, 22.-SERIES COLUMN DAY. The Editor receives an invitation not to accom-pany the President to Boston. He takes this opportunity to acknowledge his thanks.

GRAND ENTERPRISE !!

SANCTIONED BY ALL THE LEGISLATURES OF ALL THE STATES!!

NO MORE POVERTY!!

A Fortune for the Pitiable Sum of Ten Cents !!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE !!

PROSPECTUS OF OUR PLAN. "Lave in it, drink of it, requests of the citizens of our country who have been unfortunate in many past enterprises, such as the Crosby Opera House and the Gettysburg affair, to get up a plan that overcomes all objections heretofore urged against those other and, we must say, comparatively dishonest enterprises.

Dissolute man.

We purpose having our head-quarters in Boston, a city which everybody knows would not tolerate anything of an immoral character.

We therefore take pleasure in announcing a GRAND PROMENADE CONCERT

AND PIG CHASE,

In Aid of the Asylum for Aged and Decayed Punsters.

This institution was established in this city previous to the war, and as that event took the legs off so many people, the institution now stands on an entirely different footing. We might add, in view of that fact, it is in a knee-dy condition. At this Musical Entertainment we propose giving away presents in value to the tune of $2,500,000. There are to be 5,000,000 tickets, issued at the low figure of 10 cents each, which, it is expected, will be ample to pay for the tickets and advertising, leaving a handsome profit.

This Asylum was organized prior to the Big Organ, but has had less blowing, consequently made less noise in the world. It has the recommendation of several Boston names, including BOSTON CORBETT. There are now here so many punsters out of Holmes, that the supply of puns is beyond the demand, and constitutes, in mercantile language, a "glut" in the market; and our only hope is that they will be eventually washed away and absorbed in the Atlantic !

We herewith give an extract embracing a small "List of the Premiums," taken at random from our new Illustrated Catalogue, which is now ready, and which we will send on receipt of 12 cents in stamps. We print, also, a few of the recommendations from gentlemen well known in the political, literary, and scientific world.

ASYLUM FOR AGED AND DECAYED PUNSTERS. Remember the Fatheriess and Motherless Wits !! Grand Musical Entertainment, Embracing a Con-cert and Pig Chase.

5,000,000 Presents, Valued at 2,500,000 Bollars.

3.500,000 Tickets at 10 Cents Each! 20 HVERY TICKET DRAWS TWO PRIZES

The prospectus of this grand enterprise, in a desire to allow the Asylum for Decayed Punsters of the present decade to extend its usefulness by putting wings to it, takes pleasure in referring to the following unsolicited testimonials, from well-known statesmen and and others, to this charitable undertaking :-From HORACE GREENLEAF, Enq., Editor of the New York Tribulation.

"The object of your Musical Concert and Pig Chase meets with my hearty approval, I have often thought of an Asylum of that kind for the writers on the paper in which I am concerned, but my time has been too much occupied with the Union League Club to organize it. I look forward to the time when somebody else will take the laboring oar, and I can farm a little, fish a little, and write when I feel in a bad humor."

From W. H. BEAWEED, Author of "Answers to Correspondents," etc. Washington, D. C.

"Your Grand Promenade Concert and Pig Chase are belitting the nineteenth or twentieth century, either. There never have been, nor are not now, nor ever will be, such presents again as are now offered by you to a united people; and

