the jury :-

Elizabeth Knouer, being duly sworn, says:--I live at No. 49 avenue B; I used formerly to ive with the deceased; I was with him four years, and four days ago I left him and came to live with Joseph Elme; the deceased turned me out, and said he would live with me no longer; this and said he would hve with me no bouger, this morning, at 6 o'clock, he came up here; no one was in the room but myself; the deceased came up to me and said, "Sbake hands," and I held out my right hand, which he grasped, and with the left hand he drew a rator and cut me over the left eye and back of the head; I became so frightened that I feil down, and then he hastened away, and after running down stairs cut his own throat.

Frederick Smith being sworn, says—I live in First avenue, between Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth streets; the deceased was my father; for the last five or six years he has been living with a woman, and was not married to her; the name a woman, and was not married to her; the name of this woman is Elizabeth Knoner, who is in the habit of drinking, and has spent all the money my father had accumulated as a farmer; for a living he was in the habit of peddling vegetables and other things; this woman he lived with got, besides, $390 from her son in Andersonville, which she also spent; latterly they became very much reduced in circum-stances, and this woman left my father to live with another man in the same house; this exwith another man in the same house; this ex-cited deceased so much that I heard he cut this woman in the face, and after going into her room cut his own throat, this morning, at half-past 6 o'clock, after which he was taken to the hospital, and died in half an hour.

Joseph W. Howe, M. D., Head Surgeon of Beilevue Hospital, deposed that John Smith was admitted to that institution yesterday morning, saffering from an incised wound of the throat; death ensued half an hour after ad-submitted to the jury, they returned a verdict of ceath from suicide. Deceased was sixty-five years of age. The woman Knouer will be around again in a tew days.— N. Y. Heraid today.

The Lord bond robbery, which created so much excitement at the time of its commission, for months past has almost been forgotten by the public; but yesterday a new phase in the affair occurred, which will no doubt be the cause of considerable comment in certain circles for some time to come. It appears that during the past year Detective Elder and Cap-tain Jourdan scoured portions of New Hamp-shire, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Maine, and Canada to ferret out the where-abouts of persons connected with the robaboute of persons connected with the rob-bery, and they succeeded in their searchings in arresting Charles Pettengill, Charles Howard, John Stewart, W. A. Babcock, and John Lynch, and recovering $300,000 worth of the bonds stolen. Last week these officers, ascertaining that a prominent broker in this country had a large quantity of the stolen bonds in his possession, forth with had him indicted by the Grand Jury. This party and, it is said, another broker who does not reside in the United States, no doubt becoming alarmed at the aspect affairs were assuming, and desirous of clearing their skirts as fur as they were able of clearing their skirts as fur as they were able of participation in the robbery, yesterday sent to Mr. Lord $1,200,000 worth of the bonds stolen from him, the owner thereby recovering all the money he had lost with the exception of about $90,000 in seven-thirties and sixes of 1881. The parties concerned are said to be 1881. The parties concerned are said to be "respectable," but it would be a matter of great public interest could it be known who these parties are, how they came into possession of the bonds, and why they have kept them for so long a time from from their rightful owner. -N. THE INDIAN TROUBLES.

Indian Demonstrations and Capture of Cattleat Fort Dodge-Pursuit of a Party of Kiowas-Colorado Scalp Hunters in the Field.

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, June 24.-- A letter from Fort Dodge, Kansas, on the Santa Fe road, says that on the 30th ult, a band of Indians, numbering 156, led by Satanta, chief of the Kiowas, who lately made a treaty with General Hancock, dashed up within 400 yards of the fort and captured 92 horses belonging to Com-pany B, 7th Cavalry.

Only two men were on guard, one of whom escaped, but the other had five arrows shot into his body. The garrison rescued him in a dying condition. The Indians escaped with the stock. During the same night two men came into the Fort, closely pursued by Indians, and stated that the Kiowas were murdering settlers and fund, and offer $20 each for Indian scalps. Over 200 men have taken the field in small parties to obtain scalps.

-At a recent wedding in Detroit, the bridegroom was called on for a song. He cheerfully promised to comply, and said he would give his friends a new version of "Hunkadori." On taking the paper from his vest pocket, it proved to be-not a slip from a newspaper, as he had calculated, but a greenback which he had intended for the clergyman's fee. Imagine the bridegroom's consternation at the trick he had unwittingly played on the clergyman; and imagine also the indignant surprise of the latter when he found only a new version of "Hunkadori," when he wanted some money for marketing next day ! It is a well-known rule of etiquette for the marriage fee to be given and received quietly, without examination.

steam corvette, as a midshipman, was seized by his fellow-middies, lashed to a gun-carriage, and the "broad arrow" of the navy, with which her Majesty's stores are usually marked, was indelibly tattooed on the unoffending victim's nose. The ringleader in the outrage, who ought to have been doubly tattooed, was only
