REGISTRATION IN LOUISIANA. GENERAL SHERIDAN'S PROTEST AGAINST A RE-OPENING OF THE REGISTRY LISTS-A SHARP ARGUMENT AGAINST THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S

ARGUMENT AGAINST THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFINION.

NEW ORLEANS, June 22.—General Sheridan Sent General Grant the following to-day:—
HEADQUARTERS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT, NEW ORLEANS, June 22, 1867.—General U. S. Grant, Washington—General:—I am in receipt of a telegram from the President, through Brevet Mojor-General Townsena, Adjutant-General United States Army, directing me to extend the registration in this city and State until August I, unless I have some good reasons to the contrary, and ordering me to report success and such reasons for his information, and also stating that in his judgment this extension is necessary to full and fair registration, and that the time should be thus extended because other district commanders will not get through before that time.

My reasons for closing registration in this city were because I had given the city two and a half months, and registration will be exhausted by that time. I did not feel warranted in keeping up boards of registration at large expense to suit new issues coming in at the eleventh hour. The registration will be completed in Louisiana at the time specified, unless I am ordered to carry out the law under Mr. Stanbery's interpretation, which practically in registration is opening a broad macadamized road for perjury and fraud to travel on.

I do not see why my registration should be OPINION.

opening a broad macadamized road for perjury and fraud to travel on.

I do not see why my registration should be dependent on the time when other district commanders get through. I have given more time for the registration of Louislana than they propose to give in their commands, for i commenced six weeks before they did. I regret that I should have to differ with the President, but it must be recollected that I have been ordered to exercise a law to which the President has been in bitter antagonism.

If after this report the time is to be extended, please notify and it will be done. I would do it at once, but the President's telegram was conditional, and there is sufficient time left to issue the necessary orders.
P. H. Sheridan, Major-General U. S. A.

SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT. LETTER OF GENERAL SICKLES TO SENATOR WILSON -INSUFFICIENCY OF THE APPROPRIATION TO CARRY OUT THE RECONSTRUCTION LAW.

CARRY OUT THE RECONSTRUCTION LAW.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., June 18, 1867.—Hon. Henry Wilson, Chairman Military Committee, United States Senate.—My Dear Sir:—It is probable, in view of existing circumstances, that Congress will convene in July. It is proper, there ore, I should inform you that the appropriation of $500,000 to execute the Reconstruction acts is altogether inadequate. I am informed that my estimates for April and May are less than those of other district commanders. Indeed, the whole sum was more than absorbed by the estimates for May. For the Carolinas, at least $500,000 will be required.

estimates for May. For the Carolinas, at least $500,000 will be required.

I have applied to the Navy and Treasury Departments for certain facilities, which, in view of the small appropriation, I presumed would be granted, but my requests have not been favorably considered. I understand that the Secretary of the Navy assigned as his reason that no aid must be expected from the Department in the execution of the Reconstruction acts of Congress. The Secretary of the Treasury expressed his desire to do all he could, but did not feel at liberty to make any disbursements for objects not precisely within the jurisdiction of his department. of his department.

It is usual, I believe, when the appropriation for an object authorized by Congress is insufficient, to make the necessary expenditures, and trust to a "deficiency bill;" but in the execution of these acts this course will be impracticable, inasmuch as the principal disbursements are for the services of persons who depend upon their pay for support. I have the honor to suggest for your consideration, and of your colleagues as well, that the interests of the public service require without delay a further appropriation to execute the acts of Congress for the government of the Rebel States, Very respectfully,

D. E. SICKLES, Major General Commanding.

RISTORI IN PARIS.

Reception and Engagement of Ristori-Preparations for Her Return to America-The Play of "Marie Antoinette"-Ristori Informing the King of Prussia of the Future of the United States.

PALIS, June 6.—M'me Ristori has been most warmly welcomed to the scene of her early warmly welcomed to the scene of her early triumphs, and honors flow upon her every day. She is only anticipating with pleasure her return to America, but she is making arrangements to render her next visit as attractive as the former one. She will add some great artists to her company. Among these it is probable Majeroni will be engaged—an artist who takes rank with Salvini and Rossi. Much difficulty attends the engagement of such an artist, but nothing will be left undone to secure Majeroni's invaluable services.

It has been quite amusing to witness the efforts made by the lithographers and photographers to rival each other in making pictures of Madame Ristori.

Giacometti, the author of Elizabeth and Judith, who is the most effective dramatist of Italy, is now in this city on a visit to Madame Ristori.

Ristori.

The plot of Marie Antoinette has been decided upon, and the play will be completed by the middle of July. Mons. Worst, the consumer, is making a study of the costumes, which will be correct in every particular. The Library of Paris is full of interesting details pertaining to the period and the scenes of the play, and the librarian has undertaken to afford every facility to those employed to prepare the requisite drawings for the scenery and dresses.

Among the many entertainments to which Madame Ristori has been invited since her arrival was that at M. Huffer's, the Prussian Minister. It was a ball given in honor of the King of Prussia. It was a very brilliant affair, and lasted till late in the morning, Madame Ristori and her family engaging the attention of the King for two or three hours. He was very much interested with regard to Madame's exalted opinions of America in every respect, exalted opinions of America in every respect, exalied opinions of America in every respect, and its great future.

It will be interesting for you to know how the public at large have been urging managers to engage Madame Ristori. M. Bagier, of the Italian Opera, has followed the suggestions of the press, and has secured her for four representations. On Wednesday, the 12th instant, she will appear as "Elizabeth," on Friday, the 14th, as "Mary Stuart," and on Tuesday, the 18th, as "Mary Stuart, and the 18th, as "Mary Stuart, and the 18th, as "Mary Stuart, and the 18th, and 18

PICTURES AT A DISCOUNT .- The art exhibition in the Champs Elysées misses this year its usual throng of visitors. The Parisian eye has se much to see at present that it cannot spare even a glance for the finest paintings. Czars and kings do not promenade the boulevards every year, and sight-seeing hay, like all other varieties, must be made while the sun shines. Besides, for the same admission fee one can visit the Exhibition itself, and he should he an economic man indeed who would should be an eccentric man indeed who would at the present time prefer the Champs Elysées to the Champ de Mars.

A NEW WAY OF CREEPING UNDER THE CUR-TAIN .- M. Arnault, of the Chinese Theatre at Paris, has been made the victim of a knavish trick. A sharp but dishonest person has mounted a telescope on the steps of the Bridge of Jena, which commands the greater part of M. Arnault's stage, and for two sous admits M. Arnault's stage, and for two sous admits illicit spectators to the performance for which M. Arnault is compelled to ask fifty. This particular kind of star-gazing must be very unpleasant for the swindled manager.

Panic-Struck Beauty.

It is a terrible shock to a charming woman—indeed, to any woman—to find that her teeth are "beginning to go," Never will any human being who uses the fragrant Sozonanr, while the teeth are still sound, make that discovery. Even when decay has commenced, it immediately stops its progress.

CAPE ISLAND, NEW JERSEY. Since the close of 1:66 much enterprise has been displayed at this celebrated sea shore react. New n.d magnificent cottages have been erected; the Hotels have been remodalied; a fine park, with a well made one mile drive, has been inaugurated; and in all the essentials of a popular summer resort, a spirit of improvement is largely manifested.

The geographical position of Cape Island is in itself a popular return portion of the State, an occupying a neck of land at the confluence of the Delaware Bay with the Atlantic Ocean, it become entirely surrounded by sait water, hence favored becominal breezes from the sea.

The builf furnishes a beautiful view of the Ocean Delaware Bay, and picturesque back country, taking in Cape Henlopen distinctly at a distance of sirveed a lies. The beach is acknowledged to surpass an other point upon the Atlantic coast, being of a smooth compact sand, which declines so gently to the surthat even a child can bathe with security.

Added to these attractions is the fact that the effect of the Guilf stream upon this point renders the water of the Guilf stream upon this point renders the water of the Guilf stream upon the point renders the water of the Guilf stream upon the search of the Guilf stream upon the point renders the water of the Guilf stream upon the point renders the water of the Guilf stream upon the search of the Guilf stream upon the search of the Guilf stream upon the search of the facilities for travel promise to be of the most satisfactory character.
